

FROM OUR CORRESPONDENTS

FRANKLINVILLE NEWS

Rev. W. O. Johnson preached two able sermons in the pulpit at Moore's church Sunday.

Miss Ruth and Bryan Parks, of Parks Cross Roads, spent Saturday evening and Sunday in town.

Miss Annie Fox, of Asheboro, visited relatives here Sunday.

Mr. Ollie Jackson, of Denton, who has been spending some time with his mother, Mrs. A. M. Swaney, returned home Saturday morning.

Mr. J. F. Brewer, one of our clever farmers, planted one peck of Irish potatoes last spring and after using potatoes for the family all summer dug from his patch 21 bushels.

Mrs. Eva Black was the guest of Mrs. Lou Buie Sunday.

Miss Mary Belle Jennings, of Greensboro, is spending a few days at the home of Mr. T. M. Jennings.

Mr. W. R. Hughes, who owns a good farm a short distance southeast of town has exchanged his place for a valuable house and lot owned by Mr. Monroe Craven. Mr. Hughes will move to town where he can take advantage of our good school and will very likely run a beef market. Mr. Craven will move to the farm and make his future home.

Misses Esther Berry, Minnie Michael and Messrs. Haywood Parks and Numa Beck, of Lexington, spent some time with Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Brewer last week.

Miss Berta Ellison, of Hillsboro, is visiting relatives in town.

Mr. R. S. Craven and daughter, Miss Hettie, and Mr. A. C. Pugh and family attended the funeral of Miss Stella Brown at Holly Springs last Sunday.

Mr. W. A. Gimes, Mr. and Mrs. J. Elston Allred, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Burke made an auto trip to Danville Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Chas. Fox and family, Mr. J. R. Tippet and Misses Mattie and Hannah Swaney, of Greensboro, are visiting in the city this week.

Misses Lelia, Vera and Annie Ausley are visiting in Goldston this week.

Misses Pattie Lutterloh and Lula Hayes were week-end visitors at Mr. J. F. Brewer's.

Prof. D. M. Weatherly attended Sunday School convention at Level Cross Sunday.

Mr. Hugh Parks, Jr., and family were guests of relatives at Sanford Sunday.

Mr. P. I. Booth, who has been working at Stony Point, Va., is at home for a short stay.

Miss Anna and Mr. Walter Saunders are spending some time at their old home in Montgomery county.

Mr. J. H. Marley and family, Mr. James Buie, Mr. W. D. Maner and family, and E. A. Routh and family made a trip to Jackson Springs Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Jordan, Mrs. Jennie Brewer and daughter, Miss Verta, left last Friday for an auto trip through Moore, Montgomery and other counties. The first stop will be at Biscoe and at Troy there will be a reunion of friends and relatives and a picnic dinner will be served at the home of Mr. Jordan's sister, Mrs. J. M. Deaton. At Mt. Gilfed they will visit at the home of Mr. L. P. Byrd, where ice cream will be served. At Mr. U. B. Jordan's at Candor, will be a watermelon cutting. Jackson Springs will not be slighted, and they expect to take a peep at large dairy farms and peach orchards. They will visit Mr. C. H. Teague at Hoffman and will spend some time at Hamlet. From there they go to Sanitorium to attend a picnic dinner, and will take the train at Sanford for home.

Quite a successful meeting was closed at Pleasant Cross last Sunday night. There were 16 new members added to the church.

The lawn party given by the Baraca class Saturday night was very much enjoyed by a large crowd. Two cakes were offered for prizes, which were won by Miss Pearl Martindill and Mr. Joe Buie. The proceeds amounted to $51.32.

PISGAH ITEMS

Quite a number of our people attended Children's Day at Macedonia Sunday.

Mrs. W. C. Slack and children, of Star, are visiting relatives here.

Mr. Rufus Luther and Miss Fleta Lucas were married at S. A. Cox's Sunday evening.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to extend thanks to the friends and neighbors for their comforting words and the many kindnesses rendered to us during the illness and death of our dear Stella.

JOHN BROWN and family.

WORTHVILLE AND HANDLEMAN ROUTE 2 NEWS

Messrs. C. H. and W. J. Cook, of Burlington, are spending some time at Mr. W. T. Ingle's.

Mr. Fred Henley, of South Carolina, is visiting his grandfather, Mr. P. H. Henley.

Mr. C. B. Wise left Monday for Lexington, where he has a position.

Miss Edith Hunsucker is the guest of Misses Enda and Helen Bostick.

Mrs. K. Y. Kennedy and children are spending some time with relatives and friends in Montgomery county.

Miss Ruth Cox, of Asheboro, was the guest of Misses Bernice and May Fentress for the week-end.

Messrs. Glenn York and Lester Yow were visitors in town Sunday.

