FARMER ITEMS

Lewis, son of L. M. Kearns has been right ill with pneumonia, but is recovering.

Mrs. Fannie Parrish, widow of the late Franklin Parrish, died Saturday February 6th, of heart failure. Her death was a great shock to her family and neighbors, as she had not been ill at all, but was taken suddenly on Saturday morning. Her body was taken to Pleasant Grove church in Tabernacle township, for burial. She leaves a son, Mr. J. Walter Parrish, and a daughter, Miss Leona Parrish, and a granddaughter, Miss Lula Hill, all of Hill's Store. Mrs. Parrish was a woman who was loved and respected by all who knew her, and her presence and influence will be sadly missed in her community.

Homer Grant, the infant son of Mr. John Steed, died on Saturday of pneumonia, after an illness of a few days. The body was laid to rest in the cemetery at Concord; the services being conducted by Rev. J. B. Trogon.

Mrs. Julia Plummer, of Hannersville, has been spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. J. O. Kearns.

Miss Cora McMasters expects to leave soon for Baltimore, from which place she will be sent out by a wholesale millinery house as an expert trimmer for the coming spring season.

Liberty Items

Dr. Kemp Foster, who has recently opened an office in Greensboro was here Saturday and Sunday visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Gregg and children, of Fayetteville, are guests of Dr. and Mrs. J. D. Gregg.

The Misses Hatch spent the week end in Greensboro, the guest of their sister Mrs. Kelly Boggs.

Mr. G. Armp Patterson, who has been indisposed for several days, is very much improved.

The Liberty Book Club will meet with Mrs. Walter Albright today.

Miss Allen, of Greensboro, spent Saturday and Sunday in town, the guest of her sister Miss Stella Allen.

Mr. Sherman Dippee, of Greensboro, was a business visitor in town Monday.

Little Oleta Staley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Staley is quite ill.

Mrs. C. P. Smith, Sr., spent the week end in Greensboro.

Miss Margaret Smith has been indisposed for several weeks.

JULIAN NEWS

The ground hog seems to be keeping his reputation by bringing more cold winter weather.

Julian is still climbing upward. A large box factory has just been completed and will soon be in operation. Mr. Claude Burrow, who has undergone an operation at St. Leo's Hospital, is improving we are glad to know.

Mr. J. S. Devinney visited Mr. Arthur Staley Sunday evening. Messrs. Robert Garner and Allen Pugh passed through the community last Sunday evening coming from Liberty.

Mr. Zeb Hinshaw and sons visited near Asheboro last Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. A. E. Staley has bought a herd of Holstein cattle.

Mr. M. C. Garner and family visited his uncle, Robert Neece, last Sunday. Several of our girls are attending Pleasant Garden school.

Bad roads is all the talk. Bad on the fellow with the car. Hope they will soon get better.

Julian has the best rural school we know of. It can boast of its good teacher, Mrs. W. H. Hardin. She can't be beat. We wish she would continue the good work. She has been teaching for three terms, but the children are not tired of Mrs. Hardin.

SEAGROVE ROUTE 1 ITEMS

We are having some pretty weather along now and hope it will continue. Miss Zola Cole is very sick. We wish for her a speedy recovery.

Miss Maggie Martin spent the week end with home folks at Blacoe.

Miss Maie Bean has been visiting friends in Asheboro.

Misses Alma Bean and Allene Cagle have been visiting friends at Blacoe.

Miss Nora Staley is visiting her sister, Mrs. Willie Scott, at Asheboro.

TEACHERS MEETING AT TRINITY

The teachers' meeting at Trinity last Saturday was well attended by both teachers and patrons considering the bad roads.

The following teachers were present: Mrs. Kate Norment, Emma Hunter, Lula B. Rudisill, D. C. Johnson, L. L. Farlow, Clara Davis, Virginia Redding, Sila Lundley, Geo. W. Spencer, and Maggie Albertson.

An interesting address was given by Dr. E. E. Balcomb, of the State Normal.

Miss Emma Hunter gave a lesson in United States history which was helpful to all. Short talks were made by each teacher present on what is doing done in his school to promote and develop a greater school interest.

Several of the patrons also gave the teachers words of encouragement. The most encouraging feature of the meeting was the fact that so many patrons came out to hear the discussions.

BIG HOG IN BACK CREEK

The largest hog we have heard of killed in the county was killed by Allen Robbins, of Caraway, which weighed 546 pounds.

Mrs. Emma Phillips was the guest of her son, R. L. Elkin, at Liberty Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Tippet visited Mr. C. H. Welch at Cheeks Saturday and Sunday.

Several of our young people spent Sunday evening at Cedar Falls.

Prof. D. M. Weatherly made a business trip to Greensboro Saturday.

Mr. Cahon, of Baltimore, representing the noted Haas Tailoring Company, spent a part of last week in the city taking measures for Randolph Mfg. Co. store, who will handle this line of men's and boys' suits the coming season.

Messrs. W. A. Grimes, W. P. Moon and Chas. Allred

went to Greensboro one day last week.

TRINITY NEWS

There was a Teachers Meeting held here last Saturday. The attendance was not large.

The few days of sunshine has greatly improved our roads.

Capt. Parkin is on the sick list, but hope to see him out soon.

Mrs. E. N. Crowder, accompanied by Mrs. W. N. Elder, went to the Charlotte hospital last Saturday. We hope to see Mrs. Crowder with us soon.

Mrs. Vick, who has been confined in doors for some time, has improved so as to be out again.

We hope that J. W. Hill will soon be given work building our road.

TRINITY NEWS

Captain Parkin and family, who have been quite ill with lagrippe, are improving and hope to be out again soon.

Messdames Crowder and Elder went to Charlotte Saturday.

Mr. Litaker, of Thomasville, was in town last week.

Mrs. H. E. Ballance, of Greensboro, spent one day in town last week.

Miss Josephine Wood, of High Point, was the guest of Miss Ritchie Johnson Saturday.

Miss Maggie Albertson, of Hope Mills, was at the teachers' meeting Saturday.

Prof. Balcomb, of the State Normal, made a very interesting address before the teachers Saturday. Mr. Balla said that Prof. Balcomb's statistics were the most complete he had ever seen.

Miss Jennie Redding came up to the teachers' meeting Saturday. No teacher or parent can afford to miss one of these meetings. The work is all too important to the community. Some of the Guilford county teachers were here Saturday. We were glad to have them and hope they will come again.

The ladies of the Betterment Association served luncheon to the teachers Saturday.

All who were fortunate enough to attend Saturday's teachers' meeting enjoyed the occasion very much. All are pleased with the good work of Mr. Balla and his teachers. The talk Miss Hunter gave on history and geography was fine. Prof. J. J. White thinks the Moonlight School sounds like Moonshiners. Prof. English expressed himself as delighted with the Trinity high school and teachers and the patrons agree with him.
