The ceremony was performed Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in the M. E. church, South, by the bride's father, who is pastor of the church. Mr. and Mrs. Grissom will make their home in Chattanooga.

Mr. W. C. Hammond was in Greensboro Tuesday and in conversation with Mr. Garland Daniel, secretary of the Greensboro Fair, asked why free tickets to the fair on Educational Day, Friday, the 15th, were not given the pupils of this county as they had been given to the students of Guilford county. Mr. Daniels stated that free tickets would be given to the pupils of the schools in this county who asked for them. Prof. Wharton, of the Asheboro Graded Schools, has made the request and free tickets for Educational Day at the fair will be given to those children who desire it. The school authorities have ruled that school will be conducted here the 15th as usual but those children who desire to do so may attend the fair that day provided that they bring a written request from their parents Thursday. Those pupils who attend the fair will not be counted absent but will be marked present.

IN HONOR OF MISS MUSE

Mrs. L. F. Ross entertained about twenty-five ladies Tuesday morning at a thimble party in honor of her house guest, Miss Gilbert Muse, of High Point. The house was attractively decorated with dahlias and cosmos. Needlework furnished the entire entertainment for the morning. The hostess, assisted by Miss Esther Ross, served iced tea and sandwiches.

The evening before, Mrs. Ross entertained eight couples at rook. No prize was given which added to the simplicity and real enjoyment of the guests. An ice course was served.

AMMONS-LAUGHLIN

A very quiet, but pretty marriage, was solemnized at 6 o'clock Wednesday morning at the home of the bride's parents, when Miss Beulah Mae Laughlin became the wife of Mr. E. T. Ammons, of Jackson Springs, N. C.

Only near relatives of the bride were present to witness the ceremony, which was performed by the bride's pastor, Rev. J. E. Thompson.

The bride wore a handsome traveling suit of midnight blue, with accessories to match. She is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Shube W. Laughlin, and having lived in Asheboro practically all of her life has endeared herself to a large circle of friends who will wish for her much happiness.

The groom is a successful young business man of Jackson Springs. Mr. and Mrs. Ammons left immediately after the ceremony in their car for points south, after which they will return to Jackson Springs where they will make their future home.

FALL MEETING OF WOMAN'S DEPARTMENT CLUB.

The annual meeting of the Woman's Department Club was held at the court house Monday afternoon, Mrs. S. L. Hayworth, vice-president, presiding. The moonlight school movement was endorsed, and report was given of work which is already being done by committee that is co-operating with Mr. T. F. Bulla, superintendent of public instruction. Arrangements were made for a flower show some time in November, time to be set by committee whose business it is to ascertain when flowers will be at their best. Together with this show will be a fair which will consist of all kinds of fancy work on exhibit, some of which will be for sale. Refreshments will be served under auspices of Household Economic Department and sold at reasonable prices, proceeds going to paying debt on school grounds.

The Health Department made excellent report of Better Babies Contest and of the State Exhibit which was in Asheboro for a week. The election of officers for the new year resulted in the following:

- President—Mrs. Wm. C. Hamner. First vice-president—Mrs. S. L. Hayworth. Second vice-president—Mrs. J. O. Redding. Secretary—Mrs. W. A. Underwood. Treasurer—Mrs. J. T. Moffitt. Program Committee was appointed by the chair, composed of the following: Miss Esther Ross, Miss Annie Moring, Miss Julia Thorns, Mrs. W. A. Underwood, Mrs. Lewis Phillips.

Several committees were appointed to arrange the flower show in November.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

Whereas, Our heavenly Father, who knoweth best and doeth all things well, saw fit to remove from our midst Mrs. Mabel B. Dove, one of our charter member Philathia Class Franklinville M. E. Sunday School, one who loved and was very much devoted to her class, always willing to do her part for its development and success, displaying the love and virtue of Christian character.

Therefore be it resolved, That we bow in humble submission to this divine providence, and while we sadly miss her here on earth we know we have another member gone to that home above, where all is peace, love and happiness, where sorrow and parting never come and with beckoning hands await our coming.

Resolved, second, That we place a copy of these resolutions in our Class record, send a copy to the bereaved family, and a copy be sent to Asheboro Courier and Baraca-Philathia Herald for publication.

Malaria or Chills & Fever

Prescription No. 666 is prepared especially for MALARIA or CHILLS & FEVER. Five or six doses will break any case, and if taken then as a tonic the fever will not return. It acts on the liver better than Calomel and does not gripe or sicken. 25c.

Mr. W. D. Burgess, for years a leading business man of High Point, as owner and manager of the Peerless Machine Works, has sold his beautiful home in High Point, and has purchased a home in Mt. Airy. He has also bought the Laurel Hill Cotton Mills at that place, and will take charge, of and operate the said mill. Mr. Burgess is a son of the late W. H. Burgess. His father, W. H. Burgess, was a miller and wool carder, and operated the wool carding machine at Cedar Falls and Franklinville. At one time he operated the carding machine in the Bald Mountain Custom Mill in Davidson county just before the Civil War. Mr. Burgess and his splendid family have an unusually wide circle of friends in High Point acquired during their 17 years residence there. Mr. Burgess went to High Point from Liberty and has been actively identified with the business of that community. By his executive ability he has built up a successful business, and his departure will be keenly felt.

A Wonderful Antiseptic.

Germs and infection aggravate ailments and retard healing. Stop that infection at once. Kill the germs and get rid of the poisons. For this purpose a single application of Sloan's Liniment not only kills the pain but destroys the germs. This neutralizes infection and gives nature assistance by overcoming congestion and gives a chance for the free and normal flow of the blood. Sloan's Liniment is an emergency doctor and should be kept constantly on hand. 25c., 50c. The $1.00 size contains six times as much as the 25c.
