The Health Department of the Woman's Club is selling Red Cross Seals. In purchasing these seals, the citizens of Asheboro will be aiding in the extermination of tuberculosis in Randolph county.
Mr. John W. Hill, of Trinity, was in Asheboro Saturday on business relative to the High Point-Asheboro road. Mr. Hill informed The Courier that the route had been surveyed and accepted with the exception of that part across the mountain near Mr. T. J. Redding's. Work will begin about December 1, and will be in charge of Mr. Hill.
Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Hatch, of Liberty, N. C., wish to thank the kind people of their home town, through the columns of The Asheboro Courier, for their kind assistance during the sickness and death of Mr. M. L. Monroe.
Monday November 23, the many friends and relatives of Mr. George T. Macon, of Ramours, Rt. No. 1 met at his home and gave him a delightful surprise birthday dinner and such a dinner—chicken, cakes, pies, pickles, a fruit galore. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lowe, Mrs. Dinah Macon, Mr. Aford Macon and daughter Mrs. Viola Williams and daughter, Mrs. C. B. Grimes and daughter, Miss Arleta Cox, Miss Esther Cox, Mr. S. V. Cox and family, Mrs. C. A. Stout and children, Miss Erva Cox. All had a delightful time. Wishing Mr. Macon many happy returns of the day.
While hunting near Michfield on the land of Mr. Alvis Allen Tuesday, Messrs. Ken Wilson, John Betts and Walter Presnell discovered in some broom sedge a sea owl, caught it and brought it to town. It is a beautiful bird with handsome grey and white plumage. On each toe of the feet is a web. The feet is not exactly a web foot. From the description the dictionary gives it must be of the Phalarope family. The bird has a long bill and bright red eyes. He was a little disposed to use his bill on human flesh but was easily managed. The supposition is that the fowl was blown from the sea coast. Such is frequently the case. Mr. Ken Wilson has the fowl at his home on Wainman Avenue.
Mrs. T. J. Redding was hostess to the Randolph Book Club Friday afternoon. Notwithstanding the heavy snow the majority of the members and a few visitors were present. Mrs. W. H. Moring gave a very interesting history of Belgium which was greatly enjoyed since there has been so much recently to interest the people in this wonderful country. Mrs. J. D. Ross then told of the royal family of Belgium, giving brief character sketches of her rulers. The current events were of unusual interest but they were interrupted by the discussion of useless Christmas giving, which resulted in the appointment of a committee to create sentiment for giving for charity rather than to friends. Following Mrs. Redding served delicious fruit salad and cake. She was assisted in serving by her sister, Mrs. D. B. McCrary and her charming little daughter, Miss Virginia, who also entertained the guests with a vocal solo.

Mr. J. J. Fuller of Fullers, who has been very ill, is improving. This information will be gratifying to many of the readers of The Courier.
The families of Dr. F. A. Henry and Ferd Ingold are moving into the residence of Mr. E. H. Morris on Sunset Avenue.
John Rankin, the colored man who was injured by a piece of machinery falling on his head last week, died at the home of Taylor Waddell Tuesday night.
Miss Elizabeth Bunch arrived from High Point last night for the Thanksgiving holidays. Miss Bunch is one of the teachers of the High Point graded schools.
NEW SUBSCRIPTIONS AND RENEWALS
The following new subscriptions and renewals have been received since our last report:
G. P. Gardner, J. P. Hughes, W. M. Parks, R. W. Kearns, J. N. Caudle, J. L. Pounds, F. S. Redding, Clark Kush, A. Covington, C. F. Pierce, H. W. McGee, G. E. Bulla, E. A. Steed, Mrs. Etta Ferguson, C. F. Floyd, C. F. Cox, John Strickland, Mrs. O. C. Johnson, Carl Johnson, R. L. Summey, A. J. Rush, C. S. Morris, G. T. Lassiter, G. W. Scott, J. R. Wall and J. A. Hanner.
MRS. JOHN T. MOFFITT HOSTESS TO U. D. C.
The Randolph Chapter U. D. C. was entertained by Mrs. John T. Moffitt at her home on Sunset Avenue on last Wednesday. The meeting was one of much interest. The famous battle of Bull Run was described by Mrs. M. W. Parrish and following Mrs. W. A. Underwood told of the commanding officers. The questions concerning the Confederacy proved of great benefit, bearing as they did closely on history of the afternoon's program. Mrs. Moffitt served delicious refreshments consisting of fruit salad and cake. The election of officers resulted in the following:
President—Miss May McAllister; First vice-president, Miss Lillian Bunch; second vice-president, Mrs. J. V. Hunter; recording secretary, Mrs. W. A. Underwood; corresponding secretary, Miss Annie Asbury; treasurer, Mrs. J. D. Ross; historian, Mrs. W. D. Stedman.

