

FROM OUR CORRESPONDENTS

TRINITY ITEMS

Miss Sadie Redick, who has been visiting relatives in Thomasville the past week, returned home Monday.

Mr. Lockwood Robins, of Durham, and Mr. George Ellis, of this place, returned Wednesday after spending a week in Salisbury, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fisher.

Mrs. James Weeks, who has been visiting relatives in Edgecombe, returned Friday, bringing with her niece, Miss Ruth Gammon, of Edgecombe. They will spend a few days here before going to Junaluska.

Mrs. Frank Stanback and son, Jeffrey, of Raleigh, spent Sunday night in town, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Duke Harris.

Misses Elizabeth and Dorothy Lowe, of Elon, stopped over on their return from Asheville and Connelly Springs and spent a week with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Duke Harris, and their aunt, Mrs. J. D. Ballance.

Mrs. Jane Weeks and Miss Gammon left Tuesday for Junaluska, where they will stop at the Littleton College hotel for about ten days.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Pepper, of Thomasville, were the week-end guests of Capt. and Mrs. Joseph Parkin.

Mr. Marsh Bullard, of Gainesville, Fla., arrived Monday to visit his family, who have been in town a month at the Parker House.

Mr. Percy Bullard, of Raleigh, was the guest of his mother, Mrs. Benson Parker, Monday.

Prof. Willis who with his family has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Ellis, left Wednesday to visit Prof. Willis' parents at Germantown.

The tom Thumb wedding which was given in the chapel last week by the little folks with Mrs. Marsh Bullard and several of the club women managing, was one of the most unique entertainments we have ever had here.

Mr. and Mrs. David White and family, of Charlotte, are visiting Mrs. White's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Paul. It is quite a pleasure to all of us to see Dave and Sarah and their little family.

Messrs. George Ellis, Lockwood Robins, and Joe Ellis went to High Point Friday evening where they were the guests of Mrs. J. J. Farris, who gave a house party in her home.

Miss Patterson, of Mt. Holly, is the guest of Miss Lucy Crowder.

Mr. Ned Pegram, of Durham, is spending the week with his aunt, Miss Kate Craven.

Miss Mamie Caudle, of Sanford, is the guest of her grandmother, Mrs. Benson Parker.

Misses Viola and Thelma Johnson are visiting their aunt, Mrs. H. H. Hayes.

Misses Odell Peacock and Lucy Neal Carr were in town a few days the guests of Mrs. O. W. Carr.

Mr. H. H. Hayes, who has been at home with a sprained foot, the result of an auto accident, is improving but is not yet able to walk.

Mr. Vick, who has been sick for a long time, is no better.

Miss Eileen Lamb, of Randleman, spent several days in town as the guest of Misses Clyde Hill and Minnie Leade.

Mrs. M. C. Pepper, who has been visiting her son, Mr. Claude Pepper, at Hamlet, returned home Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Ballance and Mrs. Alford motored down Sunday afternoon from Clover Craft, their country home, to spend a week with Mesdames Ballance and Carpenter, and Mr. D. M. Ballance and family.

Mr. Clay Bullard is visiting his mother, Mrs. Benson Parker.

Mrs. Royals, of Sampson, and Mrs. Louise Bullard, of Durham, are visiting Mrs. Benson Parker.

Mr. Cyrus Thompson, of Raleigh, came in Sunday to visit Mr. Gray Phillips.

Mr. Marsh Bullard and wife returned from a short trip to Asheville Monday.

The Ladies Missionary Society will meet in Prof. Johnson's study at the college Thursday at 3:30 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. Dutton, of High Point, and Misses Mary and Helen Carter spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Carter at Oakwood.

Master Robert Ellis entertained quite a number of his little friends on Wednesday evening. Notwithstanding the inclement weather most of those invited were present and all report a delightful time.

The Ellis home on Elmwood corner lends itself charmingly to such an entertainment and the little folks had room enough for all kinds of fun. Ice cream and cake were served and all was joy and laughter.

RAMSEUR NEWS

Miss Bertha Huffman, of Greensboro, recently visited her friend, Mrs. R. R. Siler.

