MISS LINEBERRY ENTERTAINS

On last Saturday evening, May 15, Mr. E. C. Lineberry and his sister, Bessie, gave a most enjoyable party at their home near Staley.

The guests were received from 7:45 to 8 o'clock at the front door and shown into a beautiful and spacious hall by Miss Bessie and later presented in the parlor which was artistically decorated with white Marie Gullat roses, white meadow lilies and green foliage, by her brother. He proved his skill in delightful entertainment by pleasant and jovial conversation for half an hour, after which various games were played. Each participant seemed to be in a humorous mood, thus making the hour a most pleasant one. Miss Lemma Pickett and Mr. Edgar Lineberry opened up a drawing contest, the purpose of which was to select partners. It consisted of hearts with the latest songs. The couple drawing "When the Dew is on the Rose," was to occupy the most distinguished place in the dining room. The winners of which were Miss Mabel Pickett and Mr. Nerus Moore. The one drawing "In the Land of my Best Girl," were to sing that which their hearts suggested. The lucky ones were Miss Bessie Lineberry and Mr. Harvey Browne.

After this the dining hall which was tastefully decorated with white lilies, asparagus, sprengre ferns and wandering Jew, was thrown open and the most delicious course was served. Misses Bessie Lineberry and Lemma Pickett in their quiet, yet charming manner, waited on the first and second tables, while Messrs. Metz Pickett and Edgar Lineberry unveiled their usefulness as well as their dignity at the third. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Williams assisted these youngsters in the kitchen. After satisfying the appetite, the merry couples were ushered into the parlor, where Miss Flossie Mc-Masters gracefully rendered a nice selection of instrumental pieces. At 11 o'clock the merry, yet sad hearts, bid their most charming hostess good night and wended their way to their respective homes.

The guests from other communities were Miss Virlie Lineberry, of Pomona; Messrs. Nerus Moore, Liberty; Jessa Henley, Guilford College; and Minor Taylor, Siler City.

WHY YOU ARE NERVOUS

The nervous system is the alarm system of the human body. In perfect health we hardly realize that we have a network of nerves, but when health is ebbing, when strength is declining, the same nervous system gives the alarm in headaches, tiredness, dreamlike sleep, irritability and unless corrected, leads straight to a breakdown. To correct nervousness, Scott's Emulsion is exactly what you should take; its rich nutriment gets into the blood and rich blood feeds the tiny nerve-cells while the whole system responds to its refreshing tonic force. It is free from alcohol.
