

WEEKLY WEATHER FORECAST

Issued by the U. S. Weather Bureau, Washington, D. C., for the week ending Wednesday, October 20, 1915.

For South Atlantic and East Gulf coasts: Rain Wednesday, probably continuing Thursday along the south Atlantic coast; otherwise generally fair weather will prevail during the week; temperature will be moderate.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mr. W. A. Underwood spent Monday in High Point.

Miss Lillie Bulla visited home folks Sunday.

Mr. E. E. Davis made a business trip to Greensboro Monday.

Mr. J. H. Kivett and family visited relatives near Bombay Sunday.

Dr. J. F. Miller made a business trip to South Carolina this week.

Col. A. C. McAllister is improving after an illness of several days.

Miss Ulnah Rank went to Troy today on account of her grandfather's illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvan Cox, of Worthville, were visitors in Asheboro Sunday.

Mr. J. C. Hannah and family have moved into their new home on Park Street.

Sheriff Birkhead is confined to his home suffering from an attack of influenza.

Mr. B. F. Meffitt, agent at Bear Creek, and Miss Mamie Lloyd were married Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Mathews, of Randolph, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Fox Wednesday.

Mrs. Simeon Gray and family have recently moved to Asheboro, occupying a residence on Kivett street.

Mr. J. Frank Hinshaw died from a stroke of paralysis at his home on Siler City Route 2, Tuesday morning.

A carload of pigs was shipped through Asheboro Tuesday consigned to Mr. R. W. Pumpelly at Samarcand.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. L. Hedrick have gone to Troy where they will be for several days. Mr. Hedrick is there on business.

Miss Gladys Smith, who has been visiting friends and relatives here, left Saturday for a visit to her uncle in Denver, Colorado.

Miss Elsie Lindley and Mr. John Goodwin were married at the home of the bride's parents, near Snow Camp Sunday.

Mrs. Dean, of Henderson, came Saturday to be the guest for several weeks of her daughter, Mrs. R. E. Powell.

Mr. John Wislow and family have moved from the W. A. Underwood house in East Asheboro to Mrs. E. B. Kearns' residence on North Street.

Mrs. D. M. Sharpe returned Monday from Greensboro after spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Hendrix.

Mrs. W. J. Seaboro, Bera Seaboro, Mr. Wharton, and Misses Ulnah and Margaret Rank spent Sunday in Greensboro.

Mr. Garrett Leach and family, of Eract, have moved to Asheboro. Mr. Leach has accepted a position as salesman for W. W. Jones.

Mr. John S. East, who has been pharmacist for the Elk Drug Co., at Elk Park, in Avery Co., came home Monday for a visit to his family.

The Bar's class of the Baptist church entertained the Philathea class Monday evening from 8 to 10:30 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Berry.

The plant of the Randolphs Peppercorn Bottling Co. has been sold to Mr. C. J. Buchanan of High Point, who will in the near future reopen the plant.

Mr. D. M. Sharpe won three prizes with his White Orpington chickens at the Greensboro fair last week. The prizes were for first pullet, second cockerel, and second hen.

Mr. P. S. Page returned to Steeds yesterday. Mr. Page has been here for a few weeks. He made a business trip to Burlington the first of the week.

Mrs. J. T. Brittain returned last week from Guilford county where she had been called on account of her father's illness. We are glad to note his improvement.

Mr. J. M. Bristol, of the Trinity section, has rented the J. M. Presnell place in North Asheboro and will operate a dairy farm there. He is expected to arrive in a few days to take charge.

Mr. W. J. Moore, of Seagrave, passed through Asheboro Monday en route to High Point. He was accompanying his little daughter, Nellie, to the hospital for an operation.

Mr. W. J. Baldwin has moved one of his shingle mills from the Spies section in Montgomery county to Vass.

Mrs. W. K. Dickens and family left Tuesday for Candor, where they will make their home in the future.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hughes, of Seagrave, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hughes Sunday.

Rev. Mr. Sidney Robins, of Kingston, Mass., is in Asheboro the guest of relatives for several weeks.

Mrs. Tom Carrick and children, of West End, returned home Tuesday, after spending some time with her mother, Mrs. W. K. Dickens.

Mr. W. C. Brewer has purchased the furniture store formerly owned by Mr. E. B. Cole at Bennett. Mr. Cole has engaged in the saw mill business.

Mr. O. L. Presnell came home Friday night from Guilford College to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Presnell, returning Monday morning.

Mr. W. K. Dickens left Tuesday to take position as mail clerk on the run from Raleigh to Charlotte, succeeding Mr. A. C. Cox, who takes Mr. Dickens' place in the postoffice.

Mrs. Melissa Elkins, widow of Wesley Elkins, who died 36 years ago, died of heart failure at her home near Bear Creek Sunday, October 10, at the age of 78 years.

On Friday afternoon Mrs. G. T. Cochran pleasantly entertained the Chautauqua Circle at her home on Salem street, Thomasville. An attractive and appetizing course of refreshments was served.

