Duray's History of the World

Four splendid cloth volumes, full of portraits, sketches, maps, diagrams

Today is the climax of a hundred years of preparation. Read in this timely, authoritative, complete, AND THE ONLY CONDENSED classic world history—of which over 2,000,000 copies have been sold in France alone—just what has taken place in the inner councils of Europe during the past one hundred years. Read in these entrancing pages how Russia has for years craftily been trying to escape from her darkness— to get a year-round open port, with its economic freedom. Read how Germany and Austria, fearful of the monster's latent strength, have been trying to checkmate her and how they have pinned all in this last, supreme stake.

The Lesson of the Past

This master of the pen shows you the story that was Greece's and the grandeur that was Rome's. He guides you through the Middle Ages, the picturesque old days of feudalism and the crusades; through the Renaissance up to contemporary history, which Prof. Duray's complete in brilliant manner. In the story of the past, your ability to comprehend conditions, and to discuss them rationally depends on a true interpretation of the meaning and the reason why of events. In your mind you must bring order out of chaos—and the Review of Reviews will do it for you.

SEVERE PUNISHMENT

Of Mrs. Chappell, of Five Years' Standing, Relieved by Cardul.

Mt. Airy, N. C.—Mrs. Sarah M. Chappell of this town, says: "I suffered for five years with womanly troubles, also stomach troubles, and my punishment was more than any one could tell. I tried most every kind of medicine, but none did me any good. I read one day about Cardul, the woman's tonic, and I decided to try it. I had not taken but about six bottles until I was almost cured. It did me more good than all the other medicines I had tried, put together. My friends began asking me why I looked so well, and I told them about Cardul. Several are now taking it."

Do you, lady reader, suffer from any of the ailments due to womanly trouble, such as headache, backache, sideache, sleeplessness, and that everlastingly tired feeling?

If so, let us urge you to give Cardul a trial. We feel confident it will help you, just as it has a million other women in the past half century.

Begin taking Cardul to-day. You won't regret it. All druggists.

INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(By E. O. SELLERS, Acting Director Sunday School Course, Moody Bible Institute, Chicago.)

LESSON FOR NOVEMBER 15

JESUS AND PETER.

LESSON TEXT—Mark 14:27-31, 33, 34, 36-7.

GOLDEN TEXT—Let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall.—1 Cor. 10:12

The record of Peter's failure is a sad story. Mark, who received his Gospel from Peter, gives it in clear outline. This suggests that Peter did not spare himself.

1. After Passover Feast, vv. 27-31. On the way to Olivet Jesus warns the disciples that all would be "offended" (caused to stumble) because of what was about to occur. Not one escaped, Matt. 26:56, Zech. 13:7. Peter, assured in his own mind, denies that this should be true of him, so confident was he of himself and of his devotion. Over against this warning Jesus sounds the note of his resurrection, and it was chiefly in their inability to catch, or comprehend this note, that they stumbled. Particularly is this true of Peter. That Jesus could found a church on the vulgar tragedy of a criminal's death was beyond the range of his understanding. This self-confidence was the beginning of his fall. Prov. 16:18. It is pride like this which men have in their own strength that is the chief reason why they are not saved. If they are able to care for themselves, why do they need the help of another?

Peter's Denials.

Peter trusted his own heart. A man is a fool who will trust such a deceitful member, Jer. 17:9. Prov. 28:26. Peter's loud profession is answered by a definite prophecy of his utter failure, v. 30. "Before the cock shall crow three, thou shalt deny me thrice." Again Peter contradicts the Lord, "I will not deny thee." Peter's later denial of the person of Jesus in the judgment hall is prefaced by a denial of his master's assertions on the way thither. He had to learn wisdom and humility in the bitter school of experience. Peter is quite like us all, but he did learn and profited thereby (1 Peter 5:5), which cannot be said of all of us.

ii. Following Afar Off, vv. 53, 54. Peter "followed afar" into the court of the high priest's palace. We have suggested (Lesson of Nov. 1st) that zeal and affection prompted Peter, yet he was expressly forbidden and warned, John 13:36-38. Some one "as said that the development of Peter's weakness began in the garden when he ceased to pray. That courtyard and its brazier of coals was a dangerous place for any disciple of the Lord. The servants and soldiers of the powers against Christ were congregated about that first. It is never safe to warm oneself at the enemies' fire though we see it constantly being done, Matt. 6:13; Ps. 1:1.

iii. "I Know Not This Man," vv. 66-72. While at the fire, a serving maid looking at Peter said, "Thou also wast with the Nazarene, even Jesus." Immediately and without any seeming hesitancy Peter denied, and declared his ignorance both of the man and of understanding what she said. Peter did not sympathize with what was being done to Jesus, but at heart he was not brave enough to separate himself from the enemies of Jesus thereby to draw upon himself some sort of censure or condemnation. Thus conforming to the world about him made it easy for Peter to utter his first note of denial. Having done so he passed on into the porch and heard the first crowing of the cock. The apparent contradiction between Mark and the other writers over the question of the number of denials seems to be solved by John 18:25, where reference is made to several who spoke at the same time. Doubtless the words of the first maid are re-enforced by those of another on the second occasion; they both brought an accusation against him.

