

WEEKLY WEATHER FORECAST

Issued by the United States Weather Bureau, Washington, D. C., for the week beginning Wednesday, May 5, 1915:

FOR THE SOUTH ATLANTIC AND EAST GULF STATES: The weather will be fair the greater portion of the time with somewhat lower temperatures for a day or two over the interior districts. There is some prospect for showers in a day or so over the East Gulf States.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Firemen's minstrel Friday night.

Mr. Robert Burns spent a few hours in High Point last Sunday.

Mr. Hendricks Skeen, of Biscoe, was in town yesterday.

Jethro Almond's shows will be in Asheboro all next week.

Mr. I. H. Foust, county farm demonstrator, of Ramseur, was in town a day or two the first of this week.

Mr. S. H. Ferree, of Cedar Falls, was among the business visitors here last Monday.

Mrs. J. W. Birkhead visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Kearns, at Hills Store, last Sunday.

Among the citizens in town last Tuesday were Mr. O. M. Yow, of Seagrave; and Mr. S. E. Lowdermilk, of near town.

Timothy Cox, a prominent member of the Friends church, died at his home near Holly Springs, last Tuesday.

Mrs. J. P. Phillips visited the family of her brother, Mr. S. E. Lowdermilk, in the country for a day or two the first of the week.

The commencement exercises of the colored graded school began last night, and will be concluded tomorrow night with an address by H. L. Ashe, of Winston-Salem.

The Asheboro high school gave the play, "New England Folks," to the delight of a large audience last Friday night. A nice little sum was realized, to be used for the benefit of the school library.

We should clean up and paint up both in town and country. Paint or whitewash should be used, as they are both sanitary and preservative. Paint or whitewash destroys the germs that infect wood.

News has come that Prof. J. J. Ingle, of Catawba College, and a brother of Mrs. A. W. Cline, of this town until a few weeks ago suffered the misfortune of a broken arm while cranking an automobile last Saturday. Prof. Ingle visited his sister, Mrs. Cline in Asheboro last winter.

The Kodak Studio, of Asheboro, is doing excellent work and lots of it, as their work has proven entirely satisfactory. They have some of the nicest and best finished pictures ever displayed in this town. They deserve the patronage of Asheboro and surrounding community.

A most creditable piece of road building has been done on the old Farmer road near Mr. Henry Allred's home a few miles west of Asheboro within the past six weeks. The farmers of this region have gone in together and graded about one fourth of a mile of road, which is said to be equally as good as the roads built by the public except for the lack of gravel. It is said that fast driving can be done on this road, and altogether it is a great advantage to the neighborhood and the builders deserve the thanks of the public.

The public is invited to attend the Memorial Day exercises in the courthouse next Monday, beginning at 11 o'clock in the morning. There will be a recitation by Miss Alice Phillips, songs by the Daughters of the Confederacy, and the principal address of the day by Hon. Robert N. Page, Congressman from this district. After the exercises in the courthouse, the Daughters and veterans will march to the cemetery and decorate the graves of veterans laid to rest in Asheboro. The Daughters will serve dinner to the veterans and their wives.

District Attorney Wm. C. Hammer and his clerk, Mr. Hal M. Worth, are in Asheville for Federal court this week. The docket is rather long, and it is expected that court will continue practically all this week. The celebrated case of Gilbert versus Hopkins, which has been before the courts of the State and Nation for the past sixteen years, involving timber lands worth more than $100,000, is on the civil docket; and a criminal case that has attracted considerable attention is that of Thomas Sater, alias North Carolina Tommy, who is charged with the robbery of the postoffice at Candler a few weeks ago.

Mr. R. C. Smith, of Level Cross, was in town on business last Friday.

Miss Lizzie Winslow spent a few days recently visiting in Troy.

Mr. Kemp Alexander was a visitor in Greensboro last Sunday.

Mr. Otis Rich went to High Point for a short while last Sunday.

Mrs. Florence Harper, of Oklahoma, is visiting her uncle, Mr. B. F. Hilliard.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Rich and Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Phillips visited friends in Thomasville one day recently.

Mr. Will Luck, of the Blair-Hoskins store, High Point, was in town last Sunday night.

Mrs. E. Winslow was seriously ill the first of the week, but is now improving.

Mr. W. A. Presnell, of Seagrave, was a business visitor in town last Friday.

Mr. W. H. Glasgow, of Greensboro, was in town a day or two the first of the week.

Mrs. Charles Nelson, of Randleman, spent last Saturday in Asheboro, the guest of Mrs. G. A. Hendrix.

The members of the Baraca class of the M. E. Sunday school held their monthly meeting with Mr. Henry Ingram last Monday night. After the business meeting, refreshments were served and a pleasant social hour enjoyed.

Misses Winnie Julian and Annie Vickory and Mr. Clarence Bowman, of Climax, came down in a car last Sunday and visited friends in town for a few hours. Miss Julian is a daughter of Mr. W. R. Julian, of the Randolph Supply Company.

The business prospects of the chair and other wood working factories in Asheboro have improved wonderfully within the last few weeks. The Asheboro Chair Factory is reported to have recently received a single order for ten thousand rocking chairs, and the other local factories are receiving orders and looking forward to increasing business.

Mr. W. J. Scarboro has refurbished and refitted the Central Hotel and made many improvements. Iron bedsteads have replaced the wooden steads, new up-to-date mattresses, new chairs, porch and lawn chairs will add much to the pleasure of guests on the wide long porches and spacious green lawn surrounding this ideally located hotel.

Mr. R. H. Dixon, of Siler City, was a business visitor in Asheboro last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Gilmer and Mrs. G. S. Bradshaw, of Greensboro, came down in a car last Sunday and spent a few hours with friends in town.

