WEEKLY WEATHER FORECAST

Issued by the U. S. Weather Bureau Washington, D. C., for the week beginning Wednesday, July 14, 1915.

For South Atlantic and East Gulf States: This week will be one of generally fair and warm weather except that scattered thunder showers are probable.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mr. G. H. Cornelison, of Seagro

Mr. A. H. York, of Ramseur, visitor in Asheboro last Thursday

Mr. E. F. Cox, of Ramseur, spent

Mr. June Johnson, of Trinity Route was in town last Thursday.

Rev. E. J. Poe will preach in the hiethodist Episcopal Church, South, at Cedar Falls tonight at 8 o'clock.

Mr. M. E. Allen, of Asheboro Route was a caller at the Courier office Thursday of last week.

Mr. S. L. Varner, of Denton, was among the visitors in Asheboro last

Mr. Enos Sykes, of Seagrove, was business visitor in Asheboro Tues

Dr. J. F. Miller will move into Mr. W. J. Scarboro's residence on South Fayetteville street this week.

Mr. J. P. Boroughs, of Kemps Mill, was a visitor in Asheboro the first of the week.

Miss Hazel Cox, of Pisgah, came Asheboro Monday and speat by with Mrs. Chas. L. Presnell.

Mrs. D. B. McCrary has been confined to her room by illness for several days, but is reported as improving Margaret Erwin, the little daugh-ter of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Robins, who has been quite ill for a week or more is much better now.

Misses Mittie Lovett and Harriet ammer left last Thursday morning or Burlington to spend some time at the home of Dr. J. W. Page.

Mrs. Peace, of Frazier's Siding, was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. H. H. Kennedy, on Sunset Avenue, last Sun-

Mr. J. C. Hannah and daughter, Miss annie, are spending the week with elatives and friends in New Hope waship.

Mr. Shube W. Lauglin has purchased the stock of goods of Mr. E. H Bean, which was sold by Mr. J. H McCain, as receiver last week.

Misses Kate and Lizzie Phillips left Monday for Chapel Hill, where they go to attend the University of North Carolina summer school.

Mr. and Mrs. Fowle Birkhead, of Spencer, are spending some time at the home of Mr. Birkhead's father, Mr. Frank Birkhead.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. York, formerly of Asheboro, now of Star, were in town Tuesday shopping and attending to some business matters.

Mrs. J. H. Anderson has returne to her home at Greensboro after vis-iting relatives here and taking i autauqua. Miss Beatrice Bulla returned to her home at Trinity last Thursday after visit to her uncle, Mr. D. B. Mc-

Mrs. Hope Neely and son, Master Hope, of Norfolk, are expected to ar-rive in Asheboro the last of the week for a visit to Dr. and Mrs. J. V. Hun-

Mr. J. S. Lewis and family and Mr. Frank Redding left the first of the week for San Francisco, where they go to attend the Panama-Pacific Expo-

Mr. R. C. Johnson is moving his stock of goods from the building on Depot street where he has been mer-chandising, into the W. J. Miller build-ing on Worth street.

Mr. Hugh McCain, a citizen of Back creek township, was in Asheboro tuesday of this week. His friends were were glad to see him in town, as the does not get out here very often.

Mr. Leon Steed, whose home is at Steeds, but who has had a position as stenographer in Greenville, S. C., has been a guest at the home of Dr. F. E. Asbury for several days this week.

in Arhoboro. She will spend some time in Greensboro with her sister, Mrs J. R. Parks, and then return to her home at Downing, Fia.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Kennett, two of the oldest citizens of Randleman, were taken ill last week and arc not expected to recover, Mr. John Ken-nett, a son was summoned from Mooresville; Mrs. N. H. Slack, from Greensboro, and Rev. W. F. Kennett, and M. P. mirster, and one or two other children.

Work is progressing nicely on the several new buildings which are going up in different parts of Asheboro. Brick has been unbaded at the Acme Hosiery Mill for an addition of a wing Jox100 feet which will be built at once. Mr. John Pressell's erecting a large residence in North Asheboro, near Mr. Randail Pressell's, which will be completed before loag. The garage being built by Mr. Sulen Stedman is mearing completion and will be ready to occupy soon. The residences of Messrs. Basil Brittain and J.A.York, in South Asheboro, will be ready for occupancy in the near future.