Misses Ruth, Louise and Helen Ingle and brother, James, of Athens, Ga., are visitors at the home of Prof. and Mrs. W. P. White.

Miss Ethel King, of Seagrove, was a week-end visitor with the Misses Forester.

Miss Kate Stinson, of Durham, was a week-end visitor at the home of her uncle, Mr. John Baldwin.

Mrs. Thos. Maness and daughters, of Greensboro, visited Mr. and Mrs. Willis Maness Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Chappelle, of Washington, D. C., are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Whitehead.

Mrs. F. L. Trogdon and daughter, Miss Belle, are visiting friends and relatives at Bear Creek.

Mrs. T. A. Henderson and children, of Wilmington, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Copeland.

Born—to Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Wright, a son; to Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Cox, a son.

Mr. W. C. Stout, one of Columbia's best farmers, raised 504 bushels of wheat this year.

Mrs. J. C. Reese and little son, of Biscoe, were recent visitors in town.

Mr. Charles Johnson, of the United States army, is spending some time with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Phillips, of Jonesboro, are visiting Mrs. Phillips' parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Baldwin.

Fred Finison, of Liberty, is spending his vacation with his parents in Ramseur.

Mr. E. C. Watkins has purchased a new Dodge machine.

Misses Edith Scott and Lelyer Free spent the week-end with Miss Willie Jordan at Siler City.

Mrs. W. A. Cross and children, of Galveston, Texas, are visiting friends in Ramseur.

Mr. John T. Turner, one of the bravest Confederate veterans, is making a number of beautiful cedar and walnut wardrobes, corner cupboards and book cases these days.

Mr. George Hodgkin, our popular meat market man, purchased a new Ford car last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Watkins, of Greensboro, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Watkins.

Messrs. C. G. Whitehead and W. H. Watkins, Jr., visited friends at Wadesboro and Rocky Mount last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Ingold, of Alamance, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Mike York, of Ramseur Route 2.

A number of our progressive fox hunters received fine foxes by express Monday.

In the Ramseur items in last week's Courier, Rev. Weaver, who preached at the Baptist church, was spoken of as a "blind colored porter-preacher" through an error. It should have read Rev. Weaver, the blind col porter.

Misses Bessie and Lucy Blair, of Greensboro, are the guests of relatives in town.

MARTIN'S MILL NEWS

The protracted meeting began at Shady Grove Sunday with a very large congregation. Rev. H. S. Smith preached two able sermons.

In last week's Courier in the Martin's Mill News, there was an item which spoke of the recent singing school here as the first one Mr. A. M. Fentress had conducted here. It should have read the third. Mr. Fentress is with us this week to conduct the music for the meeting at Shady Grove.

We have been having some nice showers for the past two weeks and crops are looking very much revived.

There was a social at Mr. W. E. Borough's last Saturday night and all who attended report a nice time.

Mrs. O. A. Hurley, Misses Jewel and little sister, Evelyn, of Burlington, are visiting Mrs. A. F. Martin.

Mr. Birch, of Troy, who will take charge of the school at Piney Grove, spent Friday night at Mr. W. E. Borough's.

Messrs. W. C. Martin and J. B. Floyd were business visitors to Troy Friday.

Miss Jewel Robbins has been a visitor at the home of Mr. W. A. Leach.

Misses Ethel, Beatrice and Mabel Moffitt, and brother, Robert, of Shiloh, are visiting at Mr. B. F. Reynolds.

Messrs. H. Freeman and Company have moved into their new store.

Mr. Paul Kearns and family, of Norman, are visiting at the home of Mrs. C. A. Needham.

Mr. H. J. Cochrane entertained several of his boy friends Sunday evening by serving watermelon.

CARAWAY ROUTE 2 ITEMS

Miss Millie Hunt, of Trinity Route 1, visited her aunt, Mrs. R. A. Hunt, last week.

Mrs. Dora Pierce was the guest of her daughter at High Point last week.

Mrs. E. O. Pierce was a visitor at the home of her sister, Mrs. Harris, at Denton, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. James M. Harris, of High Point, attended the funeral of Mrs. B. F. Ridge last week.

Miss Swaney, of Greensboro, is visiting Mrs. R. C. Hunt this week.

