

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. Ino Swain has returned from a visit to relatives at Liberty. Mrs. C. C. Cranford is spending some time at White Sulphur Springs. Rev. J. E. Thompson went to High Point for a few hours last Monday. Dr. C. A. Hayworth and J. M. Daveness of Coleridge were business matters Monday. Messrs. E. B. Leach and S. H. Richardson of Er ect attended the commissioners' meeting Monday. Messrs. G. W. Mace and P. S. Seagrave Rt. 1 were visitors in town Monday. Mr. M. L. Kearns, a prominent citizen of Farmer, was here Saturday. Dr. C. F. Frazier of Trinity was a pleasant caller at The Courier office Monday. Mr. J. B. Slack of the Why N. section was here to attend the commissioners' meeting. Mr. Frank Garvin, a traveling salesman of Newton was in town this week. Miss Lela Hayworth left last Saturday for Danville where she will visit friends for several days. Mrs. D. B. McCrary and children have returned from a visit to friends in Randleman. Mr. J. W. Prevost of W. orthville was among the visitors in town last Monday. Mrs. S. A. Cox and daughter, Miss Hazel, of Pisgah were visitors in Asheboro last Friday. Asheboro and surrounding country are suffering badly from the continued drought. Miss Benigna Yow has returned from a visit to friends in Greensboro. Mr. C. O. Fogleman of Greensboro was in town on business for a few hours last Monday. Miss Mary Mendenhall is visiting relatives in Greensboro for a few days. Miss Lura Fullerton of Greensboro is the guest of Miss Edna Laughlin. George Hendricks of Greensboro visited friends and relatives in town last week. Misses Male and Thelma Nance of near Farmer visited Misses Janette and Vetta Hendrix last week. Mr. Everett Newby returned last Thursday from Guilford College, where he was a student the past year. Misses Bettie and Mollie Bonbow of East Bend are spending some time in Asheboro, the guests of relatives and friends. Mr. Basil Brittain, who was a student of the State University, Chapel Hill, the past term, has returned home for his vacation. Mr. R. B. Moffitt of Troy was in town yesterday arranging to close out his father's stock of merchandise. See ad. in this issue. We have an interesting statement of the water and light department of the town of Asheboro in this issue. Look it up and read it. Mrs. S. L. Hayworth went to Seagrave last Monday to be present at the Garner-Lowdermilk wedding. Mr. H. M. Worth went to Salisbury last Thursday to attend the Democratic convention of the 15th judicial district. Mr. A. M. Cox of Taos, New Mexico, who has been the guest of relatives in this county for several days, left for his home in the West last Monday. Mr. Cone S. Ridge, who is flaxman on Southern trains 13 and 14 between Charlotte and Richmond, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Ridge, in South Asheboro. Mr. J. M. Cross, who is well known in Asheboro as an odd-time singer, visited friends in town for a few days this week. Mr. Cross left Tuesday for Concord where he will spend several days. We will appreciate your orders for job work. The Courier plant is as well equipped to do this kind of work as any print shop in this section. We guarantee satisfaction. Give us a trial. Miss Cleo Young, a returned missionary from Africa will lecture Saturday night and Sunday at Neighbor's Grove. Miss Young will have some interesting things to tell of the work in Africa. She will exhibit costumes and tell of the mode of living in that country. Everybody is invited to hear her. Mr. R. E. Slate who for the past two months has published the Randolph Sentinel at Randleman, has closed up shop and gone to Lincoln to assist his father in publishing the Lincoln Times. We are sorry that Mr. Slate did not see fit to continue the publication of the Sentinel. He is a brilliant young newspaper man and we regret to see him leave the county but our best wishes go with him to his new field. The Sentinel will be discontinued indefinitely.

