

Fall Announcement!

This Big Store Was Never in Better Position to Supply Your Wants

Right from the leading marts of the country we are receiving new Fall and Winter Merchandise in sufficient quantities to meet the heavy demands always made upon a store the size of this. Our capacity is taxed and every available inch of space is used to display the biggest line of merchandise we have ever brought to Asheboro.

The Latch String Hangs Outside---Follow the Crowds to this Store this week.

The new prices on these blankets ranges from $1.50 to $6.00 with some thing good along between—a few pair at $10 made to last a lifetime. Cheaper blankets at 75 cents and $1.00. Baby blankets, and a big stock. Bed quilts at $1.00, $1.50, $2.50 and up to $4.00 and $5.00 each.

Distinctive Values Characterize Every Line in our Store. Dress Goods, Etc.

We have almost limitless varieties of plain, floral printed, and all the new and pretty cloths of the season—we do not believe we have ever before had a variety so pleasing and in spite of everything our prices are no higher in any particular. New winter dress goods in silks and wools. Come and see for yourself. Ladies' silk hose in black, white and tan at $1.50. Ladies' Silk Hose, in tan, black, white and other popular colors and most popular on the market at $1.00, $1.50, $2.00 and $2.50. Ask to be shown. Full stock ladies' undergarments. 50c to $2.00. Big line children's underclothes. Shirtwaists and undershirts—and a big selection that you will appreciate. RAINCOATS for every member of the family. We were careful in the selection of our line to see that nothing but the best values were packed in our cases, and we bought good values to give you good values in turn. A big line have we and the prices are as low as you will find on any good raincoat.

ATTRACTIVE STYLES FOR FALL.

New Women's and Misses Tailored Suits.

Distinctly different are the lines that mark the first tailored models that usher in the new Autumn season. We cordially invite you to visit our store during the next few days and look at our pretty line of Coats, Coat Suits, and Outer Wraps. There are many signs of newness—the straight line coat and flare shirts bear out the line, bought from the best makers—that were available on the northern markets and brought to your door and at no higher prices than you pay in cities—in fact less. Don't leave Asheboro to buy fall clothes—look over our stock, give us a showing and if we don't have exactly what you want we'll be but a matter of a few days getting it. Velvet and plush coats—a beautiful garment, long coats, sport coats, Children's and Misses' coats galore. Ladies' Silk Sweaters head the big shipments of silk and wool sweaters just received at this store. Sweaters a plenty for everybody.

Blanket Time!---Big Shipment of Elkins Just In.

We have just received a case of Elkin Blankets to sell at special sale prices for the next few days—and what a good time—just as winter approaches. Better buy in several of these blankets for they won't be offered at these prices again.

WOOD & MORING

ASHEBORO'S STANDARD MERCHANTS

SHOES

FOR MEN, WOMEN AND BOYS

School Shoes

"Buster Brown"

"Tess and Ted"

GOOD SOLID SHOES for BOYS and GIRLS

"Stronger Than the Law"

FOR MEN AND WOMEN

Our Specials for Men

WALK - OVERS

$3.50 to $6.00

Built:-:Right

$5, $6 and $7.50

FROM OUR CORRESPONDENTS

JULIAN ITEMS

Mr. J. E. Deviney who has been ill for some time is improving. Rev. W. M. Pike preached an able sermon to his congregation at Shiloh Sunday. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Clay Johnson, a son.

COOL SPRING ITEMS

Mr. Tom Allred and family, of the Liberty section, have moved to the H. D. Foust place on Bush Creek. Mr. C. A. Walker has returned home after a few week's absence at Franklinville. Mr. M. V. Andrews' family have moved back to Trinity. Mr. Cyrus Lineberry, of the Lineberry section, who was seriously injured at a saw mill two weeks ago is recovering. Mr. and Mrs. John Curtis, of Liberty, visited Mr. G. M. Jones' Sunday night. The thermometer has registered from 87 to 89 in the shade here for several days. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Walker were in Asheboro last Saturday.

WHITE MEMORIAL ITEMS

Mr. G. H. Richardson and daughter visited their old home neighborhood last Saturday and Sunday. Mrs. Richardson has been up there quite a while at the bedside of her sick mother, who is not expected to recover. Revival meeting will begin at White Memorial Baptist church the 3rd Sunday night, in September. Everybody cordially invited. Rev. W. C. Dowd filled his regular appointment at White Memorial 1st Saturday night and Sunday. He preached two able sermons. Mr. and Mrs. Talmage Jones, of Franklinville, have returned to their home neighborhood where they will reside for a while. Mr. and Mrs. Finison, of Ramseur, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Webster Sunday. Mr. Charles Walker has returned home from Franklinville. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Webster visited relatives at Ramseur Sunday.

