

Thirty Day Removal Sale

Beginning Monday Morning, August 2.

On September 1 I will move my stock of goods from my present stand on Naomi Street to the former J. A. Clapp & Sons stand on Main Street, next to the postoffice, and in order to reduce the stock as much as possible I will make very low prices on Groceries, Dry Goods, Notions, Hardware, Tinware, Enamelware, Etc.

Our reputation in merchandising forbids that we attempt to "palm off" shelf-worn or hard stock on our trade for we expect to hold all our present customers and add many new ones when we have moved our stock and enlarged our line in our new store. This stock is in first-class condition and we offer nothing that you will regret buying.

Read These Remarkably Low Prices in Force For the Next 30 Days:

HARDWARE, GLASSWARE, ENAMELWARE, ETC.	UNDERWEAR	Loose Roasted Coffee	DRY GOODS
50c lanterns	Men's 50c underwear	R. A. J. Coffee	One lot 8c Apron Gingham
50c lamps	Men's 25c underwear	100 lbs. Cotton Seed Meal	One lot 10c Dress Gingham, special price
25c laundry baskets	Men's $1 union suits	100 lbs. Wheat Bran	10c Dress Gingham
10c market baskets	Ladies' 10c vests	3 cans Salmons	10c Dress Chambrays
10c enameled wash pans	Ladies' 15c vests	Fat Back Meat	10c Ferrates
10 qt. enameled water pails	Bear Brand and Billy Goat Hose	Compound Lard	10c Outing and Flannellettes
8 qt. preserving kettles	School Boys and Girls	7 Cakes Export soap	All Calicos at
4 qt. covered buckets	Bear Brand Hose	TOILET ARTICLES	15c Gallons
8 qt. covered buckets	Billy Goat Hose	10c Box Scented Talcum Powder	10c Riverside Shirtings
19 qt. galvanized buckets	Ladies' 10c Hose	25c E.A. Men's Talcum Powder	10c Bed Tickings
50c well bucket	Ladies' 15c Hose	Two 5c Cakes Toilet Soap	25c Bed Tickings
No. 1 wash tubs	Men's 15c Hose	SPECIALS	10c Lawns and Bleaching
20 foot cow chain	Men's 10c Hose	25c Four String Booms	25c Lawns
Nails, all sizes	Men's 50c Belts	Half-Gallon Fruit Jars	10c Curtain Goods
Mule shoes	EXTRA SPECIALS IN GROCERIES	10c Diamond Salt	10c Curtain Goods
50c pitch forks	FOR TEN DAYS OR WHILE THEY LAST	One Lot Lard Cans and Lard Tubs	10c Curtain Goods
25c garden hoses	18c 25 lbs. Granulated Sugar	each	10c Curtain Goods
25c rakes	18c Arbuckle's Coffee		10c Curtain Goods

No Goods Charged or Exchanged For Country Produce at These Remarkably Low Prices

L. W. LINEBERRY

Naomi Street

Randleman, N. C.

NOMINATION BALLOT

To enter the Contest fill out this Coupon and send to the Contest Department. Each contestant is entitled to one nomination, good for

1,000 VOTES

IN THE COURIER'S GREAT AUTOMOBILE CONTEST

I hereby nominate

Mr., Mrs. or Miss

Postoffice

Signed

Address

Only one nomination will be credited to each contestant. Under no circumstances will the name of nominator be divulged.

FROM OUR CORRESPONDENTS

TRINITY NEWS

Mrs. R. E. Pepper is visiting her son, Mr. C. M. Pepper, in Hamlet. She was accompanied to Hamlet by her niece Miss Bessie Pepper, who had been visiting her here.

Miss Kate Craven is visiting Miss Melissa Phillips in Stokes county and they will visit Piedmont Springs together.

The Book Club was entertained last Thursday by Mrs. Carpenter and Mrs. Ballance and the occasion was an unusually delightful one.

Miss Rosa Perry, of Macon, is visiting Mrs. John D. Brano.

Professor Guy Phillips, of the Raleigh high school, is spending his vacation here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Phillips. Prof. Phillips is one of the brightest and most successful young men of this generation and Trinity is proud of him.

Trinity people are much interested in the work on the new road from here by Archdale to High Point, and it is hoped that the road will soon be good enough for all of us to have automobiles. A movement is being started to also work the road that runs along the railroad to High Point and which is considerably nearer than the Archdale route.

