

FROM OUR CORRESPONDENTS

FRANKLINVILLE NEWS

Rev. W. O. Johnson preached two able sermons in his pulpit at the Baptist church Sunday morning and at night and after the sermon Sunday night several were baptised.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Routh and Mrs. H. B. Dale accompanied Mrs. A. P. Routh to St. Leo's hospital, Greensboro, last Tuesday, where she went for treatment of a sore hand and it was found necessary to amputate the thumb. Mrs. Routh stood the operation nicely and has since returned home and is doing as well as could be expected.

Mr. Ludolph Craven has moved to his new home on Craven Heights.

Mrs. Robert Marley, of Siler City, spent last week here with her brother, Mr. J. H. Marley.

Prof. D. M. Wetherly went to Edenton last Tuesday where he made an address to a body of Red Men.

Miss Lottie Julian left Thursday for Pleasant Garden, where she will spend some time visiting friends.

Miss Fannie Jones went to Mr. Preston Humble's, near Melancton, last week for a few days rest.

Mrs. Emma Phillips, Mrs. A. W. Tippett, and James Buie left on the early train Saturday morning for a visit to High Point and returned to the city Monday evening.

The Franklinville Manufacturing Company have closed their plant a few days to make some necessary repairs and a force of workmen will be kept on the move until their plant is again in operation, which will be in a few days.

Mrs. Jennie Brower is having two more rooms built to her residence, near Coon Creek.

Mr. W. C. Burrow and Mrs. Martha Neighbors were married at the residence of Mr. Paul Maness, Sunday evening. W. C. Jones, Esq., officiating. Mr. Burrow is a son of Mr. J. H. Burrow and Mrs. Neighbors is a daughter of Mrs. Bettie Maness. We extend to the happy couple our congratulations and wish for them a long and happy life. They will make their future home in this place where the groom has a nice residence on Allred street.

Miss Pearl Martindale left last Friday for Raleigh for a few days visit to her sister.

Mr. L. M. Curtis is the proud possessor of the most unique walking doll in existence; it is equipped with the finest and most complicated clock work imaginable and when wound up, will walk as steady as a child and cut many pranks. It is over 50 years old and in perfect order and was patented in 1862.

Several of our friends purchased from a very innocent looking agent a supply of cinnamon bulbs, imported from the old country, which are to be placed in a flower pot, set in the house and in a few days they will grow and bloom and give off a halo of fragrance that would fill the whole house with the sweetest perfume and drive out all the insects and flies. The plants are growing nicely, but the sweet smell hasn't made its appearance yet, but is expected in a few days, then a wholesale slaughter of window screens and doors is expected. While they may cost a little more than screens, yet the delicious smell more than compensates for the extra cost. We might let your readers hear more about this wonderful plant when they develop into perfection. C. H. Julien and J. H. Ferris are close observers of plant life, and it would be quite interesting to learn their views of the sweet smelling plant.

TRINITY NEWS

Mrs. H. H. Hayes, who went to High Point Hospital, Friday, was operated on Saturday and is doing well. The prayers of many friends are with her and family in her sickness.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Pepper, of Thomasville, spent Sunday with their parents, Captain and Mrs. Parkin, and Mrs. M. C. Pepper.

W. S. Weeks, of Charlotte, came in Sunday afternoon to see his mother, Mrs. Jane Weeks. Mrs. Weeks, who has had a trained nurse with her for about three weeks, is almost well.

John Council, of Hickory, was in town recently to see friends.

H. H. Hayes ran down Sunday from the bedside of Mrs. Hayes to see his children.

Will Ellis, of High Point, spent Sunday in town with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Ellis.

Mr. Pearce, of High Point, was in town Sunday to see friends.

Marvin Andrews and family, who went to Mocksville Friday to visit friends and take in commencement, returned Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Hiram Paul is in Charlotte, visiting her daughter, Mrs. Dave White.

Dr. Staley, of High Point, was in town Sunday afternoon.

