RAMSEUR ITEMS

Miss Sarah Cole, of Salem Female College, is spending the holidays at home.

Mr. Fulter Horner, of Sanford, visited friends here the past week. Misses Nell Marshall and Evelyn Smith, of our graded school faculty, left for their homes at Statesville and Mt. Olive Saturday.

Our graded school closed a very successful year Friday. The average attendance during the term was 215. In the last spelling Friday, Misses Coraie Rightwell and Gladys Leonard and Mr. Floyd Brady made the highest per cent. We would like to know if any pupil in the county made 100 per cent. How about Asheboro and Franklinville?

Miss Lula Nell, of Pomona, is the guest of friends here this week.

A number of our Sunday schools will have Christmas trees this week. Rev. Mr. Thompson, the pastor of the holiness church, is living in "Brooklyn."

The following persons killed hogs recently. The weights follow the names: H. M. Campbell, 481 lbs., A. L. Jones, 480 and 370, William Elliott, 455, G. M. D. Frazier, 440, J. C. Whitehead, 425, Walter Burgess, 430, Dr. C. S. Tate, 425, and 304 John Marley, 410 and 348, J. L. Johnson, 428 and 340, J. A. Brady, 370 and 350, J. A. Brady Jr., 360, J. W. Stout, 370, E. C. Watkins, 345 and 309, J. C. Brady, 375, W. H. Steele, 330, W. H. Watkins, 340, J. W. Brown, 340, C. G. Foushee, 375, Joe McAllister, 335 and 325, Steve York, 385, Lee Caveness, 328 and 318, D. A. Burgess, 330 and 258, N. M. Reynolds, 320 and 280, Terrell Caveness, 321, E. B. Leonard, Alvis Pugh, 310. A large number of small hogs were killed too. This record shows that Ramsey produces her own bacon. Few towns in North Carolina can beat the above report.