Judge D. C. McRae, of Thomasville, was in town Sunday on legal business. Mr. Henry Royals, the R. F. D. carrier, is taking his annual vacation and his place is being filled by Mr. Merrimon Cranford.

Mrs. Ida West and Mrs. Olivia West of Ramseur and Miss Annie Wilcox, of Carthage, are visiting Mrs. J. L. Phillips.

The Busy Bee Club, composed of the younger girls, gave an ice cream party on the campus Saturday night, which was much enjoyed, and which brought in a nice little profit to the club to be used in equipping a basket ball field.

Attorney Bruce Craven will attend the meeting of the State Bar Association in Asheville next week, and from there will go to the meeting of the State Council of the Junior Order in Charlotte.

FARMER NOTES

Mrs. Will Watson and children, of Greensboro, are visiting relatives at Farmer.

Mrs. Mary Jane Low, of Asheboro, visited Mrs. Roxana Dorsett last week. Mrs. G. T. Macon, Mrs. Dorsett and Messrs. A. B. Macon and Elbert Kearns made a flying trip to Jackson Springs Saturday, returning Sunday.

Concord Sunday school convention, held at Mt. Tabor on the 29th, was well attended, every school in the township being well represented. Miss Martha Dozier, State office secretary, of Greensboro, and Mr. L. F. Ross, county president, made very strong and helpful talks. The following are the principal officers for next year: Mr. Atlas Ridge, president; Mr. Lee M. Kearns, vice president; Mrs. Hubbard, secretary, and Mr. Carl Nance, assistant secretary. The next convention will be at Farmer.

Work on the new church began last week. The old building was moved a few feet, and will be used in the construction of a new one which will, when completed, be a credit to the community.

Mr. Glenn Hendricks, of Asheboro, visited Mr. Erman Trogdon last week. Mrs. Sallie Stedman returned last week from a visit to relatives at Raleigh.

Mrs. Allan Browning and children, of Hillsboro, returned home last Saturday, after a visit of several weeks at her father's Esq. D. G. McMasters.

Fishing was quite the fashion among Farmer folks last week. Messrs. I. S. Kearns, Edgar Kearns, Clifton Pressnell and Claude Dorsett, accompanied by Mrs. I. S. Kearns, and Misses Kate Dorsett, and Hope and Dorothy Hubbard, spent Wednesday in a fishing trip on Caraway near Mr. Norman Nance's. About 125 fish were caught.

On Friday, the families of Mr. W. E. Kearns, Mr. J. B. Trogdon and Mrs. Rosa Kearns, with Miss Linnie Shamburger, made a trip to Caraway Bend and spent the day in jolly fashion, seining, having a fish-fry and a good time generally.

The young people of Farmer spent a very pleasant evening at Rev. J. B. Trogdon's last Friday night. The occasion was a birthday party in honor of Miss Thelma and Mr. Erman Trogdon. The time was spent in games and music, after which the hosts, assisted by Miss Linnie Shamburger, served delicious cream, cake and fruit.

FAIRVIEW NEWS

Miss Addie Hill, of Richmond, Va., is visiting her sister, Mrs. H. M. Cranford.

Hillard White and sisters, Misses Lottie and Eva, of Guilford College, are spending a week here with relatives.

Little Misses Epsie and Carrie Reddick, of Thomasville, are visiting their aunt, Mrs. R. V. Millikan.

Master Albert Reid, of Richmond, Va., is visiting his cousin, Master Carson Cranford.

Mr. and Mrs. George Arthur and sons, James, Ernest and Reuben, have returned from a trip to Asheville. They made the trip in their machine.

Miss Alta Winslow visited relatives in Asheboro recently.

Mr. Frank Arthur, of Biltmore, arrived Saturday for a visit with home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Blair, of West Randolph, visited in this community Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wall spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. D. K. Myers.

Miss Effie Lanier and little sister, Clara, spent a few days last week with Mrs. J. H. Elder, returning to their home in High Point Saturday.

Last Friday evening from 8 to 11 o'clock, Miss Margaret Arthur delightfully entertained a large number of friends in honor of her house guests, Misses Edith Arthur, Nellie Light and Lillie Hearst, of Biltmore. The guests were received on the porch by Miss Arthur and her guests where delicious punch was served.

During the evening games and music were enjoyed. The hostess was assisted in serving cream and cake by mesdames White and Elder. Each guest was presented a dainty card with a rhyme printed on it as a souvenir.

CEDAR FALLS NEWS

Miss Dora Allred is visiting her father, W. E. Allred, here this week.

