

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mr. Chas. Cameros, of Denton spent Sunday at Mr. J. T. Wood's.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Cranford, Saturday, a son.

Mr. R. B. Burns and family, of High Point, were visitors in Asheboro Sunday.

Miss Elma Johnson, of Madison, visited her sister, Mrs. E. B. Wrike, Sunday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Holder, a daughter.

Messrs. Harris Birkhead, T. J. Lassiter and Walter Steed spent Sunday in Greensboro.

Mr. C. L. Pressnell left Monday for an extended business trip through the Northern states.

Mrs. Eakridge, of Cambria, Va., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Albert Parrish.

Mrs. C. R. Cates and son, Fred, are visiting Mrs. Cates' grandmother, Mrs. M. E. Frazier, at Randleman.

Misses Frances Hannak and Kate Nance left Monday for Glenola where they will teach this year.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Badget and Mrs. W. R. Badget spent last week with Mrs. J. T. Wood.

Miss Elizabeth Harry has returned to her home in Greensboro after a visit to Miss Edna Laughlin.

Miss Nellie Spoon, of Ramseur, was in Asheboro the first of the week the guest of friends.

Mr. E. B. Clark left Monday for Star where he has a contract for plastering the residence of Mr. Reuben Reynolds.

Mr. Lacy Black and Misses Mabel Spoon and Lizzie Parrish were visitors at Mr. M. W. Parrish's Sunday.

Miss Lizzie Phillips, who teaches at Worthville, spent the week end with home folks.

Miss Mizale Smith, of Ramseur, is the guest of Miss Lillie Parrish at her home on South Fayetteville St.

Mr. Chas. Hamlin, of High Point, was a visitor in Asheboro Monday.

Miss Nannie Lambert, of the State Normal College, spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Lambert.

Miss Lela Hagworth, who is a student at Elen College, spent Saturday and Sunday at home.

Miss Maude Hall left Monday to assume her duties as teacher of White Hall school.

Messrs. A. Z. Williams and Lazelie McLeod, of Ellerbe, visited friends in town Sunday.

The protracted meeting at Pingah closed Sunday evening. Several new members were added to the church.

Miss Lulia Pritchard, who teaches at Central Falls, spent the week end at home.

Dr. and Mrs. Claude Hayworth and little daughter, Golda, of Coleridge, were guests of Mr. Hayworth's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Hayworth, at their home on Old Main street the first of the week.

Mr. Wade Jones, who has been clerk at the Elwood Hotel, High Point, for several years, has accepted a position as clerk at the Yarrowhough, Raleigh. Mr. Jones was a week end visitor at his home in Asheboro.

Littleton College, which carried an advertisement in this paper during the summer, has had the largest opening it has had in several years.

The Rev. J. Molver Wicker, of Sanford, N. C., will preach next Sunday morning and night in the Presbyterian church here. A full attendance of the membership is desired.

Misses Kate Wainingham and Sudie Brown spent Saturday night and Sunday at Mr. E. D. Lowdermilk's near Seagrove.

Miss Gelyar Cox, of near Seagrove, is spending this week with Miss Kate Wainingham on Asheboro Star route.

Mr. Clifton Pressnell was in Asheboro Monday returning to his home at Farmer, after spending several days at East Bend, Yadkin county, visiting relatives and friends.

A combined Hallowe'en and box party was given at the school house at Archdale Wednesday night. Candy and ice cream were served from booths and about $25 was realized.

At the annual business meeting of the local fire company held Monday night W. A. Lovett was elected secretary and treasurer to succeed Dr. D. K. Lockhart who recently moved to Durham. Four new members were added to the company.

Eugene Morris, Jr., entertained the members of the Baraca class of the M. E. Sunday school Monday evening at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Morris. After the business meeting delicious refreshments were served by Misses Margaret Morris and Miss Susie Molver.

Mrs. J. C. Cogburn, of Chicago, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Cox.

Mrs. H. D. Stimson, of Washington, D. C., is visiting Mrs. Hal M. Worth.

Mr. Duke Robins, Mrs. John Anderson and Miss Guster, of Greensboro spent Sunday here with Mrs. Annie Robins.

Messrs. C. C. and T. G. McAlister, of Fayetteville, were here several days last week.

Mrs. J. D. Boss, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ross motored to Greensboro last Thursday for several hours shopping.

Messlames D. B. McCrary, T. H. Redding, J. E. Walker and Mr. D. B. McCrary spent Wednesday in Greensboro.

Mrs. Annie Robins left Thursday for Greensboro where she will visit relatives for several days.

Ex-Sheriff T. J. Finch, of Trinity, was in Asheboro on business Monday.

Misses Alice Phillips and Florence York spent the week-end with Miss York's parents near Central Falls.

Ex-Register of Deeds J. P. Boroughs of Kemp's Mills was in Asheboro Monday.

Mrs. F. M. Ward has returned to her home in Charlotte after an extended visit to her mother, Mrs. M. E. Frazer at Randleman.

