Ewart Hathcock Shots Fieri-eusly Wounded by gree Gox at the Home of gree Tuesday Night

Being told by George Cox to . his premises Tuesday night at ten o'clock, Ewart Hathcock su that he would go when he got read, a few minutes later a bystander car-ried Hathcock off to a neighbor's house—Cox had shot him through Rouse-Cox had shot him through the head with a 32-caliber pistol the ball entering the check just above the roof of the mouth and continuing its way to the back of his neck where it lodged. Dr. H. B. Hints was hurriedly summoned and stopped the flow of blood, located the bullet, but feared to remove it because of the weakened condition of the nationt, who had stready bled profusely. When visited yesterday morning, Athoock seemed some better and it is thought that he will recover. A more narrow escape, however, can hardly be imagined, for if the bullet had been the least bit higher in antering or been deflected up instead of down, the brain would have been panetrated and death would have
