

The Courier.

Asheboro, N. C., September 16, 1915.

WEEKLY WEATHER FORECAST

Issued by the U. S. Weather Bureau, Washington, D. C., for the week beginning Wednesday, Sept. 15, 1915.

For South Atlantic and East Gulf States: The week will be one of generally fair weather and relatively high temperature although scattered thunder showers are probable in coast districts.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Come in to see the York Piano. Mr. Geo. Ross, of Jackson Springs, was in Asheboro Sunday.

Prof. T. F. Bulla attended the opening of Liberty high school Tuesday. Mr. Thad Page, of Biscoe, was in town a few hours Tuesday.

Mr. Lacy Lewis left Sunday for Bingham School.

Mrs. John McDowell who has been quite ill for several days is improving. Mr. Hobart Stout, of Siler City, was in Asheboro a few hours Tuesday.

School books may be obtained at Mr. R. C. Johnson's store.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Wood were week-end guests at the home of Mr. J. R. Page at Aberdeen.

Miss Nannie Bulla returned Saturday from a ten day's outing at Blowing Rock.

Miss Myrtle Ashby left Saturday for Summerfield where she will teach school this year.

Mr. E. P. Hurley, of Montgomery county, was a visitor in Asheboro Tuesday.

The Ford automobile, first prize in the Courier contest, will be here early next week.

Mrs. M. W. Parrish visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Crosson, at Back Creek Sunday.

Misses Bera and Lucile Scarboro were week-end visitors of Miss Lucy Bowden at Randleman.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Scott, of Star, were the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. K. L. Winningham.

The second prize in the Courier's contest, a beautiful York piano, has arrived and is in exhibition at the Courier office.

The Asheboro colored graded school opened Monday morning with a good enrollment. Prof. L. A. Harris and two assistants are in charge.

Mr. U. C. Richardson left Monday for Aberdeen where he has a position with the Aberdeen Wholesale Grocery Company.

Mr. J. W. Parrish was in Asheboro yesterday and says that Mr. A. E. Garner lost a fine horse by death Monday of this week.

Messrs. Presnell and Brown left Monday for the Western markets to purchase a car load of horses and mules.

Miss Eula Y. v. of Seagrave, Route 1, who has been the guest of Mrs. E. P. Wrike returned home Wednesday.

Mr. Neill Sheffield passed through Asheboro yesterday returning to his home near Randleman from attending his uncle's funeral in Moore county.

Mrs. W. C. Hamner, and daughter, Miss Harriette, and Mrs. Jennie Hancock are home from an outing at Jackson Springs.

Mr. Fletcher Alfred has moved his family to Ramseur.

Miss Lillian Busch and her brothers are moving into the Teague house.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Stedman and Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Stedman made a trip to Whitney and Albemarle Sunday.

Mr. Lee Brown, Misses Estelle Williams and Annie Vestal, of Asheboro, and Robert Garner, of Liberty, visited at Mr. T. F. Pugh's Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Elmer Rich, of Asheboro, Mrs. E. A. Routh and J. H. Marley and families, of Franklinville, visited the Baptist Orphanage at Thomasville Sunday.

Superior court adjourned Thursday evening, after having been in session since last Monday, the 6th. Cases of much interest came before the court.

Dr. Ashby is getting excellent results in his campaign against typhoid in the county. At the close of the first round Saturday about 1,500 had been vaccinated.

Miss McCoy Birdhead and sister little Miss Mattie, are home from a visit to relatives and friends at Candor and Ellerbe. They were accompanied by little Miss Ethel Birkhead who will be their guest for a while.

The visitors at the home of Mr. A. S. Pugh's Saturday and Sunday were: Misses Iva Morgan, Lizzie Hunt, Mattie Pugh, Elsie and Essie Stuart, of High Point, Genevieve and Leona Wilson, of Asheboro, and Messrs. J. B. and A. C. Pugh and families, of Franklinville.

Miss Essie Nance, of near Farmer, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. H. Rivett.

Mrs. Gertrude Miller has returned to her home at Cedar Falls to recuperate for a few days.

Miss Nellie Muse, of High Point, is the guest of the Misses Henley at their home on Sunset Avenue.

