

GATHERED IN DIFFERENT SECTIONS OF THE COUNTY

Items of Interest Collected by our Wideawake Correspondents.—Industrial and Social News From the Towns and Villages—What The Farmers are Doing Along Agricultural Lines

RAMSEUR ITEMS

Messrs. Carter and Smith are now at the northern markets purchasing the full stock of goods for the Carter Mercantile Co.

Miss Manella York, of Staley, has been visiting Miss Pauline Smith on Route 2 for a few days.

Mrs. J. C. Marsh and children, of Greensboro, are spending some time with her father, Mr. Y. M. C. Johnson.

Misses Kate Hamner and Fannie Hamner, of Asheboro, were visitors at Mrs. E. J. Steele's last week.

Miss Douglas Petty, of Burlington, is spending some time with her sister, Mrs. J. H. Foust.

Mr. Everett Ferrer has bought a Chevrolet machine.

Mr. A. H. York was badly injured last week while making cider. His arm was caught in the machinery and crushed.

Miss Mary Parks, of Franklinville, was a visitor in town last week.

Misses Mary and Fleta Tate have returned from Bladen county, where they spent the summer with relatives. They were accompanied home by their aunt, Mrs. Smith, and little son, Newton.

Our graded school opened last Saturday with a large enrollment and the outlook for a large attendance is very encouraging.

Mr. Waldo Copeland left Monday to enter Gordon Institute in Georgia.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Brady and son, of Granite City, Ill., returned home Monday after spending some time here with friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kemp are at home again after a three weeks' visit in Chatham county.

Rev. O. P. Ader preached a very able and convincing sermon from his pulpit in the M. E. church last Sunday.

Miss Irene Johnson, of Greensboro, came down Friday to visit relatives. She was accompanied by Miss Estelle Geringer, who returned Monday.

PROVIDENCE NEWS

Protracted meeting begins at Providence next Sunday.

Mr. Norris Chamness, of Georgia, was in the community visiting relatives last week.

Mrs. Rachel Frazier, of Asheboro, is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Sarah Frazier.

The infant of Mr. and Mrs. Cheston Cox was buried at Providence Sunday at 11 o'clock.

Miss Lola Pugh has returned to Randleman and taken up her work after spending her vacation in this community.

Miss Effie Barker, of Greensboro, visited Miss Alva Chamness recently.

Mrs. Exton Barker, of Greensboro, has returned home after a week's visit at Mr. G. P. Barker's.

Several of our people attended the meeting at Bethel Sunday.

Miss Mary Cox, of Greensboro, and Miss Susanna Barker spent Sunday night at Mr. R. J. Barker's.

TRINITY ROUTE 1 ITEMS

Miss Vera Morris, of Chester, spent the week-end with relatives in the community.

Mr. Frank Hill and family spent part of last week at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Spencer.

Mr. W. T. Leckwell and family spent Sunday at Mr. L. M. Parker's.

Miss Hester Wallace returned to her home near Star last Saturday. She was accompanied by Mr. Rowland Byles and sister, Miss Clara, who will spend some time at her home.

Miss Augusta Alexander will return to High Point Tuesday after spending several months at her parents'.

Miss Sue Miller, of High Point, was the guest of Miss Nellie May Elder part of last week.

Miss Annie Crosson is spending some time in Asheboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Spencer were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Johnson Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Leon Briles had the misfortune to lose a fine mule one day last week. He had just purchased the mule and was returning home with it when it stumbled and fell, injuring it so that it died.

WESTERN RANDOLPH NEWS

Miss Epie Woolen, of Randleman, is visiting Mrs. F. C. Frazier.

Mr. D. T. Black spent last week at Liberty.

Mr. Carl Humble, of Franklinville, visited Mr. John Black last week.

Mr. Dan Proctor died last Sunday and was buried at Prospect Monday.

Dr. F. C. Frazier spent Saturday in Davidson county.

Miss Ethel Reddick and Mrs. Minnie Hester spent Sunday with friends in Guilford county.

Prof. W. L. Kennedy closed his singing at Oak Hill Sunday.

Miss Annie Bell Lambeth left last week for Charlotte where she will teach in the graded school.

Mrs. Sid Lambeth, of Charlotte, visited at the home of Mr. B. S. Lambeth last week.

