

WEEKLY WEATHER FORECAST

Issued by the United States Weather Bureau, Washington, D. C., for the week beginning Wednesday, April 28, 1910:

FOR SOUTH ATLANTIC AND THE EAST GULF STATES—Generally fair weather with temperature near the seasonable average probable during the coming week.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Miss Myrtle Pugh, of Asheboro Rt. 1, was in town shopping last Friday.

Mr. E. C. Kelly was in Raleigh on business the first of this week.

Miss Marietta Betts visited in Raleigh last week.

Mr. D. C. Mcmasters, of Farmer, was a visitor in town last Friday.

Mrs. Emma Kearns, of Caraway, was a visitor in town last Friday.

Messrs. Thomas and John Lambert went to Franklinville on business last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hilliard went to High Point last Saturday, returning the same day.

Mrs. S. L. Hayworth has been confined to her home by illness a few days recently.

Mrs. J. T. Wood visited the family of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Russell at Denton last week.

Mr. D. F. Ridge visited his mother, Mrs. Mary Ridge, near Cannon church a few days ago.

Mr. Robert Russell, of Pinson, this county, recently celebrated his 97th birthday.

Mrs. Hal M. Worth returned last week after visiting Mrs. Charles M. Hauser for a week.

Miss Catherine Burns left Friday for Carthage where she will visit relatives for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Everette Luck, of High Point, have been in Asheboro for a week.

Mr. John M. Hammer, of Greensboro, was in town a day or two last week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hayworth and little son, Maxton, visited relatives in the country last Sunday.

District Attorney Wm. C. Hammer and his clerk, Mr. Hal M. Worth, have been in Salisbury for Federal court this week.

Rev. S. M. Rankin, of Greensboro, will preach in the Asheboro Presbyterian church next Sunday morning and night.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Harden have moved into the house in West Asheboro recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Lambert.

Among the callers at The Courier office last Saturday, were Messrs: G. F. Gatlin, of Erect; and W. S. Gatlin, of Ulah.

This is the time of year that all should get busy, clean up, and swat the fly. Let us make Asheboro the cleanest town in the State.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dawkins have moved from Asheboro to the farm of Mrs. Dawkins' father, Mr. W. D. Spoon, on the Franklinville road two miles east of town.

Miss Janie Smith, who has been conducting the Randolph Hotel, at Randleman for the past year or two, has moved to Denton where she will conduct a boarding house.

The high school department of the Asheboro graded school will give the play, "New England Folks", in the auditorium of the school building next Friday night. Proceeds will go to the fund for the benefit of the library.

Mr. Cornelius Cagle, of Seagrave, was in town last Friday and gave The Courier a call. Mr. Cagle has been living at Ellerbe the past year, but has moved back to his old home, Seagrave.

The following item of local interest is from the Spencer Crescent: "Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Perkins are visiting friends in Richmond and Alexandria, Virginia, and Washington, D. C." Mrs. Perkins was Miss May Dickens, of Asheboro, before marriage.

Mr. D. W. Spoon, who lives two miles east of town on the Franklinville road, returned last week from Montrose, where he had been for treatment in the State Sanatorium. His condition is not improved as his friends had hoped it would be.

Dr. and Mrs. F. E. Asbury returned last Thursday night from their bridal tour. A number of the young men and boys of the town surrounded the Asbury home after the arrival of the bridal couple, and gave them an old-fashioned serenade.

Mr. P. L. Bostick, of Cedar Falls, was in town a few hours last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Rich and family visited friends at Star last Sunday.

A little daughter was born recently to Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Wrike.

Mr. Robert Jones was the guest of Mr. Raymond Whitehead at Ramseur, the past week.

Mr. L. P. Rawley was in town representing the Greensboro News a day or two this week.

Miss Margaret York, of Central Falls, is visiting her father, Mr. J. A. York, this week.

Miss Lillie Richardson has been the guest of friends at Ramseur for several days.

Henry Horton, a Christian Turk, preached in the Asheboro Holiness church last Monday night.

A number of Asheboro people have attended Farmer commencement this week.

Mr. N. T. Groce, of Worthville, was a business visitor in Asheboro last Tuesday.

Messrs. W. H. and N. H. Luther, of Eleazer, were in town on business last Tuesday.

Miss Edna Hill, of the Charlotte Sanitorium, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Sallie Rush, on Salisbury street.

Mrs. C. M. Fox went to Greensboro one day this week, taking her little daughter, Charles Anna, for an operation to relieve nasal trouble.