A northbound local freight was wrecked late Tuesday afternoon near Ore Hill. Considerable damage was done to the track and cars but no one was injured.

The protracted meeting at the Pisgah M. E. church will begin the fourth Sunday night in this month and will continue through the fifth Sunday. Rev. C. E. Stedman is pastor of the church.

Mrs. C. E. Stuart returned to her home at Why Not Thursday from a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Fred J. Cox, at Lexington. Mrs. Stuart attended the fair at Greensboro while away.

The Randolph county jail is empty and with one exception has been so since last court. This is the first time in over two years that the jail has been devoid of prisoners for so long a time.

Since Sept. 12th, the police department of Winston-Salem has confiscated and destroyed 55 gallons of liquor. Some 22 gallons in addition were turned over to the federal authorities. There was an automobile, two horses and buggies, and more liquor seized by the county authorities.

In the list of school teachers published in last week's paper it was stated that Miss Swanna Lowdermilk is to teach at Why Not. This is a mistake. Miss Alma Lassiter has been elected teacher for Why Not school and Miss Lowdermilk for Cox school.

The Seagrave Hardware Company, wholesale and retail hardware, is the latest industry for Seagrave. $4,000 of the authorized capital has been subscribed by Messrs. C. M. Tysor, E. B. Leach, W. L. Trogden, Frank Auman, T. F. Cole, and D. A. Cernellson.

TRINITY ROUTE 1 ITEMS.

Chief of Police Steed arrested Wesley Brower Monday afternoon for selling intoxicating drinks and he was arraigned before Squire Ridge Tuesday morning. The hearing was postponed until Friday morning when the defendant will appear before S. E. Lowdermilk for trial.

The family affairs of Giles Cranford and wife and Nerva Cranford were aired in justice court Monday following their disagreement Sunday morning. Judgment of the court was that the two families separate by one of them moving into another part of town, ten days being given for this separation to be effected.

The Shaw-Cox Motor Company, with $5,000 of its $20,000 capital paid in, is to engage in business in Lexington. C. C. Shaw, Fred J. Cox, Hoke Harrison and C. F. Caudle subscribing the stock. Mr. Fred Cox is son of Mr. A. C. Cox of Grant Township, and is a successful and popular young man who recently married Miss Mabel Stuart, of Why Not.

The miniature farm house exhibited by the Home Building and Material Company at the Sandhill fair at Pinehurst will be on exhibit at the State Fair this week. This exhibit goes along with a number of others which have been sent from Pinehurst to Raleigh.

Miss Malissie Spencer died at the home of W. S. Bulla near Carthage August 17, 1915, aged 65 years. In early girlhood she professed faith in Christ and joined the Methodist Protestant church at Pleasant Hill, south of Asheboro, where she has always held her membership. Miss Spencer moved near Carthage with Mr. and Mrs. Bulla some time ago and with them she made her home until her death.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Wriks were the guests of Mrs. Wriks' parents at Trinity Sunday.

Miss Julia A. Thorn is home from Cape Henry, Va., where she has been spending the summer.

Mr. A. C. Moton, freight clerk at the Southern depot, visited his family in Thomasville Sunday.

Miss Myrtle Asbury, a member of the Summerfield Graded School faculty, was home Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Jean Rush is at Troy attending the bedside of her father, Mr. Wade, who is very ill.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McCain were visitors in Troy Monday afternoon, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Frazier.

Mr. J. O. Walker, of Knoxville, Tenn., is the guest of his grandparents, Col. and Mrs. J. E. Walker.

A rock crusher has been purchased by the county board of road trustees and has been installed east of town.

Mr. J. M. Caveness attended the meeting of the stockholders of the Bank of Ramseur at Ramseur Tuesday.

Miss Virginia Jernigan passed through Asheboro Thursday en route to her home in Ellettsville from Salisbury, where she had been under treatment at the Stokes-Whitehead Sanatorium.

Mesdames Boggs and T. C. Ward, of Greensboro, passed through Asheboro Monday en route to Troy to be with their father, Mr. Wade, who is very sick.

Mrs. A. C. Cox returned to her home on Asheboro Star Route Friday from a visit to her son, Mr. F. J. Cox, at Lexington. Mrs. Cox visited also in High Point and attended the Greensboro fair while away.

The Southern work train, with a force of men, has been busy for the past week laying heavy rail around the loop at Randieman. Considerable more work is to be done on the road between Asheboro and High Point before the force leaves this branch of the road.

Harold, the young son of Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Moore, was painfully injured Friday in trying to crank Dr. Moore's car which had stalled in the mud while Dr. Moore and his family were en route to the Greensboro Fair. Either the crank slipped off or kicked and the boy was struck on the side of the head and was rendered unconscious a number of hours. His condition is much improved at this time.

The literary societies of the Asheboro graded school have been organized for the year. The girls' society, known as the Cornelian Literary Society, elected officers as follows: President, Miss Grace Presnell; secretary, Miss Florence York. This society has a membership of 56 and holds its meetings every Friday afternoon after recess. The young men have organized the Cravenian Literary Society and will hold their meetings every Friday afternoon at 2:30. Ransom Wiles is president, June Frazier vice-president, Rush Lassiter secretary, Arthur Birkhead treasurer, and Dwight Richardson marshal.

