

WEEKLY WEATHER FORECAST

Issued by the U. S. Weather Bureau, Washington, D. C., for the week beginning Wednesday, June 16, 1915.

For South Atlantic States: Showers Wednesday, Saturday and Sunday, with temperatures above the seasonal average.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Miss Catherine Burns was the guest of Miss Alma Reitzell, in Greensboro, for a few days last week.

Messrs. George Lowe, Hal Ingram, and Rodney Snow, of High Point, were visitors in town last Friday.

Misses Mary McCain and Blanche King visited friends in Troy last week.

Miss Ulnah Rush returned last Friday from a visit to her aunt, Mrs. T. C. Ward, in Greensboro.

Mrs. C. C. Howell, of Downing, Fla., is a visitor in the home of her brother, Mr. John T. Moffitt, on Sunset Avenue.

Remember Chautauqua, only two weeks from today, and the seven joyous days that will follow.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Newby, little daughter, Lottie, and son Fred, and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cranford visited relatives at Farmer last Sunday.

Among the business visitors in town last Saturday, were Mr. E. S. Kearns, of Asheboro Route 3, and Mr. G. H. Cornelison, of Seagrave.

Mrs. Jean Rush and daughter, Miss Margaret, visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Wade, at Troy, last week.

Mr. Roy Cox, of Pisgah, was a week end visitor in town. Mr. Cox has just returned from a trip of several weeks to Tennessee and Western North Carolina.

Miss Lillian Lewis, of Troy, was a guest of Misses Lanta and Lizzie Winslow one day recently. Miss Lewis was returning home from Richmond, Virginia.

Misses Xannie Stowe, of Raleigh, and Rosa Stowe, of High Point, visited the families of their parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Stowe, and their sister, Mrs. W. P. Royster, last Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. M. H. Lassiter and daughter, Miss Chloe, and Mr. Jno. Vuncannon, of Mechanic, were in town last Saturday on business connected with settling the estate of Mr. M. H. Lassiter, who died one day last week.

Mr. W. J. Lowe, of Kemps Mills, was in town last Friday. Mr. Lowe travels for the St. Louis Lightning Rod Co. He has just completed a contract for putting rods to several houses at Ramseur.

The High Point Enterprise tells of a most enjoyable musical entertainment given recently in that town by the pupils of Miss Florence Blair, a former Asheboro lady, who has just closed a very successful year's work in her chosen profession.

Rev. W. R. Lowdermilk has recently taken the pastorate of the M. P. church at Concord, to succeed Rev. J. R. Hutton, resigned on account of ill health. Mr. Lowdermilk is a native of Randolph, being a brother to Mr. S. F. Lowdermilk and Mrs. Charles Smith, of this town.

Dr. and Mrs. Herndon, of Elon College, are guests of their daughter, Mrs. John T. Moffitt, on Sunset Avenue. Dr. Herndon has been in quite feeble health for some time and fears were entertained for his recovery, but he is now very much improved. His many friends in Asheboro are glad that he is able to be out again.

Rev. S. M. Rankin, of Greensboro, who has been in town the past week for the revival services at the auditorium, left Monday morning for Wilkesboro, where he is conducting a series of meetings this week. Rev. Mr. Black, the leading minister of the meeting also left Monday, for his home at Charlotte.

Randolph county made a most creditable record at the Normal College, Greensboro, the past year, especially in the large number of girls enrolled. Thirty-seven girls from this county were students of the State's college for women during the school year 1914-15, this being the largest enrollment from any county except Guilford.

The girls of the Junior Philathetas classes of the M. E. and M. P. churches enjoyed an outing and picnic near Ramseur, last Thursday evening. Chaperoned by their teachers, Misses Kate Phillips and Bertha Cox, the merry party went down in automobiles, spread the contents of their baskets, and enjoyed a picnic supper at Hudson's Mill, returning home about 8 o'clock in the evening.

Mr. Will Lovett is in Burlington on business this week.

Mrs. A. C. Parsons, of Star, was in town shopping last Monday.

Miss Edna Laughlin visited friends in Greensboro a few days recently.

Mrs. Gurney Ferree, of Asheboro Route 1, was in town shopping last Tuesday.

Miss Claudia Dickens was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Maness at Cambur, last Sunday.

Mr. Frank Birkhead and cousin, Miss McCoy Birkhead visited relatives in Candor last Sunday.