Rev. J. E. Thompson left Monday for Gibsonville where he will assist in a series of meetings at that place.

Miss Agnes Fancete, of Burlington, is the guest of Miss Virginia Henley in West Asheboro.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Presnell, and Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Steed visited relatives at Steeds Sunday.

Mr. John W. Saunders and son, of New London, were the guests of Mr. J. M. Rich last week.

Miss Bessie Coffin, of Raleigh, will arrive Saturday on a visit to her brother, Mr. W. A. Coffin.

Miss Ethel Saunders, of New London, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. J. M. Rich.

Mr. W. C. Presnell, of Pilot Mountain, was the week-end guest of his mother, Mrs. Mack Lamb.

Mrs. B. Frank Page, of Raleigh, will arrive the latter part of the week on a visit to Mrs. Frank Burns.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Davis, formerly of Asheboro, now of High Point, spent a few hours in town Tuesday.

Miss Fannie Hannah leaves Saturday to spend a week with Miss Linnie Dorsett at Farmer.

Miss Massah Lambert and little Misses Margaret Grimes and Lucy Lee Lovett returned Monday from a ten day's outing at Jackson Springs.

Mrs. Cleveland Presnell and little son left Tuesday for their home in Raeford after an extended visit to Mrs. Jesse Presnell.

Misses Rosabel, Jessie and Epsie Woolen, Clara Wall, and Mr. Sutcliffe, of Randleman, were visitors in Asheboro Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. E. L. Moffitt and children are home from Virginia where they have been spending the summer with relatives.

Mrs. Milton Hale returned Wednesday to her home at Drowning Creek after a visit to her sister, Mrs. Seth W. Laughlin.

Little Miss Sarah Carson, of Charlotte, is in school here. She is making her home with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. McAllister.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dowdy, of High Point, passed through Asheboro Sunday on their way to a visit to Mrs. Dowdy's father, Mr. Hancock, in the Seagrave section.

Beginning Sunday there will be a series of meetings at the Baptist church. Dr. L. R. Pruette, of Charlotte, will assist the pastor, Rev. Mr. Powell.

Miss Fleta Lewallen came home Thursday from Charlotte where she has been taking treatment under specialists for throat trouble.

Since the close of the September session of court Friday there have been no prisoners in jail. There were many criminal cases tried at this court and a number of them in jail awaiting trial were sentenced to the county roads.

The standard high-toned York piano which is the second prize in the Courier's subscription contest is one of the best high grade pianos on the market. Messrs. A. N. and E. M. Callom are agents for the instrument.

Miss Nannie Lambert returned Monday night from a three week's outing at Canton and Murphy in Western North Carolina. Miss Lambert will leave early next week for Greensboro where she will resume her studies at the State Normal.

Dr. and Mrs. J. V. Hunter returned home Monday from Charlotte where they had been to attend the funeral of Dr. Hunter's mother. There are three surviving children: Dr. Hunter, of Asheboro; Miss Carrie Hunter, of Charlotte; and Dr. R. J. Hunter, of Canton.

Isaac Sheffield, aged 70 years, died at his home at Sheffield's Mill in Sheffield township, Moore county September 12, 1915. Mr. Sheffield was a highly respected citizen and an elder brother of Mr. Nathan Sheffield, one of Randolph's best citizens now living near Randleman.

By a score of 4 to 2 Coleridge defeated an aggregation of baseball players representing Farmer, Asheboro, Ramseur and Hopewell on the Coleridge diamond Saturday. The game was featured by the pitching of Scotten for Coleridge who allowed only two hits.

Tuesday night at 10 o'clock in the garage of the Asheboro Motor Car Co. some man, residing elsewhere, lighted a match to see how much gasoline was in the tank of his automobile. The blaze caught in the tank and soon the fire was burning briskly and but for the presence of mind of a spectator who secured a fire extinguisher the garage might have been burned.

Next Sunday the 20th anniversary of the M. P. church, High Point, will be celebrated with appropriate services. The morning sermon will be delivered by Rev. W. R. Lowdermilk, of Concord, who was the first pastor of that church, and Rev. C. L. Whitaker, of Asheboro, until recently pastor of the church; will speak at the evening hour.

