

The Courier.

Asheboro, N. C., September 29, 1915.

WEEKLY WEATHER FORECAST

Issued by the U. S. Weather Bureau, Washington, D. C., for the week beginning Wednesday, Sept. 29, 1915. For South Atlantic and East Gulf States: Rain and high winds are probable in the East Gulf States and local rains in the South Atlantic States the first half of the week, the latter half will be fair and cooler.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

A son was born last week to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. M. Fox. Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Worth returned from Baltimore Friday night. Mrs. J. T. Wood is the guest of Mrs. T. L. Russell at Denton this week. Mr. Walter Pemberton, of Troy, was a business visitor in Asheboro Tuesday.

Mrs. H. H. Kennedy is spending the week with her mother, Mrs. Peace, at Grave's Siding.

A large number of Asheboro people attended the meeting at Gray's Chapel last Sunday.

Mr. J. M. Luther, of Pisgah, went to High Point for treatment yesterday, returning in the afternoon.

Mr. Sam Phillips has opened a meat market in the Winslow stand on South Fayetteville street.

Mrs. Lewis is very ill at the home of Mr. J. M. Betts on South Fayetteville street.

Measurables F. G. Grimes, Jennie Hancock and Miss Daisy Page returned Saturday from Washington.

Mr. J. T. Wood will return Saturday from a business trip through South Carolina.

Addison Allred, who was condemned for larceny years ago has returned after an absence of several years.

It used to be called a protracted meeting—will begin in the Methodist Protestant church next Sunday.

Miss Rhodema Cox is the guest of her sister, Mrs. L. D. Birkhead, this week.

Miss Jessie Lee Cox, of Pisgah, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Chas. L. Preshell.

Mrs. N. J. Chandler and son, of Chandler, N. C., are visiting at the home of Mrs. J. T. Winslow.

You are invited to attend the meeting in the Methodist Protestant church next week.

Mrs. J. W. Swain attended the funeral of Mrs. J. W. Curtis at Liberty Friday.

Messrs. Luther Perry, James Boling and Ed Murray, of Burlington, were in town on business the first of the week.

Miss Lillie Bulla of the graded school faculty spent the week-end with home folks on Randleman Route 3.

The Courier publishes in this issue the address of Dr. J. Y. Joyner before the State Press Association at its meeting at Montreat in June.

Mrs. K. U. Williard came home Saturday from an extended trip through Western North Carolina. Mr. Williard remains at Elkin where he has entered business.

Mrs. J. Roene Blair, Master J. R. Blair, Jr., Mr. W. A. Cochran and Miss Mason, of Troy, were in Asheboro Friday.

Mrs. Charles M. Hauser, of High Point, with Mr. and Mrs. Cummings, came to Asheboro last Thursday for the day.

Mr. Arthur Ross has taken the agency for the Saxon cars. He has purchased two cars, a two passenger and a five passenger car.

Rev. J. C. Broomfield, D. D., of church at Fairmount, W. Va. He is a ripe next Monday to assist in the special meeting in the Methodist Protestant church.

Mr. F. King has recently purchased a Chevrolet car of Mr. B. F. McDowell. Mr. King went to Troy Monday a his car, he was accompanied by Mr. King who will spend a week in Troy.

All praying people of our town are requested to pray for the success of the meeting at the Methodist Protestant church, which is to begin next Sunday. You are invited to come and take part.

Dr. Broomfield, who will assist in the meetings at the M. P. church next week, has just celebrated his tenth year as pastor of the Methodist Protestant church at Fairmount, W. Va. He is a Scotchman, and was for six years a sailor on the high sea. Come to hear him.

Mr. J. B. Winningham, private secretary to the general manager of the Southern Railway, after spending several days with his father at Central Falls, and other relatives in the county, has gone to St. Louis, from there he goes to Washington. He takes the trip over the Southern railway.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Cox, at Stapley—a son.

Come to hear Dr. Broomfield at the Methodist Protestant church next week.

Mrs. John T. Moffitt is visiting friends and relatives at Elon College this week.

Miss Lanta Winslow left Saturday for Duplin county where she will teach this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl B. Griffin have returned from an extended visit to Washington, D. C.