LIBERTY NEWS.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Moffett, of Ramseur, were here Monday, the guests of Mrs. Moffett's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Patterson.

Tom Robertson, of Washington, D. C., was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Reiford the first of the week.

Mrs. W. H. Hardie, of Jalias, was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Cameron, for the week-end.

Quite a number of people from here attended the burial of Miss Pieta Parks at Parks K Roads Monday.

Miss Effie Lawson, who has been quite ill for several days, is unimproved at this writing.

The little 18-months old daughter (Annie Lou) of Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Boggs, of Greensboro, was buried here last Sunday afternoon at two o'clock. Mr. Boggs is a son of Mr. Sam Boggs of this place. Mrs. Boggs is a daughter of O. T. Hatch. Quite a number of relatives and friends of Greensboro attended the burial. Most beautiful were the many floral designs.

Hugh Reitzel left Monday for Richmond.

Fred Fennison was a visitor in Discoo Sunday.

Misses Emily Reese, Henrietta Moye and Otis Brower, with Ivy Critcher, were in Greensboro last Friday evening taking in the fire works at the Fair.

Armp Brower, of Greensboro, was here Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Nellie Flemming, of Greensboro, was a welcome visitor in town Sunday.

On account of the serious illness of a member of the Courier force the paper this week has been unavoidably delayed.

Announcement! We Announce Our New Arrivals in Millinery : Long Coats : Coat Suits. FRIDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 22ND. AT Our New Quarters Morris Building. The Empire Store Morris Building Asheboro, N. C.

MRS. E. G. MORRIS ENTERTAINS RANDOLPH BOOK CLUB MEMBERS

The first meeting of the season of the Randolph Book Club was held at the home of Mrs. E. G. Morris, on Worth Street, Friday afternoon. Mrs. Henry Robins served punch on the porch. The guests were met by the hostess in the hall. The subject for study this season is "Our Own Country."

Mrs. J. V. Hunter read a paper on "Early Life in Colonial Days", and a paper on "St. Augustine, the Oldest City", was read by Mrs. Wm. C. Hammer. Both papers were very interesting and well prepared.

The current event was most interesting. The parlors and reception room were attractively decorated with fall flowers. The hostess, assisted by her daughter, Miss Margaret, and nieces, Misses Evelyn and Lucile Morris, served pink and white cream and cake. After this the hostess served each guest with pink and white mints from a dainty crocheted basket of her own make.

LIBERTY NEWS.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Moffett, of Ramseur, were here Monday, the guests of Mrs. Moffett's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Patterson.

Tom Robertson, of Washington, D. C., was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Reiford the first of the week.

Mrs. W. H. Hardie, of Jalias, was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Cameron, for the week-end.

Quite a number of people from here attended the burial of Miss Pieta Parks at Parks K Roads Monday.

Miss Effie Lawson, who has been quite ill for several days, is unimproved at this writing.

The little 18-months old daughter (Annie Lou) of Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Boggs, of Greensboro, was buried here last Sunday afternoon at two o'clock. Mr. Boggs is a son of Mr. Sam Boggs of this place. Mrs. Boggs is a daughter of O. T. Hatch. Quite a number of relatives and friends of Greensboro attended the burial. Most beautiful were the many floral designs.

Hugh Reitzel left Monday for Richmond.

Fred Fennison was a visitor in Discoo Sunday.

Misses Emily Reese, Henrietta Moye and Otis Brower, with Ivy Critcher, were in Greensboro last Friday evening taking in the fire works at the Fair.

Armp Brower, of Greensboro, was here Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Nellie Flemming, of Greensboro, was a welcome visitor in town Sunday.

On account of the serious illness of a member of the Courier force the paper this week has been unavoidably delayed.

BATTERIES! JUST RECEIVED---A barrel of Dry Batteries fresh from the factory; the kind you have been looking for. Register 30 to 35. Riverside Telephone Company Ramseur, N. C.

Everything in Hats. Smart, snappy styles for street and dress wear. New line of plush and velvet shapes with fur and ostrich trimming. Attractive hats for Misses. Special line trimmed hats for Ladies at $1.50 and $2.00. Special line trimmed hats $3.00 and $4.00. Special floppy plush hat for Misses $2.00. Mrs. Millard H. Allred CASH STORE ASHEBORO, N. C.

RANDOLPH CHAPTER U. D. C. Hunter. Corresponding secretary—Miss Annie Asbury. Recording secretary—Mrs. W. A. Underwood. Treasurer—Mrs. J. D. Rosa. The home of Mrs. Phillips was very attractive, being decorated in autumn flowers. Fruit salad, wafers, sandwiches, olives and coffee were served by the two hostesses and the Misses Phillips. A pistol battle in which Sidney J. Cohen was killed and four others wounded broke up a meeting of the Democratic Executive Committee at Charleston, S. C., Friday in which the votes at the Tuesday's primary for the selection of a candidate for mayor of the city were being counted.