

THE COURIER

Asheboro, N. C., March 4, 1914.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

L. M. Kearns, of Hills Store was in town last Saturday.

Mr. S. G. Spoon, of Ralph, was in town on business last Saturday.

There will be a "Fish Pond" at White Hall school house Thursday night, March 4. The public is invited.

Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Bostick, of Cedar Falls, were visitors in Asheboro Sunday afternoon.

Mr. C. E. Teague, superintendent of the Asheboro graded school, spent last Sunday with friends at Franklinville.

Miss Beatrice King and McCoy Birkhead visited Miss Bertha Luck at Seagrove last Sunday.

Miss Lillie Ferrree, of the graded school faculty, visited relatives and friends in Franklinville last Sunday.

One of the surest roads to success is through the building and loan association.

Mr. J. A. Russell, of Randleman, was among the visitors in town last Monday.

Mr. G. H. Jones, a prosperous farmer of Climax, was among the visitors in town last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harris Kearns, of Farmer, were in town on business last Thursday.

Speaking the truth, like taking a cold bath, is sometimes very disagreeable, but it is always good for us.

Messrs. Carl VonCannon and Roy Sigmon, of Salisbury-Spencer, spent the week-end with their friend, Cone S. Ridge, shooting quail.

Mr. R. B. White has sold his livery outfit in High Point to Ragan & Tomlinson, who have a large livery business in High Point, although both members of the firm live at Archdale.

There was grown on the County Home farm last year 500 bushels of corn. Fifty bushels of the corn has been selected for seed corn. This corn is on sale at the Randolph Supply Company at $2 per bushel.

Mr. S. Frank Wall, formerly of Sophia, but for several years engaged in the hardware business in High Point, has sold his interest in the High Point Hardware Company to Messrs. Gray, Welch & Spencer.

Mr. John Howell and family are moving from Sanford to Asheboro, and will live on Miller street. Mr. Howell is a former citizen of Randolph, who has lived out of the county for some time.

Mr. J. W. Cashatt and son, Vernon, of Denton, were in Asheboro a few hours last Friday. Mr. Cashatt is a former citizen of this county, having been a deputy sheriff in Tabernacle township for several years.

There will be a box party at Gold Hill school house, Friday night, March 12, for the purpose of raising money to be used in erecting a new school building. A prize of $2 is offered to the young lady whose box sells for the highest price.

Mr. S. H. Spoon, of Archdale, was a business visitor in town last Saturday. Mr. Spoon formerly lived near Asheboro. While in town, he called at the office to renew his subscription to The Courier, which he thinks a good citizen can afford to be without.

Mr. S. R. Winters, who was formerly employed in the Courier office for several months, has been appointed by President Graham, of the University of North Carolina, as one of the representatives of that institution to the International Press Congress, which meets in San Francisco in July.

Many citizens were in town Monday, some of whom were Pinkney Baldwin, D. G. McMasters, Doe Pugh, Irvin Kearns, S. W. Cox, W. A. Wood, Ed. Frazier, and son, F. P. Prevo, R. J. Pearce, H. O. Barker, Clarence Parks, R. W. Giles, Isaac Julian, T. J. Redding, Sam Kearns, J. M. Trogdon, Robert Kearns, W. J. Pugh.

Ed Sledge, a young white man of Asheboro, was arrested and put in jail one day last week, charged with retailing alcoholic liquors. At the preliminary hearing on Friday before J. S. Ridge, J. P., he was bound to appear at Superior court, and being unable to give bond, was returned to jail.

Mr. Jack Albright, of Mt. Airy, has gone to Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, to have an operation for diseased kidneys and a bleeding lung. Mr. Albright married Miss Lena Crocker, who spent much of her girlhood in Asheboro at the home of her father, the late Rev. J. T. Crocker. Mrs. Albright's host of friends here hope that her husband may be restored to health.

Mr. D. F. Ridge has moved to Asheboro from Gibsonville and has purchased a farm of Mr. B. F. Newby, on the new gravel road to Farmer, just outside the corporate limits of the town. Mr. Ridge was born and reared in this county, a son of the late Penn Ridge, of Concord township. Mr. Ridge has a good farm and shows his good judgment in buying a farm near Asheboro where lands are not as high as in most counties.

In these days, when some men are saying that there is no work to be found, it would seem they have not investigated conditions in and near Asheboro. One lady, who was ready to pay cash for the work, said recently that she could find nobody to plow her garden. Another woman said that she could not possibly get such work done for less than 25 cents an hour, and an able-bodied young negro was heard to say he had the offer of a job at one dollar per day, but did not care to work for "so low a price."

Miss Clara Moffitt is the guest of relatives near Rameur this week.

Messrs. E. H. Bean and Causey Hammer are in Sanford this week on business.

Mr. J. S. Lewis returned last Sunday from a business trip to Mobile, Alabama.

Mrs. M. E. Frazier, of Millboro, is the guest of relatives in town this week.

