AND ONE WAS A SINNER. Luke vii, 36-50—June 23. "Puffed up in the company, and worthy of all contempt, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners."—1 Timothy i, 2.

THE GOSPEL OF CHRIST is the Message of Divine compassion toward sinners. All religions recognize sin and propose reconciliation with God—by works of charity, by voluntary self-torture, or by future torments. None of the heathen gods have any touch of sympathy for humanity. The Bible alone tells of a God touched with the feeling of human infirmities; "God commendeth His love toward us in that while we were yet sinners Christ died for the ungodly."—Romans v, 8.

Divine grace has been still further manifested in the invitation to a "little book," to be justified by faith and sanctified by the High Priest's offering of them, and thus to become New Creatures, joint-heirs with Jesus in His Kingdom. Still the Scriptures tell of God's peculiar Love and Mercy. He is unwilling that any should perish, but wills that all shall have an opportunity to turn to Him. It is for this purpose that Messiah's Kingdom will be established with full power. In due time it will bring the salvation for which the poor, groaning creation has so long waited. It will come with the manifestation of the Sons of God.—Romans viii, 19.

A Woman Who Was a Sinner. Who can read the Gospel narrative without realizing that Jesus was a "Friend of sinners," as was charged by the Pharisees? And is not this the feature of the Bible which specially commends it? With the exception of wilful sinners, whom we must hope are few, there comes a time when sin is seen in its true color and is detested. Then is the time when the Gospel Message from the Friend of sinners specially appeals. All seem to know instinctively that Jesus stands ready to be the Helper of all who come to the Father through Him.

Jesus had accepted an invitation to a Pharisee's house. The dinner had begun. After the custom, they reclined upon low tables or couches.

While the dinner was progressing, a woman "who was a sinner," a harlot, deeply penitent, entered. She had in her hand some precious perfume, with which she intended to anoint the Savior's feet. Her heart was full, and tears gushed from her eyes upon His feet; she was dishonoring the very feet she intended to honor.

Loosening her hair, the woman used it as a towel, regardless of the fact that it was considered dishonorable to let down her hair in public; she dried the feet and poured the precious perfume as an honor to the One from whom she had heard "wonderful words of life."

Two Debtors and Their Love. The host of the occasion watched Jesus to see how He would receive this devotion, saying in his heart, "If this Man were a prophet, He would know that the woman is despicable. He would bid her not to touch Him. Jesus knew her thoughts and answered, 'A certain creditor had two debtors, one owed five hundred pence, and the other fifty. Neither could pay, and he forgave them both. Which of them will love him most?' The Pharisee replied, 'I suppose he to whom most was forgiven.' Jesus agreed with him.

Then Jesus made application of the matter; turning to the woman, He said to His host, "Seest thou this woman who washed my feet with her tears and wiped them with her hair? You are the host of the occasion, yet you do not offer Me water for the washing of My feet, as is customary in our land to do to those whom we desire to honor. You gave Me no kiss, but this woman has repeatedly kissed My feet; 'You did not anoint My head with oil, but she hath anointed My feet. There fore, her sins, which are many, are forgiven, for she loved much; but to whom little is forgiven, the same loveth little.' And He said to the woman, 'Thy sins are forgiven.'

It is not this to some extent an illustration and an explanation of the fact that the majority of those who love the Lord most are such as realize their own sinful and fallen condition most, and appreciate most the forgiving love of God manifested in Jesus? Is it not true today also that those who are most moral have correspondingly less love?

This should not be the case, however. The less degraded ought naturally to be the more able to love and to appreciate Divine goodness and love, and the more willing to present their little all in Divine service.

These present inquiries, who is that that even forgives sins? The only satisfactory answer is that He is the Redeemer of the world. He was then in process of rendering up His sacrifice according to His covenant; He had authority, therefore, to tell the woman that her sins were forgiven.

IT'S YOUR KIDNEYS

Don't Mistake the Cause of Your Troubles

Many people never suspect their kidneys. If suffering from a lame, weak or aching back they think that it is only a muscular weakness when urinary trouble sets in they think it will soon correct itself. And so it is with all the other symptoms of kidney disorders. That is just where the danger lies. You must cure these troubles or they may lead to dropsy or Bright's disease. The best endorsed remedy for weak or diseased kidneys is Doan's Kidney Pills. Residents of this vicinity are constantly testifying.

Robert McDaniel, High Point St., R. F. D. No. 1, Randleman, N. C. says: "Last winter I caught a heavy cold and it settled on my kidneys. My back became so painful that I could not stoop or lift anything heavy and I suffered night and day. The kidney secretions were very unnatural and contained sediment. I took doctors' treatments and a great many home remedies but seemed to get worse. A friend came to see me one day and hearing of my trouble urged me to try Doan's Kidney Pills. The contents of two boxes of this remedy entirely freed my system of kidney complaint."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.
