HELPLESS AS BABY

Down in Mind Unable to Work, and What Helped Her.

Summit Point, W. Va.—Mrs. Anna Belle Emey, of this place, says: "I suffered for 15 years with an awful pain in my right side, caused from womanly trouble, and doctored lots for it, but without success. I suffered so very much, that I became down in mind, and as helpless as a baby. I was in the worst kind of shape. Was unable to do any work."

I began taking Cardui, the woman's tonic, and got relief from the very first dose. By the time I had taken 12 bottles, my health was completely restored. I am now 48 years years old, but feel as good as I did when only 16.

Cardui certainly saved me from losing my mind, and I feel it my duty to speak in its favor. I wish I had some power over poor, suffering women, and could make them know the good it would do them.

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, it will certainly be worth your while to give Cardui a trial. It has been helping weak women for more than 50 years, and will help you, too.

Try Cardui. Your druggist sells it.

NEWSPAPER TALK

As you may have noticed, when a man is arrested for a crime, the newspapers seldom refer to him as a criminal until he has been tried and convicted. Before the trial they speak of him as "the alleged criminal."

There was once a green reporter who broke that rule, and was called down by the city editor. The c. e. said in part: "Never call a murderer a murderer until the jury makes him one. Always use the expression, 'alleged,' or say 'the so-called,' or 'the supposed.' Don't forget this now, or there'll be a bright young newspaper man out of a job."

The reporter did not forget. A day or so later he was sent out to cover a social affair. The story he wrote read as follows:

"It is understood that Mrs. Brown, the alleged wife of Rev. H. T. Brown, the so-called preacher, gave what was supposed to be an enjoyable tea at the place that is understood to be her home, yesterday afternoon. It is rumored, that so-called ice cream was served with a substance supposed to be cake. It is understood that the hostess' alleged figure was suspected of being clothed in a so-called taffeta gown of elaborate design. Rumor has it that the guests were attired in gowns supposed to be in the height of fashion. So-called music was rendered by Miss Brown, the supposed daughter of the hostess."

The copy reader was drunk and let the story through. Three minutes after the paper was on the streets a bright young newspaper man leaped from a third-story window and lit a-running, followed by the fervid curses and blistering epithets of a frantic c. e.—Fountain Inn Tribune.

The Canadian Northern Railway Company will spend about fifteen million dollars in the region of Alberta, Alta., this year.

HOW TO GET STRENGTH

after any sickness is purely a matter of nourishment, whether the attack was an ordinary cold or severe illness; the weakened forces cannot repulse disease germs, and this is why a relapse is so often fatal or why chronic weakness often follows sickness.

Restoring strength to millions of people for forty years has proven the real need for taking Scott's Emulsion after any sickness; nothing equals it—nothing compares with it. Its pure, medicinal nourishment, free from alcohol or opiates, promptly creates rich blood, strengthens the nerves and lungs to avert tuberculosis.

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE

Having qualified as administrator of the estate of Arthur Miller, deceased, before W. C. Hammond, Clerk of the Superior Court of Randolph County, this is to notify all persons holding claims against the said estate to present them to the undersigned duly verified, on or before the 1st day of August, 1915, or this notice will be pleaded in bar of their recovery.

All persons indebted to the estate are expected to make immediate payment and settlement.

THE HUMOROUS SIDE OF LIFE.

"My, my, Jacob," said Steinberg, "that is a beautiful diamond you have in your pin. How much did it cost?"

"I paid $1,000," replied Jacob. "A thousand dollars! Good gracious!" exclaimed Steinberg. "Why didn't you know you were worth so much money?"

"Well, you see," exclaimed Jacob. "my uncle Isaac died and left $1,000 for a stone to his memory. I was the executor, and this is the stone."—Continental.

"Why do you sign your name Norah?" asked the teacher of one of the Chinese boys in his class. "Don't you think Norah is a girl's name?"

"Oh, no," was the reply. "American is the name of the famous American who built the ark."—Youth's Companion.

Stout Old Gentleman—I say, what are you two children following me about for? One of Them—Please, Sir, mother told me to take Tommie for a nice long walk and be sure and keep him in the shade.—Boston Transcript.

He was a college professor, greatly beloved because of his kind heart, but with the common scholastic failing of being very absent-minded. He visited her married niece and listened to her praise of her first-born. When she paused for breath, the professor felt that he must say something.

"Can the little fellow walk?" he asked with every appearance of interest.

"Walk?" cried the mother indignantly. "Why he's been walking now for five months."

"Dear me," exclaimed the professor, again relapsing into abstraction. "What a long way he must have gone."—Ladies' Home Journal.

Professor (discussing organic and inorganic kingdoms)—"Now, if I should shut my eyes—so—and drop my head—so—and remain perfectly still, you would say I was a cloud. But I move, I leap. Then what do you call me?"

Bright Pupil—"A cloudhopper, Sir."—Transcript.

Chinaman—You telles me where railroad depot? Citizen—What's the matter, John, lost? Chinaman—No. Me here. Depot lost.—American Boy.