Mrs. John Winslow who has been seriously ill at her home on North street, is recuperating slowly.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivey Hall returned last Saturday night from Washington, D. C., and other points north.

Messrs. R. P. Deal and A. B. Beasley, of Randleman, were in town several hours Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Penn and children, of Greensboro, came down for a few hours Sunday afternoon in their car.

Miss Grace West, of Waverly, Va., is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Elijah Moffitt.

Measurables D. B. McCraw, J. V. Hunter and E. H. Morris spent Friday shopping in Greensboro.

Little Miss Lillian, the seven-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Curtis, of Franklinville, is recovering from an attack of scarlet fever.

Mrs. Mitchell and children, of Brooklyn, N. Y., are the guests of Mrs. Mitchell's sister, Mrs. E. R. Clark.

Cotton is selling for 12 cents per pound. It is to be hoped the price will hold out.

Work on Mr. J. C. Hannah's new home in west Asheboro is progressing rapidly and will soon be completed.

Mr. Osborne Slack, of Pisgah, has purchased the J. M. Allen place in South Asheboro and moved his family here last week.

A birthday dinner was given Saturday at Spero in honor of the 33rd birthday of Mrs. Marinda Clapp. A large crowd assembled to do her honor.

Mr. Dewey Lentz, of Albemarle, has accepted a position as bookkeeper with the Randolph Chair Company.

Mr. Lentz is a brother of Mrs. Ferd Ingold, of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cox, of Lexington, passed through Asheboro Monday en route home from a visit to Mrs. Cox's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Stuart, at Why Not.

Naomi Springs, near Kernersville, has been sold to Mr. J. H. Dunlap, of Bonlee. The purchase will no doubt develop the property.

Mr. E. R. Clark returned Wednesday from Carthage where he has completed the plastering of the new county home for Moore county.

Miss Grace Wood arrived home Saturday from an extended visit to relatives and friends at Lexington and Jackson's Hill.

Asheboro Graded School base ball team defeated the Ramsey Graded School team in a close game of ball on the Ramsey diamond Saturday. The score was 7 to 6 in favor of Asheboro.

Special attention is called to the attractive ads in this issue. Read them carefully and see what our merchants have to offer. You can do better and save more money by trading at home than by buying from mail order houses.

Dr. and Mrs. Claude Hayworth, of Coleridge, went to Jackson Springs last week to take their daughter, Miss Gilda, who has had typhoid fever. Mrs. S. L. Hayworth, of Asheboro, accompanied them and returned Sunday.

At the M. P. parsonage, Randleman, Saturday evening at eight o'clock Miss Lou Fogelman and Mr. F. W. Farlow were married. Rev. J. B. O'Brian officiating. Their many friends wish them a long and happy life.

"A Handbook of the Law of Evidence for North Carolina" is one of the latest law publications for the press. Walter S. Lockhart, the author attributes in his preface much credit to Mr. R. C. Kelly, of Asheboro, for offering valuable suggestions and reading proof.

A Thomasville dispatch to the News and Observer Tuesday states: Fred J. Cox, who moved from Thomasville about five months ago to take charge of the Thomasville branch of the Central Auto Company, has returned to Lexington to go into the automobile business. Mr. Cox is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Cox, of Asheboro Star Route.

Tuesday night the ten days revival at the Baptist church closed. The series of meetings has been marked by the interest manifested and the large congregations in attendance. The pastor, Rev. Mr. Powell, has been ably assisted in the services by Rev. Pruette, of Charlotte, who is a very able preacher. The music during the services was in charge of the Cullom School of Music.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Clark, a son.

Mr. P. S. Page, of Steeds, is visiting his daughter, Mrs. C. E. Davis.

Miss Boss Coffin, of Raleigh, is the guest of her brother, Mr. W. A. Coffin.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Will Hughes, of Seagrave, will rejoice to learn that their sick baby is improving.

Mrs. F. A. Hesley is visiting her sister, Mrs. Fredonia Clarke, in Charlotte.

Mr. Walter Bunch left yesterday for Oak Ridge where he goes on business.

Mr. Dewey Lentz, of Albemarle, has accepted a position with the Randolph Chair factory.

