

THE COURIER

Asheboro, N. C., April 23, 1914.

Attention, Company K.

Farmer commencement the 29th.
Mr. Geo. Dorsett of Farmer was here Tuesday on business.
Mr. Conrad Horney of Farmer visited in town Tuesday.
Mr. Wade Birkhead of Farmer was here Tuesday.
Mrs. S. A. Cox of Pisgah was in Asheboro Tuesday.
Mr. A. J. Thurber is spending some time at St. Cloud, Fla.
Mr. J. C. Farlow of Back Creek township was in Asheboro Monday.
Miss Bertha Cox spent Monday in Greensboro.
Messrs. Guy Parsons and Ed Heck left yesterday for Cuba.
Mrs. T. J. Finch was the guest of Mrs. C. J. Clark yesterday.
Mr. Will Luck of High Point was in Asheboro Sunday.
Lawyer J. A. Spence attended Troy court last week.
Mrs. Ellen Fuller Wolborn was in Asheboro Tuesday.
Dr. Frasier of Trinity was in Asheboro yesterday.
Messdames C. M. and T. H. Tysor of Erect visited relatives in Asheboro last Thursday and Friday.
Mr. W. B. Lassiter of Eldorado is the guest of his brother Mr. J. M. Lassiter this week.
A large number of Asheboro people attended the Ramseur commencement last Saturday.
Mr. Charles Redding was in Greensboro several days the first of the week.
Miss Edna Laughlin visited friends in Greensboro the first of the week.
Mr. Jim Hoover, who is in school at Chapel Hill, visited friends in town Sunday.
W. H. Moring returned Tuesday from a short business trip to Greensboro.
Mrs. Joseph Brittain and children left yesterday for Colfax where they go to visit relatives.
Mrs. Thomas Lowe of Edgar has been visiting Mrs. W. M. Lowe's family.
Mrs. T. J. Betts was the guest of Mr. John Betts' family the first of the week.
Miss Rodema Cox has been visiting her brother, Mr. F. J. Cox in Lexington.
Mrs. R. L. Hilliard, who has been visiting relatives in Worthville, has returned.
Mr. J. Walter Parrish of Concord township was in Asheboro on Monday.
Mr. W. C. Jones of Franklinville was a business visitor in town on Tuesday.
Mr. and Mrs. John Morris of Bombay were visitors in town Tuesday.
John McDowell is in Illinois this week buying mules for McDowell Bros.
Mr. T. P. Andrews, who holds a position with the Acme Mills here, is spending this week at his home in High Point.
Closing exercises of Shiloh Academy will begin on the evening of May 1st, commencement day May 2nd.
J. F. Manning, a first-class photographer, will be on the grounds of the Farmer High School during commencement.
Misses Irma Whitfield and Lucille Rush returned yesterday from Lumberton where they went to visit relatives and friends.
Little Miss Adelaide Armfield left Tuesday for Statesville, where she goes to attend the marriage of her uncle, Mr. Albion Mills.
Mr. Lee Wood of Randleman has taken charge of the tearing down of the old court house, preparatory to building a new jail.
Miss Jessie Stack, who has been in school here during the winter, returned to her home at Colfax yesterday.
Mr. EM West and daughter of Mechanic were in town Tuesday. Mr. West was on his way to the hospital at High Point.
Mr. Edgar Woodell, who has been with The Winston Journal, has accepted a position as foreman of the composing room of The Christian Advocate, Greensboro.
Mrs. Annie Robins left Friday for Kingston, Mass., where she goes to visit her son, Mr. Sidney Robins. Mrs. Robins will be away all summer.
Dr. J. V. Hunter and Mr. W. C. Hammond were called to Greensboro this week as witnesses in the case of Chas. Hamlin vs. the Southern Railway. Mr. Hamlin was hurt as he was boarding a train.
Capt. W. S. Lineberry, superintendent of the Soldiers' Home, Raleigh, was in Asheboro Monday. Mr. Lineberry has many friends in his home county who always extend the glad hand.
Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Loflin, Miss Pearl Pritchard, Mrs. Wm. C. Hamner, Messrs. Otis Rich, R. R. Ross and Ferree Ross attended the funeral of Dr. Reitzel at High Point Sunday.