The town election for Asheboro will be held next Tuesday. When the registration books closed last Saturday, only 294 voters had registered.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Palmer, of Canton, Georgia, are visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Johnson this week.

Dr. and Mrs. F. E. Asbury went to Carthage last Friday night for the "Country Minister" given by members of the Asheboro M. E. Baraca and Philatheas classes.

Among those who attended commencement at Ramseur last Saturday were Dr. and Mrs. L. M. Fox, W. C. Hammond, and Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Cranford.

Mr. A. W. Cline, who was business manager of The Courier for several months, leaving Asheboro a few weeks ago to become editor of The Davidsonian at Thomasville, announces that his paper is to be enlarged to an eight-page publication in the near future.

Mr. M. Robins, of Greensboro, was in town a short while last Saturday. Mr. Robins was accompanied back to Greensboro by his mother, Mrs. Annie Robins, who visited her sister, Mrs. J. H. Anderson, for two or three days, returning home one day this week.

Prof. Charles M. Staley, who is a native of Randolph county, and was for two years superintendent of the Asheboro graded school, has just closed a most successful term of Hickory graded school. This is Prof. Staley's ninth year at Hickory.

Among those from Asheboro who attended commencement at Ramseur last Saturday, were the following: Misses Myrtle Ashbury, Mary Lamb, Lillie Parrish, Clara Pugh, and Lillie Richardson, and Messrs. C. E. Teague, T. F. Bulla, and Ben McDowell.

The following item from the High Point Enterprise is concerning a Randolph county school teacher: "Miss Berdie Royals, who has just completed teaching a successful five-months term of school at Powhatan, Johnston county, spent Saturday and Sunday here, leaving for Trinity to visit her brother, Mr. Lee Royals."

At a recent meeting of the School Board of Farmer high school, all the teachers were re-elected for the coming year. The following ladies compose the faculty: Misses Linnie Shamburger, Farmer, principal; Adna Lamb, Guilford College; Nettie Highfill, Liberty; and Callie Vuncannon, Farmer; assistants.

Mr. G. B. Garner, of Ramseur Rt. 1, was in town last Saturday on business and gave The Courier a call. Mr. Garner's one-year-old son, Leroy, recently fell with one hand in the fire and was painfully burned. Dr. C. A. Hayworth dressed the injured hand, and the little fellow is now doing nicely.

From the amount of commercial fertilizer being hauled away from Asheboro these spring days, it seems that Randolph farmers are planting unusually large crops. Our dealers order the fertilizer by the car load, sometimes getting two car loads in one day, and then cannot keep it on hand. The farmers come to town and sometimes wait for hours for the trains to come in with more of the popular commodity.

day last Monday.

Mrs. B. F. Brittain has returned from a visit to relatives in Iredell county.

Messrs. Lacy Black, of Ramseur; and W. C. Craven, of Coleridge, were visitors in the home of Mr. J. M. Cavness last Sunday.

Misses Edna Cavness and Ethel Birkhead were among the number from Asheboro attending Ramseur commencement last Saturday.

Mrs. N. C. Cox and Misses Lou and Martitia Cox went to High Point last Friday for a visit of a few days with friends.

Mrs. W. T. Morton and son, Mr. Haywood Morton, of Uwharrie, are guests of Mrs. Morton's daughter, Mrs. W. F. Hunsucker.

Mrs. A. J. Craven came down from Pleasant Garden last Monday, for a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Bonkemeyer, on Asheboro Route 1.

Misses Mabel and Hester Stuart, of Seagrave, were in Asheboro the first of the week, guests of Mrs. W. A. Bunch.

Miss Esther Ross returned last Saturday from Thomasville, where she attended the Young People's Conference of the Methodist Protestant church.

The Courier has made arrangements with the United States Weather Bureau for weekly reports, which will be published regularly from now on.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Skeen and family visited the family of Mrs. Skeen's father, Mr. Stanton Davis, on Randleman Route 1, last Sunday.

Messrs. C. S. Ridge and Hobart Cox have opened up a studio for the development of kodak films over the Asheboro Drug Company.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Johnson and son, Horace, of Durham, were guests of relatives in Asheboro last Sunday and Monday.

Remember the high school play at the auditorium, Friday night, April 30. Admission 15, 25, and 35 cents. Proceeds to go for library fund.

Dr. Howard E. Rondthaler, president of Salem College, will deliver the annual commencement sermon for the Asheboro graded school next month.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Presnell are enjoying new potatoes in abundance from their own garden. The potatoes are of the Red Bliss variety and were planted in February. Who comes next?

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Chisholm, Mrs. J. F. Roberts, Miss Frances Roberts, and Mr. Guy Leighton, of Greensboro, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Clark last Sunday.

