Birthday Dinner at Spero.
A birthday dinner in honor of Mrs. Daniel W. Millikan, was given at the Millikan home in Spero on Tuesday, May 4th. About 50 persons including children, grandchildren, friends and neighbors were present. Under the auspices of Mesdames Walter and Gurney Millikan, a long table was placed under the shade of a large maple, decorated with snowy cloths and fragrant flowers. As the noon tide approached, the ladies began to unload their generous baskets, which they had prepared for the occasion until the table fairly groined under its load of fat things which delight the inner man, such as ham, chicken, pickles and pies, and cakes of every description, but most excellent of the excellent was the strawberry short cake of this season's berries. The chimbo of the farm bell announced that dinner was ready, and after a short invocation and thanks rendered to the Great Bountiful Giver by Rev. Anna Grippen, we were ready to partake of the bountiful repast, and Oh! how fast the good things did disappear. After dinner, groups scattered over the lawn, and time was spent in social conversation until the hour for departure arrived, and wishing Grandma the returns of many more such happy days, we reluctantly took our leave with pleasant memories of the day just spent.

Randolph.
Mary Katherine Babbits, daughter of H. E. and Evelyn Babbits, was born March 29th, 1910, and died April 4, 1910.
Little Mary lived only a few days on this earth, but was long enough to suffer herself very much to her father and mother. God gave them this little flower, that it might brighten their lives for a short time, then to rest it from them that it might bloom in Heaven.
Her remains were laid to rest in Mt. Zion cemetery here to await the resurrection day. May the bereaved father and mother be comforted with the thought of meeting their beloved child where parting shall be no more.