Mr. J. R. Reddick of Trinity was a Monday visitor in town. Dr. C. C. Hubbard of Farmer, was in town last Tuesday. Miss Pearl Pritchard is spending several days at Jackson Springs. Mr. G. G. Hendrix, of Greensboro, was in town last Saturday. The Randolph County Teachers Institute will open Monday, June 29 in Asheboro, and continue for two weeks. Mrs. B. F. Bulla went to Greensboro Tuesday to visit friends for a few days. Mr. Wayne Miller has returned from Guilford College, where he was a student the past term. Miss Kate Phillips is visiting relatives and friends near Trinity this week. Miss Myda Wimpy left a few days ago for Chicago, where she will visit relatives and friends for several days. Mr. Lacy Lewis is at home from Bingham School, Asheville, for his vacation. Dr. H. B. Hiatt, of High Point, formerly of Asheboro, was a visitor in town last Monday. Miss May McAlister is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. E. Carson in Charlotte. Miss Blanche Birkhead visited Miss Alta Brown in the country last Sunday. Mrs. A. A. Spencer and daughter, Miss Mary, of Carthage, are visiting relatives in town. Misses Virginia Henley and Clara Moffitt have returned from Guilford College to spend vacation at home. Miss Allie Hinshaw, who has been the guest of her aunt, Mrs. N. T. Hinshaw for several days, has returned to her home in Randleman. Mr. G. W. Berry, superintendent of the Asheboro Roller Mills, is attending the National Millers' Association in Buffalo, New York. Mr. J. D. Ross has recently purchased a new Studebaker car, and Mr. Frank Byrd has a new Maxwell roadster. Miss Almada Lowdermilk has returned to her home at Norman after visiting friends in town for several days. Miss Frances Walker returned last week from Greensboro College for Women where she was a student the past year. Miss Kate Hamner and Mr. Tom Wood left last Monday for Reidsville where they have positions with the D. A. Hendrix department store. Miss Grace Hershey of Philadelphia, field manager of the Chautauqua, was in Asheboro a day or two last week. Editor J. G. Farris and family of High Point passed through Asheboro Sunday en route to Jackson Springs for a few days' sojourn. Messrs. W. W. Russell and C. W. Morris of Denton were here Monday erecting handsome monuments to the graves of the late Messrs. W. J. and Arthur Miller. Among the Randleman business men who were here Monday were, Messrs. Alfred Beasley, Dr. Wilkerson, S. M. Newlin, D. P. Hayes and Mr. Deal. Messrs. J. M. Floyd of Trinity, J. M. Lucas of Strieby, J. A. Monroe of Seagrave and J. E. Pugh of Franklinville attended the commissioners' meeting Monday. Mr. M. L. Wittingham, one of Randolph's most prosperous farmers who lives near Central Falls, was a business visitor in town Saturday. Mr. C. C. McAlister of Fayetteville, a son of Col. and Mrs. A. C. McAlister of this town, was elected secretary and treasurer of the Scottish Society of America at the meeting in Fayetteville last week. The Methodist Protestant Sunday school rendered a very interesting children's day program last Sunday morning. The exercises consisted of songs, recitations, responsive reading and an address by the pastor. Among those from Seagrave who were here Monday were: Messrs. G. W. Taague, E. E. McNeill, Martin McNeill, B. F. Brown, W. R. Graves, J. E. McNeill and Commissioner D. A. Cornelison. The Courier acknowledges receipt of an invitation to the commencement exercises of Atlanta Dental College, Atlanta, Ga. Mr. James Pearl Bingham, a Randolph boy, is one of the graduates. A series of revival services began at the Baptist church Sunday night. The meeting is being conducted by Rev. Mr. Gregg of Wake Forest. The singing is being led by the pastor. Much interest is being manifested. Services are being held each day at 9.30 in the morning and at 8.00 o'clock at night. Mr. D. R. Graves of the Why Not section killed a rattlesnake Saturday that had five rattles and a button. He did not measure the snake but said it was the largest he had ever seen. His little son was just in the act of stepping on it when the snake hissed and attracted his attention. A large number of the prizes awarded at the recent commencement of Guilford College were won by Randolph county boys and girls. The Marvin Hardin scholarship, awarded each sophomore making the highest average grade was won by Miss Laura Etta Davis of Caraway; and the Phlomathean improvement prize by Miss Hope Hubbard, a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Hubbard of Farmer.