Mr. G. M. Pugh, of Millboro, spent Monday of this week in Asheboro.

Born-To Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Cline of Thomasville, a daughter, July 3.

Mr. Colan Davis, of Coleridge, visit-i in Greensboro last week. Mrs. M. A. Moffitt has been the guest of relatives in Greensboro severais

Miss Annie Davis, of High Point, was the guest of relatives in Asheboro Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. ad Mrs. R. W. Frazier, of Troy, visited relatives in Asheboro for a few days last week.

Mr. T. B. Tysor, of Erect, spent everal days with friends in Asheboro ast week,

Mr. Mint Rush, of Ellerbee, was among the business visitors in Ashe-boro last Saturday.

Mr. J. T. Council, of Thomasville was a visitor at the home of his uncle Col. A. C. McAlister last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McAlister and Mr. A. W. McAlister, of Greensboro, spent Sunday at the home of Col. and Mrs. A. C. McAlister.

Mr. Jordan H. Spencer, living be-ow Why Not, drove up to Asheboro early Monday morning and spent a part of the day.

Mr. W. J. Lowe, of Kemp's Mills, has just finished putting a set of light-ning rods on the home of Mr. C. C. Granford.

Miss Mary Tysor returned to her nome at Erect last Saturday after spending some time visiting friends an Asheboro. Mr. J. H. Mason, representing the Charlotte Observer, was in Asheboro Tuesday and Wednesday of this week in the interest of the Observer.

Mr. H. A. Zybell, of Raleigh, was a business visitor in Asheboro Tuesday. He represents the Oliver Typewriter Company.

Mr. Charles Ireland, a prominent business man of Greenaboro, has been attending M. E. conference here this

Mr. and Mrs. John Ward, of Row-iand, are spending a few days in Asheboro, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burns.

Mrs. Martha Presnell went to Rae-ford one day last week, for a visit of several days with the family of her son, Mr. Cleveland Presnell.

Mr. A. O. Ferree returned Wednes-lay morning from Kannapolis, where he spent several days with friends and relatives.

Messrs. V. C. Marley and C. B. Smith, of Ramseur, were in Asheboro Tuesday afternoon attending M. E. Conference. Mr. Grady Miller, who has been in New York for several months, is spending the week with his father, Mr. J. G. Miller.

Dr. R. L. Caveness and family, of Coleridge, have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Caveness for a few days this week.

Meskrs. C. C. Cranford, O. W. Rich, Vireil Presnell and families left Wed-nesday morning for Wilmington in cars. They will spend a week or ten days camping on the beach.

Rev. J. S. Black, of Tennessee, pros-pective pastor of the Presbyterian church of Asheboro, will preach at that church next Sunday morning and

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Yow, of Char-lote, have been spending several days this week with Mr. Yow's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Yow, in West Ashe-

Dr. C. E. Wilkerson, who underwent an operation for appendicitis at St. Leo's Hospital recently, is recovering rapidly and will be able to take up his work again soon.

Deputy Marshal J. L. Boger, of Greensboro, came to Asheboro Friday and went on down in Union township to arrest Loge Johson wanted in Greensboro on the charge of blockad-ing.

been a guest at the home of Dr. F. E
Asbury for several days this week.

Mrs. C. C. Howell left the latter part of last week for Greensboro, after spending some time visiting relatives in Arbeboro. She will spend some time

Joyable evening was spent by all.

Miss Uralie Clark gave Miss Mabel Ferree a surprise party at her home a mile or two east of Asheboro last grow at home.

THE MISSES MORRIS ENTERTAIN
Joyable evening was spent by all.

The County Board of Equalization was in seasion last Monday for the purpose of hearing complaints as to the valuation and to review the tax lists from the various townships. We learn that every township in the county will show a substantial increase in taxable values, and that the work of the new assessors has been accomplished with very little friction and shows the county to be in a most prosperous condition both in the towns and the rural districts.

Attention is called to the list of jurons drawn for the July term of court in this issue of The Courier, and especially to the fact that these jurons need not attend, as there will be no jury cases for trial at this term.

Fred Baldwin, colored, who is well-known both among the white and colored people of Asheboro, has returned from High Point, where he underwent an operation for appendicitis at the hospital there. He is entirely recovered and able to be at work again.