Mrs. John Maner, of Thomasville, was the guest of Mrs. D. T. Black Sunday.

Rev. Raper will begin a protracted meeting at Hopewell this week.

Mrs. William Ward is in Greensboro for an operation for the eye.

Mrs. Clark March, who has been ill, is improving.

Mr. Addison Black visited in Franklinville last week.

Miss Mary Kennedy of Star, spent some time at Mr. A. W. Reddick's last week.

GRAY'S CHAPEL NEWS

Most of our farmers are breaking wheat land since the rain last week.

John Linsberry threshed 18,000 bushels of wheat and oats this season instead of 1800 as stated in our items last week.

Mrs. Ed Carter went to Greensboro last week to buy goods.

Mrs. Rebecca Foust, aged 70 years, died on the 27th, following a stroke of paralysis. She leaves two children, John Foust, of Pleasant Garden, and Mrs. Will Linsberry, of this neighborhood.

Mrs. Jane Routh is quite sick at this writing.

FRANKLINVILLE NEWS

Rev. O. P. Ader has been on a short vacation and has been spending the time with his wife who is ill at the home of her brother in the hill country. He was again in his pulpit Sunday morning and delivered two interesting sermons on the general rules of the Methodist church.

Mr. Elmer Honeycutt, of White Oak, spent the week-end in town.

Messrs. J. L. Lutterloh, W. S. Bale, Worth Bale and W. A. Grimes made a trip to Asheboro one day last week.

Rev. J. H. Bowman preached at Fairmount Sunday night.

Messrs. W. P. Mullican and C. M. Jones have leased the S. B. Kersey lumber plant on Brush creek and are manufacturing doors, sash and building material.

Mr. Rudolph Craven is erecting a nice residence on the tract of land recently purchased of Rev. J. F. Allred near W. C. Jones' wagon shops.

Miss Thelma Jennings, of Worthville, spent Sunday at Mr. M. W. Free's.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Free, of Cedar Falls, visited Mrs. J. V. Free Sunday.

Mrs. W. C. Burow is on the sick list this week.

Mrs. Fannie Parks Cox and son, Randolph, of Plainfield, Ind., are visiting relatives in the city.

Franklinville base ball nine crossed bats with Ramseur Saturday afternoon at Ramseur. The game resulted in a score of 13 to 9 in favor of Franklinville. Worthville will play Franklinville here next Saturday afternoon.

Miss Berta Ellison left Monday morning for Hillsboro, where she goes to take up her work as a deaconess in the M. E. church. Miss Ellison is well prepared for the work and the congregation of that church is to be congratulated on securing her services.

Mr. Lester Trogdon, of Pee Dee, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. U. Trogdon.

Mr. Ernest Elliott, of Marion, is the guest of his grandmother, Mrs. Jane Elliott.

A force of hands are tearing away the old depot to make room for a new one which will be erected in a few weeks.

The third quarterly conference of the M. E. Church for Franklinville and Ramseur charge will be held at Ramseur Monday and Tuesday night, Sept. 7. Those who owe anything on the preacher's salary are asked to hand it to one of the stewards before Monday morning.

Mr. L. M. Curtis and Miss Bernice Pilkenton were married at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Callie Pilkenton last Wednesday evening. Rev. J. D. Hackney officiating. Mr. Curtis is a son of the late Reno Curtis and is one of the best farmers of this section. The bride is the popular daughter of Mrs. Callie Pilkenton and has many friends here who are extending their congratulations to the young couple.

RANDLEMAN NEWS

Mr. Rufus Yow and son were in town one day last week shopping.

Miss Lola Pugh has returned from a two weeks' vacation and again taken up her work as clerk at the Hayes Store.

Mr. R. P. Deal and family spent the week-end in Hickory.

Mr. L. W. Laughlin has a stalk of corn that has 8 full grown ears of corn on it. His corn runs from one to three ears to the stalk.

Mrs. W. T. Herring, of Atlanta, Ga., visited her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Pugh last week. She left Saturday for Spartanburg, S. C.

Messrs. Dwight Wrike and Lafayette Russell, of White Oak, came down and spent the week-end in town.

Mr. and Mrs. George Trogdon and family and Mr. Barringer, of White Oak, Greensboro, came through town last week en route to the home of Mr. Harris Trogdon, south of Asheboro. They spent a short time in Randleman with Messrs. J. D. Hinchshaw and J. A. Russell.