Miss Winnie Julian, of Climax, has been the guest of her father, Mr. W. R. Julian, for a few days this week.

A party of about twenty young people leave today for a camping trip of ten days at Lakeview.

Miss Mittie Lovett was a week-end guest of Mrs. J. M. Scarborough, at Worthville, returning home Monday.

Miss Bess Laughlin returned last Tuesday from a visit to Mrs. M. S. Hale at Jackson Springs.

Mrs. M. G. Lovett is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Irvin Cox, at Worthville, this week.

Miss Anna Hinshaw, of Randleman, is the guest of Mrs. N. T. Hinshaw at her home in West Asheboro.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Bost have returned home from a visit to relatives near Danville, Va.

Mr. E. M. Cullom and sister, Miss Thelma, are at Saxe, Va., this week, conducting an institute.

Mr. B. F. Brittain, of this town, has been appointed by Judge Boyd United States Commissioner for four years.

Mrs. Martha Blair will spend the summer with her daughter, Mrs. Robert N. Noble, in Chicago, says the High Point Enterprise.

Mrs. Robah Betts and Miss Ione Wilson, of High Point, are guests of Mrs. Betts' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Ridge.

Mrs. C. M. Hauser, of High Point, has recently been confined to her home by a rather severe attack of laryngitis, but is now much improved. Mrs. Hauser who was Miss Annie Tomlinson before marriage, is well-known in Asheboro, she having been for several years one of the popular teachers in the Asheboro graded school, and her hosts of friends here are sorry to hear of her illness, but glad to hear she is recovering.

Rev. Eli Reece, of High Point, was in town Sunday, attending the revival meeting at the school auditorium. During the absence of the pastor of the Friends church, Mrs. I. T. Cox, who is in a Richmond hospital for treatment, Rev. Mr. Reece will occupy her pulpit except on third Sundays. Next Sunday being the third Sunday in June, Miss Clara Cox, of High Point, will address the Friends congregation of this town.

The following item clipped from the Reidville Review is concerning a native of Randolph, and hence of local interest: "Rev. E. G. Lowdermilk showed us the other day two of the largest hen eggs we ever saw. Their combined weight was seven ounces and sixty grams. They measured seven and one-half inches in diameter each lengthwise. Mr. Lowdermilk also tells us he has corn in tassel in his garden."

Miss Lillie Fentress, who has been a teacher in the Asheboro graded school for the past two or three years, has been elected a teacher in the graded school at Sanford, and will teach there next year. The summer school that was to have been taught in the Asheboro graded school building by Miss Fentress, is being taught by Miss Lillie Parrish instead. Her many friends here will be sorry to know that Miss Fentress will no longer be one of the Asheboro teachers.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Ashcraft, of Monroe, were in town last Saturday, on their way home from a visit to Mrs. Ashcraft's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bulla, in Back Creek township. Mr. Ashcraft was much impressed with the improvement in Randolph county's roads. He said that six or seven years ago, two and one half hours were required to drive the distance out to the home of his wife's father, but on last Saturday morning the trip to Asheboro was made in 20 minutes.

The fire alarm sounded Monday morning, and it was soon ascertained that the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Hinshaw, in West Asheboro, was on fire. The boys of the Fire Department were promptly on hand, and succeeded in stopping the blaze before there was extensive damage done. The home and furniture were damaged probably to the amount of a hundred dollars, largely by the water which had to be used to stop the flames.

Floyd Allred, who was stabbed by Frank Smith, in Albemarle, June 5, and was for some days expected to die, was so much improved that he was brought home last Thursday, and taken to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Allred, in North Asheboro. He is now able to be up around the house and will probably be out in a few more days.

Mr. A. J. Thurber, of Randleman R. F. D., was in town yesterday.

A son was born recently to Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Bostick, of Cedar Falls.

Miss Bessie Johnson, of Trinity, is visiting her sister, Mrs. E. B. Wilkes.

Miss Enola Prannell is attending the summer school of the Normal College, Greensboro.

Messrs. A. B. Micoq and I. S. Kearns, of Farmer, were in town last Tuesday.

Miss Blanche Birkhead visited Miss Bertha Luck at Seagrave last Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Allie Spoon left the first of the week for Greensboro, where she has a position.

Mrs. A. C. McAllister went to Greeboro for a short visit last Monday, returning Tuesday.