SUNDAY SCHOOL RALLY
To be Held at Farmer December 5th, and 6th.
Plans are under way and a program is being prepared for a Sunday School Rally to be held in Farmer beginning with Saturday night December 5th., and closing Sunday afternoon service. This is not a convention, but the workings will be similar to one of the annual conventions which are held every year in the county. In some of the larger counties, two conventions are held each year in different sections. In Randolph it has not been found advisable to hold but one convention, during the year. The last one was held in Liberty during August. It was well attended. Eighteen townships out of twenty being represented. This Rally service, it is hoped will bring some of the convention enthusiasm to greater numbers of those who lived farthest from the site of the last county convention and is intended to bring together representatives from the various schools in the following townships: Tabernacle, Cedar Grove, Concord, Union and New Hope. Elect delegates from each school and forward their name at once to Mrs. C. C. Hubbard, Farmer, N. C. Speakers from the State Association will be in this meeting and make addresses and practical talks on various phases of the work, in addition to local speakers from the county. Let all the Sunday School Teachers, Superintendents and other officers see to it, that each school is represented, and that a brief report is prepared showing enrollment, average attendance, etc. For further information, write or telephone Mrs. C. C. Hubbard, Farmer, or call on the undersigned.
Randolph county Sunday School Association.

HOME-SPUN STUDIES
Know-Your-Home-Country Clubs are needed all over the State, in every community; and they are being rapidly organized. Directions, information, details—whatever is needed—can be had by addressing the North Carolina Club, at the University.
The other day, the Home-County Study-Clubs came up for discussion in a county-site town.
"JUST what do you mean by studying a county?" piped up a Tar Heel in the crowd.
"I'm a college bred man," said he, "I was hatched out in this county, Man and boy, I've lived in it all my life. I know all the folks and every goose trail in it. If there is anything about it I don't know, I would like to know what it is?"
A bulletin was mailed out to him. In a few days, came this answer:
"See Whiz! If I knew as much about my county as this bulletin calls on me to know, I'd be of some account in it, sure enough! I did not know there were so many important things to know about a body's own people. Guess I'll organize a Home-County Club right here."
Send for the Bulletin. Read it and do likewise.