There are hardly enough active candidates in the field to get all the prizes offered by the Courier. Why don't you get in while the going is good?

The moonlight school at Liberty began Tuesday night. Prof. Lewis and his assistants assisted by a number of interested local parties are in charge of the school.

Little more than preliminary work has yet been done in the contest by a woefully small number of candidates. There is no reason why you should not be successful if you will enter the contest earnestly and energetically. There is still time to win the big prizes. There is not an active candidate in the list but who can do it and there are many not in the contest who could enter and win out.

Mr. R. S. Petty, of Greensboro, will demonstrate the Monarch Stump Puller, made by the Zimmerman Steel Co., with special grubbing attachment, used by no other makes, on the old Gray place on the road from Farmington to Gray's Chapel, owned by John M. Hammer, on next Tuesday, August 21st. This demonstration was to have been made August 30th and 31st, but owing to delay in shipment it was impossible to get the machine on time.

MRS. REITZEL ENTERTAINS BOOK CLUB

Mrs. M. J. Reitzel delightfully entertained the Liberty Book Club with Mrs. Dr. Shepard and Miss Jones, of Walnut Cove, on Thursday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock. After the business meeting and exchange of books, a book contest was entered into with much pleasure. Mrs. G. Armp Patterson winning the prize, a handsome bound book, The Treasure Island.

At the close of the contest the hostess assisted by her grand-daughter, Miss Virginia Cole, served a tempting iced course with cake and a pleasant social hour was enjoyed.

LIBERTY NEWS

Mrs. C. P. Smith, Sr., and children were week-end visitors in Siler City last week.

Quite a number of our Liberty girls are leaving this week for the Normal College and Guilford to resume their studies for the coming year.

Miss Julia Smith is spending some time in Burlington with relatives. Mr. R. E. Patterson who has been on the sick list for several months improves slowly.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Teague delightfully entertained the Sunday school members of the M. E. church last Friday evening from 8 to 10 o'clock. A most enjoyable program was given in recitations by the different classes and music was furnished by the Liberty cornet band. A delicious iced course was served.

Miss Snoda Brower living five miles west of town was the guest of her sister, Mrs. S. C. Frazier, last Saturday and Sunday.

R. A. Smith spent last Tuesday in Greensboro.

Miss Ruth Surratt, of Denton, who has been spending the past month with her aunt, Mrs. O. T. Hatch, returned to her home last Friday.

On last Monday from four to six o'clock, p. m. on the beautiful lawn of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Pickett's the teachers of the intermediate and star classes and the Bible class of the M. P. Sunday school gave a social and lawn party to the members of their classes, and quite a number of invited guests of the town. The graded school faculty were invited as guests of honor. Quite a number of games were played by the smaller children on the lawn after which delicious refreshments consisting of cream and cake were served.

Mrs. Ida Hardman, of Reedy Creek township, Davidson county, died last Saturday and was buried at South Church Sunday.

Miss Lizzie Cameron

Cordially invites you to inspect the new lines of Millinery she has prepared for the fall trade. The first showing of Hats will be on Wednesday of this week, September 15, continuing through the week.

MSS LIZZIE CAMERON
LIBERTY, N. C.

Next Door to Drug Store.

SURPRISE BIRTHDAY PARTY

Last Saturday evening about seventy five young people gathered at the home of Mr. A. S. Pugh on the occasion of a surprise birthday party given by Misses Myrtle and Hazel Pugh in honor of the twenty-fifth birthday of their brother, Mr. Atlie Pugh. After playing a number of interesting games the guests were invited to the lawn where tables were set with dishes of ice cream, cake and grapes and decorated with lovely flowers. After refreshments were served Mr. Pugh was the recipient of many nice presents.

Those present from a distance were: Misses Iva Morgan, Lizzie Hunt, Mattie Pugh, Elsie and Essie Stuart, of High Point, Mr. Robert Garner, of Liberty, Messrs. Claud and Carl Walker, of Asheboro Route 2.

Report of the Condition of THE BANK OF RANDOLPH

at Asheboro in the State of North Carolina, at the close of business September 2nd, 1915.