Piney Grove ball team crossed bats with Denton ball team last Saturday on the latter's ground, the score being 4 to 5 in favor of Piney Grove. The Piney Grove team also defeated the Newsome team at Denton Saturday. The score was 4 to 7 in favor of Piney Grove.

Mrs. Minnie Hill went to High Point last Sunday to be with her husband, Harris, at the hospital. Mr. Hill is slowly improving.

Mr. J. M. Yates made a business trip to Graham and Burlington last Friday and Saturday. He was a guest of his aunt, Mary J. Taylor, at High Point Saturday night, returning home Sunday.

Messrs. J. C. Ragan and Morgan went to Greensboro one day last week.

PROVIDENCE NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Adams were the guests of Mrs. Adams' parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Adams, at Level Cross Sunday.

Miss Lola Pugh is spending her vacation at home.

Miss Eva Beeson and Mr. Barney Harvell were quietly married last Friday at the home of the officiating J. P., Mr. G. P. Barker.

Miss Etta Neece was a Sunday evening visitor with Miss Edna Berry.

Miss Emma Neece, of near Climax, was a visitor at Mr. A. M. Macon's Sunday evening.

Miss Mary Skeen is at home for a while.

Miss Nettie Cox, of Pleasant Garden, is the guest of Miss Myrtle Cox.

Miss Estella Neece was a week-end visitor to Graham.

Miss Elsie Barker returned to Greensboro Monday after a week's vacation with home folks.

Miss Anna and Mr. Charley Skeen visited relatives and friends at High Point the latter part of last week.

Mrs. Victoria Reynolds is the guest of her son Robert, at Greensboro, this week.

Misses Vanna, Laura and Epsie Neece were the guests of Misses Myrtle and Lalla Cox Sunday.

The next meeting of the Christian Endeavor will be Sunday evening, August 25 at 7:30 o'clock.

RACHEL ITEMS

Mrs. Rachel Hill is visiting her son, Sam, at High Point.

Mrs. Nan Bright has returned from a visit to relatives at Elmwood.

Mrs. Lou Ledwell and sister, Mrs. Branson, of Greensboro, are visiting friends and relatives at this place.

Mr. Sam Lambeth was a business visitor in Asheboro Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Lassiter were week-end visitors at Whitney.

Miss Lula Hill, of High Point, is the guest of Miss Leona Parrish.

Misses Lou and Vivian Carter, of Lassiter, visited Misses Beulah and Myrtle Hicks last Sunday.

Mr. Mont Lewis and family, of Hill's Store, were week-end visitors at Mr. Neill Carter's at Lassiter.

WEST CONCORD NEWS

The protracted meeting at Salem church continued all through last week and is still in progress.

Mr. S. L. Varner, who has been ill for the past three weeks, is improving.

A series of meetings will begin at Cannon next Sunday.

Born—to Mr. and Mrs. Emsley Hunt, a son.

Prof. G. E. Reynolds, of Denton, visited Mr. H. E. Morris a few days last week.

FRANKLINVILLE NEWS

Rev. West, of Asheville, field agent for the Children's Home at Winston-Salem spent Saturday evening and Sunday in town in the interest of the home, and also preached two interesting sermons at the M. E. church.

Several of our people attended preaching at Parks Cross Roads Sunday.

We were glad to have our Sunday school at the M. E. church visited Sunday by W. B. Webster, vice-president, and W. J. Moore, of Ramseur.

Mrs. O. T. Leonard and children, of Greensboro, who have been spending some time here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. C. Craven, returned home Tuesday.

Messrs. Clarence Parks, Haywood Parks, Fields Parks, and Bryan Parks made an auto trip to Florence and other parts in South Carolina last week.

Prof. D. M. Weatherly left Saturday to spend a few days with his mother near Summerfield.

Mrs. B. E. Prensell and Master Geo. left last Friday for a few days' visit with her sister at Thomasville.

Mrs. S. L. Welch and children, of Greensboro, are visiting relatives in the city this week.

Mr. and Mrs. I. K. Grimes, and Miss Aura spent a short while here Sunday with Mrs. Grimes' brother, Mr. W. A. Grimes.

Miss Mary Parks, after spending some time with her friend, Miss Annie Fox, at Asheboro, returned home Saturday.