Mrs. John Porter, of Charlotte, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Moring.

Mr. J. A. Hardin, of Dëwyn, Va., is the guest of his son, Mr. J. E. Hardin.

Mrs. J. G. Morgan, of Danville, Va., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Brilla.

Mrs. John M. Porter, of Charlotte, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Moring.

Misses Lillie Richardson and Jessie Ward have returned from a visit to Miss Annie Davis at High Point.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Kin Wilson have recently moved into a part of Mrs. Jean Rush's residence.

Miss Myda Wimpey has purchased a place at Lakeview. She still retains her home about two miles north of Asheboro.

Mr. J. D. Ross and family went to Greensboro Sunday night to hear Dr. Broomfield preach, who will assist in a meeting here next week.

Miss Annie Lee Hall celebrated her seventh birthday this week. Sixteen of her friends were with her on the happy occasion.

Miss Corinna Auman who has been teaching music in Thomasville, contemplates going to High Point to teach.

Mr. Smith, who is with the Norfolk Southern Railroad has recently moved his family to Asheboro, in the cottage next to Ridge's store.

Mr. A. W. Council, of Glenola underwent an operation for appendicitis at High Point one day last week and is getting along nicely.

Rev. Mr. Eli Reece has been appointed to the pastorate of the Friends church here and will hold services each Sunday morning and evening.

Glenn Turner died yesterday in High Point from a wound received from a falling trap door, the night before.

Messrs. George F. Tyson and Blair Jennings, of Greensboro, spent Sunday in Asheboro. They came down in Mr. Tyson's car.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Garner, of Raleigh, were the guests of Mr. Garner's mother, Mrs. G. F. Garner, at Why Not the first of the week.

A protracted meeting will begin next Sunday at the M. P. church. Dr. Broomfield, of West Virginia, will assist in the meeting.

An interesting ball game was played Tuesday between the sixth and seventh grades of the Asheboro school. The score was 6 to 5 in favor of the seventh grade.

A breakdown last week and another this week has caused an unavoidable delay in getting out this issue and last week's issue of The Courier. Hereafter we hope to get out on time.

Mr. Lewis White and Mrs. C. L. Whitaker left Monday for Enfield to join Mrs. White and little daughter in a visit to relatives. They went in Mr. White's car.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Page have returned to Raleigh where Mr. Page is connected with a leading drug store, and is also principal of a Pharmaceutical School.

The heating plant of the court house is being overhauled. The old boiler has been taken out and placed in the new jail and another boiler of the same size has been installed. Both of the boilers will be in the jail. A thorough overhauling of the other parts of the plant has been made. The heating capacity of the plant has been doubled.

The lot sale at Seagrave last Saturday was a success. A number of persons purchased lots with a view of building business houses and residences. Seagrave is located in the center of a timber section and a good agricultural community, surrounded on every side by an active, industrious citizenship.

Last Thursday evening at the M. E. church at Mechaavierville, a suburb of High Point, Miss Grace Lewallen and Mr. Charles Hamlin were married. The marriage came as a surprise to the friends of the young people. Both the bride and groom are natives of Randolph. Mr. Hamlin is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hamlin, who reside near Asheboro, and is at present a barber at High Point.

Rev. J. F. England died at Lenoir Sept. 29th, in his 75th year. He had been a minister for more than 45 years in the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. He is survived by a wife, one daughter, and one son, Miss Maude England, and Mr. Will L. England, all of whom reside in Lenoir. Mr. England was at one time a resident of Ramseyer and was pastor of the Methodist church at that place and other places in that section of the county.

There are over two hundred pupils enrolled in Trinity high school. Sixty-five are enrolled in the high school department and twenty in the seventh grade. Prof. D. C. Johnson is the principal and is assisted in the high school department by Miss Marie Moody. Fifty-seven are enrolled in the 4th, 5th and 6th grades taught by Miss Josephine Reeks. The enrollment in the 1st, 2nd and 3rd grades is sixty. These grades are taught by Miss Kate Norment.

