LEGISLATURE AND TAXES

Further withdrawals of bottoms from freight service recently added to the difficulties of the export blockade already threatening American trade on account of the war. British mercantile firms owning steamships which might have been rechartered have called them to proceed under instructions to specified points in the British colonies. These vessels probably will be chartered by the British government if England goes to war.

The trans-Atlantic lines would be kept open by the British navy, it is understood, in case of war, and some of the passenger services would be maintained. The ships of a long list of British lines however, are likely to be commandeered by their government as armed cruisers and transports.

Following the cancellation of the passenger and freight services of the Hamburg-American and the North German Lloyd Lines, the latter have notified shippers they cannot assume responsibility at the present time for return or storage of shipments and that their owners must take their own course about them.

Official information is lacking of the report that the merchantmen of the French trans-Atlantic lines have been drafted into the government's service. Officials of the line have not received orders respecting sailings from New York and other points on this side of the Atlantic, they say.

INFECTED AND INSECT BITES DANGEROUS

It is antiseptic and a few drops will neutralize the infection caused by insect bites or rusty nails. Sloan's Liniment disinfects, Cuts, Bruises and Sores. ### $100 REWARD, $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Sleep While on the March.
Sleep can prevail with the exercise of certain muscles. Couriers on long journeys nap on horseback. Among the impressive incidents of Sir John Moore's disastrous retreat to Corunna in Spain, not the least striking is the recorded fact that many of his soldiers pursued their march while fast asleep. Burdach, however, affirms that this is not uncommon among soldiers.

Strathcona's Tie to Scotland.
Among the vast possessions of the late Lord Strathcona must be counted the little island of Colonsay, one of the fragments of the shattered west coast of Scotland. The snug island is the first haven which the storm-tossed voyager reaches after he leaves the shadow of the Mull of Kintyre and crosses the open sea past the terrible Torraun rocks.

Crying Baby of Some Use.
A baby "crying in the night and with no language but a cry" found that language in a New Jersey town quite sufficient for the immediate family, as it was information to the effect that the house was on fire, thereby at the early age of one year saving twenty lives. This ought somehow to justify that generally acknowledged nuisance, the crying baby.

Influence of Colors on Mind.
Colors, it has been found, have a great influence over the mind. A child who suffers from a melancholy and cross temper may not be naughty but simply under the influence of green wall paper, while her little brother is happy and good natured as a result of the blue with which his room is papered.