The Courier takes orders for engraved visiting cards.
Chas. Luck was a business visitor in our streets Saturday.
Mr. G. M. Redding of Millboro was on our streets Tuesday.
Mr. Rufus Yow's family were in Asheboro yesterday, shopping.
Mr. John McCain of Ellerbe was in Asheboro on business last week.
Miss Mabel Fox spent Sunday in Randleman with her parents.
Miss Helen Muse of High Point has been visiting Miss Grace Wood.
Mr. W. K. Dickehs, who has been to Richmond on a visit, returned home last week.
Mrs. C. B. Griffin of Spencer is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Birkhead.
Mrs. M. L. Davis of High Point is visiting friends and relatives in Asheboro.
Mr. W. A. Underwood went to Marley's Mills Tuesday on business.
Miss Essie Ross and little Miss Elizabeth Ross went to Greensboro yesterday.
Mr. J. C. Hamner has returned from Erwinville where he went on a business trip.
Mrs. W. R. Parker of Greensboro is visiting her sister, Mrs. Millie Brown.
Mr. D. G. McMasters and daughter, Miss Coia, were in Asheboro Saturday.
Dr. and Mrs. W. R. Ashworth of Greensboro attended the funeral of their mother here last week.
Farmer commencement is on the 29th instead of 30th, as was announced in last week's paper.
Mr. Otis Rich has not sold his automobile as was reported last week; he has only sold his drays.
A great many of our people attended Ramseur commencement last Saturday.
Mr. Marvin Goldberg of High Point was the guest of friends in Asheboro Sunday.
Several of our people attended commencement at Ramseur Saturday.
Mr. Hugh Hayworth of Coleridge was in Asheboro Tuesday on business.
Editor J. E. Mendenhall of The Bulletin attended the Va.-Carolina ball game in Greensboro Monday.
Mr. O. M. Yow of Seagrave Rt. was a business visitor in Asheboro Tuesday.
Mr. J. G. Steed of Mt. Gilead was in Asheboro Monday on business.
Several of the baseball enthusiasts of the town went to Greensboro Monday for the Virginia-Carolina baseball game.
Messdames Robert and Lawrence White of High Point were guests of Mr. Lewis White at the Ashlyn Hotel last week.
Mrs. Virgil Pressant was called to Seagrave Rt. 2 Tuesday on account of the illness of her mother, Mrs. Levi Branan.
Miss Rodema Cox of Ralph returned home this week from a several weeks' visit to her brother, Mr. Fred Cox, at Lexington.
Messdames C. M. and T. H. Tysor of Erect were the guests of Mrs. Z. T. Byrd on South Fayetteville St. one day this week.
Mrs. J. C. Cogburn went to Elkin the first of the week. Mr. Cogburn is engaged in business and they expect to make their home there.
There is no doubt but that Hurta has opened his eyes to the true situation and to know what kind of a man President Wilson is.
Deputy Sheriff A. T. Coble of Liberty township was in Asheboro on business yesterday. Mr. Coble had two of his bright little children with him.
It is said that the convicts who are stationed outside of town will be separated this week. Some of them will be taken out beyond the county home.
The roads between Asheboro and High Point are almost impassable. After the completion of the roads east and west this end of the road should certainly have attention.
Messrs. Harry Hannah-Carter and others of Siler City were in Asheboro Saturday. They attended Ramseur commencement and came over in the afternoon.
Mr. and Mrs. Henry Robins left Friday for Laurinburg to visit relatives. Mrs. Robins will visit in Charlotte and South Carolina before returning home.
George Welborn, the barber, received a message yesterday stating that his mother, widow of the late Rev. Anthony Welborn, is seriously ill with pneumonia at her home in Randolph county.—Dispatch.
There is considerable discussion on our streets on account of the Mexican situation. If the State Militia is called to mobilize at the encampment grounds, at Morehead City, our local military Company K will go to camp.
Stephen Harris Badgett is a young gentleman who has arrived at Mr. J. T. Wood's in West Asheboro. Mrs. Badgett has been with her sister, Mrs. Wood, for several months. Mechanist Badgett is on the U. S. battleship Texas.
The regular meeting of the Women's Club will be held in the club room in the court house May 5th at 2:30 p. m., instead of Wednesday. A special invitation is extended to the school teachers and every member is urged to be present.
The following young people of Asheboro attended the play at Ramseur Saturday night: Misses Eugenia McCain, Sue Hoover, McCoy Birkhead, Clarice Pressnell and Messrs. Ernest Spencer, Arthur Garvin, Henry Jones and Ray Hayworth.
Mr. Elsie Luther of Oak Grove was a visitor here last week.
Mrs. Emma Kearns of Farmer was in Asheboro last week.
Mr. Rolt, Harmond of Farmer was here on business Saturday.
Mr. Walter Newby of Farmer visited his father last week.
Mrs. Will Lassiter was in town shopping Monday.
Mr. I. A. Birkhead of Sol visited here Saturday.
Messrs. Elmer and Adman Birkhead were in town Saturday.
Mr. Eugene Marley of Ramseur was in Asheboro Sunday.
Messrs. R. R. and L. F. Ross attended the funeral of Dr. J. H. Reitzel at High Point Sunday.
Mrs. T. J. Betts of Leakville has been the guest of Mr. John Betts for the past few days.
Miss Martha Slack of Why Not was a visitor in Asheboro Sunday, the guest of the Misses Birkhead.
Messrs. Pearl Harper and W. C. King of Star were visitors in Asheboro Sunday.
Mr. T. Fletcher Bulla, Co. Supt. of Public Instruction, attended the Ramseur commencement Saturday.
Mrs. Micaiah Bligham of Farmer was a week-end guest of Mrs. E. F. Newby.
Misses Lydia and Jennie Lassiter of New Hope were visitors in town Tuesday.
Mr. Eli Woolley and son Clyde of Bombay were in Asheboro one day last week.
Mr. S. L. Hayworth returned last Tuesday from Randleman where he had been on a short business trip.
Mrs. Maggie Curry of Lexington is the guest of Mrs. C. T. Loflin at her home on Sunset Ave.
Miss Grace Barringer, who has been in Asheboro for several days, has returned to High Point.
Mr. George Wilson is in town this week representing the Contest Department of the News and Observer.
Miss Lela Hayworth was a guest at the week and house party of Miss Elsie Caddell at Ramseur this week.
Mr. Lewis Phillips and Dr. Asbury, accompanied by Misses Kate Phillips and Annie Asbury, attended the Ramseur commencement Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. John Porter of Charlotte spent Sunday with Mr. W. H. Moring's family. They came over in their car, a Hupmobile, and had trouble in getting over the road between Asheboro High Point.
The thirty-first annual Sunday School Convention, which was to have been held in Winston-Salem May 6-7, has been postponed until September, the exact date to be announced later.
Randolph County Medical Association to Meet in Ramseur May 5. The Randolph County Medical Association will meet at Ramseur on the first Tuesday in May (May 5th.) All physicians in the county are requested to be present as there is some important business to come before the Association.
W. J. MOORE, Secretary.