Resources.
Loans and discounts	$177,685.97
Overdrafts	226.99
All other stocks, bonds and mortgages	8,000.00
Banking houses and furniture and fixtures	5,000.00
Due from banks and bankers	83,992.14
Cash items	731.17
Gold coin	5,322.50
Silver coin, including all minor coin currency	5,184.36
National bank notes and other U. S. notes	5,207.00
U. S. Revenue Stamps	42.00
Total	$291,382.13

Liabilities.
Capital stock paid in	$21,400.00
Surplus fund	25,000.00
Undivided profits, less current expenses and taxes paid	22,563.12
Deposits subject to check	221,405.78
Cashier's checks outstanding	1,013.23
Total	$291,382.13

State of North Carolina, county of Randolph, ss:

W. J. ARMPFIELD, Jr., Cashier, above-named bank, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

W. J. ARMPFIELD, Jr., Cashier.
Correct—Attest:
T. H. REDDING,
D. B. MCCRARY,
P. H. MORRIS, Directors.
Subscribed and sworn to before me, this 14th day of September, 1915.
J. D. ROSS, Notary Public.

GROCERIES CHEAP FOR CASH.

We carry a full line of Groceries Flour, Meal, Feed Notions, etc., and sell cheap for cash.

You can save money by buying your supplies from us in sufficient quantities to secure wholesale prices.

Read these prices and compare them with what you have been paying:

Compound Lard	10c	lb
Burkhardt's Lard	12 1/2c	lb
Best Rib Meat, small quantity	13c	lb
Best Rib meat, whole price	12c	lb
Best Fat Back	11c	lb
Pickled Pig Feet, per pound	10c
Arbuckle's Roasted Coffee	15c	lb
Jim Dandy Roasted Coffee	12 1/2c	lb
Brown's Mule tobacco, 10lb box	$3.10
Red J tobacco 10 lb box	$3.10
Apple Sun Cured 10lb box	$3.50
Picnic Twist, per lb	15c
100 lb sack Sugar	$6.00
5lb sack Sugar	33c
Bran, per sack	$1.25
Feed per sack	$1.40
Shorts, per sack	$1.50

We carry six different brands of flour, 70 cents to 80 cents per 24lb sack, including Blue Ribbon.

We keep a full line of canned goods, cakes, crackers, soap, washing powders, cold drinks, cigars, smoking tobacco, pencils, tablets, etc.

Come to See Us,
LAMBERT'S CASH GROCERY
next to O. R. Fox's Furniture Store.
THOS. LAMBERT'S GROCERY
Near old court house.

They are Here!

SHOES FOR MEN, WOMEN AND CHILDREN

Educator and Red Riding Hood Shoes for boys and girls.

Our children's as well as all other shoes have a reputation behind them, and we sell them with the perfect assurance that they will stand good hard service.

Parents, bring or send your children, and let us fit their shoes. We guarantee satisfaction.

Coffin & Scarboro

Millinery

Pattern hats and novelties. Everything new and very latest style.

Special showing of new arrivals every Tuesday and Thursday.

Mrs. Millard H. Alfred
O. R. Fox Building ASHEBORO, N. C.

Stylish :-: Millinery

I will show a complete line of the latest New York styles in Millinery, on Tuesday and Wednesday, September 21st and 22nd.

Having spent several days on the Northern markets selecting stock, I feel that I can be of service to any one looking for goods.

Yours truly,
MRS. EMMA N. WALL
RANDLEMAN, N. C.

Plantation For Sale.

W. H. MARLEY Place, 11-2 miles from Coleridge, 69 acres more or less, about 1-3 cleared, good fruit, two-story dwelling, good barn and other outhouses, good neighborhood, lots of wood, some timber. Will sell at reasonable price. TERMS: Cash or part on time. Write or see

V. C. MARLEY, Ramseur, N.C.

First Showing Fall Millinery

Thursday, Sept. 15th, 1915

We will have on display PATTERN HATS of the latest shapes and styles.

A cordial invitation is extended to the ladies of Asheboro to inspect the many new models on display.

Miss Venetia Smith
High Point, N. C.

SPECIAL VOTE COUPON.

This coupon will entitle any contestant in the Automobile Contest of THE COURIER to

300 VOTES
For

Contestant.....
District.....
ADDRESS.....

VOID AFTER SEPTEMBER 23rd.