Mr. M. C. Bingham, of Concord township, drove to Asheboro Monday morning to make some purchases and attend to some business matters. At his next birthday, which is in January, Mr. Bingham will be 75 years old. He does not look it.

Among the ministers here this week for conference are: Dr. C. W. Byrd. of West Market Street Church, Greens boro; Rev. G. T. Rowe, High Point, Rev. G. H. Christenberry, Randleman; Rev. C. E. Stedman, Farmer; and Rev. H. M. Blair, Greensboro.

Mr. C. W. Redding, of Trinity Route
1, was in Asheboro on business last Thursday.

Miss Pearl Pritchard spent the week end with relatives and friends ar Star.

Mr. Ivey Birkhead was here Sunday and spent the night with his son, Mr.
Frank Birkhead, one of the proprie fors of the Divise Store, who has been ill for several days at Mr. Rich's boarding bouse. Young Mr. Birkhead has gone to Candor, where he will spend a few days recuperating.

The marriage of Mr. S. R. Winters, of the Country Gentleman, and Miss Lelia Wyatt, of Durham, has been announced, the marriage having taken place last Christmas at Norfolk, Va. and kept secret until recently. Mr. Winters was at one time connected with The Courier.

Mr. Wm Bunch, a brother of the late Rev. W. A. Bunch, of Asheboro, dix at his home at Oak Ridge Tuesday of this week. Measrs. J. C. and Walter A. Bunch and sisters, Misses Lizzie and Lillian left Wednesday morning for Oak Ridge to attend the funeral. Mr. G. P. Bunch and son, Roy, of McColl, S. C., spent Tuesday night in Asheboro on their way there also.

On last Thursday, July 8, Rev. Isaac P. Frazier, of Asheboro, and Miss Cora Elizabeth Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Campbell, of Kansas City Kansas, were married at Westminister church in Kansas City. After spending a week or more at Louisville, Kentucky, where Mr. Frazier has been attending the Theological Seminary, Mr. and Mrs. Frazier will come to Asheboro to spend some time.

Mr. W. M. Parks, of Parks Cross Roads, came up to Asheboro early Monday morning with Mr. Clarence Parks in his car, and brought his wife who went to Biscoe for a visit of eight or ten days. Mr. Parks says the wheat crop in his community is good, but not as good as as usual. He does not bring the news that corn in that section is unusually good as it is in most other sections of the county.

On Wednesday night of last week, just before the last feature of the night's entertainment at Chautauqua the local Chautauqua association for the next year was organized and the contract between the guarantors and the Swarthmore Association handed over to Dr. Huelster, the superintendent. The following are the officers of the local association: president, Dr. E. L. Moffitty vice president, Mr. T. F. Bulla; treasurer, Dr. D. K. Lockhart.

The Randolph County Board of Education met last Monday with the three members, T. W. Ingram, J. T. Wood and C. H. Phillips present. Dr. Phillips acting as chairman. An unusual amount of business was transacted. Money was apportioned for teaching, also money for three new school houses, one at Center district, Coleridge township, one at Kindee, Columbia township and one at Hardin's, Columbia township and one at Hardin's, Columbia township. School committeemen for the various districts were appointed.

FARMER'S INSTITUTES IN

Institutes this year, one at Pleasant Ridge, July 22; the other at Farmer, July 26. Women's Institutes will be ers and others who have a desire to hear some interesting and helpful dis-cussions should attend. This year the department of agriculture is laying emphasis on diversification of crops; as to make our farms self-support-ing and enable the farmers to keep money at home that has heretofore been going to other States to purchase the things that we should cake by Misso. Adelaide Armfield, Julia Ross and Clarabel Morris.

CONFERENCE IN SESSION HERE

Greenshoro District Conference Con-Vened Here Tuesday—Large At-tendance—Encouraging Reports.

The Greenshoro District conference convened in the M. E. church, in Ashe-boro, Tuesday morning with Dr. J. H. Weaver, presiding. At the organi-nation at the morning session, Mr. Frank Gurley, of High Point, was elected secretary, and Mr. I. F. Cra-ven, of Ramseur, assistant secretary, Reports were then heard from the va-rious churches over the district. These reports were highly encouraging to the conference, showing that good work has been done during the past year.

Year.
The main feature of the afternoon year.