Miss Clara Moffitt is the guest of Miss Florence York at Central Falls, this week.

Miss Leota Moffitt has been the guest of relatives near Ramseur for a few days recently.

Col. A. C. McAllister is in Raleigh, attending a meeting of the Associated Charities Association, of which he is a member.

Mrs. J. V. Hunter and sons, John and Neeley, returned yesterday from an extended visit to relatives at Charlotte.

Miss Polly Heitman, of Trinity, arrived Tuesday of this week, for a visit to Misses Annie and Myrtle Asbury.

Miss Fleta Brown, of Asheboro Rt. 1, has returned home from a visit to her sister, Mrs. James Buffalo, in Raleigh.

Prof. A. N. Cullom and daughter, Miss Florence, will conduct the music at Mt. Olivet Sunday School convention next Sunday.

Miss Ella McElvie spent the last week-end with Mrs. H. L. Hollowell, in Salisbury, returning to her work in the Empire Store on Monday.

Contractor Frazier and his force of hands began the work of laying brick on Mr. W. D. Stedman's large new building last Tuesday.

The local military company has been ordered to Morehead City, August 3, for the annual encampment of ten days.

The Courier acknowledges receipt of an invitation to the next meeting of the North Carolina Convention of Gingers to be held in Raleigh, July 29, next.

Miss Bernice Hurley, of Biscoe, passed through Asheboro last Tuesday, on her way to Chapel Hill, where she will attend the University Summer School.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hinshaw, of Seagrave, visited Mr. Hinshaw's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Hinshaw, in West Asheboro, a few days the first of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Kearney Peacock, of Denton, and Miss Linnie Dorsett, of Farmer, were visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hannah last Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Walton visited relatives at Norman last Sunday. Mr. Walton returned home Monday, but Mrs. Walton is spending a few days there before returning.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Macon, of Cordele, Ga., who have been guests of relatives at Farmer, for several days, visited the family of Mr. Macon's uncle, Mr. B. F. Newby, on Elm street, for a day or two this week.

Mr. Clyde Auman, of Seagrave, was in town last Monday evening, and addressed the Baracas and Philathetas of the various churches in the M. P. church, concerning the organization of a Baraca and Philathetas Union for Randolph county.

Mrs. William C. Hammer and daughter, Miss Harriette, and Mrs. J. M. Hancock returned last Tuesday from a stay of several weeks at Mrs. Hammer's cottage at Jackson Springs. Mrs. Hammer is much improved in health.

Miss Edna Hill, who has been in training at Charlotte Presbyterian Hospital, for some time, has recently graduated as a nurse from the institution. Miss Hill is a niece of Mrs. Sallie Rush, of this town, and she often spends her vacations in Asheboro. She was for some years a teacher in the graded schools of the state.

Mr. Ernest Leach, of Star, was in town last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Parrish are guests of relatives at Cambur, Va.

Mr. Will Luck, of High Point, is in town for a few days.

Miss Billie Spoon is in Greensboro, attending the summer school at the State Normal College.

Mr. E. C. Kelly made a business trip to Greensboro the first of this week.

Let's clean up our town before Chautauqua and then keep it clean all summer.

Mrs. L. D. Perkins, of Spencer, was the week-end guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. I. Dickens.

Miss Alma Reitzell, of Greensboro, visited Miss Catherine Burns a few days the first of this week.

Miss Clara Pugh is the guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Davis, at Glenola.

Mrs. John T. Moffitt is visiting relatives and friends in Greensboro for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Yow have gone to Charlotte, where they will make their home.

Mrs. A. O. Ferree and little daughter, Annie, Leslie, are visiting friends at Kannapolis this week.

Mrs. George York, of Central Falls, has returned from a visit to her parents at Cooleemee.

District Attorney Wm. C. Hammer and Mr. Hal M. Worth returned Tuesday from Greensboro court. They leave Monday for Wilkesboro court.

Mr. E. A. Russell, formerly of Asheboro, now of Troy, whose serious illness was reported in last week's Courier, is now much improved.

Messrs. Gurney and Walter Millikan have moved to Randleman and they will conduct a lunch room and cafe there.

Mr. and Mrs. Seth W. Laughlin and daughters, Misses Mary Wade and Edna spent Saturday and Sunday in Greensboro.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. York and children visited the family of Mr. and Mrs. E. O. York, at Central Falls last Sunday.