HIGH POINT ROUTE 3 NEWS

The meeting which began at Fairfield church the first Sunday closed on last Friday night with good results, there being near forty conversions. Mr. and Mrs. Jamie Smith, of Greensboro, recently visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Hohn. Mr. Carl Field and Miss Lulu Steed attended singing at Shady Grove Saturday evening. Miss Cora Shelly, of Jamestown, recently visited her cousin, Miss Alta Shelly, of this route. Miss Vera Coletrane, of High Point, spent the week-end with friends in this community. Miss Mattie Clark, of Greensboro, spent last week at the home of Mr. Mayfield Hoover. Miss Mattie Davis visited her sister Mrs. Ethel Hohn, last week. Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Hunt spent last Sunday at the home of Mr. Vester Davis, of Cedar Square.

MILLBRO NEWS

Rev. J. B. O'Brian filled his regular appointment at Bethany Sunday morning. Misses Laura and Ollie Julian have been visiting relatives and friends in High Point. Miss Bessie Hays spent Sunday with Miss Clara Ward, of Millboro Route 1. Miss Golden Aldridge is spending some time with her grand parents in Raleigh. Miss Benigna Yow, of Asheboro, was the guest of Miss Bessie Hays a few days last week. Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Julian, of Millboro, Route 1, spent Sunday with Mr. J. G. Julian.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Williams, of Liberty Route 1, visited Mr. J. T. Brown Sunday. Mrs. C. H. Julian, of Cedar Falls, visited relatives here Saturday and Sunday. Miss Mayme Ellis visited friends in Randleman Sunday. Mr. J. T. Brown made a business trip to Greensboro one day last week. Mrs. U. C. Barker visited at Mr. Thos. Millikan's at Randleman Sunday.

There will be a play "Our Awful Aunt" given at the school building here Saturday night, September 18th. Music by string band. Admission 10 and 15 cents. Proceeds will be for the benefit of the school. Everybody come, bring your friends and enjoy the occasion.

TRINITY NEWS

Mrs. Norment who has been visiting friends and relatives in Lumberton and Fayetteville returned Friday evening. Miss Beulah Norment returned to Woman's college, Greensboro, Saturday. Miss Lucy Crowder who has been visiting in Thomasville returned Monday. Miss Green, of Thomasville, is the guest of Miss Lucy Crowder Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Pepper, of Thomasville, were the guests of Capt. and Mrs. Parkin for the week-end. Judge McKee, of Thomasville, was the guest of Miss Jewel Parkin Sunday. The teachers for the intermediate and high school department, Misses Reeks and Woody, came in Saturday. We all welcome them to our midst. Mr. Marvin Andrews and family moved in last week. We are glad to have them back among us. Mr. and Mrs. Peter Brame, of Winston-Salem, and Mr. and Mrs. Morris Brame, of North Wilkesboro, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John D. Brame.

The high school opened Monday morning with the largest number in years, 188. Many of the parents of the school were present and the town is enlightened by the influx of young people. Talks were made by Mr. Crowder, Guy Phillips, Capt. Parkin, Mr. T. J. Wood, Prof. English, Mr. Reddick and Mr. Ellis. Mr. Ellis touched on the low educational rate in the South, the State, and the county, and asserted that 'the people were not doing all they should or could in the influence of the school boards, and suggested that matters would be improved if women were put on the school boards. Mr. Crowder spoke of the reliable, the liable and unreliable. Prof. Guy Phillips talked on the school spirit and stressed what it did for schools. Prof. Phillips is of the Raleigh schools and knows from experience what the school spirit will do.

RAMSEUR ITEMS

Lacy W. Black has purchased the stout and fancy grocery store of J. W. Stout and will continue the same business. Mr. A. H. Thomas of the Ramseur Broom Works is spending the month in the west buying broom corn for his factory. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Finison visited friends at Gray's Chapel and Worthville Sunday.

Miss Ella Fadum, of Baltimore, arrived Monday to take charge of the millinery department of the Carter Mercantile Co.

Mrs. etoai etoinshrdl hatheth Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Allred, of Climax, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Webster.

Misses Webster, of Franklinville, spent Saturday and Sunday with their sister, Mrs. Will Kimry.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Page and children, of Bliscoe, are visiting in town. Miss Gladie Marley has accepted a position in the new graded school.

Arthur Hurley and son and daughter, of China Grove, were popular visitors in town for the past several days.

Rev. T. J. Rogers is assisting Rev. W. E. Womack in a protracted meeting at Coleridge.

W. C. Hammer, accompanied by Misses Henley and Faucette and Mr. Henley were welcome callers Saturday last.

Dr. F. C. Craven left Tuesday for Baltimore to take a special course on the diseases of the eye, nose and throat.