The Ladies' Aid Society met with Mrs. W. M. Leach Tuesday. There was little business on hand, and it was decided that the ladies begin now to make up fancy articles to be sold at a bazaar to be held some time in the fall. Mrs. Leach and Miss Lide served cake and coffee, which all enjoyed.

Mrs. W. A. Bivens, of Alhambra, and Mr. R. B. Terry, of High Point, were in town Thursday for the sale of the household furniture of their mother, Mrs. Emma Heitman. The home and land will be sold later.

RAMSEUR NEWS

Death of Mrs. Brewer—Mother's Day Observed—Interesting Personal.

One of the ablest and hardest Sunday school workers in the community is L. F. Craven the ideal superintendent of the M. E. Sunday school. The school is in a very flourishing condition.

Worthville baseball team met Ramseur on the local diamond last Saturday, the game resulting in a score of 15 to 5 in favor of the home team.

Ramseur has a strong team this year and we are justly proud of our boys. The following compose the team: Charles Craven pitcher; Clyde Allred, catcher; Glenn Scott, first baseman; Ernest Kivett, 2nd baseman; Coos Seawall, 3d baseman; Rudie Mitchell, left field; Lonnie Burgess, right field; Walter Craven, center field; Vernon Curtis, short stop.

Miss Daisy Edwards, of New Bern, visited Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Gant and Mrs. H. B. Carter recently.

The travelling public will take notice that our train now leaves at five o'clock, a. m., instead of 5:30 as formerly.

Mrs. W. H. Watkins is visiting her sister, Mrs. A. W. E. Capel, at Troy. She will spend a few days at Fayetteville also.

Miss Bessie Pool, of Bridgewater, is spending some time with her sister Mrs. W. O. Johnson.

Among the many visitors in town Sunday were the following: Dr. and Mrs. Fox and D. B. McCrary, of Asheboro; and Lem Caudle, of Liberty.

Our town was greatly shocked on Sunday to learn of the sudden death of Mrs. J. M. Brewer. Her death occurred at 8:30 in the morning. She was stricken with paralysis Saturday night at eleven o'clock, and died the next morning. She was a consistent member of the Baptist church, and was loved and esteemed by a large circle of friends and acquaintances. Interment was in the cemetery at the Christian church, Monday at 8 o'clock, in the presence of a large congregation of relatives and friends.

"Mother's Day" was observed at the M. E. church Sunday with appropriate exercises. The pastor, Rev. J. T. Rogers, preached a very touching and eloquent sermon from Ezekiel 16:44. Messrs. Smith, Craven, Marley, and Marsh sang "My Mother's Prayer;" and Mrs. S. Dikehouse and Miss Elizabeth Smith, "Mother's Bible."

The community is rejoicing over the nature-reviving rain we have just had. If we are blessed with a few more such seasons there will soon be plenty to eat "and to spare." Mr. Farmer had better form a line of battle against General Green or the general will have possession of the field in a short time.

Some of our young people attended the minstrel at Asheboro Friday night.

Mr. A. L. Smith, secretary Y. M. C. A., Washington, D. C., spent the week end with his brother, Mr. W. F. Smith and family. The audience at the M. E. church enjoyed his splendid singing Sunday night.

Messrs. Foust and Dark, of Mt. Vernon Springs, were in town looking after some of the "fair sex" Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Shaw, of High Point, spent Sunday in Ramseur. Although we have our eyes on him we fear he will capture valuable property in Ramseur and on Main street at that.

The ticket nominated by the town convention was elected last Tuesday. The ticket elected as follows: Mayor, H. B. Moore; Secretary, Fred R. Leonard; Treasurer, J. D. Leonard; Commissioners, L. F. Craven, J. I. Lambert J. A. Pugh, J. A. Brady, and V. C. Marley. Marshal, T. H. Ellis.

A. B. Covington is spending some time with his daughter, Mrs. Townsend at Ellerbe.

Miss Ida Turner, of Greensboro, is visiting at home for some time.

