Asheboro, N. C., August 5, 1915.

WEEKLY WEATHER FORECAST

Issued by the United States Weather Bureau, Washington, D. C., for the week beginning Wednesday, August 4, 1915:

For South Atlantic and East Gulf States: Generally fair weather will prevail, except that local day showers are probable in the Florida peninsula. Temperatures will be nearly normal.

ACROSS THE SEA

Across the sea I heard the groans
Of Nations in the intervals
Of wind and wave. Their blood and bones
Cried out in torture, crushed by thrones,
And sucked by priestly cannibals.

I dreamed of Freedom slowly gained
By martyr meekness, patience, faith
And lo! an athlete grimly stained,
With corded muscles battle-stained
Shouting it on the fields of death.

I turn me, awe-struck from the sight,
Among the clamoring thousands mute;
I only know that God is right,
And that the children of the light
Shall tread the darkness under foot.

I know the pent fire heaves its crust,
That sultry skies the bolt will form
To smite them clear; that Nature must
The balance of her power adjust,
Though with the earthquake and the storm.

God reigns, and let the earth rejoice!
I bow before His sterner plan,
Dumb are the organs of my choice;
He speaks in battle's stormy voice,
His praise is in the wrath of man.

Yet, surely as He lives, the day
Of peace He promised shall be ours,
To fold the flags of war, and lay
Its sword and spear to rust away,
And sow its ghastly fields with flowers.

—Whittier.

The color scheme, pink and green with numerous cut flowers and potted plants, prevailed throughout the entire house.

AGED CITIZEN OF COLERIDGE DEAD

Mr. John Cole, an aged and respected citizen of Coleridge, died at his home Saturday afternoon at the age of 76 years. He was afflicted with no ailment other than old age. For several years before his death he had been blind and infirm.

He leaves a widow and two children, Mr. George Cole, of Coleridge, and Mrs. D. R. Moffitt, of Cheeks Mills.

MRS. MILLER ENTERTAINS

The home of Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Miller, on South Fayetteville street, was the scene of a very delightful affair last Friday morning between the hours of 10 and 12, when Mrs. Miller entertained in honor of her attractive sisters, Misses Nina and Rosebud Rhodes, of Florence, S. C. The spacious vine-covered veranda was beautifully decorated in ferns, jars of leopard grass and sunflowers, while small tables were adorned with bowls sweet peas, and roses and baskets of grapes.

Mrs. Miller was assisted in receiving the guests by Mesdames William Underwood and Joseph Ross. As the guests arrived they were led to the loveliest, coolest nook on the porch, where they were served with iced lemonade from a huge glass bowl. After all had assembled, unique tally cards were passed around by Messrs. Truman Miller and Joseph Ross, Jr., and the guests seated themselves at the tables for a game of progressive rook, which was thoroughly enjoyed for an hour or more. Miss Katherine Burns having made highest score, was presented with a bottle of exquisite toilet water.

At the close of the game the cards were removed and dainty lace pieces were laid on the tables after which delicious sandwiches and iced tea were served by the hostess and her assistants.

Invited guests and honorees were: Misses Nina and Rosebud Rhodes, Misses Katherine Burns, Lillie Richardson, Lela Hayworth, Margaret Morris, Alice Phillips, Lucile Morris, Margaret Rush, Ruth Cox, Alice Birkhead, Lucile Scarboro, Mabel Parrish, Georgia Whitefield, Margaret Grimes, Kate Brittain, Frances Roberts, Ethel Lovett, and Hallie Ross.

PHILATHEAS ENTERTAIN BARACAS

On last Friday evening at the home of Mr. J. O. Redding, the Philathea class of the M. E. church was hostess to the Baraca class of the same church.

The home was beautifully decorated with ferns and cut flowers, and on the lawn under the light of Japanese lanterns, Misses Katherine Burns and Lucile Scarboro presided at the punch bowl.

A contest of progressive conversation was indulged in, the young men finding their partners by numbered cards. Delightful music was furnished by Misses Lucile Rush, and Georgia Whitefield and Messrs. Grady Miller and Ernest Wiles. Other games and contests were enjoyed after which delicious refreshments of cream and cake were served. There were about sixty young people present.

TAKE SALTS FOR KIDNEYS IF YOUR BACK HURTS

We Should Drink Lots of Water and Eat Less Meat

We Recommend a Spoonful of Rexall Liver Salts in a Glass of Water Before Breakfast to Stimulate Kidneys and Eliminate the Uric Acid

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked, get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy, the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush off the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from back-ache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

Eat less meat, drink lots of water; take Rexall Liver Salts tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Rexall Liver Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Standard Drug Company here say they sell lots of Rexall Liver Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

RANDLEMAN NEWS

Quite a number of the White Oak people are visiting in the city this week. Among the number we note Messrs. William Johnson and family, R. C. Lineberry and family, Chas. Kennett, John Bean and Mr. and Mrs. Bass.

Miss Lillian Allred is visiting in Greensboro.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Haaner have gone to High Point to attend the funeral of Mr. Haaner's nephew.

Mr. Clary Yorkson went to the hospital at High Point for treatment.

Miss Della Smith, of Greensboro, is visiting Miss Mary Newlin.

Mr. J. E. Whitehurst, of Halifax county, is the guest of Dr. W. F. Matthews.

Born July 27th to Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Lamb, a fine girl.

Mr. Hodgen, of Center, was the guest of Dr. Matthews last week.

Born July 29th to Mr. and Mrs. Williams, an eight pound boy.

The writer had the pleasure of attending the Old Folk's Sunday school at Franklinville last Sunday. Words inadequately express the pleasure that this visit afforded him. This Sunday school is one of the best I have ever attended. There are few Sunday schools anywhere doing better work. Mr. Hugh Parks, the genial superintendent, is one of the best Sunday school workers in the State. He has an enrollment of 274 and an attendance of 239. Just one year ago the enrollment was 139. They had with them Mr. Herman Cohen, a violinist, of Baltimore, and Miss Hazel McAdams, an organist, of Siler City. There were other choirs also, that of the Sunday school of about thirty voices, and a choir of about twenty-five children. Their songs made the walls of their beautiful church ring. The choir of older people sang several good old songs that were certainly inspiring. Every one in this Sunday school takes a part and all work in harmony with their superintendent. I will invite anyone who is interested in the Sunday school work to visit the Franklinville school and see what is being done there. A hearty welcome will be accorded you.

A very quite marriage took place July 24th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Barker at Randleman, when their daughter, Ethel, became the bride of Mr. H. C. Gurley, of Davidson, Rev. J. B. O'Brian, officiating. Mr. Gurley is a machinist by trade and travels much of his time. Mrs. Gurley is one of Randleman's fairest young ladies and has many friends. They left Sunday morning for Charlotte.

Mrs. Low Faison and Mrs. M. M. Faison and little Hilda Faison, of Roanoke Rapids, have been visiting at the M. P. parsonage for some time.

The M. P. parsonage has been receiving attention by the good people of Randleman. Mrs. W. F. Matthews recently set up some nice window curtains for one room. Mrs. M. L. Hinchaw worked up an order of goods for the Larkin Co., and received a nice kitchen cabinet as a premium. This cabinet was sent to the parsonage to keep company with the new range placed some time ago. It was first a bedstead and mattress; second, new range; third, window curtains; fourth, kitchen cabinet. The pastor and family appreciate these articles of furniture and the kind thoughts of the people.