Little Miss Dessie Allred visited her grandmother at Ramseur the past week.

Messrs. Claude and Jesse Jennings, of High Point, visited their aunt, Mrs. J. L. Lineberry, last week.

Misses Ada and Della Allred visited relatives at Randleman Friday and Saturday.

Misses Blanche and Myrtle Staley, of Julian, visited their uncle, Rev. Matt Breedlove, here a Saturday and Sunday.

Messrs. Lute Lineberry and James Allred made a fishing trip to Bush Creek Saturday.

Messrs. Jess Pugh and Connie Walker were in town Sunday.

Mrs. Alfred Laughlin is spending the week with her parents near here.

Mr. Sam Alfred, of Moore county, is visiting his uncle, Mr. Geo. Allred, here this week.

Rev. and Mrs. Matt Breedlove visited friends in Randleman Friday.

MILLBORO NEWS

Rev. J. B. O'Brian filled his regular appointment at Bethany Sunday.

Quite a number of our people attended the closing exercises of Prof. A. M. Fentress' singing class at Worthville Sunday and all report a nice time.

Messrs. Charles Sheffield and William Hurley, of Worthville were visitors in town Sunday night.

Mr. G. E. Hayes, who is employed in the furniture factory at Ramseur, spent Sunday with home folks.

Mrs. R. W. Hinshaw, of Millboro Route 1, visited relatives here Sunday evening.

Miss Bessie Hayes spent a few hours in cedar falls one day last week.

Mr. James Free, of Cedar Falls, was a visitor at Mr. J. G. Julian's Sunday.

WORTHVILLE AND RANDELMAN ROUTE 2 NEWS

We are having dry weather through this section.

Miss Reva Strickland, who has spent some time with her sister, Mrs. Will Shaw, returned to her home at Troy Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis, of Archdale, were visiting relatives in this section Monday.

Misses Jennie and Vera Wise spent part of last week in Asheboro.

Mr. C. J. Cox, of Asheboro, was in town Monday.

Misses Lura and Zilpha Kennedy, of High Point, visited friends in town Sunday.

Mr. C. H. Henly, who has spent some time with home folks, has returned to his home in Detroit, Mich.

Mr. Leslie Coltrane, of High Point, spent Sunday in town.

Mr. Moody Kearns, of Allreds, was a visitor in this section Monday.

Misses Francis Bulla and Ina Barker, of Randleman, were in town Sunday.

Messrs. Wm. Hurley and Charles Sheffield attended the singing at Millboro Sunday night.

Mr. Will Shaw, of Charleston, West Virginia, is spending some time with his parents.

Next Sunday a revival meeting will begin at White Hall church. Presiding Elder Rev. Mr. Weaver, of Greensboro, will be here and preach on Sunday.

Misses Mary Coletrane and Parthe Wall, of Greensboro, and Mrs. A. M. Fentress and children, of Pleasant Garden, came down Sunday with Mr. Wray in a car to attend the singing closing at the Union church.

Mr. Nathan Sheffield left Tuesday to spend a few days with friends and relatives in Moore county.

Mr. and Mrs. Grady Redding, of Cedar Falls, were visitors in town last Sunday.

Miss May Fentress went to High Point Sunday evening to spend a few days with friends.

Misses Pearl, Adna and Ethel Hare, of Cedar Falls, spent Sunday in town. The singing closing at the Union church was well attended. Rev. J. B. O'Brian preached an excellent sermon to audience at eleven. In the afternoon the choir and male quartette sang their selections. The entire program was well rendered, reflecting much credit on their teacher, Prof. A. M. Fentress.

ASHEBORO ROUTE 1 ITEMS

The hum of the threshing machine is about over in this community.

The Sunday school at Brower is progressing nicely.

Mr. Claud Ingold and family spent Saturday night at Mr. Charlie Allen's.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pugh, of Millboro, spent a few days with his son, Mr. T. F. Pugh, recently.

Misses Ethel and Bertha Brown have been visiting at Mr. Willie Brown's.

Mrs. J. R. Cox, of Staley, is spending a few days with her brother, Mr. A. S. Pugh.

Mrs. W. T. Wilson and children are spending a few days with their uncle, Mr. A. S. Pugh.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S DAY AT SCIENCE HILL

On the first Sunday in August, there will be a Young People's Day at Science Hill.

Rev. Joseph H. Peele, of Guilford College will preach at eleven o'clock.

Exercises will begin at ten o'clock. Dinner on the grounds. Public cordially invited.