SEVERE PUNISHMENT
 Of Mrs. Chappell, of Five Years' Standing, Relieved by Cardui.

Mt. Airy, N. C.—Mrs. Sarah M. Chappell of this town, says: "I suffered for five years with womanly troubles, also stomach troubles, and my punishment was more than any one could tell. I tried most every kind of medicine, but none did me any good. I read one day about Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I decided to try it. I had not taken but about six bottles until I was almost cured. It did me more good than all the other medicines I had tried, put together. My friends began asking me why I looked so well, and I told them about Cardui. Several are now taking it." Do you, lady reader, suffer from any of the ailments due to womanly trouble, such as headache, backache, sideache, sleeplessness, and that everlasting tired feeling? If so, let us urge you to give Cardui a trial. We feel confident it will help you, just as it has a million other women in the past half century. Begin taking Cardui to-day. You won't regret it. ENDORSES THE AMENDMENTS
 Hon. A. W. Graham, of Oxford, Issues Statement Favoring Their Adoption

Speaking of the Constitutional amendments, Hon. A. W. Graham, of Oxford, ex-Speaker of the House and one of the most experienced and studious of North Carolina Legislators, has the following to say: "Having been prepared by a Constitutional Commission composed almost entirely of Democrats, and having been adopted by an overwhelming majority of more than three-fourths, I thought our party could well afford to commend the Constitutional amendments to the people of the state. "That our laws in regard to assessment of property and collection of taxes are ineffective, or the whole system is radically wrong, is admitted by every one. Surely no harm can come by giving future Legislatures the opportunity to examine the whole subject, and if in their wisdom they can devise a better system, allowing them to adopt it. No taxpayer can be injured, for the rate of taxation for towns and cities is limited to 75 cents on the one hundred dollars, and for state and county purposes to 66 2-3 cents. I think the people are entitled to the improved system, that would be permitted by the amendments. "The amendments other than that relating to taxation, are all good, unless it be the one relating to an emergency judge. We have enough judges now, but as so large a majority of the Legislature and the Commission recommend it, I shall not oppose it."

WHY NOT PUBLISH IT?

When you want a fact to become generally known, the right way is to publish it. Mrs. Joseph Kallans, Peru, Ind., was troubled with belching, sour stomach, and frequent headaches. She writes, "I feel it my duty to tell others what Chamberlain's Tablets have done for me. They have helped my digestion and regulated my bowels. Since using them I have been entirely well." DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional treatment. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(By E. O. SELLERS, Acting Director Sunday School Course, Moody Bible Institute, Chicago.)

LESSON FOR NOVEMBER 1
ARREST AND TRIAL OF JESUS.

LESSON TEXT—Matt. 26:57-68. Include also, vv. 47-56.
GOLDEN TEXT—As a lamb is led to the slaughter, and as a sheep before its shearers is dumb, so he opened not his mouth.—Isa. 53:7 R. V.

The golden text selected for this lesson is apt to convey to us a wrong idea of the closing days of our Lord's life. Jesus did not die as a sheep in the shambles. His was not the death of one slaughtered in weakness. He was "led," that is true; he was "slaughtered" but not until his hour had arrived and he permitted it to be so. His death was a victory, not a defeat.

In Gethsemane Jesus made his final dedication of himself to his victorious work of redemption.
 I. The Betraying Judas, vv. 47-50. In this hour of consecration Judas enters, guiding the mob into the sacred precincts of our Lord's retreat. It has been suggested that perhaps this act of betrayal was in order to precipitate the Messianic claims of Jesus and compel him to assume an earthly triumph. If so, was not the motive of Judas a selfish one, that he might profit thereby? The baseness of his unholy compact is soon to be revealed to Judas and to the world. The kiss of Judas delivered Jesus into the hands of lawless men according to the determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God, Acts 2:23. This furnishes us the background, the atmosphere, in which to consider this, the first of his several trials.
 Wickedness of Judas.

II. The Blundering Peter, vv. 51-58. (1) Peter and the sword, vv. 51-55. Peter had knowledge and zeal, but used his zeal not according to knowledge. Jesus had warned him, only to receive the assurance that he was mistaken. The words of Jesus here recorded are a calm assurance of the fact that these events are not being controlled by man but by God. The wickedness of Judas is being worked out in the plan of redemption. If fighting were the program, what would Peter's puny sword amount to? For the asking Jesus could command 12 legions of angels, yet even such a force could not be used in human redemption. One man, the God-man, must die, Rom. 5:15. Notice the Master's acceptance of the Scriptures, v. 54. If by the sword he were to escape, how could these be fulfilled? Matthew adds (v. 55) that all of this "come to pass" that the words of the prophets be fulfilled. (2) Peter and the maid, vv. 56-58. That Peter should follow "afar" or at all, is evidence of his affection for Jesus and of his determination to see the end. There was perhaps an element of pride also in his going, for the others had "forsaken him and fled." They seem to have realized that his enemies would now surely destroy Jesus and further that he was determined not to accept any deliverance.

III. The Biased, Brutal Judges, vv. 59-68. This is one of earth's most irregular and illegal trials. The priests and the council had one single determination, which was to find Jesus guilty. They did not seek to discover the truth, but rather to carry out the sentence of death previously determined upon.

