Our people are trying to exterminate the fly as never before not only by screening their houses, but fighting them in every nook and corner, for we are learning that the fly is not only a nuisance, but a carrier of disease and while our health record in good the way to make it better is to use every means to prevent disease. Let's trap Mr. Fly and see the record go up.

NEWS FROM TRINITY

Trinity, June 14.—Mr. D. M. Ballance, who moved to High Point about a year ago, has returned to Trinity, where he has opened a new and improved stock of goods in the store building at one time occupied by Prof. Heitman. His many friends are glad to have him back. We Trinity people think that no town can boast of more polite and obliging merchants than ours, and that Mr. Ballance is quite an addition to the number.

Much to the regret of the townspeople, especially the young men, the last of the Camp Fire girls left for High Point Friday.

Mr. Frank Ellis, who for the past year, has been studying medicine at the University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, returned home Friday. We are all glad to have his bright face and interesting presence among us again.

Dr. and Mrs. Stephen B. Weeks, of Washington, D. C., spent the day in town last Saturday.

The Camp Fire girls, chaperoned by Mrs. Ellis, took in the lawn party at Archdale, Thursday night. Everything was nicely arranged and it was quite an enjoyable occasion, with delicious refreshments and other pleasures.

There was a meeting of the officers and superintendents of the township Sunday School, last Sunday, at 3 p. m., in the college chapel, to arrange for the township convention, which is to convene at Fairview, some time in July. Prof. Johnson was unanimously elected chairman for this year in the place of Mr. G. T. Wood. Many regret the fact that it was decided to have the meeting on the Sabbath, as the occasion is so much like a picnic that many think a week day would suit better. It does seem that Christian people could take one day out of the three hundred and sixty-five for the Lord's business. Even then, we would not begin to give a tenth of our time to his service.

Mrs. Blanche Boyles Carr, of Greensboro, gave a very interesting lecture to the Light Bearers Sunday afternoon. Not only the little folks, but the grown-ups who were fortunate enough to be there felt that it was good to be there. We always welcome Mrs. Carr, and congratulate Mrs. Bruce Craven, who has charge of the little folks, in securing such a treat for us.

The Children's Day service at the M. E. church was a great occasion for the children and a very enjoyable and inspiring one for all who attended. The theme of the day was: "Soldiers of the King." Though there had been little time spent in preparation of this program, it was well rendered by the little folks and showed efficiency on the part of the one who trained them, Miss Lizzie Smith.

Messrs. W. B. Webster and T. E. West visited White's Chapel and Mt. Olivet Sunday Schools last Sunday in the interest of the township Sunday School work. And yet Randolph has been the banner county for a number of times. Surely there needs to some missionary work be done in our state along this line of work.

A TRUE SOLDIER

Yes, a true soldier of the cross, and a follower of the meek and lowly Jesus. Such was the life and daily walk of Brother R. W. Lineberry. I will remember when I was only a very small boy I used to see Bob with his wooden gun and sword and company of small boys and he as captain of the company. They had a camp not far from town and would imitate the soldiers of the Civil War, and he seemed to take a delight in it. I was too small to join them but can remember how he looked and how proud he seemed to be a "soldier." But that was nothing compared to his soldierly for Jesus, for he had a captain to follow and he followed him all through life, and was a brave and good soldier, always ready and willing to do his captain's will. Many, many times I have seen him in meetings filled with the Holy Ghost and rejoicing in the Savior's love, and his bright countenance would beam with that love and he would talk of the glory world. It seemed that he could see the Savior and the loved ones that were gone on before to meet him at his coming.

He was a model Christian gentleman, loyal to his church and country, firm in his belief but open to conviction. His daily walk was for God. If we had enough soldiers like him, we would not need courthouses and jails. His daily walk was a lamp that shined brightly, and will continue to help us all to live as we should. May God bless and save the bereaved ones, and may they all get on the life boat that will carry them on to that glory world that Brother Bob talked so much about and find him basking in the sunbeams of unclouded glory. There he will be praising and shouting for his Captain that led him through all dark places into light and brightness unspeakable and never ending.

In this life, we cannot see him again; out if we will follow in his footsteps, and obey his teachings, we will see him and to part no more. Brother Bob will be missed badly both at home and in the Sunday school and church. We will all miss him, but let us all strive to meet him in the beautiful land of pure delight where saints immortal dwell.—L. M. Caudle.

Tribute of Love and Respect

First—That we, the members of the class, bow in humble submission to His will who doeth all things well.

Second—That in her death the class has lost one of its truest and most faithful members, and the family a devoted mother.

Third—That we extend to the bereaved family our deep and heart-felt sympathy and bid them trust in the Heavenly Father.

Fourth—That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the bereaved family, and to the Christian Advocate, The Courier and Bulletin for publication.