The New Salem Sunday School held a rally for their children last Sunday.

Rev. C. H. Christenbery preached a fine sermon to the Jr. O. U. A. M. and Daughters of Liberty last Sunday at 11 o'clock.

Master Roy Russell, of High Point, came down Saturday and remained with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James Russell over Sunday.

Mr. B. B. Brady, a Confederate soldier, and a highly respected old man, passed away Saturday morning. He was buried at Giles Chapel.

Messrs. E. W. Russell, A. Sutcliffe and W. F. Tally took in the excursion to Norfolk last week.

Mrs. Byars, the mother of Paul Byars, came in Saturday night but got here too late to see her son before he died. She left her daughter at the point of death to come to see her son, who was killed last week by Isaac Randolph.

Miss Amanda Ferguson, of High Point, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Walton.

Mr. John Prevo, of Thomasville, was in town Monday.

Dr. and Mrs. D. E. Matthews and

MILLBORO ITEMS

Mrs. V. M. Aldridge, of Pleasant Garden, is spending some time with her parents here.

Misses Laura Julian and Eula Hayes spent a few days last week in High Point.

Mr. Gurney Hayes, of Cheraw, S. C., is visiting here.

Miss Minnie Underwood was the guest of relatives at Pleasant Garden a few days last week.

Misses Mayme and Mildred Ellis spent Saturday night with Miss Minnie Bristow near Cedar Falls.

Millboro and Lineberry ball teams crossed bats on the latter's ground Saturday afternoon, the score being 7 to 3 in favor of Millboro.

There will be an all day song service at Bethany next Sunday at the closing of the singing taught by Prof. Pentress, of Pleasant Garden. The public is invited.

FALL COVER CROPS

It will soon be time for your fall cover crops to be put in. This should not be neglected. Every farm ought to have part of its cultivated land under a cover crop each year. Crimson clover seed are getting out of sight so you had better get your crimson clover seed just as soon as possible. Burr clover and vetch seed can still be secured at reasonable prices.

BIG AUCTION SALE VALUABLE REAL ESTATE

RAMSEUR, N. C. SATURDAY, SEPT. 5th 10:30 A. M.

On the above date, we will sell regardless of price to the highest bidders about 35 choice lots, one store house and lot and one good dwelling house and lot in the thriving town of Ramseur, N. C.

This is some of the most valuable property in town and if you wish to make a good investment or buy a home-you can't go wrong in buying at this big sale.

Music by big brass band. Many valuable prizes given away and a big time for all who attend-COME.

American Realty & Auction Company
Greensboro, N. C.
J. S. BURTON, Local Representative
Ramseur, N. C.

ASHEBORO FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 18
Street Parade 10:30 A. M.

MORAL, ENTERTAINING AND INSTRUCTIVE.

SPARKS

WORLD-FAMOUS SHOWS

25 YEARS OF HONEST DEALING WITH THE PUBLIC.

A TREMENDOUS EXHIBITION OF WEALTH AND SPLENDOR

PERFECT SPECIMENS OF THE EARTH'S MOST CURIOUS CREATURES GATHERED TOGETHER INTO ONE IMMENSE MENAGERIE

THE CHAMPIONS OF ALL COUNTRIES COMPETE IN FEATS OF DARING AND GRACE.

THE PRINCELY SALARIES PAID BY THIS MAMMOTH ENTERPRISE HAVE DRAWN ALL EUROPE OF THEIR MOST VALUABLE ARTISTS.

"MARY"

THE LARGEST LIVING LAND ANIMAL ON EARTH

3 INCHES TALLER THAN JUMBO AND WEIGHING OVER 5 TONS.

A POSITIVE FEATURE AT EACH EXHIBITION

TWO PERFORMANCES DAILY-RAIN OR SHINE 2 AND 8 O'CLOCK

DOORS TO MENAGERIE OPEN 1 HOUR EARLIER

5000 SEATS THAT WILL COMFORTABLY SEAT 5000 PEOPLE.

TENTS THAT ARE POSITIVELY WATERPROOF.

TWO TRAINS OF MONSTER RAILWAY CARS.

A GRAND, FREE STREET PARADE DAILY AT 10:30 A. M.

20 FUNNY CLOWNS