Grand Auction Sale 100 TOWN LOTS

Asheboro, N. G., Wednesday Nov. 13, '07.

On the above date at 1 p. m., we sell to the highest bidder, without by-bid or reserve, one hundred of the most desirable residence lots in the town of Asheboro.

It is useless for us to speak at length of the "capital" of the grand old County of Randolph. Every one knows that she has just begun to grow; that real estate is worth 5 times as much there today as it was 5 years ago. This town is destined to be a city, and parties buying land in Asheboro now will most assuredly reap a rich harvest in increased values.

Situation. The property we will sell on the 13th is splendidly situated, being in the southwest section and high and dry. Every lot is a good one with natural drainage, and a great many of them have elegant shade trees. It is an established fact that all things being equal, towns grow anothwest.

At this sale we will show to the people of Asheboro something never before seen there. Two auctioneers selling the same lot at the same time, each saying the same word at the same time, seeming to know just what the other is thinking of. This of itself is worth going miles to see. It beats a circus. Take a day off and come to this sale; it will pay you. You can make more money in half a day at one of our sales than you can make in a week at Remember we do not want or expect all any lot is worth. We want every one buying at this sale to make money and we will do our part to help do this.

At this sale we are going to give away fifty dollars in gold and every one attending this sale will have an equal chance to get some of it.

Every lot offered will be sold no matter whether we make or lose. Your price is our price.

Terms of Sale: 1-4 cash, 1-4 in 6 months, 1 4 in 12 months, 1-4 in 18 months with interest at 6 per cent. Parties wishing to pay all cash will be given a discount of 5 per cent. on deferred payment.

Remember the place, ASHEBORO, N. C. Remember the day, Wednesday, November 13th.

Remember the time, 1 p. m. American Realty & Auction Co.

P. S. This property has been consigned to us with full authority to sell and we are going to sell it - our price -so come and get one.