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott of Elco were visitors in town last Sunday. The infant of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas of S. uth Asheboro is seriously ill of membranous croup. Mr. Reeves of the firm of Edwards & Broughton, Raleigh, is in town this week. Rev. J. F. Alfred of Franklinville was in Asheboro on business yesterday. Mrs. D. A. Cornelison of Seagrave was in town last Tuesday to do some shopping. Mr. J. A. Monroe of Why Not was a business visitor in town last Monday. Mrs. Miriam Shirley of Randleman is spending a few days in town the guest of Mrs. Flora Bain. Mr. W. D. Loflin of Riley's Store was a business visitor, in Asheboro last Saturday. Mr. W. R. Ashworth of Cedar Grove township attended the meeting of the Randolph County Historical Society last Saturday. Miss Dora Allred delightfully entertained a number of her friends at her home at Central Falls on last Thursday night. Games were played and refreshments served. Mr. Corbett Scott, who has been a student of Greensboro Commercial School for several months, has returned home. On last Thursday evening at their regular drill Co. K, third regiment, North Carolina National Guard, elected T. Fletcher Bulla Captain to succeed E. L. Auman, resigned. Mr. and Mrs. James Hinshaw have moved to Seagrave and Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Hinshaw have moved into their home, which had been vacated in West Asheboro. The Fifth Sunday meeting of the Piedmont Baptist Association was held in the Baptist church here Friday and Saturday. Interesting sermons and addresses constituted the program. Col. A. C. McAlister and daughter returned last night from Fayetteville where he has been attending meeting of the Scottish Society of America and visiting relatives. Rev. J. A. McQueen will preach in the Presbyterian church next Sunday at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. A full attendance of members and their friends is desired. Dr. C. C. Hubbard and Miss Linnie Shamburger of Farmer were in town last Saturday attending the meeting of the Randolph County Historical Society. Federal Court in Greensboro opened Monday with Judge James E. Boyd presiding. The greater part of the docket is made up of illicit distilling cases. The civil docket will be taken up Wednesday. The Methodist Protestant Children's Home singing class of High Point will begin their concert tour at High Point tomorrow evening. We extend to them a cordial invitation to visit Asheboro soon. Mr. D. A. Hendrix, who for several months ran the old W. J. Miller store, has moved the stock of goods to Reidsville. Mr. Hendrix made many friends while here who regret very much to see him locate elsewhere. Messrs. W. C. Hammond, O. R. Fox and T. Fletcher Bulla, of Asheboro, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Edwards, and Miss Mammie Edwards of Worthville went to Guilford College Tuesday to attend the commencement exercises. Mr. Lee B. Durham, who was the guest of his aunt, Mrs. J. W. Birkhead, for the past week, returned to his home in Siler City last Monday, accompanied by Miss Blanche Birkhead, who will visit relatives for a month. Arrangement are being made for a new baseball park on the lot opposite the residence of D. L. Sharp in West Asheboro. A force of men are now at work cleaning off the grounds and it is hoped to have it ready for a game in the near future. As announced in last week's Courier special services will be begun in the Methodist Protestant church next Sunday evening. Rev. C. M. Compher, of Lynchburg, will arrive Monday. Everyone should hear this gifted minister while in town. Messrs. S. Bryant J. E. Williamson and W. H. Pickard, members of the Highway Commission of Randleman township, have resigned and the commissioners appointed in their place, Messrs. R. P. Deal, R. S. Caudle and Irvin Cox. Extensive improvements are being made in the town water system. A dam is being constructed across Long Branch, three miles from town, and a pipe line is being laid. This will furnish an abundant water supply of water, more than could be had from the wells now in use. At the recent commencement of Guilford College the prize given by the Henry Clay literary society for the greatest improvement in oratory was won by a Randolph county boy, Mr. Daniel Robert Bulla. Mr. Bulla is a son of Mr. D. W. Bulla of near Randleman, and is a cousin of County Superintendent T. Fletcher Bulla of Asheboro.

