Alabama in organizing and protect deputy internal i ternal revenue law.

McCoy resisted the removal and insisted on a preliminary hearing as he had a right to, as Judge Boyd under the law sat as a committing magis-trate. Judge Boyd held that the certificate of the clerk of the district court at Fort Smith was insufficient. This meant that oral evidence showing probable cause of guilt was necessary. The prosecution threw up their hands introducing no evidence. Lawyers and laymen alike did not understand but no explanation was made. Some of the atterneys for the defendant talked learnedly of their wisdom, and how the Government had fallen down.

The matter was explained last week when J. L. Cusper and several others indicted with T. C. McCoy pleaded guilty at Fort Smith.

The Government had kept its councils, had failed to show its hand, had delayed the McCoy case, the defendants were overwhelmed with a mass of evidence they could not refute. The story is told briefly:

John L. Casper, of Kansas City, born and reared in Rowan county, but for most of life of Winston-Salem, N. C., who plended guilty in the Federal Fort Smith, Ark., Oct. 20, 1915, was sentenced Oct. 21 to nine for two years, fined $1,000.

S. L. Williams, of Winston-Salem N. C., former government revenue shipments of whiskey to the Rush Disagent, Charles Brewbaker, of Kansas tiling Co., and alleged fraudulent making of liquor to indicate that it C., and George Hartman, of Kansas had been inspected by Brown. City, formerly of Davie county and a son of C. A. Hartman, of Farmington, one year and one day in the peniten-tiary and fined $1,000 each. John Farabee, of Kansas City, and John Coffey, of Fort Smith, six menths in —a separate concern from the Brewjail and fined $100 each. C. M. Hawkins, of Winsten-Salem

N. C., and Ernest Stunner, col. of Salisbury, N. C., entered pleas of guilty of charge of conspiracy ago against gainst them alleged that they distilled fermented mash for grain used in making whiskey on September 15, 1914. Hawkins was sentenced to six months and fined $1,000. Sumner was given 30 days and a fine of $100.

The government officials estimated that as a result of the conspiracy the payment of at least $383,000 internal revenue was evaded.

Judge Frank A. Youmans in sentencign Comper said:

"I doubt if ever there has been a more bold, defiant and open violation money and men to bring this case to justice than has been required to protect the Texas frontier. Nothing tect the Texas frontier. Nothing can be said in mitigaton for you. With-out multiplying words I will pronounce sentence.

Casper pleaded guilty to all 33 counts in the indictment. The seatences passed by the court upon him totalled fifty-three years, five days, but by the court's order, some of them were ordered to run concurrently. Thus Casper's sentence was reduced to nine years and three days.

Casper is said to have much proper-ty in Winston-Salem in the name of hand as to McCoy.

Government officers did not have to ride into wooded hills inhabited by rough men of the "moonshine" type to uncover the "still," where t is alleged the illicit liquor was made. They found it standing boldly on one of Fort Smith's streets—a dilapidated old building, as innocent looking as some deserted Arkansas farm house. But inside, machinery modern to the minute, the government alleges, manufactured "Six Year Old Kentucky Bourbon," "Fine Old Private Stock,"

One day the government David A. Gates deputy internal revenue .cem sas, Georgia, North Carolina and Ten nessee, and picked up elews here and there, which finally resulted in the seizure of the distillery. Among the discoveries they made was that the plant was connected with a large sewer, with outlets so aranged that the contents of its eight ten-thousand gallon tubs could be discharged into the Arkansas river within a few minutes.

Six indictments in all, were handed dows, the first charging Casper, Guy L. Hartman, J. C. Brewbaker, William Brown and others defendants with in tent to defraud the United States of the tax imposed on distilled spirits and with having in their possession cancelled revenue stamps.

Casper in the second indictment is chasged with paying Booth a bribe of $1,000 in conection with the removal of 25,000 gallons of whiskey from the distillery without payment of the in-ternal revenue tax. This offense is alleged to have occurred when the place was still a legal distillery. The third inflictment charges Booth with accepting the bribes and also one of $500 frem Guy L. Hartman.

The fourth is a blanket bill charging conspiracy against the six revenue officers, the two Hartmans, Chas. Brewbaker and others. It describes years and three days in Leavenworth purchase of supplies alleged to have penitenthary and ordered to pay a been used in distilling, mentioning the names of many Fort Smith firms In addition to Casper the following as having sold the products. The City were sentenced: J. Henry Brown of of Fort Smith sold 2,000,000 gallons of Harrison, Ark., government gauger water to Gay L. Hartman, it is charged, for use in the plant. In this indictment, also, is specified the alleger

MOTHER! DON'T TAKE CHANCES IF CHILD'S TONGUE IS COATED

If cross, feverish, sick, bilious, clear little liver and bowels.

A laxistive teday saves a sick child tomorrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour.

Look at the tongue, Mother! If coated, or your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartly, full of cold or has sore throat or any other children's ailment, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," then don't worry because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation poison, sour bide and fermenting waste will a antiy move out of the bowels, and you 25. a well, playful child again. A thormove out of the bowela, and you the well, playful child ugain. A thorough "inside cleansing" is oftimes all that is necessary. It should be the first breatment given in any sickness. Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs." which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."
