

THE COURIER

Asheboro, N. C., April 30, 1914

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mr. J. A. Brady of Ramseur was in Asheboro Friday on business.

Rev. Powell preached to the convicts last Sunday afternoon.

Mr. G. S. Bradshaw was in Asheboro last Friday on legal business.

Miss Alene Cagle of Seagrave Rt. 1 was the guest of her aunt, Mrs. R. E. Spencer, Tuesday.

Mr. Charles Cagle of Seagrave Rt. 1 was a business visitor in Asheboro Tuesday.

Mrs. Carl Dawkins of Seagrave is visiting relatives and friends in Asheboro.

Mr. J. H. Johnson and little son and daughter are visiting Mr. Ivy Johnson's family this week.

Attorney Chas. H. Redding spent the first of last week in Greensboro on legal business.

Messrs. A. R. Wittingham, M. W. Parrish and O. W. Rich were in Greensboro Monday on business.

McDowell Live Stock Company received a car load of mules Saturday night.

R. R. Ross is in Ft. Scott, Kan., buying a car load of horses and mules.

Ex-Sheriff T. J. Finch of Trinity was in Asheboro Monday on business.

Mrs. J. C. Ingold and daughter, Minnie, have moved from Asheboro Rt. 1 to West End.

Rev. B. B. O'Brian, pastor of the Baptist Church at Randleman, was a visitor in Asheboro Monday.

Mrs. Cicero Davis and children are visiting at Mr. C. C. Cranford's.

The Board of Education will meet in Asheboro on Monday to transact important business.

Rev. and Mrs. C. L. Whitaker went to Greensboro the first of the week on business.

Miss Bertha Lambert spent Saturday night and Sunday at her home at Ralph.

Miss Rosa Belle Woolen of Randleman was the guest of Miss Mabel Fox Monday.

Mr. Roscoe Farlow, who has a position with the State Penitentiary at Raleigh, was in Asheboro on business Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Cornelison and a party of young people of Seagrave attended the play at the school auditorium Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Parks of Franklinville spent Sunday afternoon in Asheboro the guests of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Burton were visitors in Danville, Va., last Sunday. Mrs. Burton's mother remains very ill.

Mr. H. G. Mitchell of Star attended "The Fruit of His Folly" at the graded school auditorium Monday night.

Mrs. E. L. Moffitt and children left Monday for Virginia where they go to spend several weeks with relatives.

Mrs. S. D. Scott of Greensboro was in Asheboro Friday on business. Mr. Scott was formerly of Ramseur, the son of Benjamin S. Scott.

Mr. Henry Marley, traveling salesman, was in Asheboro Friday. He is the son of Dr. H. T. Marley, formerly of this county.

Mrs. W. O. York and Miss Annie Kimrey of Ramseur were in Asheboro Sunday afternoon, guests of friends.

Miss Grace James of Star, who has been the guest of friends here for the past week, returned home Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Laughlin and Mesdames Shube Laughlin and J. C. Hannah spent Sunday at Jackson Springs.

Editor J. J. Farriss of the High Point Enterprise passed through Asheboro Tuesday en route home from a fishing trip near Carthage.

Mr. Ross Vuncannon of Ellerbe, son of Mr. J. M. Vuncannon of Cedar Grove township, passed through Asheboro Wednesday en route to the Farmer High School commencement.

The meeting of the Woman's Federated Clubs will be held in Fayetteville next week. The Woman's Club of Asheboro will send delegates.

Mr. Chas. Fox and family are moving into the Mr. A. A. Spencer residence on South Fayetteville street. Mr. Spencer has business in Carthage which will take him away from home a great deal of the time.

There will be divine services in the Presbyterian Church next Sabbath evening at 8 o'clock. Rev. S. M. Rankin of Greensboro or Rev. Mr. Collins of Asheville, officiating.

The Asheboro Wagon Company just completed their plant south of the Southern depot and is ready for business. This is an addition to Asheboro and one for which there is considerable demand.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rosemond of Fayetteville were in Asheboro on Tuesday. They had been in Greensboro in their car. Mr. Rosemond was Miss Louise Bradshaw. She had not been in Asheboro since they moved away about 15 years ago.