Mr. W. H. Pickard, of Hoffman, was a business visitor in town last Tuesday.

Miss Lelyer Ferrree, of Rameur, was the guest of Miss Lillie Richardson a day or two the first of the week.

Mr. N. W. Newby, of Mt. Gilead, is a visitor at the home of his brother, Mr. B. F. Newby, on Elm street.

Mr. J. H. Vestal has gone to Randleman to take treatment for a few days in Ferrree Memorial Hospital.

Mrs. P. H. Morris is visiting her daughter, Mrs. A. A. Crater, in Wagner, South Carolina.

Mr. D. F. Ridge went to Greensboro on business, last Tuesday, returning at night.

Mrs. J. S. Ridge is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Robah Betts in High Point this week.

Mr. Lee Aldridge, one of Trinity township's successful farmers, was in town on business yesterday.

Mr. W. M. Parks, a Rameur citizen, was in Asheboro Wednesday of this week.

Miss Marcie Goley, of High Point, is the guest of Miss Essie Ross at her home in West Asheboro, for a few days.

Mr. S. B. Stedman went to Greensboro yesterday to take treatment in Dr. Leach's Sanatorium for throat trouble.

Miss Cora Redding, student of Salem College, spent last Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Redding, on Sunset Avenue.

Prof. Joseph Peele, of Guilford College, will be in Asheboro and preach at the new Friends church next Sunday morning.

The week beginning Monday, March 15, will be "Clean-up-Week" in Asheboro. Everybody is urged to clean up their premises, leave trash in front of homes, and it will be collected and hauled away.

Mr. Walter Newby, who is a traveling salesman for a chewing gum company, of Philadelphia, visited the family of his uncle, Mr. B. F. Newby, a day or two this week.

C. T. Loflin, an Asheboro merchant, filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy last Tuesday. Mr. Loflin's liabilities are said to be more than five thousand dollars while his assets are something over four thousand.

The boys of the M. E. Baraca class held a delightful meeting with Earl Ferrree last Monday evening. After the regular business meeting an interesting social hour was enjoyed by the members.

Mr. W. C. Craven, of Coleridge, passed through Asheboro one day last week, returning from Baltimore, where he had been to purchase the spring and summer stock of goods for the Enterprise Manufacturing Co.

Mr. W. H. Moring left one day this week for northern markets to purchase goods for the spring and summer trade of Wood & Moring. He was accompanied as far as Washington by Mrs. Moring, who will visit relatives there for some time.

Under the direction of the Woman's Club much needed work is being done toward beautifying the grounds surrounding the graded school building. Walks are being laid off and plots of grass sown according to the plans of a landscape gardener.

The fire alarm sounded last Tuesday afternoon on account of a small blaze on the roof of Dr. L. M. Fox's residence in South Asheboro. The fire company was on hand in a short time and soon effectively stopped the flames.

Mr. Charles A. Hamlin, a son of Mr. W. R. Hamlin, of near Central Falls, has purchased a barber shop on South Main street, High Point, which he will conduct in connection with a pressing club in the rear of the place, says the High Point Enterprise.

Rev. Winfred R. Cox and the trustees of Greensboro Rest Cottage have a bill before the Legislature, asking that three thousand dollars be appropriated toward the support and maintenance of their institution for wayward girls. Mr. Cox is a son of the late Yancey Cox, of this county, and as manager of the Rest Cottage he is doing much needed work.

The dirt roads have been had this winter, and they are in bad shape yet except where the split log drag has been used. Where the drag or scraper has been used, the roads are now as a rule in good shape. It takes time to drag the roads and it pays better than any other kind of work that could be done on the roads in winter. There is profit in it, and it behooves the farmers to do this even if they have to do the work without compensation. When a dirt road is once graded and crowned, the only way it can be easily kept up is by dragging.

Friends in Asheboro will be glad to hear that Mr. Clifford N. Cox, a son of Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Cox, of this town, has been chosen a member of the intercollegiate debating team of the University of Virginia in the annual debate between that college, the University of North Carolina, and Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore. Mr. Cox will come to Chapel Hill on April 24, to debate against the Johns Hopkins boys. The question for debate is "Resolved, that the policy of Colonial Expansion is desirable for the modern state." This honor is one of the highest awarded by the University debating societies, and the places are always warmly contested by the members.

WEATHER REPORTS FOR ASHEBORO

Asheboro now has a station of the United States Weather Bureau. Bulletins are received daily, and flags indicating the kind of weather to be expected, are regularly hoisted on a pole near the postoffice building.

A white flag indicates fair weather with stationary temperature; a blue flag, rain or snow, stationary temperature; a blue and white flag, local rain or snow, stationary temperature; a white flag, with black triangle above it, fair weather and warmer; a white flag, with black triangle below it, fair weather and colder; blue flag, with black triangle above, rain or snow and warmer; blue flag, with black triangle below, rain or snow and colder; blue and white flag, with black triangle above, local rain or snow and warmer; blue and white flag, with black triangle below, rain or snow and colder; white flag, with black rectangle in center, indicates a cold wave.

