Mr. Roddy Swaim, Liberty, was in Asheboro Tuesday and gave The Courier a pleasant call. Mr. Swaim has a flock of sheep numbering fifty-nine old ones. In that flock there are now forty-three lambs, less than three weeks old. His wife now has about 100 young chickens. Last year Mrs. Swaim realized $237 from chickens. Mr. Swaim $600 from lambs and $300 from turkeys. A splendid record. More of our people should turn their attention to poultry and sheep raising.

MR. HAYWOOD BULLA DEAD

Mr. Haywood Bulla died at his home near High Point last Friday of pneumonia and was buried at Springfield Sunday. Mr. Bulla was 59 years of age and a good citizen.

Mr. Bulla formerly lived in Randolph county having moved away about 11 years ago. He is a brother of Mr. B. F. Bulla of Asheboro who attended the funeral accompanied by his son, Mr. T. F. Bulla.

President Wilson's is an administration of young men, says the Boston Advertiser in a recent article. The President is himself the oldest man on it, being only 57. The House of Representatives is filled with energetic young fellows.

Woman's Club Meets With Mrs. W. D. Stedman.

The Monthly Meeting of the Woman's Department Club was held with Mrs. W. D. Stedman on last Thursday, at which time Miss Annie Morning was elected chairman of the Household Economical Department and Mrs. H. E. Moffitt chairman of the Civil Department. These elections followed resignations by Messdames J. T. Moffitt and E. G. Morris. Miss Julia Thomas gave an interesting account of having, by the consent of the County Commissioners, succeeded in placing little Kate Hudson, who was at the county home in the Streeter Home in Greensboro.

Plans were discussed as to improving the school grounds and Frazier Park, communities having been asked to consult with Board of Town commissioners and ask co-operation. Mrs. W. H. Moring, chairman of the Social Service committee appealed to the members to aid in bettering conditions for the youths of the town.

Arrangements have been made to have a play, "The Gentle Jury," for the benefit of the pressing needs along different lines. The Woman's Club is for general improvement and every woman in Asheboro is eligible upon the payment of 25 cents, annual dues. There are 55 members and should be many more.

A Surprise Party at Franklinville.

A number of young people gave Miss Nettie McDaniel a Surprise Party Saturday night, Feb. 7th, at her home on Academy street. Those present were as follows:

Messrs. Lucy Stutts, Blanche and Valley Moon, Bertha McNeill, Rosa Burrow, Mary Belle Williamson, Messrs. Herbert West, Marvin Benner, Richard Maner, Lucion Frazier, Worth Buie, Grade Tippett, Linzy Frazier, Quimby Pool, and Carl Humble and Perce Cox, from Liberty.

Games were played after which delicious refreshments were served. They report a delightful time.

Daniel E. Presnell Dead.

Daniel E. Presnell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Evans Presnell died at his home on Wainmen avenue on Friday at 5 p. m. The young man's death brought sadness into the home. He was a quiet boy and a great sufferer, having been an invalid for four years, afflicted with diabetes. He professed religion a few months ago and spent his last days in happy communion with his Heavenly Father, oftentimes assuring his loved ones of his bright hopes for the future. A short time before his death he asked his sister to play "Nearer My God to Thee" on the organ. He sang two verses and in a few minutes said "I am gone" and shook hands with "all in room" and breathed his last.

In his death his parents and relatives have suffered a great loss but have the assurance that "all is well with his soul." He was twenty-one years old in April, a young man who was quiet and patient, honorable and upright. The deceased was buried at the cemetery at West Bend. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. C. L. Whitaker.

B x Party at Back Creek.
There will be a box party at Back Creek church next Saturday night, the 14th inst. beginning at 7:30.

Upon this occasion Rev. Hartley will deliver a lecture, which he will attractively illustrate with his stereoscopic.

The people of the community are heartily invited to attend.

Mrs. Betsy Tadlock Stricken With Paralysis.

Mrs. Betsy Tadlock near Mechanic had a stroke of paralysis last Saturday night. Mrs. Tadlock's condition is considered very critical. Mr. Oscar Tadlock was called from High Point Sunday on account of the illness of his mother at Mechanic.

Millboro Items.

Rev. J. B. O'Brian filled his regular appointment at Bethany last Sunday morning.

Miss Lula Julian who has been sick since last November with typhoid fever is able to sit up some now.

Mrs. Minnie Pugh Canoy spent last Saturday in Greensboro.

Mr. J. M. Aldridge who is at work near Julian spent Saturday and Sunday with his family here.

Miss Eulah Hays is very sick with la grippe.

Mr. Cullie Redding who has been in the west and north western states for five years is spending sometime with his father J. A. Redding.

Mr. Henry Barker of Ramseur, route 1, was a welcome visitor at W. J. Woods Saturday night and Sunday.

Mr. John Julian of Cedar Falls spent Sunday with his parents here.

Mr. and Mrs. V. M. Aldridge of Pleasant Garden is spending this week with Mrs. Aldridge's parents, G. S. Julian and wife.

Miss Minnie Underwood who has been spending some time at Candor returned home last Saturday accompanied by her sister Mrs. Wade Kinley.

MR. AND MRS. CORWITH HERE.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Corwith of Rockford, Ill., are in Asheboro for a few days looking over the property which Mr. Corwith and his brother own near here. Mr. Corwith, not knowing that Randolph county had a farm demonstrator, brought with him Mr. Meecham, of Iredell county. Mr. Corwith wishes to find out just what is best suited for his land and is making plans for developing his property. We are always glad to have such men visit Asheboro.

Riley Jones Dead.

On Jan. 16, 1914, Riley W. Jones died suddenly at his home in the north eastern part of the county. The funeral and interment were at Meigsonton Lutheran church, attended by a large congregation of neighbors and friends. He was a loyal and devoted member of this church, apillar and substantial supporter. One of the last acts of his life was to make a contribution to his church.

Mr. Jones was a substantial citizen, an honest and truthful man. But perhaps the most marked trait of character was his ever open-door hospitality. In this he was so free hearted that none were ever turned away. His latch string hung out for neighbor and stranger alike. Even the tramp was not sent from his door hungry.

Mr. Jones was a little more than 82 at his death; was married 56 years ago to Miss Mary Staley, who preceded him some years ago to the other world. There remains one son, Wm. A. Jones, and three daughters, Mrs. O. C. Johnson, Mrs. Martha J. Freeman and Mrs. D. I. Offman, also 12 grand children and five great grand children.

ROSS-GOLEY.

The following announcement will be of interest to their many friends: Dr. and Mrs. William Rankin Goley request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter, Margaret
