PROGRESS

When we get a little bit
Then we want a little more.
And we keep on adding it
To the boanty of our stor;
And afterwhile we double
What we thought was great before—
And that's the way to progress on this green and fortile shore.

We never lumb a limit
And we write reach an end
To that lenging for the doubling
Of the stars we thought would do:
And there are a enough in this

Sanatorium Patients Give Expression To Their Fuith in Legislature in Pollyanna Song

Pollyanna Song

Pollyanna never played the gladgame so well herself as the patients of the State Sanaterium. She could not, though she created it. The game never meant as much to Pollyanna in all her heart yearnings and unselfuld devotions as it means to those at the Sanaterium takine "the core." It serves as a fit expression of their optimism and gratisation and furnishes a bright outlook on life regardless of disease and acceptage. The Sanatorium patients feel it and, furthermore, they mply it to their every day life and needs. It's not united to hear the Pollyanna Sombeing sure about the place with a local application and personal adaptations. For instance, they are now singing it this way:

If patients have to go aways epoint felt uphorne

Thin, brittle, colorless and saraggy Thin, brittle, colorless and straggy, hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that swful scurf. There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its luster, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine tonight—now—any time—will surely save your hair.

LEARN TO LAUGH

A good laugh is better than medicine. Learn how to tell a story. A good story is na welcome as a sunbeam in a sick room. Learn to keep your own troubles to yourself. This world is too busy to care for your creaking. If you can not see any good in this world, keep the bad to yourself. Learn to hide your sches and pairs under a pleasant surfle. Not one cares to bear whether you have the caractin. Leadache or rhemmatism. Learn to meet your friends with a samile. The good humored man or woman is always welcome, but the dyspeptic or hypochronoiric is not wanted anywhere, and is a missance as well.

LESSON FOR FEBRUARY 21 THE DEATH OF ELI AND HIS SONS

LESSON TEXT—I Samuel 4:1-13. IS. GOLLIEN TEXT—Be we down of word, and not hearers only, detuding y own selves—James 1:22 R. V.

The Philistines in the days of Ell overran Israel pretty much at will.
All Israel, God's people, soon knew that God was speaking through this new prophet.

energy was that place where Samuel later set up the stones of commemomore set up the stones of commenc-ration (1 Samuel 7:12). Here the ag-gressive Philistines overcame and put to rout the Israelites. Israel had stimed and needed correction (chapter 7:1: Fs 106:40, 41). When God's peo-ple number him they weaken them-nelyes and easily become the new of selves and easily become the prey of their ensuries. Full often the church of today stands defeated and dis-graced, may even turns its back to the eveny, because it harbors sin and ainmers in its ranks (Josh, 7:12).

II. Facking Help, vv. 3-9. If Israel really district to know the cause of their discomiture they did not need to go for to seek it. The trouble was that they were not willing to see and own it is to the part of these elders seems to be. Why have we taraction within a work of these elders seems to be. Why have we taraction who are not don't character proplet. It was assured and sucher proplet. It was assured and sucher for them to have to suffer. We have the was some sort of passering today, whereas God would of resisting today, whereas God would have its moble depart and search our leasts for if we recard iniquity in our leasts for if we recard iniquity in our leasts for it would be a supported by the arts, and with the initial or and superstition that well several the imposity is real some for it what it may eave us' (v. 3). The arts contained the tables of the hiv and was the symbol of the grow time of God (Ex. 25:10-22). Their that was in the sek and not in the sked of the ark. Such is even the danger at termillem in religion. To carry the ark about Jerisho trusting in Je-novalt, was quite different from harperior the same of Ell, yet thinking that God could not let the ark be columned. The charcles of our land no the saving sait, but "If the salt much lost its savour," if Hophni and Phinchas bear the ark, nothing but detent and disgrace can be expected, though the enemy may tremble (v. 8). The Philistines were strong enough to smite because of the weakness of They recognized the shouts and remembered the mighty deeds of Jebovah, which exploits would have been repeated had Israel truly turned to God. There was good reason for the Philistines to fear. But God was not on the side of Israel at that time. The Philistines began to exhort them-selves. Their call (v. 9) was a good one and was used later by Paul (1 Cor. 16:13). For them not to do anything was to be captured by their former stayes. If they fought, they could but

III. The Lost Baitle, vv. 10-11, God would not succor his chosen people, nor defend the symbols of religion when the spirit and heart of that re ligion had departed (Ps. 78:50-64). The two reprobate sens of Eli were slain as a punishment for their sins and in fullfillment of the word of God (chapter 2.12; 3:13, 14). Their punishment came in connection with the same holy service they had defied.

IV. The Death of Ell, vv. 12-18. The aged Ell, now ninoty-eight years old, was anxiously awaiting news of the battle, "for his heart trembled for the ark of God." This anxiety was quite unnecessary (v. 13). God can take you care of his ark. Ell had reason, however, to tremble for Israel and his wicked sons. He is an illustration of a wicked sons. EFFECTIVE IF INELEGANT

The average country printer gets some queer "copy" both for the newspaper and for the job department of his business. We are no exception to the rule, and have jabbed on the "act file" and filed away in "jackets" for future reference some strange and terrible manuscript. Lately we received an order to print some "Notices to Treepassers," which should be effective if there be any virtue in such warning. The copy for these notices was as follows:
