Only Six Me Days to Win the Forty Dollars in Gold

350,000 Free Votes Will be Given Every Contestant For Every Club of Twenty Dollars.

and Pick off Your Reward In the Shape of the Ford Automobile-If You Want the Automobile Now is the Time to Work-You Will Have Lots of Time to Rest When You Get Your Automobile.

George Washington became the leader of the colonies, who rebelled against the tyranny of England, and after the Fresident of the United States, simply because he did not consider his contemporaries to be endowed with qualities superceding his perseverance and never-say-die spirit. He left behind him an immortal name and a history that will serve to show the present generatio how to win a struggle. Even when the odds were against him in the odds were against him in the centest between the ragged colonists and the "spick-and-span" British regulars, he himself persisted and inspired the interests of the others in his fight and won.

The contestants in The Courier's Great Automobile Contest should let Washington's life serve as an example for the manner in which they should conduct their struggle for the Auto or one of the beautiful prizes. They should make up their minds to make a successful race in the contest, and then go shead with the never-say-die George Washington spirit.

You only have six more days in which to work for the $40.00 in Gold. Remember that the contestant that has turned in the largest amount of money on subscriptions to The Courier by next Thursday night, November 21, will be given FORTY DOLLARS IN GOLD.

50,000 Free Votes for Each Con

Three hundred and fifty thousand free votes will be given to each contestant for every club of twenty dollars in subscriptions sent to the contest department of The Courier before midnight next? hursday, Nowember 21st. Now is the time for you to get busy, win the $40.00 in Gold and *everal clubs of $50,000 free votes, and win the automobile.

Chances Equal.

At this stage of the contest of one candidate whose name has been entered so far should consider the they have not as good a chance get one of the prizes as another we might be several hundred or thought the stage of the time.