There will be, it is hoped, quite an interesting meeting at the Manonic Hall Saturday night. Let every member be present and enjoy to the fullest extent the good things in store for the faithful.

Mr. H. S. Edwards spent the week-end in Sanford.

Mrs. D. M. Weatherly visited friends at Durham last week and attended the marriage of Miss Mary Stuart, one of our former young ladies, to Mr. C. C. Council, of Durham.

Solomon L. Welch, of Greensboro, spent Monday night and Tuesday in the city.

J. T. Buie and W. A. Grimes were elected delegates Sunday by the M. E. Sunday school to attend the county convention at Ramseur next week.

FARMER NOTES

Mr. L. K. Fuller and family, of Whiteville, are visiting relatives at Farmer.

Mr. Herman Cranford and family, and Mrs. Diza Lewis visited at Rev. J. B. Trogdon's last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ross, of Greensboro, with their two sons, spent Saturday night and Sunday with Mr. G. T. Macon's family.

Miss Miriam Goodwin, of Morganton, spent a few days recently with Miss Juanita Kearns.

Mr. Herbert Garner and family, and Miss Swanna Lowdermilk spent Sunday at Mr. B. W. Ridge's.

Mrs. H. W. Smith has returned to Guilford, after spending some weeks with her mother, Mrs. Margaret Horney.

Miss Cammie Nance has returned from Chapel Hill where she attended the summer school for teachers.

Mr. Carl Lassiter, of Mechanic, entertained several young people of that community at an ice cream supper last Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Shelton, of Davidson county, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Nance last week.

Miss Sallie Hulm, our Central Girl, is attending the series of meetings at Canaan this week.

Mr. I. C. Nance and family of Troy visited relatives at Farmer recently.

MOUNT VERNON NEWS

Mr. W. N. Elder, of Trinity, ex-supervisor of our Sunday school gave an excellent review at Sunday school last Sunday.

Miss Vera Green, of Thomasville, is the guest of Miss Beatrice Bulla this week.

Miss Annie Dare Elder, of Burlington, is visiting relatives in this community.

Messrs. Thos. Osborne, of this section, K. M. Pearce, of Progress and Joe White, of Glenola, were guests of Dr. J. D. Bulla Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Elder, of Trinity, and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Elder and daughter were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Redding and family, Sunday evening, during which time there was a reception given in honor of Mr. W. N. Elder's birthday.

Mr. Addison Hill and family, of near Progress, visited at Mr. W. N. Steed's Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Hill, of Trinity, spent Sunday with their mother near here.

FAIRVIEW NEWS

Mrs. Maggie Moffitt, of New Orleans, La., arrived Friday for a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Blair.

Miss Elma Winslow, of High Point, is visiting home folks.

Mrs. A. L. Stillwell and little daughter, of Charlotte, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Blair.

Misses Cres and Sadie Blair, of Thomasville, are on a visit to their grandparents here.

Messrs. H. I. White and Jesse Elder and families motored to Deep River Sunday and visited relatives.

Rev. and Mrs. Roderick Johns, of Smithfield, who are touring this section in their machine, were visitors with the family of Mrs. John Cousin Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Blair have returned from a visit near Greensboro.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Parrish, of Arcadale, spent Sunday with their mother, Mrs. Corrinna Kennedy.

Mr. Marvin Harris and family, of Mt. Shepherd, have moved to this community.

Mr. F. C. Blair and family, of High Point, were Sunday visitors here.

Mr. J. H. Millikan is attending the meeting of the Junior Order at Charlotte this week.

Lee Meredith and cousin, Miss Carrie Cranford, spent a few days last week with Miss Maude Fuller at Fuller's Mill.

MT. PLEASANT ITEMS

A series of meetings will begin at Mt. Pleasant the 25th of August. Everybody is invited to attend.

Mr. H. L. Crotts and Mrs. W. T. Crotts and children visited Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Crotts Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Hughes were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Kindley Sunday evening.

PARKS CROSS ROADS NEWS

Revival meeting began here Sunday, Rev. T. J. Green assisting the pastor.

Mr. James S. Ferree, of Cedar Falls was a week-end visitor with Mr. Bryson Parks.