Mr. N. C. English, of Trinity, and Mr. W. F. Talley, of Randleman, were among the visitors in town last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Creekmore went to Norfolk one day last week and were present at the naval parade at Newport News, Saturday.

You will miss a treat if you do not go to the auditorium Friday night, May 7, for the minstrel given by the boys of the fire department.

Asheboro played baseball against Ramseur last Saturday on the Ramseur diamond, losing by a score of 17 to 1, in favor of Ramseur.

Mr. Fred Phillips, of Winston-Salem, was in town, visiting his mother, Mrs. J. P. Phillips, for a few days the first of the week.

Mrs. I. H. Pugh, of Asheboro Route 1, and her daughter, Mrs. C. R. Brooks, of Ramseur Route 1, were in town shopping last Monday.

The following Randolph citizens were in town last Monday: Messrs. J. A. Russell, Randleman; H. C. Causey, Liberty; A. B. Coltrane, Glenola; and W. R. Craven, Ramseur Route 1.

Miss Tacy Beaman, who has been teaching at Summerfield, passed through Asheboro last Monday, returning to her home at Troy for the summer vacation.

Mrs. S. A. Cox and daughter, Miss Hazel, were guests of Mrs. Cox's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Presnell, last Saturday and Sunday, returning to their home at Pisgah, Monday.

The flowers, which are in full bloom around the courthouse, add much to the beauty of the place and form an attractive setting for the handsome building.

The local firemen serve without pay and are ready at all times to protect your property from fire should such protection become necessary. Your patronage of their minstrel will be appreciated.

Just one week after the death of Mr. George Dorsett, of Farmr, his mother, Mrs. I. M. Dorsett, received a check for one thousand dollars in payment of a life insurance policy held by her son with a Boston company.

In another column, is published a notice to Corn Club Boys. No boys will be enrolled after May 15th, so all who expect to join, should send in their names at once. Look up the article and read if interested.

Mr. S. E. Frazier, of Randleman Rt. 1, was in town on business last Monday and gave The Courier a call. Mr. Frazier told of the reorganization last Sunday of the Sunday School at Level Cross. Mr. G. C. Julian is the new superintendent of this school.

The boys of the fire department have in store a rare fund of wit and humor for the minstrel tomorrow night. They promise some brand new jokes, and other features of equal interest, and all who attend will be well repaid with an evening's fun.

Mr. Dewey Slack, a son of Mr. J. B. Slack, of Seagrave, suffered the misfortune of a broken leg one day last week. The young man was hauling crossties, and in some way fell from the wagon with the broken limb as a result.

Mr. William Reid, a cripple of Wake county, was in town last Saturday selling a small knife at ten cents each in an effort to raise money for an artificial limb. Many people responded and purchased the little knife from the unfortunate young man, who seemed very grateful for the help.

Mr. Casper Cox, a son of the late Yancey Cox, of Grant township, was in Asheboro last Monday, returning from Chicago, where he has been the past four years taking a course at the Christian Endeavor school. Mr. Cox will engage in Y. M. C. A. or other religious work.

Mr. H. H. Goley, of Worthville, was in town last Monday. Mr. Goley is the town tax collector for Worthville, and says he had some lots advertised for sale, but happily for all concerned, each of the land owners came up and paid their tax so that there was no sale as Mr. Goley expected when he came down Monday morning.

Mr. J. D. Jennings, who holds a responsible position with the Panama Canal, at Balboa Heights, Canal Zone, was in Asheboro last Monday on his way to Cedar Falls to visit relatives for a day or two before going to New York, from where he will sail today for the Canal Zone to resume his work. Mr. Jennings has been enjoying a vacation for a few weeks, and has been spending most of the time in Atlanta, Georgia.

MODERN JAIL BUILDING

WORK TO BEGIN AT ONCE ON RANDOLPH'S NEW JAIL—THE BUILDING TO BE MODERN IN EVERY WAY.

The contract for the steel work, cells, etc., in the new jail was awarded to the Pauly Jail Building Co., of New York City, and St. Louis, for the sum of $6,400.00 by the county commissioners last Monday. According to the contract, the cells are to be delivered at Asheboro and installed at this price. The Pauly Jail Building Company is the pioneer jail building company of this country, having been organized in 1835. The site for the new jail has been selected on the northeast corner of the courthouse lot, and work will begin at once. Most of the material has been purchased or contracted for. The brick from the old courthouse will be used for the construction of the walls, and it is said that these brick are of the very best quality, and that after being in use for many years they are better than many of the brick manufactured today.

The jail is to be up-to-date and modern in every way, in accordance with the plans of the North Carolina Public Charities organization, and will be fire-proof.

Mr. J. W. Stout, contractor for the work of erection, is in town laying off the ground preparatory to beginning the foundations of the building, and Architect Sayre, of Anderson, S. C., is also here conferring with the county commissioners.

BIRKHEAD-COX

Mr. I. D. Birkhead and Miss Hattie Cox were married yesterday evening at 7:30, at the residence of the officiating minister, Rev. H. E. Powell.

Mr. Birkhead is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Birkhead, of this town. He is the clever agent for the Norfolk-Southern at this place; while his bride is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Cox, of Ralph. She has been for several months the popular saleslady for the Randolph Supply Co., in Asheboro.

Hosts of friends extend congratulations and best wishes.

BUSINESS CONDITIONS IMPROVE

General improvement in business conditions with returning confidence was announced the first of the week in the Federal reserve board's digest of the reports of agents in the 12 reserve districts into which the country has been divided. Development of considerable activity in certain industries in connection with the war was pointed out.