Mr. Chas. Redding returned Friday from a business trip.

Mr. Orlando Graves of Seagrave was in Asheboro Tuesday.

Dr. and Mrs. Claude Hayworth of Coleridge attended "The Fruit of His Folly" Monday night.

Commencement sermon Sunday morning at the graded school auditorium.

Mrs. W. S. Durham of Siler City was the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. W. Birkhead, this week.

A large number of our people attended Farmer commencement Wednesday.

Mrs. Albert Oglesby returned Monday from a visit to relatives at West End. She was accompanied by her niece, Miss Mary Vuncannon.

Mr. George Wilson, who has been here in the interest of the News and Observer contest, returned to Raleigh Wednesday.

Harry Henna owns a visitor in Asheboro Tuesday night on his way from Siler City to Farmer commencement.

The moving picture show is a thing of the past. Mr. T. E. Wicker, who was in charge of the show, has moved to Burlington.

Mr. P. T. Harvell of Franklinville passed through Asheboro Monday on his way home from Alfred where he has been visiting his mother.

Mrs. A. A. McKelthan of Aberdeen spent Tuesday in town with Dr. F. E. Asbury's family. Mrs. McKelthan went to Farmer commencement from Asheboro.

It will interest many of our readers to know that Mr. W. A. Lowery of Kernersville is much improved. Mr. Lowery is the father of Miss Lowery who teaches in the graded school.

We acknowledge receipt of the following invitation: The class of 1914 Davenport College for Women requests the honor of your presence at the commencement exercises May 18-20, Lenoir, N. C.

Engineer Stephen Harris Badgett, who is on the battleship Texas, spent Saturday here with his wife. Mr. Badgett came here to say good bye to his family before sailing for Mexico.

Several more articles have been found in the walls of the old court house, among them a bottle each of wheat and corn, a copy of the Randolph Register, now The Courier, a two-cent piece and other things which will be enumerated next week.

Asheboro is represented at Vera Cruz in the person of Hal W. Walker, grandson of Col. J. E. Walker. There has been much interest taken in the young fellow who is on the battleship Utah. (He is on the signal corps. Several of the soldier boys on the Utah have been killed in the fights at Vera Cruz.)

Mrs. W. H. Moring Hostess to Randolph Book Club.

Mrs. W. H. Moring delightedly entertained the Randolph Book Club Tuesday. Mexico was studied and the program was of much interest.

Mrs. J. D. Ross read a paper on Industries in Mexico and Mrs. H. E. Moffitt a splendid article on Daughters of Mexico. Most of current events were concerning Mexico and her affairs. Cream, cake and punch delighted "the inner man."

R. B. Hepler of Old Dead.

R. B. Hepler of Old Dead Tuesday at 1:30 p. m. The deceased was 67 years of age and had been an invalid for the past four years. A widow, six sons and three daughters survive.

The funeral was held Wednesday at Fair Grove, the old home of the deceased.

Platt C. Bowden of Greensboro Injured in Vera Cruz Skirmish.

Platt C. Bowden, a youth of only 20 years, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Julian B. Bowden of Greensboro was injured Wednesday, April 22. He was the first North Carolinian to receive an injury since the skirmish began.

Birthday Dinner at Mr. V. Wall's.

In number of grown people not including the children, gathered at the home of Mr. Martin V. Wall in Tabernacle township. It was the occasion of the 74th birthday of Mr. Wall.

The dinner and the large crowd was a surprise to Mr. Wall.

A bountiful supply of well-cooked food was served to the large crowd. It was a fine dinner cooked and taken by the relatives and friends who assembled to pay their respects to this substantial citizen.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Boggs of Asheboro were present. Mrs. Boggs is a daughter of Mr. Wall.

Asheboro Graded School Announcements.

On next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock Rev. J. E. Thompson, pastor of the M. E. Church here, will deliver the annual sermon at the graded school auditorium. Monday morning at 9 o'clock all the school children are requested to come to their respective rooms to receive report cards, etc.

