The town commissioners met last night with Mayor Cranford to discuss the advisability of calling a bond election for $20,000 to improve the water system of Asheboro. Asheboro should have a thorough cleaning of streets and premises. This is spring weather and a fine time for getting ready for the summer. It will be well worth the time of every man, woman, and child in Randolph county to come to Asheboro next Tuesday and hear Mr. Brown's address. It is free to all. Mr. W. R. Ashworth was in Asheboro Tuesday. Mr. Ashworth is greatly interested in the history of Randolph county and he is well up on it. His father's plantation was west of the old Balfour farm. Messrs. J. A. Spence and Arthur Ross went to Biscoe Tuesday. They started to Troy to pay their respects at the Blair home but met the funeral party at Biscoe on their way to Monroe. Mr. Geo Hayworth formerly ticket agent at Greensboro has bought the controlling stock of the Asheboro Motor Car Co., Inc., and he will have charge of same. The other in the incorporation are Messrs. Clarence Rush and Irvin Cox. Mr. A. O. Ferree has accepted a position in Kannapolis similar to the one which he held before moving back to Asheboro and going into the grocery business. Mr. Ferree has sold his interest in the grocery business to Mr. S. W. Laghlin. This pretty weather reminds gardeners and farmers that seeds should be put in for early flowers and vegetables. Sweet peas and garden peas should be planted, cabbage and tomato seeds sown and other seeds which can be put in boxes. The Misses Boren gave a delightful "At Home" at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Penn on North St. last Friday evening from 8 to 11. Contests featured the evening. The evening was highly enjoyed by the school faculty and honored guests. The United Daughters of the Confederacy entertained their friends yesterday from 2:30 to 5:00 o'clock in their rooms over H. M. Robbins' office. Mr. Brown of Chicago and Mr. Long of Greensboro will be guests of the officers of the Randolph Co. Sunday School Association at a dinner given in the Ashlyn Hotel Tuesday, February 3. At the World's Sunday School Convention in Zurich, Switzerland, Mr. Brown of Chicago was accorded a prominent place on the program. His splendid address in this world's convention added to his already famous reputation. Mr. Randal Frennell who has been a subscriber for The Courier for 27 years and has always paid in advance, remembered his five children at the Christmas season with a twenty-dollar gold piece to each. "The Passion Play", in 8 reels will be given at the Ford Theatre Thursday night. This is one of the best pictures that ever came to Asheboro and will be an entertainment well worth attending. Rev. C. L. Whitaker will explain the pictures. Next Monday, February 2nd, is Groundhog Day. If the ground hog sees his shadow he goes back and stays for forty days which time is disagreeable. If the day is cloudy the indication is that there will be no more winter. This is an old, old saying and many people believe it a true one. Rev. J. A. McMillan and attractive family leave today for McCall, S. C., where Mr. McMillan will have charge of the Baptist church at that place. The people of Asheboro regret very much to see these good people leave and The Courier wishes for them every success in their new home. Mr. J. W. Long of Greensboro who will accompany Mr. Brown on his tour through North Carolina is giving his undivided attention to the work of the State Association and from all reports he is going to surpass all previous records in extending the organized work, and bringing North Carolina up to a more prominent position in the International Association. Mr. Long is a minister of the Western North Carolina M. E. Conference, but has been loaned to the State S. S. Association for this great work which he is performing so well. The Tenth Grade Debates. The tenth grade of the Asheboro Graded School has just had three very commendable debates among themselves. The following are the subjects and debators: 1st.
