It is very late in the season for ball games, but we had a very nice game here Saturday when the Mill boys and school boys crossed bats in the Ball Park. The score was 7 to 5 in favor of the Mill boys. The school boys certainly would have won the game but as we was depending on our pitcher from Pariah, Fla., and our catcher. We will acknowledge that we got beat.

Just before Mr. T. L. Rodgers discovered the great cave, I had an awful dream. And it seemed that I could not be contented nor rest at all after night, until I heard of the cave that Mr. Rodgers discovered near Solomon's Temple. And after having another dream similar to the same dream makes me feel that something terrible is going to happen. I certainly would advise all who are not subscribers to the Courier to send their subscription as something is sure to happen that will interest you all.