A new sidewalk is being constructed around Mr. W. J. Armfield's home on Fayetteville and Salisbury streets and thence on the east side of North street to Mr. J. J. Turner's store.

The closing exercises of the colored graded school will be held May 5th to 7th. H. L. Ashe, of Winston-Salem will deliver the annual address on the night of the 7th.

Mr. O. T. Macon, of Climax, was in town last Tuesday on business connected with settling the estate of the late Levi Cox. Mr. Macon is executor of the Cox estate.

Members of the Baraca and Philatheas classes of the Asheboro Methodist Episcopal South Sunday School repeated their play, "The Country Minister," to a fair audience in Carthage last Friday night.

Messrs. G. W. Hilliard, L. D. Birkhead, C. M. Hayworth, and E. B. Wrike, and K. U. Williard enjoyed a fishing trip to Back Creek last Saturday night, returning with a nice catch of fish.

Mrs. A. C. McAllister returned last Saturday from Charlotte, where she had been for the past few weeks, visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. E. Carson, and attending the Chapman-Alexander meetings.

Rev. C. L. Whitaker, Mrs. Wm. C. Hammer, Miss Harriette Hammer, and Miss Esther Ross attended the Home Missionary meeting of the Methodist Protestant church, at Siler City, the first of the week.

As announced in another column, the Greensboro District Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, will meet in Asheboro May 12 to 14. A cordial welcome to these church people will be given by the town of Asheboro.

The members of the local fire department will give a minstrel in the auditorium of the graded school on Friday night, May 7th. The department has recently purchased an automobile truck, and consequently carries a small indebtedness but it is expected that the proceeds of the minstrel will more than wipe out the debt.

Mr. O. C. Harris, of Tabernacle township, has accepted a position with the Home Banking Co., High Point.

A party of Asheboro young people enjoyed a moonlight drive to Worthville last Tuesday evening.

Randolph county ought to have a large number of boys enrolled in the pig clubs.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanback Lewis went to Greensboro last Saturday, returning the same day.

Miss Pauline Brown, of Ramseur, Route, is in Asheboro to spend the summer with her sister, Mrs. C. M. Hayworth.

The public is cordially invited to attend the Memorial Day exercises at the courthouse in Asheboro, Monday, May 10th, at eleven o'clock in the morning.

Mrs. Florence Harper and children, of Muscogee, Oklahoma, are visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hilliard. Mrs. Harper is a cousin of Mr. Hilliard.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Redding, Mrs. D. B. McClary, Mrs. John K. Wood, and Mrs. J. O. Redding went to Greensboro and back in Mr. Redding's car yesterday.

Mr. Robert Hanner, of near Randleman, enjoyed a surprise birthday dinner, on Saturday, April 25th, it being the occasion of his 59th birthday anniversary. A bountiful dinner was served on a table in the yard and several nice presents given Mr. Hanner.

Among the crowds attending Farmer commencement yesterday, were the following from Asheboro: Messrs. E. H. Morris, Henry Ingram, Carl Richardson, Sam Phillips, and Misses Pat Lowe, Grace Presnell, Alice Phillips, and several others.

Rev. C. L. Witaker, Miss Esther Ross, Miss Harriette Hammer and Mrs. Wm. C. Hammer returned last night from Siler City where they had been attending the Home Missionary meeting. A full report of the meeting will be published next week.

The Randolph Chapter Daughters of the Confederacy will observe Memorial Day, May 10th. There will be a program of songs and recitations, followed by an address by Hon. Robert N. Page. The exercises will be held in the court house, Monday, May 10, at eleven o'clock in the morning.

See the play, "New England Folks," at the auditorium, tomorrow night, and help to raise the library fund.

A play, "The Deacon," will be given by the pupils of the Randleman graded school next Saturday night. A small admission fee will be charged for the benefit of the school.

Mr. J. W. Skeen, a prosperous farmer and one of The Courier's subscribers at Bain, Davidson county, was in the city last Monday. Mr. Skeen brought a load of last year's crop of wheat for sale on the Asheboro market, and while in town called to renew his subscription to The Courier.

Mr. and Mrs. Millard West, who live near the eastern limits of Asheboro, attended the funeral of A. M. Ellison, at Patterson's Grove, last Tuesday. Mr. Ellison died Sunday from injuries sustained in an automobile accident near Greensboro on Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Clifford N. Cox, a student of the University of Virginia, was the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Cox, last Saturday and Sunday. Mr. Cox had been to Chapel Hill, where he was one of the representatives of the University of Virginia in the debate against Johns Hopkins University.