STILL MORE SUGAR

4 1/4 c. Per Pound
IN 100-POUND BAGS

4 1/2 c. Per Pound in Less Quantities

W. D. STEDMAN & SON

Phone 66

HIGH SCHOOL PLAY.

Monday Evening, April 27, Graded School Auditorium.
On Monday evening next at 8:00 o'clock, members of the 10th grade will present "The Fruits of His Folly," a comedy in five acts. This play promises to be the best thing of the season, and one that all classes of people ought to appreciate. Children and old people alike will enjoy it.
Admission will be the usual price and the proceeds will go to the graded school library or to some other department of the school.

Mr. Alphus Alfred of Randleman Dead.
Mr. Alphus Alfred died at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Alfred, near Randleman on Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock, after an illness of four months. Mr. Alfred had up to the time of his illness seemed to be in excellent health, but was taken ill and it developed that he had tuberculosis of the spine. Mr. Alfred was 44 years old. He had never been married and stayed with his father and mother who are aged 79 and 78, respectively. He was a splendid citizen and was loyal to his parents in their old age. He was a brother of our townman, Mr. M. H. Alfred, and of Mrs. E. E. Mendenhall of Greensboro.
Funeral was conducted at White Hall M. E. Church by Rev. J. M. Pugh yesterday at 2 p. m., after which the remains were laid to rest in the cemetery at that place.

In Memory of Little Leola Johnson.
Little Leola Johnson died at Worthville April 6th, aged 8 years. She leaves a widowed mother, one brother and two sisters and a host of friends to mourn their loss.

The Last of the
W. J. Miller stock
Must go
To make room for
A New Kind of Store
In Asheboro
A Woman's Store
Embracing an Attractive Line of Dress Goods
Millinery
Shoes and Dress Accessories
In Fact Everything a Woman Wears
At Popular Prices
New Goods Arriving Daily
Many Bargains Await You
In Men's and Boys' Goods
The Name of the Store is
D. A. HENDRIX

Asheboro, N. C., April 9, 1914
The Commissioners of the Town of Asheboro in regular session April 9th, 1914, ordered:
That the Tax Collector give notice through both papers printed in the Town of Asheboro, that all delinquent taxes must be paid by May 1st, 1914.
And it is further ordered that the tax collector advertise and sell property for all uncollected taxes after May 1st, 1914, after giving proper notice thereof.
A. R. WINNINGHAM,
Town Clerk.

Eyes Examined Headaches Cured Caused From Eyestrain

Dr. Julius Shaffer, specialist in Optometry, graduate Philadelphia College and registered in the State, will be in Bisbee at Hotel, Monday, May 4 in Asheboro, Ashlyn Hotel, Tuesday, May 5 and in Seagrave on Wednesday, May 6 for the purpose of examining all the errors the eyes are subject to and fitting glasses.
Dr. Shaffer is well known to our many readers, therefore does not need any further comment.

Fresh Fish

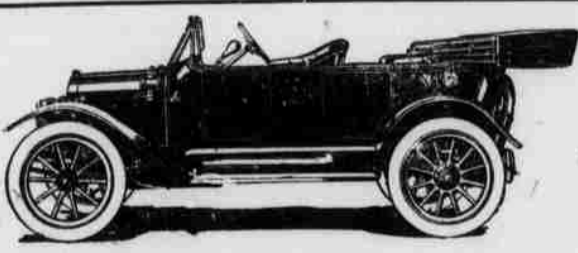

Now is the time to get all the fish you want with very little cost. Am getting large shipments of Chesapeake Bay fish this week and will be prepared to take care of every customer for less money than ever was known in Asheboro.

Try one and be convinced

STAR MARKET

Phone 87 E. E. Pugh

Studebaker and Maxwell Cars

Studebaker 4-5 Passenger, Price	-	-	$1050
Studebaker 6-7 Passenger, Price	-	-	$1575
Maxwell 25-5 Passenger, Price	-	-	$ 750
Maxwell 25-Roadster, Price	-	-	$ 725

YOUNTS-LUCK AUTO COMPANY