THE VIOLETS LAND
The springtime brings the violets—a lovely little flower which fills the air with fragrance and cheers the hearts of men. The violet inspired Isaac Erwin Avery to give to the people a production which has been loved and cherished. He described the mission of the violet when he said:
"The late lamented Robert M. Phillips loved the violet and only a little more than a year ago told his friends what he saw in the violet. His poem is a gem to violet lovers.
The violets again—little wet violets, and there is the clean, sweet breath of spring. One would lift his head and drink deep—taste this sweetness, this grateful freshness that is about. There is a quicker leap of life, and Nature seems to stir with a kind of tenderness. There is deeper glow on the faces of children—easier happiness on a tiny, nestling face. Girlhood comes to outward whiteness again—the cool, crisp sign of spring. And in all is the subtle charm of violets—little, human-tremendous things—gentle as love's whisper, pure as purity. Restful, tired heart. . . . Such a dear, quaint little flower, too—simple, appealing. . . . Flower to lay on a baby that has died—to give a seemingly tribute to womanhood—to press against the face as eagerness for tired heart. . . . Such a dear, peaceful little flower, all alone in flowerland—emblem of the world's simplest and best—and waiting to mock a false face or adorn the beauty that comes from the soul.
In Violet Land.
Let's say this is my grave, Jenny—this mound of violets blue, And I'm beneath the violets, dreaming dreams of you. If but a violet should feel the light touch of your hand, I think that I should know it in the silence and the sand.
Dear, don't you know some day That we shall kiss good-bye, and one shall walk the lonesome way?
When the snow is on the mountains or the color's in the cloud, There'll be a mound of violets between our hearts and God.
In the snowfall, in the blossoms, weary feet of one shall roam; One shall watch from darkened windows in the place the heart calls "Home." Vainly in the twilight stillness—listening for Love's accents sweet, And the latch-click at the gate there and the unrelenting feet.
One shall question every shadow, every blossom, every gleam, And shall tremble in the silence at the echo of a dream.
One shall call and hear no answer 'tis the story of the years; Love, that leads us to the starlight, sees the bright stars shine through tears.
Yet unbraid your bright gold tresses ere life's morn'ng knows the night; Let them hide the shadows from me—let them ripple out the light. Let me feel the joy of loving—let me hold you to my heart, Facing fearlessly the future—daring even death to part.
'Tis enough that love has known us—led our willing feet so far; We that saw love's sweetest sunrise—shall we fear the evening star? Hand-in-hand the way together, Love and Life are swift in flight; Kiss love's violets "good morning" till the time to kiss "good night."
IMPORTANT TO ALL WOMEN READERS OF THIS PAPER
Thousands upon thousands of women have kidney or bladder trouble and never suspect it. Women's complaints often prove to be nothing else but kidney or bladder disease. If the kidneys are in a healthy condition, they may cause the other organs to become diseased. You may suffer a great deal with pain in the back, bearing-down feeling, headache and loss of ambition. Poor health makes you nervous, irritable and may be despondent; it makes any one so. But hundreds of women claim that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, by restoring health to the kidneys, proved to be just the remedy needed to overcome such conditions. A good kidney medicine, possessing real healing and curative value, should be a blessing to thousands of nervous, over-worked women. Many send for a sample bottle to see what Swamp-Root, the great Kidney, Liver and Bladder Remedy will do for them. Every reader of this paper, who has not already tried it, by enclosing ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., may receive sample size bottle by Parcel Post. You can purchase the regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottle at all drug stores.
Commend the President.
The Georgia State Democratic Executive Committee, in session in Atlanta on Saturday, warmly commended the policy of President Wilson and sent him a telegram extolling his stand on the tariff, finance, Panama tolls and generally.

YOU CAN'T EARN MONEY WHEN YOU'RE LAID UP
There are a lot of people in this town who cannot afford to be sick. Perhaps none of you feel that you can, but certainly some of you can't for as soon as you are sick, your wages stop and worry and debts begin to pile up. The sensible thing for you to do, as soon as you feel run-down and worn out, no matter what the cause, is to take something just as quick as you can to build up strength and health. Make yourself more comfortable and provide against serious sickness. We don't believe there is any other medicine made that will do as much towards saving your health and thus helping you save your money as Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion. It is a medicine that gets right at the trouble and relieves it by toning the nerves, enriching the blood, and giving new strength and health to the whole body. It doesn't do this by means of alcohol or habit-forming drugs, because it contains none. Its strength and health-giving power is due to pure Olive Oil and the Hypophosphites—long endorsed by successful physicians, the one for its food value, the other for its tonic value. Here, for the first time, they are combined, and the result is a real nerve, blood and body-building medicine—a real strengthener that we are proud to tell you about. You don't need to hesitate in using it, because if it doesn't do all we say it will and satisfy you in every way, it will cost you nothing. If it doesn't make you strong and well again, come back and get your money. It will be given to you without word or question. Sold only at the more than 7,000 Rexall Stores, and in this town only by us, $1.00.—Standard Drug Co. and the Rexall Store.