HFARD IN THE COUNTY
You can always judge some men by the paper they cuss.
The first snow of the season came last Thursday night.
Pork and beans is said to be a sure cure for pelagra, but we have never been able to find that pork in one of those cans.
Let us all join hands and help nail the lies—and the liars.
The Riedsville Review says when it comes to choosing between Holton and Travis, the people went to Travis. That was all there was to it. Let's put the amendments in better hands next time.
Many noble citizens of the better element are tearing out society functions and are becoming demoralized.
Never judge a man's generosity by the price he pays for his cigars. Look at his wife's hat.
To hear some people talk you would think they were millionaires, when in reality they are hard run to pay their grocery bills.
Mr. Orlando Routh and family have moved back to the Gray's Chapel neighborhood. After living in Asheboro several months they decided that there was no place like Gray's Chapel after all.
Have you subscribed for The Courier yet? If not, subscribe for it and quit borrowing your neighbors. If you will do this you can read the paper with more pleasure.
The farmers are about through sowing wheat in Randolph and there has been a larger average sowed than usual.
It is time we were waking up to the work of Community Service Week, as the days set apart for this important business are December 3, 4 and 5. All teachers, school committeemen and interested citizens should get busy and lay definite plans for these days. The Community Service Week program is an intensely interesting pamphlet and full of suggestions for things to be done during those days.
Judge C. C. Wade is confined to his room almost constantly owing to the condition of his health, and gets around only in an invalid's chair. Mr. Wade does not expect to be with us much longer and appreciates a short visit occasionally from his friends. Mr. Wade is a grand old man—Troy Montgomerian.
Esp. P. A. Routh, of Millboro Route 1, was a caller in Asheboro Monday.
Mr. J. W. Kirlman, a prosperous farmer of Liberty Route 1, was in Asheboro Monday.
His Honor, Judge Caviness, if you please, He will take charge the first Monday in December.
Mr. W. C. Hammond, who will assume other duties after the first Monday in December, has been one of the most efficient and popular county officers this county has ever had. The worth of Mr. Hammond to Randolph county has been felt in every department of the county government.
The war in Europe continues unabated. By the latest reports neither side appears to have much advantage. Few people in this country seem to realize the vastness of the war being waged in the old world. Countries are being devastated and thousands are being killed daily. It is a blessed thing to live in a country like this just now.
Take your job work to The Courier. They are prepared to do it so that the job will look like a printer had something to do with it.
When we see a man whose family is subsisting on the bare necessities of life and he goes about crying hard times, and then see him come out of a grocery store with a plug of tobacco a foot long in one hand; a bag of smoking tobacco in the other, our compassion for him drops 40 degrees below the point of sympathy. That man needs to learn life's lesson over.
It is reported that Governor Craig will be a candidate for Congress in the Tenth Congressional District in 1916. Of course he can redeem the district.
There never was a home in the history of our county where agriculture was as inviting as it is today, when brains and brawn would bring a satisfactory return as they will today.
The trades and professions are over-crowded in every city and farm land is still within the grasp of any industrious young man. The farm is the bright and beckoning star of hope to the young men of the nation. There is a lot of surplus energy going to waste around every small town and in every city that could be used to advantage in the country making the country bloom as a rose with corn fields and pasture lands. There are hundreds of so-called waste lands right here in Randolph county that will some day be first-class farming lands and the young man who fails to grasp this opportunity while such land can be bought for a song and pick his own time, is making a fatal mistake which he will see in the sweet bye and bye. The young man who has been brought up on a farm will stick to the soil if he is wise and only work harder to know more of the soil and how to make two potatoes grow where one grew for his father. It can be done and is being done year after year. Keep your eye on the green fields, young man, and you will have nature working for you and making you dollars where the professions yield pennies only while you are pegging away. In Davidson county they are beginning to learn how to farm and to give you some idea what they are doing over there we clip the following from the Dispatch: "The Dispatch promised recently a fuller ac-

Despondency Due to Indigestion.
It is not at all surprising that persons who have indigestion become discouraged and despondent. Here are a few words of hope and cheer for them by Mrs. Blanche Bower, Indiana, Pa. "For years my digestion was so poor that I could only eat the lightest foods. I tried everything that I heard of but not until about a year ago when I saw Chamberlain's Tablets advertised and got a bottle of them, did I find the right treatment. I soon began to improve and since taking a few bottles of them my digestion is fine." For sale by all dealers.
Secretary McAdoe says that the cotton loan fund will not altogether solve the cotton problem in the South, but that the farmers will have to aid by diversification and acreage reductions.
Rev. Geo. W. Morrison, pastor of an Associated Reformed Presbyterian church near Statesville died suddenly and fell from his buggy while enroute to his home from Statesville last Thursday.
O DECEPTIVE
Many Asheboro People Fail to Realize the Seriousness.
Backache is so deceptive.
It comes and goes—keeps you guessing.
Learn the cause—then cure it.
Possibly it's weak kidneys.
That's why Doan's Kidney Pills are so effective.
We present the following case as proof:
G. H. Ivey, High Point St., Randleman, N. C., says: "I suffered a great deal from pains through the small of my back and I had had trouble with the kidney secretions. Finally I used Doan's Kidney Pills and my health greatly improved. The cure Doan's Kidney Pills made by my case over three years ago has been permanent."
Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a "kidney remedy"—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Ivey had. Foster—Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.
count of the wonderful corn yield made by Mr. J. A. Myers of Tyro township the past season. He was in town last week and The Dispatch man saw him. Mr. Myers says that his yield was cut short by the drought, but that he made 254 1/2 bushels of dry shelled corn on two acres of land. The best acre made 138 1/2 bushels. There was no artificial irrigation. The crop fared as all other crops in the country fared. There was no rain on the corn from the day of planting until June 15. There were two rains between that time and July 1 and that that no rain until the crop was 'made.' Crimson clover is the secret. He used in all 8 loads of stable manure and 900 pounds of acid and 10 pounds of potash. This same piece of land has been in corn four years in succession now and has never made less than 100 bushels to the acre. In fact, the total yield for four years on this same piece of land is 984 bushels. He will put it right back in corn next year and already the field is green with clover. If the season is favorable he expects to make 30 bushels next year on these two acres."