Most of the public schools of the county opened last Monday and those which did not open then will begin next Monday.

The protracted meeting begins at the Friends' church Friday.

Messrs. C. L. and C. C. Cranford and families spent Saturday and Sunday in Greensboro.

Misses Elizabeth Winslow and Gertrude Miller were in Greensboro Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. A. B. Beasley, of Randleman, was a business visitor in Greensboro Friday.

Mr. G. W. Hayworth and a party of friends motored to Greensboro Friday morning.

Dr. H. W. McCain, of High Point, has been elected a member of the Guilford county board of health to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. J. A. Turner.

Capt. E. P. Tucker and family, of Spencer, spent Friday with his grandmother, Mrs. M. E. Frazier, at Meadow Brook, Randleman.

Odie D. Ingram has been selected to represent the High Point high school in the declamation contest at Trinity College Nov. 26.

Mr. Will Robbins went to Greensboro Monday taking with him his little daughter, Lucile, for an operation for throat trouble. The operation was successful and she is improving speedily.

Mr. Cone Ridge has opened an electrical shop over the postoffice. They handle all kinds of electrical supplies, and are prepared to do all kinds of work.

Last week county demonstrator Foust visited the farms in the Liberty and Julian section. He reports a fine corn crop in that section of the county. Mr. Foust is enthusiastic over the improvement of the farms and farming in this county. Randolph is one of the best agricultural counties in the State and is rapidly coming to the front.

The St. Cecilia Music Club met Tuesday afternoon in the graded school auditorium and rendered a most entertaining program. Each member of the club responded to the roll call with a current item relating to music. Solos, duets and a recitation were rendered by members of the club.

The Philathen Class of the M. E. church met with Misses Blanche and McCoy Birkhead Monday night and held a very pleasant business meeting. Refreshments were served after which games were played. Sixteen of the twenty members were present. Miss Nellie Spoon, of Ramseur, was present as visitor.

Randolph expects to do her full duty to remove adult illiteracy from the State. She is not making any big noise about the matter but the campaign against illiteracy is being organized and when the night schools are opened the chances are that Randolph will not be behind in the great movement.

Rev. Amos Gregson, of Spero, was in Asheboro Saturday attending the teachers' meeting. Mr. Gregson has the distinction of being Randolph county's pioneer in the moonlight school movement. Twenty-five years ago he had a successful school in Randleman.

Town Marshal Steele, of Liberty, was in Asheboro Monday night bringing with him W. C. Rowe, who was placed in the county jail. Rowe was arrested in Siler City Monday and taken before Squire R. C. Palmer at Liberty, Sunday night charged with disposing of mortgaged property. Failing to give the required $150 bond, he was placed in jail here. Rowe came to Liberty from New York about fifteen years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ammons, of Jackson Springs, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Shube W. Laughlin Sunday.

Mr. Edgar Woodell, of the Winston Journal, Winston, N. C., and family, were the guests of Mr. Woodell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Woodell, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Styers, of Asheboro, were visitors in Denton Sunday. They accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Riley Styers, of Richmond, Va., who are visiting friends and relatives in that community.

During the past month there was no expense to the county from the county jail. Only twice was the jail occupied, and then for in one instance for one night only, and in the other for two days. This is a good record for the county.

Mrs. E. T. Ammons, who has been the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Shube Laughlin, the past week, returned to her home at Jackson Springs Sunday.

Miss Lillie Fentress, of Sanford, who was a popular member of our graded school faculty last year, will spend the week-end here with Miss Lillie Parrish.

The Deep River Mills at Randleman are installing new looms in their weaves room recently built. This will mean employment for several more people.

Mr. C. G. Moore, who lives near Liberty Route 2, has an acre of alfalfa which he has cut four times. He sowed the alfalfa last fall but failing to get a stand plowed the ground and sowed the same acre over last spring. He has sown another acre this fall. He sows his alfalfa on comparatively fresh land.

A. W. McAlister, of Greensboro, spent Sunday here with his father, Col. A. C. McAlister, who has been confined to his home with pneumonia for several weeks. The many friends of Col. McAlister will be pleased to know that he is recovering.

County Superintendent T. Fletcher Bulla left yesterday on a visit to the schools of the county. He goes in the interest of the night schools which will be opened in the county next week. Those who have business to transact with Mr. Bulla should see him at his office on Monday or Saturday of the week as he will be absent the rest of the week visiting the schools of the county.

An attempt was made one night the first of the week to burn the Denton high school building. A quantity of dry trash was collected under the building and set on fire, the work of an incendiary. The fire was discovered by some students in passing the building late in the night and it was extinguished before any damage was done. The people of Denton are at a loss to know the motive for the attempt to destroy the building.

Miss Elbie Miller went to Salisbury Tuesday where she will observe the work of the graded school for ten days. Mrs. W. A. Underwood supplied in Miss Miller's absence. Miss Louella Lowe will go to Greensboro Friday and observe the work in the schools there. The primary and intermediate grade teachers will visit the leading school during this month to get in close touch with the methods and courses of study used by them.