Joe—What is the easiest way to drive a nail without smashing your fingers? Josephine—Hold the hammer in both hands.—Ohio Sun Dial.

Puzzled diner (to restaurant waiter)—"What have you got for dinner?" Waiter—Roastbeef, fricassee, chicken, stewed lamb, hash, baked and fried potatoes, jam, pudding, milk, tea and coffee.

Puzzled Diner—Give me the third, fourth, fifth, sixth, eighth, and nineteenth syllables.—Tit-Bits.

The Boston man was proudly exhibiting the sights of the city to his out-of-town friend and visibly swelled with pride while doing so. At each new object he remarked, "Boston is such a unique town!"

After enduring this every few minutes for several hours, the friend said impatiently:

"Lemme see 'Unique'—that comes from unus, one and squis, horse. Yes, you are right. Boston is certainly a unique town."—Ladies' Home Journal.

"IN A BAD WAY"

Many An Asheboro Reader Will Feel Grateful For This Information.

If your back gives out;
If becomes lame, weak or aching;
If urinary troubles set in;
Perhaps your kidneys are "in a bad way."

Don't delay—use Doan's Kidney Pills.

Here is good evidence of their worth.

M. C. Robbins, R. F. D. No. 1, Caraway, N. C., says: "I was often in such bad shape from kidney trouble that I could hardly move. In damp weather the trouble was always worse. I had a feeling of distress in my head and was miserable in every way. A fellow workman told me to try Doan's Kidney Pills and I did so, being greatly pleased with the benefit that followed. I am now free from kidney trouble."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

DON'T TAKE CALOMEL
HERE'S A BETTER REMEDY

Taking calomel is mighty risky and often times dangerous. You ought to get along without taking calomel yourself or giving it to your family, when you can get a remedy that takes its place. Dodson's Liver Tone is an agreeable vegetable liquid that starts the liver to action just as surely as calomel does. But unlike calomel, Dodson's Liver Tone does not stimulate the liver too much. It gives relief gently. Calomel acts so strong that it may leave you worse than you were at first, and calomel also sometimes causes salivation. Dodson's Liver Tone works well and never harms.

A large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone is sold for fifty cents by Asheboro Drug Company. It has always given such perfect satisfaction that your money will be given back to you with a smile if you buy a bottle and are not perfectly satisfied with it in every way.

SUNDAY SCHOOL AT STATE SANITARIUM FOR TUBERCULOSIS.

The afternoon Sunday School at the State Sanitarium for Tuberculosis has grown to be quite an important and pleasant feature of the weekly routine. The lesson is taught by Rev. W. B. Waff, of Conway, N. C. Dr. Waff is a Baptist minister, a patient at the institution, who after the teaching of the lesson delivers a short sermon. There is an average of from forty-five to fifty in attendance. Up to this time no one except patients and the medical and nursing staff have attended.

All the patients are much interested and seem to get a great deal of pleasure out of the service. The singing, which has recently been added, is a very enjoyable feature, which the bed patients, who are unable to attend the service, get the benefit of and enjoy greatly. A Methodist minister is expected to conduct the next service.

While the Sunday afternoon service has been held for a considerable length of time, a regular Sunday School was organized in due form only last Sunday. Dr. P. P. McCain, assistant superintendent of the institution, was made superintendent of the Sunday School, Mr. M. F. Jordan, secretary and treasurer, and Miss Bertha Bowden, librarian.

Children Cry
FOR FLETCHER'S
CASTORIA

SAD, VERY SAD!

Day in, day out he moans and sighs
And shakes his head in doubt;
His sorrow he cannot disguise,
The country's down and out.
The workman is on the bum;
It surely is a crime
To make a fellow-being glum—
They work him overtime,
And lo, the humble farmer guy,
His lot is worse by far;
It takes two loads of wheat to buy
A 1915 car.
The railroads are in dire distress;
Ah, brethren, it is tough!
For in dejection they confess
They haven't cars enough.
The bankers, too, are stricken sore;
When harvest time begins,
With one accord they'll raise a roar—
And build more money bins.
Small wonder that this patriot
Should be so heavy-souled;
A peaky Democrat has got
The job he used to hold
—W. Kee Maxwell in Peori Journal.

Who Can Doubt Sworn Testimony of Honest Citizens?

Some time ago I began the use of your Swamp Root with the most remarkable results. For years I was almost a total wreck and was a great sufferer. The doctors who treated me made me believe that my great sufferings were due to female trouble. I was so bad at times I would faint away and had sinking spells. Finally a new doctor was called in and he said that I had kidney trouble and gave me medicine, of which I took several bottles. I obtained some relief from this, but I was getting weaker all the time. I could not sleep and suffered so much pain that my husband and children had to lift me in and out of bed. After this two friends sent me word to try Swamp Root which I did, and I am glad to state that the first dose gave me great relief. After taking the third dose I was helped into bed and slept half of the night.

I took several bottles of Swamp Root and I feel that I owe my life to this wonderful remedy. The two family doctors said that I could not live three months. I would have to be helped in and out of bed ten to twenty times every night. After taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp Root for two days I was entirely free from getting up and could sleep soundly.