The daily reports may be had free of charge in any part of the county by simply calling the central telephone office in Asheboro.

THE NEW HIGHWAY TO GUILFORD LINE VIA COUNTY HOME

The new road from Asheboro to the Guilford line at or near Archdale will connect with the gravel road at the County Home leading from Asheboro via the County Home and Pearce's Mill, Dr. Fullers to the Davidson county line near William's Cross Roads. The new road will go from County Home across the gap at Caraway mountain, crossing Caraway at the new bridge near Mr. T. J. Redding's, by Flint Hill, Trinity and either direct to the Guilford line along the railroad or via Archdale. The new road will connect Asheboro and High Point and is through a fine farming section. The road will go through a comparatively level country. It will be what will, no doubt, be known as the scenic highway of this section of the State, for part on both sides of Back Creek between Asheboro and the County Home and the short section across the gap of Caraway between the County Home and Caraway.

BELGIAN RELIEF FUND

Following contributions have been received by Randolph county committee: Previously reported $87.50 Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Penn 5.00 Mrs. Wm. A. Underwood 2.50 Mrs. Jennie Hancock .50 Mrs. Houston Elliott, Farmer .50 Mrs. Benj. Lamar, Flint Hill .50 $97.50 The committee acknowledges with thanks the gift from Mr. and Mrs. Wm. C. Hammer of the amount of indebtedness for printing cards and circulars, $3.50.

As noted in a previous issue, this past week concludes efforts of the county committee for Belgian relief.

At the suggestion of headquarters, the money will be spent locally, the merchants having kindly agreed to furnish the supplies at absolute cost and the Southern Railway offers transportation.

HONOR ROLL OF WHITE HALL SCHOOL FOR 3rd MONTH

Fourth Grade—Guy Hinshaw, Mattie Moffitt, Benton Owen. Third Grade—James Hinshaw, Grady Nixon, Paul Owen, Howard Slack, Hazel Slack, Clarence Ingle. Second Grade—Myrtle Owen, Leona Slack. First Grade—Shelly Nixon.

DEATH OF YOUNG GIRL

Miss Nannie Plummer, the 20-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Plummer, died at the home of her parents in North Asheboro last Sunday after an illness of two weeks. The funeral was conducted at the residence by Rev. C. L. Whitaker, and the burial was at Charlotte church three miles from town.

The death of this young girl, just blooming into womanhood, is especially sad. She was a member of the tenth grade of the Asheboro graded school, and her death cast a gloom over the entire school. Her classmates were dismissed from school on the day of the funeral, and joined with other friends in sending beautiful floral tributes. She was a member of the M. P. church, and a girl of lovable qualities. The father, mother, four brothers, and one sister survive.

MISS ROSS ENTERTAINS

Most delightful proved the informal gathering Tuesday afternoon when Miss Esther Ross entertained a number of friends complimentary to her house guest, Miss Marcie Goley, of High Point.

With pleasant conversation and busily plying needles on dainty fancy work, the hours passed all too quickly and reluctantly the handiwork was put aside as the guests were given a series of "nuts to crack". This contest afforded lively interest and resulted in Miss Enolia Presnell very cleverly cracking all the shells and winning the prize, a box of gilt edged correspondence cards, while the honor guest received a dainty crocheted thimble case, the work of the hostess. A delightful course of block cream and cakes was served.

Miss Ross, always a charming hostess, was no less so on this occasion. She was assisted in receiving and entertaining by her mother and Mrs. J. D. Ross and Mrs. Ferrree Ross.

IN LOVING REMEMBRANCE OF ELWOOD KIRKMAN

Thomas Elwood Kirkman was born December 19, 1852, died January 31, 1914, age 62 years, one month and twelve days. He leaves a wife, two sons and three daughters to mourn their loss, but their loss is his eternal gain. He professed religion in early life and joined the Methodist Protestant church at Tabernacle and remained a faithful member until death. He was sick only ten days with pneumonia. His sufferings were great but he bore them very patiently. All was done for him that loving friends and kind physicians could do but his time had come and the Lord called him home. Truly it can be said of him, a good man has gone. He was a kind neighbor, a faithful friend, a loving father, who will be sadly missed by all who knew him. He was never too tired at night to hold family worship and always prayed that his might be an unbroken family up-sonder. May his prayer be answered and may his life and good example be an inspiration not only to his children but to all who knew him for a better and higher life. It is so sad to part with him, but we sorrow not as those who have no hope, for we know it is but for a short time. If we are only faithful, we shall soon meet where sad partings come no more. The funeral was conducted by Rev. W. R. Cox, of Greensboro, assisted by his pastor, Rev. T. M. Johnson, at Pleasant Garden, attended by a large concourse of sorrowing relatives and friends. The body was tenderly laid to rest to await the resurrection morn.

—A Relative.
