FEELING DISCONSOLATE.

Look of Anxiety Upon Paces of Republican Congressmen-Invincible Has Faller

Special Correspondence, WashingtonD.C., December 9th 1907.
There was nothing notable about the assembling of Congress, except the look of anxiety on the faces of most of the Republican memb.rs,
who fear that the Republican party
will be held responsible for the panic
and the business depression that has set in. Republican politicians are poor losers, for after years of success
they had come to believe that their party was invincible, and to discover raty was invincible, and to discover suddenly— for the panic was a great surprise to most of them— that the prosperity bubble had vanished has left them with drooping wings and crests. The real leaders are trying to resiscitate them and greaty that a half fee here and greaty part of cod liver oil has no are trying to resustante them and urging that a bold face be put on a bad matter. Even the President's Message betrays this disconsolate feeling, and instead of the bold and boasting statements presented in other messages there is an apol getic vein running through it, which indicates that Mr. Roosevelt was also party.

Druggists Hear Much Praise to: This Simple Home-Made Mixture.

Some remarkable stories are be ing told about town and among the ountry people coming in of this simple home-made mixture caring Rheumatism and Kidney trouble. Here is the recipe and directions for taking: Mix by shaking well in a bottle one-haif ounce Kinid Extract Dandelion, one ounce Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla. Take as a dose one teaspoonful after meals and at bedtime. meals and at bedtime, No change need be made in your

This mixture, writes one author-ity in a leading Philadelphia newspaper, has a peculiar tonic effect upon the killneys; clears in gette clogged up pores of the eliminative tissues, forcing the killneys to swift and strain from the blood the urice cid and other poisonous waste matter, overcoming Rheumatism, Blad der and Urinary troubles in a short while.

A New York druggist who has had hundreds of calls for these in-gredients since the first announce ment in the newspapers last October stated that the people who once try it "swear by it," especially those who have Urinsry and Kidney tron-ble and suffer with Rheumatism.

The druggists in this neighbor hood say they can supply the in-gredients, which are easily mixed at home. There is said to be no better blood cleansing agent or sys-tem tonic known, and certainly none more harmless or simple to use

Trade at Home.

The Salisbury Post in a recent issue calls attention to the importance of trading at home: not for the sake of charity, not even for city's pride, but as a business proposition the Post calls on its patrons to patronize salisbury and Stencer mer. ronize Salisbury and Spencer merchants in the selection of their holiday goods. They may think they can better themselves by order-ing by catalogue from a distant house, but the experience of ninetyhouse, but the experience of ninety-nine out of every hundred persons who order goods from mail houses is that they are dissatisfied and dis-appointed when the inferior articles arrive. Every word that Editor Julian says about the Salisbury merchants being enterprising and selling goods low, and the attractive-ness of their wares, is true. That which is said by Brother Julian about Salisbury can be well said about many other towns.

You could make the United States Senate with a the United States Senate with a small toothcomb and find it difficult to find a Republican Senator who is not interested in railroads, or some combine for plundering the people. We suggest that you do your Christmas shopping at home and do it early, not putting it off until a few days before Christmas. Never were there before more attractive displays of Christmas goods than are in Asheboro and stree in this county. You can get better bargains right at home than anywhere else. While the two and a quarter cent rate has materially reduced the coat of travel, yet it costs money to coat of travel, yet it costs money to trouble and costs. Also all persons liable to any privilege or license tax are asked to meet travel—costs more money to go off me and settle same, as the law makes it a misdemeanor for any person liable to such tax, to after goods. The truth is that you practice any trade or profession without having a license.