Monday night at 8 o'clock the 10th grade will give its graduating exercises. Tuesday night Dr. W. A. Harper, president of Elon College, will deliver the annual address. Dr. Harper is known State-wide for his eloquence and this promises to be a real literary treat.

Case of Mistaken Person.

"Does your father object to kissing?" "I don't know. Shall I tell him that you would like to kiss him?"

"THE FRUIT OF HIS FOLLY."

A Five-Act Comedy Given at the School Auditorium Monday Evening.

The 10th grade gave a five-act comedy at the graded school auditorium Monday evening to a large audience. The play was one of the best ever produced on the school stage and the 10th grade and the teachers having same in charge deserve much credit.

Below we give the synopsis and cast of characters:

Synopsis.

Act One—Jack Dunning's Residence, New York City. The Dinner Party.

Act Two—Same as Act one. The Ups and Downs of Married Life.

Act Three—Same. The Shadows Deepen.

Act Four—Six Months Later. Tremont Hotel, Boston. Jack Dunning's Apartments. Remorse.

Act Five—Cowslip Farm, Jumperville, Va. Sunshine Thru the Clouds.

Cast of Characters.

Jack Dunning, A Victim of His Own Folly—Ollie Prentiss.

Percey Ogden, A True Friend—John Moffitt.

Ansley Draton, A Man of the World—Henry Ingram.

Hiram Boggs, Owner of Cowslip Farm—Ransom Wilcox.

William Henry, Hired Man—Roy Berry.

Bell Boy—Sidney Wood.

Dorothy Dunning, Jack's Wife—Lelah Hayworth.

Alice Grandon, A Society Pet—Mabel Parrish.

Melinda Jane Boggs—Virtie Caviness.

Sarah, Hiram's Wife—Lucile Scarborough.

Polly Flinders—Beatrice Lewallen.

MOTHERS' DAY MONDAY.

"Little Americans Drilling for Big Americans."

If the Mexicans could have seen the little company of 51 boys in command of Dwight Robbins and drummer Edwin Morris on last Monday at the graded school building they would have surrendered at once. And the Milk Pail Girls, 45 in number, would have cheered a many weary heart.

"The Paradise Children" was dramatized by the children of the third grade.

Cedric became a Knight. "How Cedric became a Knight" was dramatized by the third grade, the story being told by Master William Hammond.

"The Swing Drill" by the first grade was beautiful.

The exercises bespoke work on the part of both teachers and pupils.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

Asheboro, N. C., April 9, 1914

The Commissioners for the Town of Asheboro, in regular session April 9th, 1914, ordered,

That the Tax Collector give notice through both papers printed in the Town of Asheboro, that all delinquent taxes must be paid by May 1st, 1914.

And it is further ordered that the tax collector advertise and sell property for all uncollected taxes after May 1st, 1914, after giving proper notice thereof.

A. R. WINNINGHAM,

Town Clerk.

Eyes Examined Headaches Cured Caused From Eyestrain

Dr. Julius Shaffer, specialist in Optometry, graduate Philadelphia College and registered in the State, will be in

Biscoe at Hotel, Monday, May 4 In Asheboro, Ashlyn Hotel, Tuesday, May 5 and in Seagrave on Wednesday, May 6

Liberty, at Dr. Patterson's Office, Tuesday, May 19

for the purpose of examining all the errors the eyes are subject to and fitting glasses.

Dr. Shaffer is well known to our many readers, therefore does not need any further comment.

Wood's Seeds

Soja Beans

THE COMING FORAGE AND SOIL-IMPROVING CROP.

Farmers everywhere are enthusiastic in their praise. Contains more oil, milk and fat-producing qualities than any other forage crop, at the same, are one of the surest-cropping and largest-yielding crops grown.

Wood's 1914 Descriptive Catalog gives full descriptions and information about all the best varieties of Soja Beans, Cow Peas, Velvet Beans, Sorghums, Ensilage Corn, Millets, and all other Seasonable Seeds.

Write for Wood's Descriptive Catalog and prices of any seeds in which you are interested.

T. W. WOOD & SONS. Seedsmen, - Richmond, Va.

New Irish Potatoes, Green Beans, Cucumbers, Tomatoes, and other fresh vegetables arriving every day.