DAUGHTERS OF CONFEDERACY Held an Interesting Meeting Yesterday Afternoon. The Randolph Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy held an interesting meeting yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. M. Parrish, on South Fayetteville street. There was a large attendance of the members, and in the absence of the President, Miss Lillian Bunch, first vice-President presided; Mrs. W. A. Underwood, Secretary. The occasion being the celebration of the birthday of Jefferson Davis, the program consisted of short readings from all the members present on the life of the President of the Confederacy. After the literary program, delicious refreshments consisting of iced tea and sandwiches were served. The hostesses of the occasion were Mesdames W. M. Parrish and Amos Wittingham. Miss Fannie Ferree died last Friday night at a sanitarium in Greensboro, aged 77 years. Miss Ferree was a sister of the late John H. and Daniel F. Ferree of Randleman. Her home was with her brother-in-law, S. G. Newlin, a prominent citizen of Randleman. The remains were taken to Randleman for burial Saturday. Governors Must Obey Law. Gov. Hiram Johnson of California was arrested, charged with exceeding the speed limit with his automobile. BUSINESS LOCALS Ten cents per line each insertion in this column. Six words to a line. No ad. for less than 25c. FOR SALE—Cobs Corn and Cotton Planters for sale by C. M. Tysor, Erect, N. C. FOR RENT—A good 2-horse farm with new house and barn, conveniently arranged, near Asheboro. Also want two farm hands, men with families preferred. If interested, address Box 158, Asheboro, N. C. NOTICE. $5.00 Reward. We will pay $5.00 reward for each and every conviction for every person trespassing in any way upon the lands of the undersigned in Asheboro and Cedar Grove townships and adjoining the lands of Levi Tucker and others. M'ALISTER & HAMMER. FIVE DOLLARS REWARD will be given to any one who will furnish evidence to show that any dead carcass has been hauled or deposited by any one upon my land in Asheboro township. The same reward will be paid any one who will furnish evidence as to who hauls or deposits dead carcass of any animal near any public road in Asheboro township. WM. C. HAMMER. FOR SALE—Ford Runabout nearly new. Cash or terms. B. F. McDOWELL, Asheboro. FOR SALE—The A. I. Root Co. Bee Keepers supplies and hives. L. L. WHITAKER. FOR RENT OR SALE—I will sell or rent my house and lot on South Fayetteville street after May 15th. Will rent only to good responsible party with small family. MYDA WIMPEY. FOR SALE—One Webster's Unabridged Dictionary, with Supplement, 1859 pages, price $5. Apply to The Courier. FOR SALE—Seed potatoes for fall crop. Also about 50 bushels of oats, good quality, for feed or seed. Come get 'em. R. H. Henley, Randleman, Rt. No. 2. WANTED—Young ladies to train for nurses. Central Carolina Hospital, Sanford, N. C. 5-21-3t. HORSE FOR SALE—One good black horse for sale. Apply to WM. C. HAMMER, Asheboro, N. C. FOR SALE—At a bargain. A threshing outfit. Apply to RICH BROTHERS, Asheboro. WANTED—Man thoroughly competent to operate Gang Ripper for Planing Mill. Good price for right man. Guilford Lumber Co. Troy N. C. RANDOLPH SUPPLY CO. wholesale and retail fruits, country produce and general merchandise. We pay cash for wheat we buy and take pleasure in giving you the best of service. Don't fail to see us when in Asheboro. We sell twine, hardware, farm implements, mowers, rakes, harvesters—everything you use, eat or wear. You are always welcome whether you buy or not. Yours for service, RANDOLPH SUPPLY CO., Wm. R. Julian, Manager. For Register of Deeds. To the voters of Randolph county I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of Register of Deeds, subject to the Democratic primaries of Randolph county. E. O. YORK. Announcement. I hereby announce that I shall be a candidate for the office of Clerk of the Superior Court of Randolph county, subject to the decision of the Democratic primary in August next. If nominated and elected I promise to do my duty to the best of my ability and with courtesy and fairness to all who have dealings with the office. J. M. CAVENESS, Coleridge, N. C., May 25, 1914.