The following from Asheboro attended the birthday dinner given Mrs. John Henley at her home two miles from town last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. W. F. McDowell, Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Henry, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Sharpe, Misses Novie Styres and Ursley Williams, and Messrs. Roscoe Branson and Zell Brown.

Miss Melia Jones, a middle-aged woman of Coleridge township, was brought to town one day last week, suffering from derangement of the mind, and was placed in the county jail till arrangements could be made for her at the State Hospital. She will be taken to Morganton and placed in the hospital for treatment today.

The following item from the High Point Enterprise is of local interest: "Miss Daisy Osborne, of Worthville, is a guest at the home of Mrs. E. T. Harmon. Miss Osborne will spend the week-end with Mrs. Jake Welborn at Archdale, then return to High Point, where she will have a six weeks art class." Miss Osborne was formerly one of the teachers in the Asheboro graded school.

Millinery Coat Suits

Piece Goods

Hats, Chiffons, Crepes

The Empire Store

Cedar Falls Mercantile Co.

Headquarters for Dry Goods, Notions, Groceries, in fact, for everything kept in up-to-date general store. PRICES REASONABLE. Highest market prices paid for country produce.

F. L. BOSTICK, Manager.
Cedar Falls, N. C.

A Woman Hung

her arms around her husband's neck and begged him till she induced him to take her shoes to G. A. C. Freeman (upstairs in the McDowell Building, Asheboro, N. C.) where she could get them repaired in the best of style.

BIG CUT PRICE IN Horse and Cattle Powder

International Stock Food, Magic Horse and Cattle Powder, all sorts of Poultry Powder, Dr. Hens Horse and Cattle Powder, any size at a big cut on the regular price. We have all the various sizes.

AT THE REXALL DRUG STORE
A big line of Toilet Articles, such as Talcum Powder, in all the popular brands and odors, Mary Garden Powder and Toilet Water, Violet Dulc Talcum Powder and Toilet Water, Williams' Talcum Powder. In fact all the leading brands can be found at the Standard Drug Store.
All kinds of Vanishing Creams, Cold Cream, Freckle Creams, ad anything in the Toilet line.
Good line of Cigars and Smoker's Goods kept in first-class condition.
Our prescription department is in charge of Mr. James T. Underwood, a registered druggist with years of experience. We handle only the best to be had in our prescription department. Our goods are always fresh.
We invite you to call and see us.

Standard Drug Company

BARGAINS

In Men's and Boys' Clothing

- Men's Dark Gray Suits, $12.50 value, now 89.50
 - Men's Blue Serge Suits, 12.50 value, now 9.50
 - Men's Light Gray Suits, 15.00 value, now 10.00
 - Men's Blue Serge Suits, 20.00 value, now 15.00
 - Men's Steel Gray Suits, 18.00 value, now 12.50
 - Men's Blue Serge Striped Suits, 20.00 value, now 15.00
 - Men's Brown Worsted Suits, 10.00 value, now 6.50
 - Men's Blue Serge Suits, 10.00 value, now 7.50
 - Boys' Brown Checked Suits, 9.00 value, now 6.50
 - Boys' Blue Serge Suits, 10.00 value, now 6.50
 - Boys' Gray Suits, 9.00 value, now 5.50
 - Men's Palm Beach Suits, 7.50 value, now 6.50; 2 suits, 12.00
 - A big lot of boys' pants in all colors, 1.00 value for 75 cent value for 50
 - Men's work pants, 1.50 value, now 1.00
 - Men's 5.50 value Blue Serge pants, now 4.00
 - Men's Grey pants, 3.50 value, now 2.00
 - Grey Pants, 2.50 value, now 1.50
 - Men's Silk Hats, in all colors, 50
- Also nice line of men's and boys' caps.
Men's socks, 10c value, now 4 pairs for 25c
We carry one of the most up-to-date lines of neckwear ever exhibited in Asheboro.

THE WOOD CASH CLOTHING CO.

BIBLE PRESENTED TO RANDOLPH JAIL

Rev. Sidney Love, the Secretary of the Carolina Prisoner's Aid Society of North Carolina, was in the city on Tuesday last for the purpose of visiting our county jail and presenting them with a large family Bible for the use of the prisoners.
Every jail in the State of North Carolina will receive one of these Bibles. The Carolina Prisoner's Aid Society was established and incorporated for the purpose of taking care of prisoners families that were left in destitute circumstances.

Mr. Love and wife are making a tour of the whole State for the purpose of visiting the families who are in need of assistance and who have received relief from the society in the past.