The main feature of the afternoon session was an address by Mrs. A. E. Fordham, of Greensboro, Secretary of the Woman's Missionary Society of North Carolina. Dr. F. N. Parker, of Trinity College, and Rev. Hunter, of Richmond, also made short talks during the afternoon. Tuesday night Dr. Parker preached an excellent sermon on "The Reality of Sin."

At the Wednesday morning session Rev. H. M. Blair, of the Christian Advocate spoke in behalf of his paper. Then Rev. W. A. Plyler, of Lexington, a former pastor of the Asheboro M. E. church, preached on the subject of "David Carrying Up the Ark into Jerusalem."

At the afternoon session Rev. G. T. Rowe, of High Point, read the report of the committee on General State of the Church. The afternoon session was taken up in discussing this report. At 7:30 in the evening Rev. W. L. Dawson, evangelist, of Greensboro, preached a sermon to a good sized congregation.

There are about seventy-five or eighty delegates and ministers here for the conference, which will close today.

MISS MOFFITT ENTERTAINS

Miss Mattie Moffitt delightfully en-Miss Mattle Montit delightfully en-tertained a number of her friends at her home on last Friday evening in honor of her friend, Miss Jennie Hin-shaw, of High Point. The guests en-joyed many games on the lawn after which ice cream was served. At a late hour the guests returned to their homes. The occasion was very much enjoyed by all present. —A guest.

SUNDAY SCHOOL AND CHRIS-VENTION

The Sunday School and Christian North Carolina Conference will mee County, July 23-25. Delegates from ward to by the workers of the North Carolina Christian conference. We rom a number of other denominations. A splendid program is being prepared, and with a good, large delegation, we will enjoy a good conven-

BASE BALL NEWS

The Braves Against Cedar Falls

WANTED

R. C. JOHNSON
(at new stand)
Asheboro, N. C.
Wants 1000 men and boys to bu
THE FAMOUS VICTOR
BRAND CLOTHING
Quality good enough for anybody; price cheap enough for everybody. Ramseur's second team, known as "The Braves," crossed bats with Cedar Falls on the Franklinville diamend Saturday, July 10, the score being 15 to 7 in favor of the "Braves." The features of the game were the pitching of Kivett and the heavy hitting of Luther for the "Braves." The "Braves" would like to hear from the various second teams in the county for games.

Ramseur Defeats Farmer

Ramseur Defeats Farmer
Farmer's nine met the Ramseur team on the latter's diamond last Saturday, and after a spirited game, the score stood 8 to 2 in favor of the Ramseur boys. This makes three straight games for the Ramseur team from visiting teams. The playing of Sewell at short and the pitching of Craven for the locals featured the contest.
Coward hit a home run in the fifth, with two on, this blow driving Thornburg from the mound. Craven held the visitors to six scattered hits, fanning nine.

Score

Ramseur 8 8 8 3
Farmer 2 6 7
Batteries: Craven and Allred;
Thornburg, Kearns and Kearns.

NOTICE TO JURORS

Notice is hereby given that there will not be any jury cases tried at the July 19 to 31 term of court. All jurors for the first and second week need not come.

J. M. CAVENESS, C. S. C.

THE MISSES MORRIS ENTERTAIN

Misses Ma-tha Evelyn and Lucile Morris entertained the "Jolly Dozen" Club Wednesday afternoon at their home on Worth Street, Rook was played, which furnished the amusement for the afternoon. Miss Margatel Morris won the prize for making the highest score, and was presented with a dainty box of correspondence cards.

The hostesses were assisted in serving a dellicious course of cream and cake by Misses. Adelaide Armfield,

M. Caveness, Clerk of the Superior of Randolph County, all persons claims against and estate at them to the undersigned, duly verified, on or bfore the 14th day of July, 1916, or this notice will be pleaded in bar of their of the circumstant of the county; and all persons owing and the county of the county; and all persons owing and the county of the county

NOTICE

BIG CROPS IN RANDOLPH

From every part of the county come grand reports of the crops. The corn crop is the biggest ever. There are more clovers and grasses than ever before and more oats, rys and barley. The wheat crop mow being threshed is turning out well not quite as good as last year, but the price is more than twice as much as it was any time during McKinley's administration.

