

YEARS OF SUFFERING, THEN ROBUST HEALTH.

Great Remedy Cured Skin Disease of Long Standing.

Mr. J. Weber, of 1065 Vine St., San Jose, Cal., writes an interesting story of terrible skin suffering, which ended in robust health when he found a remedy which cured him like magic. Here is Mr. Weber's own story:

"In July, 1900, my face began to be affected with a terrible skin disease. I went to a doctor, and he told me that I had been poisoned, and he wanted to operate on me. I refused to let him do so and after a few months my face was an awful sight. You could see that it was diseased to the bone. Some people claimed that I had a cancer. Great boils would appear, increasing in size and pain, me terribly. I began to doctor again, but no one could help me; large pimples and boils would continue to come. At that time I had as many as ten on my face. I was such a terrible sight that my friends could not bear to see me. I doctor for five years until my funds gave out and I had to stop. During this time I tried over 300 remedies.

"One day I happened to hear of D. D. D. prescription and learned that it had cured several bad cases of eczema. I purchased a bottle and then I got a second bottle. The use of five bottles cured me. It has been eight months now, and the disease has not returned. My friends ask me what it was that cured me of the awful skin trouble, and I answer that it was D. D. D. which healed me."

We know that every word of the above letter is absolutely true. We keep D. D. D. Prescription, the great remedy for eczema, psoriasis, salt rheum, dandruff, etc., because all the cures it has made appear to be lasting. Come in and talk to us about this remedy.

HALL—PUGH.

"A Beautiful Home Wedding."

On Wednesday, the 14th instant, at eight o'clock, occurred the marriage of Mr. Sterling Hall to Miss Alice Pugh, at the home of the bride's father, Mr. E. E. Pugh, on South Main Street, High Point, N. C.

The house was beautifully decorated with greens. The bride and groom stood under a marriage bell of ferns during the ceremony, which was performed by Dr. T. H. Marr, using the ring ceremony.

Mendelssohn's Wedding March was played by Miss Estelle Cranford, of Trinity. The bride was arrayed in a beautiful traveling suit of brown; the groom wore the conventional black. Miss Pauline Pugh, sister of the bride, was bride's maid and Mr. Ernest Foster was best man.

Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple boarded the train for Baltimore, Washington, Jamestown and other places.

Mr. Hall is one of our most popular young men, holding a responsible position here as express agent. Mrs. Hall is a charming young lady, and is loved by all who know her.

We extend to them our hearty congratulations. May they have a happy honeymoon and a safe return.

A FRIEND.

On Saturday evening, October 20, 1907, there gathered at the home of Miss Alice White, one mile south of Climax, a party of her friends and relatives to commemorate the anniversary of her twentieth birthday.

It was one of those delightful evenings in October which young people enjoy so much—when this world is made beautiful by the various tints of the leaves and autumn flowers and by the radiant glories of unclouded sunsets.

The guests arrived at 5 P. M., and were given a warm welcome. At 6 P. M. Miss White appeared, and the guests were requested to repair to the dining room where a sumptuous supper awaited them at which Miss White presided with that rare, yet queenly rural grace and dignity.

After supper the guests were led back to the parlor where they, together with their hostess, entertained themselves in whatever manner they chose.

Among the invited guests were Messrs. Floyd and Dewey Wilson and S. Exton Barker, of Greensboro, and Miss Ione Carter, of Mebane, N. C.

All spent a delightful evening, and each guest left with a lighter heart, wishing their fair young hostess many more happy birthdays, provided that she has not decided to "quit having them".

A GUEST.

The greatest offer ever made by any newspaper

We take pleasure in laying before our readers what is undoubtedly the greatest subscription offer ever made by any newspaper. It is the result of an immense amount of work and investigation covering almost the entire summer months. In the United States there are published about 250 magazines. We have examined every one of these magazines from every point of view, taking into account not only their subscription price, but the character of the reading matter, their typographical appearance, and the financial standing of their publishers. After the most exhaustive scrutiny, we have selected three magazines which we believe we can endorse and recommend to our readers. These magazines are SPARE MOMENTS, MOTHER'S MAGAZINE and DRESSMAKING AT HOME. These publications are Magazines and not cheap mail order papers. Each of these magazines sells on the newsstand for either 5 or 10 cents each and have a subscription price of 50 cents a year. Each one of the magazines is ably edited, well illustrated, and has a separate cover printed in color. They are clean representative standard magazines fit to place on the table of any home. These magazines have been most carefully selected with the idea of not only getting literary excellence in typographical appearance but with the idea of getting to every member of the household. The SPARE MOMENTS magazine is in a class by itself. "Practical" is the motto. Every issue contains something of interest to the children. As the names indicate both the MOTHER'S MAGAZINE and DRESSMAKING AT HOME are also in a class by themselves and these magazines are also in a class by themselves. These three magazines are all the equal of any dollar magazine. These three magazines in connection with the ASHEBORO COURIER make a subscription to this paper on such favorable terms as to show how a single reader of this paper can get the greatest value for the money.