Speech Betrayed Peter.

This second maid addressing the onlooking spectators said, "This is one of them," and again Peter denies the accusation. He had escaped one predicament only to be plunged into another and perhaps more dangerous one. To deny afresh seemed to be the only way of escape, James 4:4; 1 Cor. 15:32 R. V. A few words of a serving maid filled Peter with dismay but a second denial did not deliver him from his predicament. After a little those standing with him declared he must be one of the followers of Jesus, for his speech betrayed him to be a Galilean. Then Peter touched the bottom, for he accompanied his denial with curses.

From his high and exalted state of mind, his high hopes as to Jesus, he sees himself a traitor and Jesus about to be crushed by the hand of man. Peter was passionately devoted to Jesus and had felt that he could go with him to the limit. Once before at Caesarea-Philippi Peter had been warned. He had been mystified by what Jesus said about the cross and had protested. He had high and noble aspirations but they carried him beyond the limits of his permission into danger and defeat.

There is always the gravest danger in ambition that is not controlled.

QUIT MEAT IF YOUR KIDNEYS ACT BADLY

Take tablespoonful of Salts if Back hurts or Bladder bothers—Drink lots of water.

We are a nation of meat eaters and our blood is filled with uric acid, says a well-known authority, who warns us to be constantly on guard against kidney trouble.

The kidneys do their utmost to free the blood of this irritating acid, but become weak from the overwork; they get sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and thus the waste is retained in the blood to poison the entire system.

When your kidneys ache and feel like lumps of lead, and you have stinging pains in the back or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or the bladder is irritable, obliging you to seek relief during the night; when you have severe headaches, nervous and dizzy spells, sleeplessness, acid stomach or rheumatism in bad weather, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in urine so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending urinary and bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, and nobody can make a mistake by taking a little occasionally to keep the kidneys clean and active.

ODD BITS OF NEWS

Louisville, Ky.—Two slaughter house proprietors of Louisville have been fined $100 each and sentenced to fifty days in jail for selling horse meat for food.

Frederick, Md.—A negro in the jail refused to escape when three other fugitives effected a jail delivery Saturday night because the warden had promised the prisoners chicken for dinner Sunday.

Belding, Mich.—A silk thread Manufacturing Company of this city, is supplying the United States with worst cotton a product, which until the breaking out of the European war, was made exclusively in Alsace-Lorraine. The demand for the cotton is enormous and the manufacturers are putting in new machinery to meet it.

St. Louis, Mo.—The war revenue tax of approximately $50,000,000 on the annual output of beer is agreeable to the brewers of this city, although this industry already pays a yearly internal revenue tax of $165,000,000. The raw beer tax will yield a revenue more than ten times greater than that of any other single commodity.

Grand Island, Neb.—H. F. Swanback, of Greenwood, Mo., although aged 100 years, was an active participant in the meetings of the state lodge of I. O. O. F. held here last week. He claims to be the oldest living Odd Fellows as well as the oldest in point of membership, having joined the order in Hamburg, Germany, seventy-one years ago.

Sullivan, Ind.—Mrs. Eleanor Combes the oldest living white woman in Indiana observed her 105th birthday anniversary Sunday at the home of her son Wiley Gambill. She is the mother of eleven children and seventeen great grand children. Mrs. Combes is apparently in her usual good health.

Buncetown, Mo.—In 1852 U. D. Stephens, father of J. D. Stephens, of Woodland, Cal., journeyed across the continent in a prairie schooner. It took just 100 days for the oxen to haul the slowly moving wagon. Recently this old gentleman had the pleasure of going over the same route in an automobile driven by his son. Just fourteen days elapsed from the time that the engine started in Woodland until the machine was brought to a stop at the doorsteps of the old homestead in Buncetown.

For once we have a good word to say for John D. Rockefeller. He is to devote some of his millions to feeding the starving people of Belgium, and we hope his act of Christian charity will lift him at least to the entrance of the Pearly Gates. It will require a cart load of them to pull him through.

Don't Merely "Stop" a Cough

Stop the Thing that Causes It and the Cough will Stop Itself

A cough is really one of our best friends. It warns us that there is inflammation or obstruction in a dangerous place. Therefore, when you get a bad cough don't proceed to dose yourself with a lot of drugs that merely "stop" the cough temporarily by deadening the throat nerves. Treat the cause—heat the inflamed membranes. Here is a home-made remedy that gets right at the cause and will make an obstinate cough vanish more quickly than you ever thought possible.

Put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth) in a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. This gives you a full pint of the most pleasant and effective cough remedy you ever used, at a cost of only 54 cents. No bother to prepare. Full directions with Pinex.

It heals the inflamed membranes so gently and promptly that you wonder how it does it. Also loosens a dry, hoarse or tight cough and stops the formation of phlegm in the throat and bronchial tubes, thus ending the persistent low cough.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of Norway pine extract, rich in gualic acid, and is famous the world over for its healing effect on the membranes. To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex," and don't accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.