Miss Lauria Julian, of Millboro, is visiting Miss Ruth Parks.

Miss Lucile Ellis, who has been visiting friends at Mt. Airy, has returned home.

Messrs. Clarence, Haywood, Fields and Bryan Parks made an automobile trip to Florence, S. C., last week.

Misses Martha White, of Ramseur, and Ruth Ingle, of Athens, Ga., were the guests of Miss Ruth Parks Sunday.

Mr. Fields Parks, of Greensboro, is at home for a few days.

TRINITY ROUTE 1 ITEMS

Miss Mattie Thayer spent last week with friends in and around High Point.

Miss Leota Briles spent Tuesday with her cousin, Mrs. George Welborn, near Hopewell.

Little Miss Verda Briles visited at Mr. David Walker's Thursday night.

Mrs. J. M. Spencer is recovering from a very serious illness.

Miss Lola Walker spent the week-end at Mr. J. M. Spencer's.

Mr. Lindsay Snider spent part of last week in High Point, having dental work done.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee A. Briles and Mr. Wesley Welborne expect to attend the county Sunday school convention at Ramseur, this week.

Misses Hester and Fleta Wallace were pleasant visitors at the singing last Friday.

Misses Aris and Loris Collett spent a few days last week with friends around Pleasant Hill.

Miss Vera Farlow, of Sophia, route, recently visited Miss Minnie Davis.

On Thursday July 29th, a number of our young people enjoyed a very pleasant outing on Ridge's mountain, going in a wagon and in buggies. They reached the top of the mountain about one o'clock, and after enjoying a real picnic dinner, set out to explore the mountain, taking many pictures as they went. They started home about five o'clock. Those constituting the party were: Mr. Troy Briles and family, Mrs. Lee A. Briles and children, Misses Maggie, Hester and Fleta Wallace, Kate Caffy, Clara Briles, Mattie Thayer, and Olive Johnson, and Messrs. Robert Thayer and Roland Briles.

Mrs. Nannie Pece spent part of last week at the bedside of her mother, Mrs. J. M. Spencer.

HOPEWELL NEWS

Rev. E. N. Crowder filled his regular appointment at this place Sunday.

Miss Aleen Lamb, Randleman, has returned home after spending some time in this community.

Our Sunday school elected Mr. Allen Jones and Miss Addie Albertson as delegates to the county S. S. convention which convenes in Ramseur next Thursday and Friday.

Born—to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Kennedy, a son.

Miss Vera Collett is the guest of friends near Mt. Pleasant this week.

Messrs. Webb and Lee Meredith spent Sunday with Messrs. Grady and Richard Brown.

Miss Hallie Collett has returned home from Lexington.

Mr. Allen Welborn, of High Point, is visiting his uncle, Mr. J. P. Collett.

Miss Sallie Sapp, of Salisbury, is the guest of Miss Ruth Sapp this week.

Mrs. D. M. Welborn and Mrs. John Brown spent Monday with Mrs. T. J. Finch.

Mr. Allen Jones visited Mr. Cra Collett Sunday.

Misses Lois and Berta Welborn went to Trinity Sunday evening.

Misses Ava and Loris Collett spent part of last week at Pleasant Hill.

Misses Mary and Frances Floyd, of Salisbury, are spending some time with Miss Myrtle Floyd.

Miss Leota Briles, of Mt. Gilead, spent last Tuesday with Mrs. George Welborn.

Miss Myrtle Floyd and guests, Misses Frances and Mary Floyd, spent Monday evening with Miss Ruth Sapp.

Miss Callie Stamey, of Lexington, spent the week-end with home folks.

MILLBORO NEWS

Miss Golden Aldridge, who has been spending the summer with her aunt in Albemarle, Va., returned home last week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Julian visited Mr. E. P. Trogdon, of Millboro Route 1, Sunday.

Miss Laura Julian is spending a few days with Miss Ruth Parks, of Parks Cross Roads.

Miss Ila Brown, of Greensboro, is visiting her parents here.

Miss Eula Hays spent Sunday with Miss Leslie Pugh on Millboro Route 1.

Misses Golden Aldridge and Nellie

Ellis visited friends in Worthville Sunday evening.

