

THE COURIER

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Asheboro, N. C., December 17, 1914.

Nice things to eat at bazaar.

Come on, and you will buy nice made articles at our bazaar.

Mr. Max Robinson has returned on a visit to friends at Durham.

Messrs. Frank and James Gallimore Fullers, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Miller a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Page, of Raleigh, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. Coffin Sunday and Monday.

The date of the Methodist Protestant Bazaar has been changed from December the 19th to the 18th.

Mr. Charlie Glass, of Franklinville, F. D. I., stopped in at The Courier Tuesday and spent a while.

Mr. W. A. Jones, of Liberty, R. F. D., attended court this week and while town paid The Courier a pleasant bill.

The Miller building next to The Courier office has been secured for a Methodist Protestant bazaar. The serving will begin at 12 o'clock.

Rev. R. E. Powell, pastor of the Asheboro Baptist church, returned Saturday afternoon from the Baptist state meeting at Raleigh.

The Asheboro graded school will close on December 22, and re-open on January 6, giving two full weeks vacation.

Miss Enolie Presnell, daughter of Mr. Virgil Presnell, has returned from Luke's Hospital, where she spent two weeks for treatment.

Mr. E. P. Hayes, of Randleman, has been re-appointed by Judge Boyd, of United States Commissioner for Randolph county.

Mr. J. M. Scarboro, an enterprising merchant of Worthville, was in Asheboro Monday and gave The Courier a Department an order for some stationery.

Mr. K. E. Hare, of Cedar Falls, attended court this week. While in town he visited The Courier office and had his name placed on its growing list of subscribers.

Several heavyweight hogs have been reported killed in the Sophia section by the farms, whose names are given: I. N. Stout, 342; J. M. Lyndon, 28; W. L. Nance, 404; B. F. Rich, 422.

Mr. J. M. Caveness, the newly elected Clerk of Superior Court, has moved to Asheboro to the South Fayetteville Street building by Miss Lizette Bunch, who moved to the M. C. building.

The following renewals and new subscriptions have been paid since our last report: Dovie Ledwell, T. M. Johnson, Mrs. R. C. Welborn, W. E. Boone, O. V. Wootley, B. G. Leonard, Eugene Case, Mrs. J. M. Rowland, B. T. Hunt, J. S. Allred, E. R. Yow, W. M. Elliott, I. H. Foust, J. C. Julian, C. M. Shaw, C. W. Redding, M. W. Kennedy, E. S. Walker, Vannie Ausley and J. S. Caveness.

Mr. Briles Hoover, of the Back Creek section of Cedar Grove township, died Tuesday at the age of 68 years. His wife and the following children survive: Pearly, Rome, Ellis, Mollie, John, James, Ivey, Cynthia, Hallie, Lee and Grace. Several children preceded the father to the grave. The funeral and burial was at Back Creek church yesterday.

"Squire W. B. Owen, of Liberty, was a pleasant visitor at The Courier office Monday. Mr. Owen will leave Saturday to spend awhile with his son, Prof. W. B. Owen at Covington, Georgia. From there Mr. Owen will go to Brown county, Texas, to visit his brother, I. N. Owen, who left Randolph county twenty-eight years ago. The visit will cover a period of several months.

The many friends in Asheboro of Rev. T. J. Ogburn who was appointed pastor of Mt. Zion and Huntersville churches at the recent session of the Western North Carolina Conference of the M. E. Church, South, will learn with regret that, while assisting in unloading his household goods at his new home at Cornelius a few days ago, he fell from a wagon and fractured his left wrist.

The North Carolina Christian Advocate, of Greensboro, had the following important local item last week: "Rev. J. W. Clegg, who for more than twenty years has been a faithful member of the W. N. C. Conference, and was during the last year pastor of the West Greensboro charge, has connected himself with the Presbyterian church, and will serve for the present as stated supply at Asheboro and Thomasville. Brother Clegg was very highly regarded in our Conference and was quite an acceptable and efficient preacher, and there is deep regret among his friends that he has severed his connection with us."

