

FOR "TINKERING" WITH TARIFF.

MR. PAGE'S MISTAKE

Some of our Republican contemporaries are very much pleased with the report that Congressman Page of the Seventh District favors "tinkering" with the tariff again at the next session of Congress. If Mr. Page has been quoted correctly he is making a mistake, and we are confident that a majority of the Democratic Representatives in Congress will tell him so when he gets back to Washington. There has never been a tariff law that worked better than the Underwood-Simmons law and we do not believe the country wants to interfere with it. Nothing would injure the Democratic party more than "tinkering" with the tariff again next winter.

Mr. Page is said to favor a modification of the tariff which will place a duty of "fifteen cents a pound on wool." We are at a loss to know upon what ground he bases his belief that this particular commodity should be restored to the dutiable list. As was pointed out some time ago by the Virginian-Pilot, the price of raw wool in the United States during the last twelve months have been considerably higher than at any time within a number of years, while manufacturers have been drawing heavily upon foreign sources of supply to meet their demands for the product. The Woolen industry, too, if we may give credence to a comparatively recent statement of President Wood, of the American Woolen Company, who certainly ought to know whereof he speaks, is prospering today as it has not prospered for a comparatively long time past.

What is there in such conditions to suggest the need of an impost duty which could only have the effect of increasing the price to the manufacturer of his imported raw material, without conferring any benefit upon the wool grower? On the contrary, do not these conditions demonstrate the wisdom of the wool schedule of the Democratic tariff law, which free-rites the raw product and reduces the duties on the manufactured articles appreciably below those obtaining under the Payne-Aldrich measure. The proof of the pudding is in chewing the bag, and, measured by that standard, the wool schedule of the Underwood-Simmons law, as has the law in its entirety, has conclusively made good. The Democratic Congressman who should agitate "tinkering" with it would consult the best interests neither of the country nor of the party.—Winston-Salem Journal.

PAGE AND THE TARIFF

A Contention That No Tariff Tinkering is Necessary.

(From The Norfolk Virginian Pilot.)

If Representative Page of North Carolina really favors, as The Charlotte Observer hears he does, a modification of the tariff which shall place a duty of "15 cents a pound" on wool, it would be at least interesting to know upon what ground he bases his belief that this particular commodity should be restored to the dutiable list. During the last 12 months the price of raw wool in the United States have been considerably higher than at any time within a number of years, while manufacturers have been drawing heavily upon foreign sources of supply to meet their demands for the product. The woolen industry, too, if we may give credence to a comparatively recent statement of President Wood, of the American Woolen Company, who certainly ought to know whereof he speaks, is prospering today as it has not prospered for a comparatively long time past. What is there in such conditions to suggest the need of an impost duty which could only have the effect of increasing the price to the manufacturer of his imported raw material, without conferring any benefit upon the wool grower? On the contrary, do not these conditions demonstrate the wisdom of the wool schedule of the Democratic tariff law, which free-rites the raw product and reduces the duties on the manufactured articles appreciably below those obtaining under the Payne-Aldrich measure? The proof of the pudding is in chewing the bag, and, measured by that standard, the wool schedule of the Underwood-Simmons law, as has the law in its entirety, has conclusively made good. The Democratic Congressman who should agitate "tinkering" with it would consult the best interests neither of the country nor of the party.

The following articles published in the Winston-Salem Journal and Norfolk papers are in line with the majority of the Democratic press. Fairbrother's Everything, a publication that stands for protection says that at least one half of our delegation in Congress have said we must have a bigger tax or go bankrupt. The Greensboro News, now an anti-

Wilson paper, has the following:

"An Eminently Sensible Position."

"Mr. Page, says our Washington correspondent, will favor a revenue tariff on sugar, wool and other commodities now on the free list.

"An eminently sensible position to take. The treasury cannot very well stand much more experimenting along these lines. It was a very great and grave mistake in the first place to put sugar on the free list. The sugar growers, events have clearly shown, did not need the little protection they were receiving as much as the country needed the money. Many thoughtful Democrats had a full realizing sense of this, and there is little doubt that the radical extension of the free list in the last tariff bill was one of the President's mistakes. It ought to be rectified at the first opportunity.

There are few Democrats who do not admit this to be the case in private conversation. Moreover, these Democrats feel it would be the best form of party patriotism to make these changes as quickly as possible, lest the country commission the Republican party to make them. Democrats standing with Mr. Page—and they will be strong both in character and numbers—will have the consciousness of serving both the country and their party.

No less sensible are the views of Mr. Page on the subject of Preparedness. They coincide with those entertained by Senator Kern and Mr. Kitchin. Adequate coast defenses, submarines and torpedo boats are the things needed by the country, and they are all that is needed. Very few people in this country are interested in a big naval program, if that means billions for battleships.

"Let Roosevelt Rage!"

If the war continues long it may be necessary to make some changes in the Simmons-Underwood bill, but it is highly important that we have as little tariff tinkering as possible and such changes as are made should be upon the basis of a revenue tariff with only such incidental protection as would accrue thereby.

SOUTHERN TUBERCULOSIS CONFERENCE, MEETS

Tuberculosis Conditions of South Special Study—Dr. L. B. McBrayer Vice President.