Mr. W. W. Hurley, of Worthville, was a visitor in town Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Frazier spent the week-end with relatives at Asheboro.

Mr. J. M. Aldridge, who has accepted the contract of painting the school building, is progressing nicely with the work.

Miss Mayme Ellis spent Saturday and Sunday with friends in High Point and Trinity.

Some of our people attended the song service at Gray's Chapel Sunday evening which was conducted by Mr. Cullom.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Brown went to Gile's Chapel Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Julian spent Sunday evening with relatives at Worthville.

Messrs. Otis and Dwight Trogdon, of Millboro Route 1, were in town Sunday night.

LIBERTY NEWS

Rev. Smith from near Siler City filled the pulpit for Rev. Mr. Spruill in the Baptist church Sunday morning.

Prof. Lewis, of Halifax county, who has been elected principal of the high school, is in town on business.

Mrs. Will Henderson, of Savannah, Ga., came in Sunday to see her father, Mr. J. F. Pickett.

Misses Bessie Rush and Esther Reece gave a party at Mrs. Emma Reece's Wednesday night in honor of their company, Miss Wallace, of Ramseur, and Miss Frazier, of High Point.

The Misses Sprinkler, of Winston-Salem, are visiting the Misses Moore.

Mr. Will Turner and family came down in their car from Greensboro Saturday and stayed until Monday.

Mrs. Jim Stroud and Miss Sallie Williamson left Tuesday for Clinton.

Misses Lyster Frazier, Bessie Murchison and Nettie Spoon are spending the week at Asheville.

The play given in the auditorium Saturday night by the Methodist Protestant Philathea and Baraca classes was considered quite a success.

Mrs. Beaufort, of New Bern, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Walter Albright.

Mrs. Fisher, of Roseboro, who has been spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Bill Swain, has gone to Graham, where she will visit Mrs. Lea. Mrs. Fisher will go from Graham to Roseboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gillam, Otis Brower and Allene Curtis left Monday for the Springs where they will be for some time.

Cager Bunton was buried at Liberty Grove one day last week.

Mrs. Tom Robertson, of Washington, D. C., is visiting friends in and around Liberty.

Miss Bronnie Coble has returned to her work in Graham after spending her vacation at home.

Prof. Phillips spent a couple of days visiting in town last week.

Mrs. Mint Coble who has been making Coleridge her home has come back to live with Dr. Bill Staley.

The play given by the Pleasant Garden crowd on the 7th, was very much enjoyed.

Mrs. Ross Teague of Raleigh is visiting relatives in and near Liberty.

Mr. Clarence Frazier and Ed Butler, who have been off on the bridge force, returned home Saturday.

Mr. Stocard, of Sakapahaw, is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Kellie Overman.

The people of Liberty were very sorry to hear of the death of Miss Stella Brown. She made many friends when here in school last year.

Mrs. Walter Albright delightfully entertained in honor of her guest, Mrs. Beaufort, on last Friday evening. Those present were: Mesdames Tom Robertson, Mayme Smith, Jim Stroud, Jessie Bowman, Armp Patterson, Wade Hardin, Alice Smith, Jennie R. Hill, and J. O. Overmait, and Misses Irene Patterson, Lora Bowman and Sallie Williamson.

LIBERTY ROUTE 2 ITEMS

The crop prospects in this section are very good. Several 15,000 and 1-000 bushel crops are expected.

Mr. and Mrs. Hutchings, of Raleigh, were week-end visitors at Mr. C. H. Staley's. Miss Mary Staley accompanied them home and will be their guest for a few days.

Mr. John Leighton, of Roanoke Rapids, is a guest at the home of Mr. John Staley.

The protracted meeting will begin at Liberty Grove the fifth Sunday in August.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Palmer and little Kemp are attending the meeting at Bethany this week.

Miss Beulah Harne, of Raleigh, is the guest of Miss Lee Annie Curtis this week.

Miss Mary Hughes, of Greensboro, is visiting Mr. L. H. Curtis this week.

Mr. Cyrus Scoffner was a business visitor to Greensboro Saturday.

The little child of Mr. A. S. York, which has been ill for so long, does not improve.