Despondency Due to Indigestion.

It is not at all surprising that persons who have indigestion become discouraged and despondent. Here are a few words of hope and cheer for them by Mrs. Blanche Bower, Indiana, Pa.: "For years my digestion was so poor that I could only eat the lightest foods. I tried everything that I heard of but not until about a year ago when I saw Chamberlain's Tablets advertised and got a bottle of them, did I find the right treatment. I soon began to improve and since taking a few bottles of them my digestion is fine." For sale by all dealers.

Mr. T. C. Lamb, of Level Cross, was in Asheboro Tuesday attending court.

Born—to Mr. and Mrs. Will Scott Saturday night a daughter.

Mr. B. M. Kearns, of Farmer, has moved to Denton.

Mr. A. C. Rush has returned to Asheboro from Kansas where he spent the summer and fall with his children.

Mr. N. A. Mitchell, of High Point, R. F. D. 3, has joined The Courier's growing family of subscribers.

Mr. J. R. Peace, of Denton, has moved to Bennett. Mr. Peace is a good citizen and has done much for the industrial development of Denton.

Messrs. Colon Spoon and Emmett King have gone to work at Mr. Fletcher King's sawmill near Whitney, Stanley county.

We can use that money you are owing us on your subscription for we need to pay those whom we owe. Come in and see us.

Mr. T. G. McAlister, son of Col. and Mrs. A. C. McAlister, of Asheboro, who was at the recent election elected a member of the board of commissioners of Cumberland county, has been chosen as chairman of the board.

The grammar grades will give a Christmas cantata at the graded school building Friday night, December 18, at 7:30. The only admittance fee to "Santa Claus at Miss Prim's" is to be on time.

Mr. Max Wager, of Randleman, became a citizen of the United States last Tuesday under the procedure followed in United States court. He was formerly a citizen of Russia, but doubtless thought it was a good time to become naturalized.

Mr. Thomas Brown, of Asheboro Route 4, was a visitor at The Courier office Monday. Mr. Brown recently killed a 3-year old hog that weighed 608 pounds. The Courier believes the record for big hogs in Randolph county this season has been broken.

Again we want to call attention to people who send letters to this office to sign their names. Your name will not be mentioned but if you expect them to be published they must be signed. Also, remember, nothing of a personal nature will be published.

Why Not school will close for the Christmas holidays, Wednesday, the 23rd, with an entertainment. Miss Annie Fox's music class will render special music. The school remains closed ten days.

Mr. J. M. Caveness, the newly elected Clerk of Superior Court, has moved to Asheboro to the South Fayetteville Street building by Miss Lizette Bunch, who moved to the M. C. building.

The following renewals and new subscriptions have been paid since our last report: Dovie Ledwell, T. M. Johnson, Mrs. R. C. Welborn, W. E. Boone, O. V. Wootley, B. G. Leonard, Eugene Case, Mrs. J. M. Dear Customer:

We are still selling the same high quality meats on the same terms as formerly and wish to assure you that you will be given the same accommodation in the future as you have in the past. We welcome your charge accounts and assure you that they will receive the same prompt attention as if you paid cash for what you bought.

We want your trade, but we don't want it by cutting prices in order to get our competitors trade. We of course expect your business for the reason we keep everything that is kept in a first-class meat market. While we furnish you fish and oysters, we expect your beef and pork trade. We defy competitors to better our prices and stay in business. We guarantee you the best results in the end.

MARBLE AND GRANITE WORKS

I am opening a marble and granite works in the old Mering building at the Southern depot. I would like to figure with every one needing a monument or tombstone. Call and let me figure your wants. There are three reasons why I can sell cheaper: (1) I buy direct from quarries. (2) I have no traveling salesmen. (3) I pay cash for stone. Thereby saving you from 15 to 25 per cent.

I can sell you anything you want from the smallest tombstone to the largest monument or mausoleum in any kind of granite or marble.
