

Asheboro, N. C. Oct. 17 1907.

Local and Personal.

Asheboro needs more rent houses. All are full now.

The first killing frost of the season occurred Monday night.

W. G. Lewallen, of Tamps, Fla., is ill with fever.

Miss Bertha Lewis has accepted a position with the Troy Supply Co.

Attention is directed to the wall paper advertisement of M. Hammond.

Mrs. B. A. Yeargan spent a part of last week with relatives in Cedar Grove Township.

Mr. Blair, of High Point, is visiting his mother, Mrs. E. T. Blair, who is seriously ill.

A large crowd from Asheboro and vicinity went to Greensboro Wednesday to attend the fair.

Many new dwelling houses have been erected during the last six months.

The mother of Mrs. George H. Crowell is critically ill at her home at New London, Stanley County.

Lots can be bought in Asheboro at low prices and now is a good time to buy and build.

B. A. Yeargan went to Biscoe Monday to take charge of the Biscoe Foundry and machine shops. His family will remain in Asheboro.

Mrs. Claude Ridge, of High Point, and sister Miss Alia Lewallen, spent last week in Randolph visiting relatives.

Argie, son of S. M. Wood, of Salisbury, died recently. Mr. Wood formerly lived at Randleman, where the remains were interred.

Miss Annabel Roller, of Trinity, formerly of California, spent a part of last week a guest of Miss Lillie Jackson at Greensboro.

It is said that the winter months will be used by our carpenters and contractors in building houses to rent when not engaged on large contracts.

If you are not getting The Courier now, send us 15 cents and get it every week from now until January 1st. Remember The Courier is a six-column ten page paper.

Will Reynolds, son of Mrs. J. W. Reynolds, of Climax, in a fit of youthful folly has deserted his mother and home. His mother wishes to forbid any one from harboring him or employing him. He is under age, fair skin and heavy build.

The building and loan association has done much for our town and will do much more. A new series of building and loan stock should be issued and subscribed to liberally before the beginning of the New Year.

The last issue of the Selma News contained an announcement that George B. Craven had assumed charge of the editorial and business management of that paper. Mr. Craven has many friends in this section of the State and formerly lived at Trinity.

Many families in this and adjoining counties will move to Asheboro in the near future, because everybody can get work here and there is a good school where every child can get a good education at the public expense.

It is highly important that every one who has feed save it this fall. There are millions of crab grass and meadow grass which could and should be cut. Acres and acres of grasses and weeds are seen on every hand grown up in the stubble fields which should be cut and the barn, filled.

Mr. Arthur Ross, secretary and treasurer of the Home Building and Material Company, of Asheboro, received an order for twelve car loads of lumber one day last week. Mr. Ross says he is selling much lumber to the local trade, and that more building is going on at Asheboro than ever before. As cold weather approaches the larger the purchases and the more bills are sold right here at home. This shows that Asheboro is building as never before.

D. Auman has purchased of E. G. Morris, the stock of goods recently bought of A. J. Luck, in the Ross Building, on Depot street. The store is in charge of Carr Auman.

Miss Edna Laughlin entertained about thirty of her young friends at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Laughlin, on Sunset Avenue, Saturday evening.

Mrs. Laney Robbins, aged 65 years, died at her home two miles west of Asheboro Monday afternoon. The body was interred in the Asheboro Cemetery Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

McTyre Richardson was operated on for appendicitis at the hospital at Trinity College, at Durham, Sunday. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Richardson, went to Durham Saturday.

There are now two series of stock in the People's building and Loan Association of Asheboro, and if fifty or more will agree to take stock, another series could begin Nov. 1st. By all means arrangements should be made.

Success.

A Boston firm recently offered a prize for the best definition of what constitutes success. A Kansas woman was awarded the prize, and this was her answer.

"He has achieved success who has lived well, laughed often and loved much; who has gained the respect of intelligent men, and the love of little children; who has filled his niche and accomplished his task; who has left the world better than he found it, whether by an improved poem, a perfect poem or a rescued soul; who has never lacked appreciation of earth's beauty or failed to express it; who has always looked for the best in others and given the best he had; whose life was an inspiration; whose memory is a benediction."

CAUSE FOR LABEL.

Editor Joe Reece Urges J. M. Millikan to Action for Damages.

Editor Reece, of Greensboro, thinks our former countyman J. M. Millikan has good grounds for action against the Industrial News, and others, for circulating certain reports reflecting upon him. Mr. Reece presents the case as follows:

"United States Marshal J. M. Millikan surely has cause for action, though it may be one of the parties can justify. For illustration—it is necessary to state that Mr. Millikan has never had time to go on a raid with his men until last Saturday when he helped to capture a blockade still near the city. He liked it so well that he went on a second raid—the raid where there was considerable shooting Wednesday night out on Summit Avenue. His cause of action lies in the fact that when the raiders came back it was told that Brame, one of the men wanted, had escaped and could not be found; then some wag remarked that what really delayed the party was the search for Mr. Millikan, who vanished when the firing commenced; that it was almost as hard work to find him as Brame. But this was an aspersion. Now along comes the Industrial News this morning with what purports to be a picture of the marshal. It does not resemble him in the least; it looks like a man at least 80 years old, his face drawn as if in pain. But as soon as it was viewed, up pops another man and says the picture must have been taken during the scrap, for it looked exactly like the marshal 'enduring of the shooting.' Now if this is not cause for action we do not know what is. True the man making this assertion would have to prove it, but if he was on the spot he might be able to do it. Certainly Mr. Millikan could not refute it, for he had no mirror and could not tell how he looked; he had no time to look into one had he had one. We are ready to back Mr. Millikan; a paper in which he no doubt has a pecuniary interest has slandered him.

P. S.—Another wag remarked that it must have been Mr. Millikan's picture, for certainly it was not that of Judge Adams or Mayor Brandt, for their pictures have been printed so often he is sure he would have recognized either of them.