Faith Testimony.
 A careful reading of what Christ really did say and what these witnesses swore that he said, reveals the falseness of their testimony, v. 61, see also John 2:9. "I am able to destroy the temple of God, and to rebuild it in three days" were not his words. What he did say was, "Destroy this temple and I will raise it up." He spoke these words of himself about those who should destroy him—his body—and claimed the power to raise that body again within three days. At this point the high priest did another illegal thing in administering the legal oath, "I adjure thee" (v. 63). Not alone was the time and place of this trial illegal, but so was this act on the part of the high priest. But, that all might once more know the truth, Jesus replied "Thou hast said" and adds, "Henceforth ye shall see the son of man sitting at the right hand of power and coming on the clouds of heaven" (v. 64). This addition augmented the high priest's anger and gave him argument for the definite accusation of blasphemy, and upon this charge he makes his appeal to the council. They readily voted a verdict of guilty (v. 66). Once declared guilty Jesus is heaped with the basest of indignities (vv. 67, 68).

Judas with his baseness and treachery; Peter and his blundering devotion; the disciples and their blind fear as they fled away; and at the end of it all, this revelation of the supreme depravity of the rulers: what an appalling combination, see Isa. 5:7. With all of this dark background there is, however, an evidence of the grace of God. Jesus voluntarily and with determination, submission and patience, endured these indignities for us and with calmness and strength pursued his onward way to Calvary and on through the grave to his victory over sin and death.

LADIES! LOOK YOUNG, DARKEN GRAY HAIR

Use Grandma's Sage Tea and Sulphur Recipe and nobody can tell. Brush it through hair.

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks dry, wispy and scraggly, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred-fold. Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the tonic at home or get from any drug store a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully and removes dandruff, stops scalp itching and falling hair; besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens, so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.

THREE THINGS PROVED
 So far as the returns from Maine election have a national significance, they prove three things:
 1. That President Wilson and his administration are stronger than ever.
 2. That there is no popular revolt against the new Democratic tariff.
 3. That the Progressive party is disintegrating and its members returning to the Republican party.

There were two issues in the campaign upon which the Republicans and Progressives were thoroughly in accord—their opposition to the Wilson-Simmons tariff act. On those issues Mr. Roosevelt, Senator Borah, former Vice-President Fairbanks, former Representative McCall and all the other campaign speakers of both the Republican and Progressive parties were in complete harmony. With three tickets in the field it was to have been expected that the Democrats had an even chance to elect their candidates for Governor and state officers but they have done much better than that. They have not only held the Congressmen elected in 1912 but they have increased their majority in the Legislature, and their total vote shows a gain of 11,000 over the total vote for Mr. Wilson two years ago.

It is difficult to make just comparisons from the Maine returns, because there was a Republican-Progressive fusion on the state ticket in 1912, and the Presidential vote in November if that year was much smaller than the vote for state officers and Congressmen in September. But it is plain that the Democrats have more than held their own in an off-year election, when the tide ought to be running against them at its strongest. It is also plain that public confidence in President Wilson's leadership has intensified rather than weakened. But all the ejection over the Maine returns cannot be monopolized by the Democrats. The dwindling Progressive vote must be generally encouraging to the Republicans, especially as Mr. Roosevelt took personal charge of the state campaign. With a decrease of approximately 30,000 in the Progressive vote and a corresponding increase in the Republican vote, it is apparent that the third term party is rapidly crumbling to pieces. It will still serve to divide the anti-Democratic vote in many places in November, but all hope of re-assembling the fragments into a militant political organization must soon be abandoned. —New York World.

JUDGE PRITCHARD APPROVES

Speaks Out in Behalf of the Entire Ten Amendments.
 Judge J. C. Pritchard, of the U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals, has written Chairman Bailey, of the Amendment Campaign Committee, as follows:
 "Replying to your esteemed favor of recent date in regard to the proposed amendments to our Constitution, I beg to say that I have examined the same with considerable care. The proposed amendments are in line with the progress that the state is making, and I will, therefore, take great pleasure in voting for them."

Makes Stubborn Coughs Vanish in a Hurry

Surprisingly Good Cough Syrup
 Easily and Cheaply
 Made at Home

If some one in your family has an obstinate cough or a bad throat or chest cold that has been hanging on and refuses to yield to treatment, get from any drug store 2½ ounces of Pinex and make it into a pint of cough syrup, and watch that cough vanish.

Four the 2½ ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth) into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. The total cost is about 54 cents, and gives you a full pint—a family supply—of a most effective remedy, at a saving of 82¢. A day's use will usually overcome a hard cough. Easily prepared in 5 minutes—full directions with Pinex. Keeps perfectly and has a pleasant taste. Children like it.

It's really remarkable how promptly and easily it loosens the dry hoarse or tight cough and heals the inflamed membranes in a painful cough. It also stops the formation of phlegm in the throat and bronchial tubes, thus ending the persistent loose cough. A splendid remedy for bronchitis, winter coughs, bronchial asthma and whooping cough.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, rich in guaicolic acid, which is so healing to the membranes.

Avoid disappointment by asking your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex," and do not accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction goes with this preparation or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.