Misses Nellie Spoon and Leiyer Ferree, of Ramseur, were in town Monday afternoon visiting Miss Lillie Richardson.

Mr. Lester Hockett, of Climax, a student of the Richmond Medical College, is a visitor in the home of his uncle, Mr. Carl Cox.

Miss Julia A. Thorns left Sunday for Chicago, where she will visit Mrs. Robert N. Noble, and will later go on to San Francisco for the Exposition.

Miss Uralie Williams and Mr. Zell Brown were guests of Miss Kate Winingham, near Brower's Chapel, last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Stout, of Sheridan, Indiana, are visiting Mr. Stout's aunt, Mrs. Cora Moffitt, on Salisbury street, this week.

Mrs. K. U. Willard went to High Point last Tuesday, for a visit of several days. She expects to return home next Monday.

Young Frank Smith, who was held in Albemarle Jail for stabbing Floyd Allred, has been released on bond since the great improvement in Allred's condition.

Miss Frances Walker left Tuesday for Mt. Gilead where she will visit for ten days. Miss Walker has been elected a teacher in the Mt. Gilead graded school for the coming winter.

Mrs. Otis Rich was hostess to the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the M. P. church, at her home in South Asheboro, last Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Macon, who have been visiting relatives at Farmer and Asheboro, for some time, left last Tuesday, for their home in Cordele, Ga.

Miss Florence Bingham, Daytona, Florida, who was a teacher in the Burlington graded schools the past year, is the guest of Misses Blanche and Bertha Cox, at their home on Academy street.

Mrs. D. W. Spoon, who since the death of her husband a few weeks ago, has been making her home in Montgomery county, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dawkins, near town for a few days.

Co. K. Third Regiment North Carolina National Guard, of Asheboro, has been invited to take part in the military display at the Fourth of July celebration and unveiling of the monument to General Green, at Guilford Battle Ground, July 3d. The State will provide a special car for the boys.

J. C. HANNAH & SON

Will aid you in your efforts to satisfy the appetites of those dependent upon you to furnish good things to eat during this hot weather. They have everything in the vegetable line and simply everything for the table.

Binders, Mowers, Binder Twine

JUST RECEIVED—A carload of McCormick Binders and Mowers. Also McCormick Binder Twine. If interested, Phone, Write or Call to see us. MCCRARY-REDDING HARDWARE CO.

Miss Fleta and Annie Fox are visiting relatives and friends at Franklinville.

Miss Mary Ferree, of Durham, was the guest of Miss Alice Ingold last week. Miss Ingold is attending the summer school at the State Normal College, and will teach in Raleigh next winter.

Mr. Robert L. Caveness, of Cole-ridge, was the guest of Clerk of the Court J. M. Caveness, last Sunday. He was accompanied home by Misses Blanche, Faye and Esther Caveness, who have been visiting Miss Lucile Caveness for several days.

News has come that Robert S. Harris, of Mt. Airy, a brother of Mrs. Sallie Rush, has been stricken with apoplexy and is not expected to recover. Mr. Harris is 72 years of age, and is a native of this county and a veteran of the Civil War.

REVIVAL MEETING CLOSED

The revival meeting, conducted in the auditorium of the graded school building, closed last Sunday night. During the week, Rev. Wm. Black, of Charlotte, preached strong sermons morning and evening, and large crowds attended. Our people were much impressed by the earnestness and power of the minister and many took vows to begin the Christian life. A number gave their names to join the different churches of the town, and it is hoped that much permanent good has been done.

Although Mr. Black is a Presbyterian, denominationalism seemed to be forgotten during last week, all the pastors of the town and the people in general joining heartily in the services.

MAYOR CRANFORD RESIGNS

Mayor C. C. Cranford, who was re-elected at the town election last month resigned his position last week, giving as a reason the continued illness of Mrs. Cranford. Mr. D. B. McCrary, chairman of the board of town commissioners, was appointed to succeed him.

WARREN-JONES

On last Thursday, June 10th, at 10:30 in the morning, Mr. W. Curtis Warren and Miss Ethel Jones were married near Staley, Mr. G. R. Williams, J. P., performing the ceremony that made them man and wife. The ceremony was witnessed only by the family of the officiating justice and Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Kivett. After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Warren drove to the home of the bride's parents, where they enjoyed a sumptuous dinner and then went to Liberty and boarded the train for a trip of a few days to northern cities. They returned the 13th and will make their home in Liberty, where Mr. Warren has recently erected a new home.