Messrs. N. E. Nelson, W. W. Hurley, and Chas. Sheffield and Miss Bertie Hughes attended singing school closing at Shady Grove Sunday.

Mr. David Laughlin, of Greensboro, is spending some time with his brother, Mr. J. M. Laughlin.

Mr. N. S. Edwards visited his uncle, Mr. Robert Spencer, at Glenola, Sunday.

Mr. Worth Burrow is confined to his home by illness.

Miss Ollie Hinshaw, who has been spending several weeks in North Charlotte, returned home Wednesday.

Mr. Leslie Aldridge, of Randleman, was a visitor in this section Sunday.

Mrs. Jennie Wise left Monday for Asheboro, where she will spend a few days.

WHY NOT ITEMS

Mrs. Alice Luther left Monday for her home in South Carolina after spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Henry Stutts.

Mr. Graham Monroe left Monday for Greensboro where he has a position.

Messrs. A. H. Trogon and Hobart Cagle went to Greensboro on business Monday.

Miss Maud Hall, of Asheboro, was the guest of Miss Martha Slack Thursday night.

Miss Dorothy Hubbard returned to her home at Farmer Monday after spending a few days here—the guest of Miss Hester Stuart.

Mrs. F. J. Cox has returned to her home at Thomasville after spending some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Stuart.

Miss Sallie and Mr. Dewey Slack spent Saturday night and Sunday near Macedonia.

Misses Claude and Lizzie and Mr. Joe Forrester, of Rameur, visited relatives and friends here last week.

Miss Ina Auman returned to her home at Asheboro Saturday after a week's stay in this community.

Messrs. J. A. and Elsie King, M. C. and G. D. Monroe attended quarterly meeting at Macedonia Saturday.

MOUNT OLIVET ITEMS

The protracted meeting begins at Mount Olivet, the third Sunday in this month.

Mr. B. F. Brown, who has been quite ill, is improving.

The road force seems to be getting on nicely gravelling the road from here to Seagrave and lack only about one mile having it completed.

Mrs. S. R. Richardson is spending a few days this week with relatives in Greensboro.

Mrs. Horn, of Ellerbe, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. O. C. Sugg.

Little Miss Mildred Curjis, who has been visiting her uncle, Mr. S. R. Richardson, for a few weeks, returned to her home at Greensboro last week.

Mrs. C. M. Tysor raised the largest tomato we have heard about in our community, weighing 2 1/2 pounds.

Among those who have purchased new musical instruments in this vicinity are Messrs. M. F. Wrenn, C. M. Tysor, and S. R. Richardson, pianos; Messrs. S. W. Teague, T. W. Maness and William Maness, organs.

Miss Maud Mann, of Montrose, spent a few days with her sister, Mrs. T. H. Tysor.

Born—to Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Sugg, a son, August 9.

MISS BAGWELL ENTERTAINS

Miss Wiley Bagwell delightfully entertained at the home of Prof. D. M. Weatherly, at Franklinville, Friday evening in honor of her cousin, Miss Mary Barnes, of Jonesboro, and Miss Lessie Cole, of Sanford. Rook, nation and other games were played, after which delicious refreshments were served. Miss Mary Barnes and Mr. J. T. Buie presided over the punch bowl. Several beautiful piano selections were rendered by Mrs. Weatherly.

Those who enjoyed Miss Bagwell's hospitality were Misses Lessie Cole, Mary Barnes, Thelma Steele, Katie Marley, Blanche Buie, Annie Maness, Mary Parks, Fannie and Laura Sumner, and Messrs. J. T. Buie, H. B. Marley, B. A. Weatherly, Everett Wrenn, Haywood Parks, Tom Black and Clifford Wrenn.

HIGH POINT ROUTE 2 NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Allen J. Blair, of Trinity, spent Sunday afternoon with Mrs. Ida Davis.

The Fairfield and Mitchell Grove Sunday schools went on their annual picnic to Freeman's Mill Saturday.

Miss Sallie Jenkins, of Winston-Salem, spent the week-end with Misses Ida and Myrtle Davis.

Miss Lula Billings, who has been on the sick list, is, better.

Miss Mary Plummer, of Asheboro, is visiting Miss Gladys Kivett.

Mr. C. E. Frazier, of Asheboro, visited home folks Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Kivett attended the Yearly Meeting at Guilford College Sunday.

Harry Jones, of High Point, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. Jones, Sunday.

The lawn party given by Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Moore Saturday night was a success.

Messrs. Bouldin, Darrell, Wheeler, Mendenhall, Williard and Kivett started to Ocean View, Va., Saturday for a weeks' outing. They went through in a machine.

George Kersey and sister, Miss Rachel, spent Sunday in Trinity visiting friends.

Miss Salem Kivett and W. S. Stone, of Thomasville, spent Sunday afternoon in Greensboro.