Sam. B. Black has purchased the stock of goods of J. E. Covington and will continue the business.

Mr. Tom Barker, of Jordan, is back with us in school again.

Messrs. L. W. Black, V. C. Marley, and E. L. Cox went to Greensboro on business this week. The Sunday schools of Ramseur have taken on new life since the county convention met here, a good attendance at all the schools now.

BETHANY NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Otis White, of Asheboro, visited relatives here last week.

Mr. Daniel Hinshaw made a business trip to Danville, Va., recently.

Mr. A. C. Pugh and family spent Thursday in Greensboro shopping.

Miss Jane Davenport who has been spending some time with her sister, Mrs. D. T. Gaster, has returned to her home at High Point.

Mr. A. C. Pugh has purchased a Ford car.

Mr. Worth Burrow who has been ill for some time with typhoid fever improves slowly.

Most of the people around here are taking the anti-typhoid treatment.

Mr. J. F. Routh made a business trip to Asheboro Saturday.

Mr. Morris, of Asheboro, now manager of the Randleman Telephone Exchange, was through this section, recently putting new batteries in the 'phones. We hope he will keep our line in good order.

WHY NOT NEWS

Work is progressing nicely on the new gravel road.

M. C. Auman and Miss Ethel King spent Saturday night with friends near Kemp's Mill.

R. J. Lawrence is having his dwelling house remodeled.

The following young people have gone away to school: W. C. King, Miss Pauline Lawrence and J. Clyde Auman to Elon College; Ernest Slack and Miss Ada Monroe to Farmer high school; Everette Lawrence and sister, Miss Faye to Bonlee high school; and Furman Auman to Liberty high school. Elsie King returned Monday after a week's stay at Washington, D. C. Mr. J. A. Auman and son, D. C. Madsen, spent Saturday in Asheboro.

Mrs. N. F. Slack and children, of Eagle Springs, are spending the week at J. B. Slack's.

DENTON NEWS

Mr. G. Dan Morgan has gone to New York.

Mr. John Locke made a business trip to Rowan county last week.

Mr. C. L. Baggett and Rev. C. C. Williams, of Jackson's Hill, were in town Friday.

Messrs. W. E. Boone and A. G. Morris went to Asheboro one day last week on business.

Mr. Chas. L. Snider returned to Chapel Hill last week. This is the beginning of his second year at the University.

Mr. Thos. A. Andrews has entered Guilford College.

Messrs. A. A. HM and A. W. Lanning went to Charlotte on business Thursday.

Mrs. J. E. Varner returned Saturday from visiting in High Point.

Mr. Robert Murdock returned from Asheboro Friday where he had been visiting for the past two weeks.

Mr. L. F. Ross, of Asheboro, bookkeeper for Denton Lumber Co., is here this week on his regular round. He is accompanied by Mrs. Ross and children who are enjoying an outing at Cameron Hotel.

father, Mr. W. F. Hix, at New Hope Academy last week.

Mr. Chas. D. Jones, editor of the Lexington Daily Star, was here Friday in the interest of his paper.

The musical department of Denton High School opened up Monday. Miss Ruth Snotherly, of Albemarle, has charge as teacher.

Mr. Geo. T. Cochran, a popular insurance agent of Thomasville, was in town Friday.

Mrs. J. C. Kearns was carried to the hospital at High Point last week where she was operated on for appendicitis. At last report she was recovering nicely.

The Sunday schools of this place went on their annual picnic to High Rock Saturday. A large number from each school went. A program of short talks relative to Sunday school work was carried out, songs were sung, prayer offered, and, of course, dinner was served on the grounds. Many took advantage of this opportunity to visit the scene of the much-talked-of land slide on the mountain side near by.

WEST CONCORD NEWS

A large crowd attended the protracted meeting at Piney Grove last Sunday.

Mr. Lindsey Morgan, of Seattle, Washington, is visiting relatives in this community.

Mr. Van Lanier and a Miss Carmel were happily married last Sunday by Eq. D. G. McMaisters.

Mr. Van Morris and sister, Miss Mada, entered school at Denton a few days ago.

Mr. Lee Thompson, who was taken seriously sick while visiting her son in Washington, D. C., is at home much improved.

Mr. John Hunt made a business trip to Denton last Saturday.

There was a birthday dinner at Mr. Salwe Kearns' last Sunday. All reported a nice time.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC

All members of the M. P. Sunday school and the mothers of the children are invited to go on a picnic to Neighbor's Grove Friday afternoon. All are requested to meet at the church at 4 o'clock and bring a lunch. W. L. WARD, Supt. H. C. JONES, Sec.