The second Southern Tuberculosis Conference will be held at Columbia, S. C., October 8th and 9th. Dr. L. B. McBrayer of North Carolina Sanatorium for the treatment of tuberculosis is vice president of the conference and will address the assembly on the subject: "Tuberculosis Policies in the South." Furthermore, Dr. McBrayer will give at this meeting a resume of his recent work and findings in the investigation of tuberculosis conditions in the Wadesboro silk mills. This conference, known as the Southern Tuberculosis Conference, is one of five that will meet either this month or next in five different sections of the United States. Methods of carrying on more effectively for the coming year the war against tuberculosis, both by physicians and laymen, will form the chief subjects for discussion at the various conferences. North Carolina is fortunate to be in close touch with one of the five national conferences.

At the Columbia conference every aspect of tuberculosis in the South will be discussed. Considerable attention will be given to the problem of the tuberculous negro. It is expected that a big delegation of interested North Carolinians will be in attendance.

SECOND CAMPAIGN PROGRESSES

Over 22,000 Vaccinated—Third Campaign Ready to Launch.

The fourth week of the second anti-typhoid State and county campaign reports 22,384 as the total number of persons in the five counties taking the vaccine treatment. Halifax is still leading with a number of 7,746 with Iredell following with 6,834. Next in line is Wilson with 3,601 followed by Edgecombe, 2,118 and Wayne 2,095.

It is gratifying that the interest in this line of public health work is not waning though summer with its hot weather and flies, the season when infection is considered greatest, has almost counted the sands.

What may be termed the third State and county anti-typhoid campaign is ready to start in Warren and Craven counties. September 13 will launch the movement in these counties in full force and order.

It is expected that the end of next week will show a total number of complete immunizations of three treatment for the second campaign amounting to near 25,000. Lee county's total of three complete treatments will be included in this number.

Former President Taft, in a speech at Los Angeles, declares that the United States is nearer with war with Mexico than at any time in the last five years. He says this is due to the policy of "watchful waiting" and that we have "neither watched nor waited."

A Fine Whooping Cough Remedy.

Mothers, Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey is just the remedy for your children's cold ailments. The fact is that pine is a quick enemy of cold conditions. Its qualities loosen the mucous in the throat, soothe the lungs and open up the air passages. The combination of honey, soothing and pleasant, with the loosening pine quality makes this an ideal cough remedy for children. Each passing year brings for it, new friends. A family of growing children cannot afford to be without it. 25c a bottle.

A CONFESSION

Hopes Her Statement, Made Public, will Help Other Women.

Mines, Ala.—"I must confess," says Mrs. Eula Mae Reid, of this place, "that Cardui, the woman's tonic, has done me a great deal of good."

Before I commenced using Cardui, I would spit up everything I ate. I had a tired, sleepy feeling all the time, and was irregular. I could hardly drag around, and would have severe headaches continuously.

Since taking Cardui, I have entirely quit spitting up what I eat. Everything seems to digest all right, and I have gained 10 pounds in weight."

If you are a victim of any of the numerous ills so common to your sex, it is wrong to suffer.

For half a century, Cardui has been relieving just such ills, as is proven by the thousands of letters, similar to the above, which pour into our office, year by year.

Cardui is successful because it is composed of ingredients which act specifically on the womanly constitution, and helps build the weakened organs back to health and strength.

Cardui has helped others, and will help you, too. Get a bottle today. You won't regret it. Your druggist sells it.

WHAT CATARRH IS

It has been said that every third person has catarrh in some form.

Science has shown that nasal catarrh often indicates a general weakness of the body; and local treatments in the form of snuffs and vapors do little, if any good.

To correct catarrh you should treat its cause by enriching your blood with the oil-food in Scott's Emulsion which is a medicinal food and a building tonic, free from alcohol or any harmful drugs. Try it. Scott & Borne, Bloomfield, N. J.

QUALITY

Musicians call me quality; my proper name is York; and I am known and loved in the leading homes of America.

Men and women are liked for what they are, so am I. On first acquaintance, a pleasing appearance may be the basis for mutual attraction, but the test of friendship is intrinsic merit. Appearance counts, of course, and I am proud of my beautifully designed and finished case. You will be proud of me because for classy lines and rich, chaste design, I have no superior but my real merit is based upon much more than appearance for I will give a long lifetime of service. In thousands of American homes, churches and schools I have been for many years demonstrating my durability and have proven to my friends that my sweet and mellow tone and delicate and responsive action can always be depended upon, even under the most trying conditions. I can be relied upon at all times to meet the exacting demands of the most critical musician. I want to come to your home and spend a lifetime. I want to give you some of the joy and sweetness and melody which I am today giving so many lovers of good music.

Will you let me come? Join my club and save not only the middleman's profit but also secure the unheard of advantages offered through that club. These advantages are not confined to price alone. I come direct from the factory to your home and always please people who are able to judge real merit. I was carefully and conscientiously made by the Weaver Organ and Piano Co., of York Pa., who guarantee material and workmanship for a period of ten years. I am rated as a high-grade and standard instrument by the "Piano and Organ Purchasers Guide. I am The Charming Toned York Piano.