Mr. J. W. Cassatt leaves this week for Winston, where he has accepted a position with the Reynolds Tobacco Company.

Our young people are planning to take a camping trip down on the Yadkin in a week or ten days.

CLIMAX ROUTE 1 ITEMS

The hum of the threshing machine has ceased in this community.

Mr. and Mrs. Keeton, of White Oak, are spending some time in this community.

Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Eouth, Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Lineberry and daughter, Miss Fronnie, went to Greensboro for the day last Saturday.

Mrs. Nettie Garrett, of Pleasant Garden, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Hackett recently.

Master Howard Kirkman, of High Point, who has been spending some time with his grandparents, has returned home, accompanied by Mrs. J. M. Jones and Mrs. J. M. Kirkman.

Born—to Mr. and Mrs. Shelton Lineberry, a daughter; and to Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Lineberry, a son.

Miss Della Allred, of High Point, spent last week with her brother, Mr. Charles Allred.

Miss Stella Hemphill is very ill at this writing.

Mr. Bill Fields and family are visiting in Guilford College this week.

Mrs. Fannie Hall and daughter, Clyde, of Danville, Va., are visiting her sister, Mrs. A. W. Nixon.

Mr. Marvin Dunn, of Pleasant Garden, was a Sunday visitor here.

Mr. H. M. Redding, of Elon College, spent last week with home folks. A singing school will begin at Gray's Chapel next Saturday at 1:30 o'clock.

TRINITY ROUTE 1 ITEMS

Mr. U. G. Wall, of Orange county, is visiting friends and relatives on the route.

Mrs. Sarah Wood Sluder, of Thomasville, is spending some time with relatives in the community.

Messames Nannie and Elsie Welborn were Sunday visitors at Mr. John Briles'.

Messrs. Eugene Osborne and R. K. Hayworth, of High Point, spent the week-end with friends on the route.

Mr. W. T. Ledwell went on the excursion to Norfolk last week.

Messrs. Carl Kearns and Raymond Gaddis expect to visit relatives at Guilford the last of the week.

Mrs. Lee A. Briles called on Mrs. Wesley Welborn Monday. We are sorry to learn that Mrs. Welborne is ill at this writing.

Miss Pearl Crowson is away on a visit to friends.

Gilead meeting begins the second Sunday in September.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Briles attended the funeral at Flint Hill Saturday.

Miss Ellen Stalker spent Sunday night at Mr. Martin Wall's.

Quite a number attended the ice cream supper at Mr. Skeen's Saturday night.

Several of our people attended the Trinity tenth grade class reunion at Mr. D. M. Welborn's Saturday night.

HILL'S STORE ITEMS

The farmers of this community are very busy breaking land for the wheat crop since the recent rains.

The little boys of our vicinity met at Fairmount and played a very interesting game of ball Saturday. The score was 16 to 6 in favor of Jake Presnell.

Several of our people attended quarterly meeting at Salem Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Parrish visited at Mr. W. B. Tant's Sunday. Mr. Parrish reports that Mr. Tant has the finest corn he has seen this year.

A GENUINE REDUCTION

In order to make room for our Fall Merchandise and to have only new goods to offer the public each season, we will sell the following standard merchandise for the next few days at a real reduction:

Underwear, 25c values at ..... 21c
Underwear, 50c values at ..... 42c
Men's Socks, 10c values 3 pair for 25c
Men's Pants, $4.50 values at .. $3.00
Men's Pants, $2.50 values at .. $2.00
Men's Pants, values $2.00 at .. $1.60
Work Pants, $1.60 values at .. $1.00
Boys' Pants, $1.00 values at .. 75c
Boys' Pants, 75c values at ..... 50c
Boys' Blue Serge Suits, $5.00 values at ..... $4.00
Boys' Blue Serge Suits, $6.50 values at ..... $5.50
Boys' Blue and Gray Suits, $5.50 values at ..... $4.50
Men's Blue Serge Suits, $18.00 values at ..... $15.00

Men's Blue Serge Suits, $12.50 values at ..... $9.50
Men's all wool Grays, $15.00 values at ..... $12.50
Men's all wool Grays, $12.50 values at ..... $9.00
Men's Grays, Browns and Blues, $10 values at ..... $6.50
Palm Beach Suits, $7.50 values at ..... $4.50
Raincoats, $7.50 values at .... $6.00
Raincoats, $5.00 values at .... $4.00
Complete line of neckwear.
We will take your measure for suit of clothes, very latest styles, at a reasonable price.

When you consider the low price we sell our goods at you will readily realize the saving in buying now.

WOOD CASH CLOTHING CO.
Asheboro, North Carolina

FLINT HILL NEWS

Mr. John Lloyd, who has been in High Point for some time, is at home again for some time.

