RAMSEUR ITEMS

Athletic Association Organized—Swat the Fly Campaign

The Ramseur athletic association has recently elected officers for this year as follows: J. B. York, president; Dr. F. C. Craven, vice-president; A. C. York, secretary; I. F. Craven, treasurer; C. J. Finison, manager; G. C. Scott, captain.

The association is putting out a good team this season and importing some good players who expect to remain so that greater results are anticipated after a little time is taken up with practice. The boys don't expect anything but a good record this year and of course the town expects the same and will back them with this same end in view. So come to Ramseur when you want to see a good game of ball. The association will see that the games are conducted in a business way and that everything will be done "decently and in order."

The primary grades of our school gave a delightful entertainment last Tuesday night. The program was well rendered and was enjoyed immensely by those present. The children always prove the best of entertainers. The commencement exercises of the school will be continued on the night of April 23rd when the intermediate grades will give an operetta, which will be good.

On Saturday morning, 10:00, Prof. M. C. S. Noble will deliver the address after which will come the contests. Baseball in the afternoon and play at night. Those who enjoy good commencement exercises will do well to come to Ramseur this year as we are expecting the best we have ever had.

The town was "moved on its hinges" on Wednesday night, last, when the people met in a "swat the fly" meeting to consider the matter of better health conditions for our town. The speeches on the questions assigned the speakers were so good that the meeting decided then and there to form a line of battle against the fly and set apart this week as "Clean up" week, however, the cleaning up began the next morning and is going on nicely so that we will be "cleaner" next time you come to Ramseur.

On Thursday night Rev. Clyde Turner of the First Baptist church, Greensboro, preached an excellent missionary sermon at the Baptist church here to the enjoyment of all present.

A number of Sunday school folks of the Franklinville Sunday school met with the teacher's training class of the M. E. Church, South, here on Sunday evening, last. Mr. Hugh Parks made a very helpful talk on graded work of the Sunday school.

The farmers of Ramseur community have finally decided that the "ground hog" is dead and have begun to plant corn. A number of the folks will enter the corn contest this year. The Columbia township farmer is like the Irishman; if he gets whipped once he will not stay whipped, but "Begorra, he will come again."

Mrs. Mary A. Brady, of Pleasant kins, Sr. remained to spend a few days in town.

Oren Forrester, of Asheboro, was here a short while Thursday.

Mrs. J. H. Spencer was a visitor in Asheboro Tuesday.

J. A. Monroe has purchased a piano. The play, "A Case of Suspicion," a college comedy will be given by a number of the Philatheas and Baracas at the school building Saturday night, April 17. No admission fee will be charged, but a free-will offering for the benefit of the orphan's home, will be taken. Everybody is invited.

Interesting Commencement Exercises Held Last Week

The commencement sermon by Rev. C. W. Byrd, D. D., of Greensboro, was delivered in the college chapel Sunday night, April 8, on the subject of "Living." It was a strong and interesting discourse on what life really is and what kind of a life is worth while.

Monday night were held the exercises by the primary and intermediate grades under the supervision of the teachers, Mrs. Kate Norment and Miss Emma Hunter. The recitations, dialogues, etc., all showed splendid training and were much enjoyed.

Tuesday night were the exercises by the students of the higher grades, pantomimes, a short play, etc., and these likewise was well presented under supervision of Prof. Johnson and Miss Lula Rudisill, the high school teachers.

The graduation exercises of students completing the ten grades of the school work were held Wednesday morning. The graduates were Misses Lois Welborne, Loris Collet, Olive Johnson, Ina Finch, Daisy Jordan, Aileen Lamb, Fannie Croker, and Messrs. George Ellis, William Norment, and Jefferson Underwood.

MARRIED

On Sunday morning, April 11, at the home of Mr. George W. Pugh, Mr. Talmage Jones and Miss Ruby Allred were happily married. Only a few intimate friends were present for the ceremony.

Immediately after the solemnizing of the vows, Mr. and Mrs. Jones drove to the home of the bride, where a sumptuous dinner was awaiting them; after which, they attended preaching at Grays Chapel, and then went to the home of the groom, where they will reside.

Mr. Jones is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jones, of Franklinville Route 1, while his bride is the pretty and attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sherman B. Allred, of Bush Creek. Their host of friends wish the young couple a long and prosperous life.

MRS. T. J. REDDING

Mrs. Thomas J. Redding, who died at her home near Caraway, last Thursday morning, was about 73 years of age. Before her marriage to Mr. Redding, she was Miss Delphine Adams, born and reared in the old town of New Salem, in the northern part of Randolph. Since her marriage to Mr. Redding has large timber and farming interests.

The deceased is survived by her husband, one daughter, Miss Dora Redding; and two sons, Messrs. Will and Troy Redding, both of near Caraway.

Mrs. Redding had an attack of la-grippe and had apparently recovered; but she suffered a relapse, which resulted in her death in about five days. The burial was in the cemetery in Old Union on Friday, funeral services being conducted by Rev. J. E. Thompson, of Asheboro.

The family has been a prominent one in the financial, political, social, and religious life of the county for many years. Mrs. Redding had been for many years a faithful member of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, and she was much beloved for her beautiful traits of character. Indeed, it may be said that her friends were as numerous as her acquaintances.