We are always glad to have your orders. Phone us now.

W. D. STEDMAN & SON

Phone 66

Randleman News.

J. A. Russell was in Lexington, Thomasville and High Point last week on business. J. A. still represents the Randleman Drug Co., advertising Burdick and Dandy Lich Tonic comp., the best spring tonic. Also the P. A. H. Sol Tablets for the Liver and Kidney Troubles.

Joe Wall of High Point is the guest of his mother, Mrs. Elm Wall.

The Ladies' Bible class of St. Paul's gave the Brotherhood Bible class a grand entertainment Saturday night at the M. E. parsonage.

They served the very best of ice-cream and several kinds of cake.

The Rev. Louis W. McFarland preached the commencement sermon Sunday at the Auditorium at 11 o'clock.

On next Friday night, May 1st, the graduating class will have the closing exercises and Prof. D. D. Carroll of Guilford College will address the school.

Messrs. Thomas Lassiter, John Silvey and W. H. Pickard, all of Hoffman came in Saturday morning.

Mr. Pickard went to Greensboro and was married Saturday night. We wish for Mr. and Mrs. Pickard smooth sailing over life's rough sea.

Miss Louise Dicks of High Point is in the city the guest of Miss Marie Ferguson.

Mr. Clyde Hutcherson of Central Falls was in the city Sunday the guest of Mr. N. C. Trogon.

Misses Routh and Gladys Yow of Central Falls were the guests of Miss Ethel Trogon Sunday.

Mr. Floyd Russell and little Miss Helen of High Point are visiting Mr. Russell's father, James A. Russell.

Mr. C. G. Voss, superintendent of Deep River Mill No. 2, has accepted a like position at China Grove. We regret very much to lose Mr. Voss and family.

Mr. Clarence Caudle made a flying trip to High Point Sunday on his wheel.

Ramseur Items.

Mr. Sam Brady of Chicago is spending some time with his parents.

Mrs. Arthur King of Sanford visited her uncle, Mr. H. B. Carter.

A good number of our people went to Asheboro Sunday.

Miss Willie Jordan of Siler City Carter.

The game of ball here last week between Randleman and Ramseur resulted in a score of 4 to 2 in favor of the home team.

Mrs. E. J. Steele went to Greensboro last week to visit St. Leo's Hospital. Her many friends will be glad to know she stood the operation well and is getting along nicely.

Mr. W. H. Watkins went to Winston-Salem Monday to visit his granddaughter, Miss Sarah Cole.

Miss Emde King of Durham, who has been visiting her parents, returned home Monday.

Mrs. Mary Brewer Bray died at the residence of her parents last week. The afflicted family have the sympathy of our entire people.

Applies to All Counties.

With the price of hay going up all the time and the quantity shipped into Caldwell increasing, would seem like farmers of the county would do well to raise more hay.

If the money paid out for cottonseed products and baled hay could all be kept in the county, there would be a marked increase in the value of money in the county.—The Lenoir News.

Why Not Items.

Miss Tabitha Lucas is spending some time at Mr. Milton Cox's near Pisgah.

Several from here attended the burial of Mr. E. C. Potest at Star Sunday. Mr. Potest has many friends here as he spent two years in this community. He married Miss Lena King, who with two little daughters, survive.

Messrs. Furman Auman and Graham Menice are attending the Baraca Philathea convention at Durham this week.

Mr. Duncan Davis died Friday night and was buried at Christian Union Sunday evening.

Mr. Walter Garner is at home for a while. He has been mail clerk between Raleigh and Charlotte for some time.

From the number of automobiles that pass here we think we have the best road in the county.

Messrs. J. H. Spencer and J. A. King have recently had their residences repainted. Mr. O. D. Lawrence and Mrs. G. F. Garner and Mr. J. S. Hancock have also had theirs painted.

Mrs. H. D. Smith is right sick, also the little child of Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Yow.

Preaching next Sunday at 11 a. m. by the pastor, Rev. J. H. Stowe.