Miss Eula Smith, who has been visiting her cousin, Miss Lillie Henley, near Asheboro, returned home last week.

Miss Gertrude Farlow attended yearly meeting at Guilford College last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Raiford and children, of Virginia, and Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Chandler and children, of Broadway, were guests at Mr. I. T. Farlow's last week.

Misses Cordie and Gwen Wall, of Sophia, spent one day last week with Miss Dora Redding.

Several of our young people attended preaching at Mount Olive Sunday afternoon.

There will be preaching at Flint Hill next Sunday night.

Mr. Luther Farlow, of High Point, was a visitor in this section last Sunday night.

Mr. Woody Farlow, who has been quite ill, does not improve.

Mr. Atlas Hill and Miss Nellie Gordon, of near Greensboro, were married recently.

Little Miss Lena Graham, of High Point, was the guest for her cousin, Miss Ruth Farlow, last week.

Treva, the six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Hill, died last Friday morning and was buried at Flint Hill Saturday morning at eleven o'clock. Her death was sudden. The bereaved family have the sympathy of the neighborhood.

RAMSEUR ROUTE 2 NEWS

People in the community are having lots of melons.

Revival meeting began at Rehobeth church last Sunday, Rev. W. M. Smith, assisting the pastor.

Miss Annie Fox, of Asheboro is the guest of Miss Blanche York for a few days.

Miss Ida Johnson gave a lawn party Monday night in honor of her cousin, Miss Flossie Craven, of Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Siler and Miss Fleta Kivett are improving after being confined for some time with fever.

Misses Claude and Lizzie Forrester and brother, Joe, left Tuesday for a weeks' visit at Why Not and Star.

Mr. Bob Patterson of Greensboro, is

STAR ITEMS

Miss Mary Sturdivant returned home Saturday after spending several days with friends at Wadeville.

Mr. Victor Parsons, of near Ellerbe, was in town one day last week.

Misses Mary and Maggie Riddle have returned to their home at High Falls after spending several days in town.

Mr. Will Monroe, of Biscoe, was in town one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Monroe, of Rockingham, were the guests of the Misses Monroe last week.

Mrs. Lena P. test entertained a number of the young people Friday night, in honor of her guests, Misses Claudia and Lizzie Forrester, and brother of Rameur and Miss Ellena King, of Why Not. The hours were very much enjoyed by all.

Mr. Henry Mitchell spent the week-end at his home in Louisburg.

An interesting ball game was played between Star and Ether, Saturday evening on the Star diamond. The score was 14 to 5 in favor of Star.

Miss Thelma James is visiting friends at Candlor this week.

Miss Ethel Pritchard, of Asheboro, is the guest of Miss Ruth Vuncannon.

Mr. N. E. Wright spent a few days in Winston-Salem this week.

Rev. O. P. Campbell filled his regular appointment at the Baptist church Sunday.

MARTIN'S MILL NEWS

The singing school at Shady Grove closed August 8. There was a large and attentive audience present. The class rendered a program that speaks well for the conductors as well as the boys and girls of the community.

This is the first school that Mr. A. M. Fentress has conducted for us. The Worthville male quartet was with us Saturday and Sunday and added greatly to the program.

Mrs. A. M. Fentress, of Pleasant Garden, was a visitor here Saturday and Sunday.

MISS STUART ENTERTAINS

On Saturday evening, Miss Hester Stuart delightfully entertained a number of her friends at her home at Why Not, in honor of her house guest, Miss Dorothy Hubbard, of Farmer. At 8:30 the guests were met at the door by Miss Hester Stuart and ushered into the parlor which was beautifully decorated for the occasion. They were then led into the living room where punch was served by Messames C. E. Stuart and F. J. Cox. The prize in a name contest was won by Miss Aleene King and Mr. Ernest Slack.

The guest of honor was presented with a dainty linen handkerchief.

Delightful music was furnished by Misses Claude Forrester and Dorothy Hubbard. Delicious refreshments were then served in the dining room.

There were about thirty young people present to enjoy Miss Stuart's hospitality.

MILLBORO NEWS

There was a large crowd at Bethany Sunday at the beginning of the protracted meeting there.

Mr. and Mrs. U. M. Aldridge, of Pleasant Garden, are spending a few days here with relatives.

Mr. James Farree, of Cedar Falls, was in town Sunday evening.

Quite a crowd attended the lawn party on the school grounds Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. John Coltrane and family, of Greensboro, are spending a few days here with relatives and friends.

Mrs. D. O. Coble, who has been sick for some time, does not improve much.

Mr. I. J. Julian spent one day last week in Greensboro shopping.

Miss Ollie Routh and Mr. Virgil Lineberry, of Gray's Chapel, spent a few hours in town Sunday evening, the guests of Miss Mayme Ellis.