Having qualified as admr. on the estate of C. R. Kearns, deceased, before J. M. Caveness, Clerk of the Superior Court of Randolph County, All persons having claims against said estate are notified to present them to before the 14th day of July, 1916, or this notice will be pleaded in bar of their recovery; and all persons owing make immediate settlement.

This 14th day of July, 1915.

JAS. T. WOOD, Admr.

Covington's

Real Going out of Business Sale is now going on and will continue until everything is closed out

My entire stock of Groceries, Dry Goods, Hats, Notions, Delivery Wagon, Horse and Buggy will be sold at and below cost

I have a clean, new and up-to-date line of goods, nice storeom, good location. Will sell entire stock in a lump with lease for three years and privilege of ten on store-room cost. Time and space are too limited to quote prices on every article in my stock. Come along and be convinced of real values that we are handing out daily.

Do not forget this opportunity to clothe and feed your family at actual cost. Terms strictly cash.

J. E. COVINGTON

Ramseur, N. C.

MR. SMOKER:

We Want to call your attention to the best 5c. cigar on the market.

Black and White is the name. Call for it and Smoke it and ou will be satisfied and so will we.

Black and White Cigars are sold all over the world and are cognized as the best 5c. Cigar to be had.

The best line of Smokers Goods in town

Standard Drug Co.

WANTED to buy telephone exchange or interest in small telephone compa-y in good town in Western or Central V. C. H. A. BIARDSALL, Kinston, V. C.

FOR SALE OR RENT—My sever room house and lot on South Fayette-ville stree. Recently occupied by Sheriff Birkhead. R. R. Ross 3t

WANTED-To sell 100 bushels of black seed oats and one Greensboro saw mill outfit. Apply to J. L. BRANTLEY, Seagrove, N. C.

WANTED-To rent a good two- or three-horse farm; must be one that can be worked with machinery. Can furnish work stock and machin Address P. O. Box 325, Asheboro.

$2,000 STOCK OF GENERAL MERsz,000 STOCK OF GENERAL MER-CHANDISE FOR SALE—Good loca-tion in thriving manufacturing town, 1500 population, with good farming back country. Three years' lease with privilege of ten on store room. Reason for selling, going into other business. Address J. E. COVINGTON, Ramseur. N. C. Ramseur, N. C.

FOR RENT-A five room cottage

at the Standard Drug Co.?

TOOTH PASTE-Rexall Tooth Paste at the Standard Drug Co. only Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets at the Standard Drug Store. FOUND-On the street near Cou rier Business office, cmall key on Mondny of last week byClaude Underwood. Owner can have by applying at Courier office and paying for this ad.

PLAY AT RAMSEUR

A comedy drama in four acts will be given in the auditorium at Ram-seur Friday night, July 16 by the "Bachelor Maids" of Ramseur. The public is invited and a treat is in store for all who attend.

MRS. RUSSELL DEAD

Mrs. Martitia Russell, wife of J. P. Russell, died at her home in New Hope township July 10, and was buried at Eleazer on July 12. She had been an invalid for some time.

AUTO'S FOR SALE

One Studebaker, 5 passenger, good as new, with all the latest improve-ments, including electric self-starter, lights, etc., will sell or trade at a bargain.

I also have an extra good 5 passen ger Ford Touring car equipped with seat covers, shock absorbers, etc, and will be glad to show you what it will do and sell or trade for cash or credit. I have sold the Ford Runabout a advertised last week to Mr. J. B. Ward and these others are waiting for a buyer. E. G. MORRIS, Asheboro, N. C.

Insect powder that will kill flies at the Standard Drug Co.

All the popular odors in Talcum

Does your back ache? Go to the Standard Drug Store and get a bottle of Rexall Kidney Remedy.

SALE NOTICE !

On Friday, the 23rd DAY OF JULY, 1915 I will sell to the highest hidder, at public auction, for cash, my entire stock at Michfield, consisting stock at Michneid, consisting of dry goods, groceries, men's hats, ladies' hats, shoes, slippers and drugs. I am determined to close out my entire stock and will sell at and below cost.

Come and get bargains. Everything must go.
M. J. PRESNELL

FOR SALE—One pair iron gray mules. Ages and prices right. R. W. STALEY, Julian. N. C. 7-15 4t.

Rexall Kidney Remedy, $1.00, absolutely guaranteed to satisfy. The great kidney remedy at the Standard Drug Co.