Removal Sale OF FURNITURE I am planning the erection of a new store building on the lot where my present store now stands, and I must make every possible reduction in my stock in order that the old building may be torn down and for the next thirty days remarkably low prices will be offered on every piece of goods in my stock, which consists of anything generally carried in a first class furniture store. From parlor to kitchen I have the fixtures to make your home pleasant. Pianos, organs, bedroom suites, parlor suites, dining room fixtures, pictures, center tables, hall racks, rockers and dining room chairs, rugs all colors and sizes, curtains and curtain poles, window shades, sewing machines, baby carriages, beds and cribs, everything for the nursery. All your kitchen needs. I have ranges, oil stoves, several kinds kitchen cabinets and tables, lineoleum. Folding cots, lounges, mattresses, settees for porch or yard, trunks, grips and toilet sets. All of the above at reduced prices. O. R. FOX Funeral Director and Furniture Dealer Asheboro, N. C.

Annual Sunday School Convention. Cedar Grove township will hold its annual Sunday School Convention on the first Sunday in July. The speakers and subjects are: Gospel Light Dispelling Heathen Darkness, Mrs. Pearl Shamburger; Loyalty in Sunday School Work, Prof. D. M. Weatherly of Franklinville; Graded Lessons, Hugh Parks of Franklinville; Address, W. H. Swift of Greensboro; Duty of Teachers, T. Fletcher Bulla; Who Should Attend Sunday School, Rev. C. Stedman. The Sunday School workers of Cedar Grove township should take advantage of this opportunity to hear some of the county and State's most interested Sunday school workers. The meeting will be well worth your attending for the program as prepared is most excellent. The U. S. Senate has ratified three more of Secretary Bryan's five-year arbitration treaties—with Austria-Hungary, Holland and Salvador.

Eyes Examined Headaches Relieved Caused From Eyestrain Dr. Julius Shaffer, Specialist in Optometry, Graduate Philadelphia College and registered in the state will be in Asheboro at Ashlyn Hotel Tuesday, June 17 Seagrave, Wednesday, 17, Liberty at Dr. Patterson's office, Tuesday, June 23 Ramseur, Hotel, Wednesday, June 24 for the purpose of examining the many errors the eyes are subject to and fitting glasses. Dr. Shaffer is well known to our many readers, therefore he does not need any further comment.

Market Report BY J. E. HARDEN CASH BUYER OF COUNTRY PRODUCE Asheboro, N. C., June 4, 1914. EGGS, per dozen.....17c CHICKENS, per lb.....24c HENS, per lb.....12c NOTICE. Contemplated Change for Site of Randolph County Jail. Notice is hereby given, as required by law, that the Board of Commissioners of Randolph county will, on Monday, the 8th day of July, 1914, have up for consideration and determination the selection of a new site for the county jail for Randolph county. The board, at present is favorably disposed to the selection of the back part of the lot whereon the present court house for the county is situated as the location for said new county jail; but this selection is tentative only and subject to final action to be taken by the board at the meeting aforesaid on the 8th day of July, 1914, or at such time thereafter as the consideration of the matter may be continued to or adjourned. This the 1st day of June, 1914. BY ORDER OF THE BOARD. THE BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS OF RANDOLPH COUNTY. By GEO. T. MURDOCK, Register of Deeds and Ex-Officio Clerk to the Board.

Notice of Land Sale. By virtue of the powers vested in the undersigned by decree rendered in the Superior Court of Randolph county in the special proceeding entitled "W. P. Steed vs. John Steed et al," I will sell at public auction at the court house door in Asheboro, N. C., on the 20th day of June, 1914, at 12 o'clock M., the following lands situate in Concord township, Randolph county, North Carolina, bounded as follows, to-wit: Tract No. 1.—That certain tract of land containing 51 acres more or less, described in petition in said office and in deed recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of said county in Book 46, Page 83. Tract No. 2.—That certain tract said county in Book 46, Page 83, of land containing 19 acres, more or less, described in said petition and in deed in said office in Book 73, page 97 et seq. Tract No. 3.—That certain land conveyed by Ivey Johnson and wife to the late B. W. Steed containing 6 7-10 acres more or less. Terms of sale: One-third cash, one-third in six and one-third in twelve months, deferred payments to bear interest from day of sale; approved security to be given for deferred payments, title to be retained until the further order of court. This is a re-sale account of the raised bid of J. C. Blasier raising the $3,550 bid of W. P. Steed to $3,800. This $June 1, 1914. R. C. KELLY, Commr.

COURIER HONOR ROLL. Names of Those Who Have Recently Paid Their Subscriptions. D. M. Johnson, M. C. Bingham, W. C. Rice, G. G. Routh, John K. Wood, R. L. Davis, Milton Wright, H. A. Donahue, ac. C. Kime, G. Smitherman, Geo. Cole, S. B. Brickhouse, Dan Watkins, W. M. Hinshaw, C. T. Varner, J. M. Scarborough, N. T. Groce, W. H. Burrow, M. G. Aldridge, T. C. Arnold, J. M. Chambers, D. C. Stenback, C. M. Dill.