Mrs. J. A. Auman came home last week from visiting her daughter, Mrs. Austin, in High Point.

Trinity News.

The Trinity High School commencement this year was one of much pleasure and interest. After Dr. Turrentine's inspiring sermon and fine music by the choir at 11 o'clock on Easter Sunday, the annual entertainment followed on Monday night under the direction of Miss Henderson, Miss Beale Parkin and Mrs. Norment. The spectacular play "The Contest of the Nations" and the pantomime "The Famen," were much enjoyed.

On Tuesday beginning at 10 a. m. was the contest by the students of the 10th grade. Francis Barker won the girls' prize, Tennyson's and Longfellow's poems, and Joe Parkin won the boys' prize, a Bible. Notwithstanding the pouring rain an appreciative audience assembled in dress by Dr. Few of Trinity College. The choral to hear the splendid session of this school under Prof. D. C. Johnson. He has endeared himself to the people of the community by his good management and faithful service.

Prof. T. J. Covington was a visitor here Sunday.

Mr. D. M. Ballance has gone to High Point and opened a fancy grocery store. His many customers here regret his leaving. Mr. J. C. Pepper has opened up business in the building Mr. Ballance formerly occupied.

Mr. P. J. Brame and family of Winston-Salem spent Sunday here with relatives.

Dr. Osborne and Mr. Little are here in the interest of the hookworm dispensary.

Mr. Roper of High Point was a visitor here Sunday.

Clean Up Now.

This town needs cleaning up and needs it now.

The clean-up this spring is nothing like as complete as it has been at times in the past.

With all of us of the good work, the charity, should begin at home. The trash piles should be burned, but rake up all the trash, leaves and chips and see that everything of the kind is burned or hauled away to the compost heap.

Millboro Items.

Cicero Dorsett of High Point spent Saturday and Sunday at J. G. Ju'n's.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Fields of Climax visited at J. T. Brown's last week.

M. V. Andrews and family of Trinity came down in their car last Sunday.

Miss Laura Julian spent a few days last week with Mrs. Alf Allred at Locust Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Gurney Snider and little son, Joe, visited at J. A. Redding's Sunday.

C. S. Julian of Cedar Falls spent Sunday with his parents.

Miss Mayme Ellis is spending the week at Franklinville.

Miss Besse Hayes spent Saturday at Cedar Falls.

A roller mill is seen to be erected here on the old chair factory site.

Millboro and Worthville boys played a lively game of ball on the latter's ground Saturday afternoon. Score was seven and five in favor of Millboro.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

NOTICE

Having qualified as administrator on the estate of J. Wesley Cox, deceased, before W. C. Hammond, Clerk of the Superior Court of Randolph County, all persons having claims against said estate are notified to present them to the undersigned, duly verified, on or before the 1st day of May, 1915, or this notice will be pleaded in bar of their recovery; and all persons having claims against said estate are notified to present them to the undersigned, duly verified, on or before the 1st day of May, 1915, or this notice will be pleaded in bar of their recovery; and all persons owing said estate will come forward and make immediate settlement.

This 25th day of April, 1914.

M. R. COX,

Admr. J. W. Cox.

Staley, N. C.

Notice of Sale.

North Carolina,

Randolph County.

In the matter of Willie and Lodena Langley by their Guardian, R. W. Langley, Ex. Parte.

Under and by virtue of an order of the Superior Court of Randolph county, made in the special proceeding as above entitled, the undersigned commissioner will on the 28th day of May, 1914, at 12 o'clock noon, at the court house door in offer for sale to the highest bidder for cash, that certain tract of land lying and being in the county of Randolph, North Carolina, adjoining the lands of Thomas, James Low and others and bounded as follows: east side of railroad, corner of lot 116, Thomas' line; thence south 4 west 8.20 chains to a stake; thence 87 west 18.77 chains to a stake, James Low's corner; thence 25.24 chains to a stake on east side of railroad; thence about north with railroad 8.95 chains to the beginning containing 34.2 acres, more or less. Being lands allotted to Willie and Lodena Langley in the division of the lands of Hasty Low and being lot No. 5 of said division, as shown in Book 48, page 116 in the office