John Hodgkin, the negro convict who shot and killed guard J. C. Freeman, Saturday morning, September 18th, was captured Thursday morning at 5 o'clock by Chief of Police Love and T. M. Jordan, both of Albemarle. Hodgkin was discovered asleep by a fire near the railroad track about 18 miles from Salisbury on the road to Albemarle. He offered resistance and was shot so severely that he died later after having been lodged in jail at Albemarle. Chief Love was shot in the foot during the fight, whether by the negro or by himself it is not certain. Messrs. W. A. Underwood and J. W. Hadley arrived home Saturday night and having been through that section for the past week confirmed the reports of the press regarding the details of the capture.

The Ladies Aid Society will give a Dahlia and Fancy work show at the G W Elliott store building Saturday, October 2, for the benefit of the M. P. parsonage. Those who wish to exhibit fancy work must send it in Friday afternoon. The flowers must be sent in Saturday morning before 10 a. m. Doors will be opened at 10:30 in the morning and refreshments will be served. Prizes will be awarded at 8:30 p. m.

DAHLIA AND FANCY WORK SHOW AT RANDLEMAN

Rupture Expert Here

Seelye, Who Fitted Czar of Russia, Called to Greensboro.

F. H. Seelye of Chicago and Philadelphia, the noted truss expert, will be at the Huffine Hotel and will remain in Greensboro Friday only, October 8th. Mr. Seelye says: "The Spermatic Shield as now used and approved by the United States Government will not only retain any case of rupture perfectly, affording immediate and complete relief, but closes the opening in 10 days on the average case. This instrument received the only award in England and in Spain, producing results without surgery, harmful injections, medical treatments or prescriptions. Mr. Seelye has documents from the United States Government, Washington, D. C., for inspection. All charity cases without charge, or if any interested call he will be glad to show same without charge or fit them if desired. Business demands prevent stopping in this section.

New Coats and Coat Suits

For Fall and Winter Wear for Women, Misses and Children

Our line of elegant coats and coat suits surpasses in distinctiveness of style and beauty those of other seasons. Quality is first and the prices are reasonable.

AUTUMN OPENING SATURDAY, OCTOBER 2.

Warner's Rust Proof Corsets

Represent comfort, service, and health when correctly adjusted.

Worn by hundreds of well dressed Women!

Shield Brand Clothes

Latest styles and correctly tailored.

$10, $12.50, $15 AND $18

Shoes

For every member of the family

The latest style in a comfortable last—Long wear and well worth the moderate prices asked.

New Fall Millinery

The correct fashions for the Fall Seasons. Special showing of new arrivals.

We sell reputable goods that bring the customers back. Our unusual reputation is due to our reputation of producing first class goods season after season.

Carter Mercantile Co.,
RAMSEUR, N. C.

The Charlotte Observer says in part:

"Along about this season of the year as the almanac would say, look out for talk of the split in the Democratic party. In North Carolina it is going to be on account of the tax assessment. The forecasts for the coming split in the North Carolina Democracy are based on the same solid arguments and the split that is coming is the one that the Republicans always hopelessly predict and that as persistently fails to materialize as scheduled."

Farm for Sale

One hundred acres, one mile west of Guilford College; pine and oak timber; level upland, good bottom, a two-story house. A fine stream of water forms the east boundary. Apply to
L. L. HOBBS
Guilford College, N. C.

Better Groceries For Less Money

Is why you should order from us. Always fresh and cost you less. Let us send you a pound of our sliced boiled ham and you will be pleased. And don't forget our Stone's Wrapped Cakes All Kinds.
J. C. Hannah
The One-Horse Grocer.

Davidson county's big attraction, the Outlook Days, will be the 6th and 7th of October. There will be parades, exhibits, and contests and prizes will be awarded. A splendid program has been arranged.

COME AGAIN!

TO ALL OUR FRIENDS WHO DROPPED IN FOR OUR OPENING, WHETHER YOU BOUGHT GOODS FROM US OR NOT :-We thank you for the interest shown in coming to see us. It's a pleasure to show honest goods to good people.

Remember that we are in business to stay and intend that you shall get a dollar's worth of goods for every dollar you spend with us.

Sincerely yours,

W. A. COFFIN,
JESSE M. SCARBORO.

Miller Building, Depot Street, Asheboro, N. C.