The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Warren, of Staley Route 1, who is a prosperous farmer. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Jones, of near White's Chapel church. Many friends wish them a long, happy and prosperous life.

MORE SURVEYS OF ROADS

Last week Mr. J. R. Edwards, Road Engineer in charge of road work in Guilford county, assisted by Mr. Robert Crawford, civil engineer, surveyed the road from Worthville to Randleman. Both these gentlemen came down from Greensboro Tuesday morning to survey the road from Randleman to Brown's X Roads. Work will begin in the near future on grading and surfacing both these roads. In fact all the public roads in Randleman township are to be relocated and surfaced as rapidly as the work can be done.

The work in Randleman township is being done by a township bond issue.

Roxboro officers seized 110 gallons of whiskey, arrested Thomas Leonard of Lexington, and Burton Charles, of Winston-Salem, and confiscated three automobiles just outside the limits of the town, last week.

ALPHA DELTAS MEET

The members of the Alpha Delta club held their first meeting of the summer last Friday afternoon at the home of Misses Blanche and Bertha Cox. The following officers were elected for the coming year: President, Miss Cora Redding; vice-president, Miss Bera Scarborough; secretary, Miss Bertha Cox; treasurer, Mrs. E. L. Hedrick.

The members of the club will be entertained Wednesday afternoon of this week, by the Misses Cox in honor of Miss Florence Bingham, of Daytona, Florida, who will be their house guest for a few days.

DEATH OF LITTLE BOY

Thomas, the 11-year-old son of Mr. Will Johnson, of Sophia, died in the hospital, at High Point, last Friday. The body was brought home and taken to Marlboro for burial Saturday. The funeral was conducted by Rev. Amos Gregson. The father and one sister survive.

I have for service a fine Gernsey Bull that I shipped from the Straley Farm at Princeton, W. Va. Why take your cows to a common stock bull when you can get the service of a thoroughbred at the same price? The Gernsey is the kind the Southern R. R. recommends all along its roads. Come and see my bull. J. R. OWEN, Randleman, N. C., Rt. 2.

WANTED—A Position as stenographer; and have some training in bookkeeping. Am just in from school. Apply to, ROSA BELLE BONKEMEYER, Randleman, N. C., Route No. 2.

FOR SALE—Pair of medium sized young mules. Will take two-year old colt in trade. R. B. STRICKLAND, High Point, N. C.

FOR SALE—I have 4 mule-footed pigs that will make good brood sows, and 2 mule-footed male pigs that will make good stock hogs. I will guarantee the mule-footed hogs against cholera. These hogs are the best that I have ever raised and make the largest on the least food of any on the market. J. R. OWEN, Randleman, N. C.

FOR RENT—One two story five room dwelling in west Asheboro for rent at $4.00 per month. One two room dwelling, outside corporate limits, on the South of Asheboro at $2.00 per month. Apply to, WM. C. HAMMER, Asheboro, N. C.

NOTICE

Having qualified as administratrix on the estate of M. H. Lassiter, deceased, before J. M. Caveness, Clerk of the Superior Court of Randolph county.

All persons having claims against said estate are notified to present them to the undersigned, duly verified, on or before the 12th day of June 1916, or this notice will be pleaded in bar of their recovery; and all persons owing said estate will come forward and make immediate settlement.

This 12th day of June, 1915. E. J. LASSITER, CHLOE LASSITER, Admrx.

NOTICE

North Carolina Randolph County Superior Court. Before the Clerk, Elma Macon, petitioner, vs.

Sarah E. Branson, et al. The defendants, Flora E. Stinson and husband, Charles Stinson and Lydia J. Inman and husband, Thomas Inman, will take notice that an action entitled as above has been commenced against them in the Superior Court of Randolph county and that summons has issued in said action for their return before the Clerk of said court at his office in the county courthouse in Asheboro, N. C., on the 14th day of July, 1915; that the subject matter and purpose of said action is as follows, to wit: To sell for division among petitioner and defendants the lands of which the said petitioner and defendants are seized as tenants in common, situate in said county; and said defendants will further take notice that they are required to be and appear before the said Clerk at the aforesaid time and place named for return of summons and answer or demand to the petition or the relief demanded will be granted. J. M. CAVENESS, C. S. C. This June 14, 1915.