ARCHDALE NEWS

LIBERTY BOOK CLUB

Liberty, May 6.—Of notable interest among the society affairs of the week was the unusually interesting session of the Liberty book club at the home of Mrs. J. Rom Smith on Bon Air street.

Mr. Smith who understands thoroughly the art of being a gracious hostess with a most cordial greeting, invited her guests into the west parlor, made lovely with a profusion of Marshal Neil roses which filled the low bowls and slender crystal vases, placed about the room.

Mrs. Walter Albright gracefully presided over the meeting, it being the close of the club year, she made it very interesting. While the secretary called the roll each member responded with the title of her new book.

Mrs. Herbert Smith in her interesting way asked to extend to the retiring officers the thanks of the club for their faithful services during the past year.

Perhaps the most interesting feature of the afternoon was a paper prepared and read by Mrs. Charles Smith, reviewing the past year's work, including sketches of the books read by the club during the year.

She spoke of the many pleasant social hours we had spent together, and of how we as members have so much to be thankful for, none of us having gone to the Great Beyond, and hoped we might have another pleasant year. But if troubles and trials come to us, she asked that we be like Polly Anna, "Just try to play the glad game."

As she showed us how we had been in the mountains of Kentucky or "The Heart of the Hills," with John Fox, when waded us to the "Sunny France," to enjoy a genuine love tale of the "Rose of Old St. Louis," as told by Mary Dillon, stopping by the way to visit the innocent, cheerful character of "Miss Salina Lou" and her soap-box babies and various other good books she sketched over. We could but feel we had indeed spent many enjoyable hours together as well as many pleasant quiet ones, while reading our various books.

Mrs. Armp Patterson's superb voice charmed her hearers with her two songs, "Mother's Hymn to Me (Though old was none the less appreciated, being so near to Mother's Day) and "O Perfect Day!"

At the conclusion of this meeting the hostess assisted by her attractive daughters served a tempting salad course, followed by iced punch.

During the afternoon, Mrs. Guy Reitzel played in her usual attractive style, a number of selections on the piano.

To each guest and club member present, was given a dainty boutonniere of Marshal Neil roses.

The guests were Misses Mag and Julia Smith.

RANDLEMAN R. F. D. NO. 2.

PINSON NEWS

Rev. G. W. Williams filled his regular appointment at Hillsboro last Sunday. Sunday school was organized last Sunday at this place, with Rev. C. H. Cranford as superintendent.

Mr. Clifford Hill, who has been in Thomasville for some time is very sick at the home of his father, Mr. T. C. Hill.

Mr. T. C. Tolbert is erecting a hand some dwelling on his farm here and as soon as completed will move in; also Mr. J. Whit Davis is having a large dwelling house built on his farm near here. Pinson will grow despite the cry of hard times.

Mr. W. G. Hill, of Biscoe, who has been spending some time at the home of his brother-in-law, Mr. R. L. Tolbert has returned home.

We notice in the Dispatch that Mr. Wilson Hill has accepted a prominent position as traveling representative of the Yellow Jacket. We wish Mr. Hill success in his new field, as he is a man of honor and always doing something for the upbuilding of his community, of course we differ with Mr. Hill on many questions, especially politics, but we believe Mr. Hill is honest and sincere in his belief and if it is his desire to represent the Yellow Jacket, we cannot blame him to do so.

Mr. Hill has also been connected with a large real estate deal near here. He is a thorough going man, and we admire his popularity.

The Republicans in this section say they are not going to shave or have a hair cut until there is a Republican President in the White House. We predict for them a bumper crop of beard.

Miss Cora Hill, who has been teaching near Lexington, has returned to her home at Pinson. Miss Hill is a first class teacher and a popular young lady and we are glad to have her with us again.

Despite the war in the East, business is almost normal everywhere. Much to the disappointment of our enemies, who have predicted starvation and ruin, oh! ye calamity howlers.

Success to The Courier.