The grading of the new road running to the western part of the county, and near the county home, to the Guilford county line at Archdale, via of Trinity, will be completed within the next few days, when surfacing will be begun. That part of the new gravel road leading from Asheboro to the Guilford line via Randleman, near Level Cross, has been completed, and is one of the best roads in the state. At Randleman the road will be extended along the old plank road with a few changes to the Guilford line at Archdale. Work will be begun on this road next week.

The Western Sentinel reports that Messrs. D. L. Bouldin and R. M. Pressnell made a good sale at Correll's in Winston Thursday, selling 1502 pounds of tobacco for $299.89, an average of about 20 cents a pound. The greater part of the tobacco was of the better grades. The Bouldin brothers have a fine farm at Trinity. They raise enough corn, wheat, etc., on their farms to supply their needs and have a surplus for sale. The tobacco crop is their chief money crop. They usually have about sixty acres in tobacco and each year get a good yield. Mr. Pressnell farms on Mr. D. L. Bouldin's tract.

HERMAN RIDDER DEAD

Herman Ridder, former treasurer of the Democratic national committee and publisher of the New York Staats Zeitung, died suddenly of kidney trouble at his home in New York Monday at the age of 65 years.

Mr. Ridder was one of the country's most conspicuous figures in the newspaper publishing business and its politics.

WANTED!
Red Cedar Logs!

Representing GEO. C. BROWN & CO., the big Cedar people, with a branch plant at Greensboro, N. C., we will pay CASH for all RED CEDAR LOGS, six inches and larger in diameter (at small end), and six feet and longer, in car-load lots, delivered on cars at any station in the following territory:

SOUTHERN RAILWAY COMPANY: High Point to Asheboro; and Climax to Ramseur.

BONLEE AND WESTERN: Bonlee to Bennett.

NORFOLK-SOUTHERN: Asheboro to Aberdeen, Star to Mt. Gilead, Star to Colon, Candor to Ellerbe, West End to Jackson Springs, Pinehurst to Carthage.

Their regular prices, delivered Greensboro, N. C., are as follows:

Diameter Inches	Length Feet	Price	Diameter Inches	Length Feet	Price	Diameter Inches	Length Feet	Price
6	6	11c	8	10	32c	11	8	58c
6	7	13c	9	6	28c	11	9	68c
6	8	16c	9	7	33c	11	10	78c
6	9	22c	9	8	38c	12	6	43c
6	10	24c	9	9	43c	13	7	53c
7	6	13c	9	10	48c	12	7	68c
7	7	18c	10	6	33c	12	9	78c
7	8	22c	10	7	38c	12	10	88c
7	9	26c	10	8	48c	13	6	48c
7	10	30c	10	9	53c	13	7	63c
8	6	18c	10	10	58c	13	8	78c
8	7	22c	11	6	38c	13	9	93c
8	8	26c	11	7	43c	13	10	$1.25
9	9	28c

SPECIAL OFFER FOR ABOVE TERRITORY.—At our solicitation, the Company has made a big concession to the people in this territory in the way of sharing the freight on the logs. Instead of charging back all the freight, they authorize us to deduct only TWO CENTS per log from above Greensboro prices to help pay the freight from any regular shipping point in the above named territory.

Any number of shippers may bunch their logs together to make a car at any station, and the Company will send an inspector to load and pay for same when we notify them that a car-load (about 300 logs) is ready.

WE WILL PAY CASH FOR EACH WAGON LOAD, AS DELIVERED, ON OUR SIDING AT ASHEBORO.

For further information, phone, write or see us at our office.
Asheboro Wheelbarrow Company
ASHEBORO, N. C.

Going to Buy a New Sewing Machine? Be Sure and See

The Free

For it will cost you less and give you better satisfaction than any other. Come in and see how easily its superiority can be proved. Watch the Roto-sello movement, the first to combine ease with swiftness. See THE FREE'S ball-bearing system. Eight sets of bearings, just four times the old fashioned number. Observe the rotary spool pin, the clever self-threading shuttle, the unbreakable needle, the belt that can't slip, the automatic tension release, the improved head latch and the many other marvelously simple and superior FREE features. Ask about the unlimited FREE guaranty. Always a pleasure to show you the FREE.

Payments Can Be $1.00 Weekly!

Come to our store and try THE FREE on your most difficult sewing, and you will be surprised at the perfect way in which it will accomplish the task. We are always happy to demonstrate THE FREE'S superiority to you.

D. A. CORNELISON, Agt.
SEAGROVE, N. C.

SPECIAL VOTE COUPON.

This coupon will entitle any contestant in the Automobile Contest of THE COURIER to

200 VOTES
For

Contestant.....
District.....
ADDRESS.....

VOID AFTER NOVEMBER 16.

Mr. J. W. Beason, a well known young man of Friendship, Guilford county, died Sunday morning at his home. He was 26 years old and survived by his father, four brothers and three sisters.

The machinery for the Davidson county creamery, located at Lexington is being installed.

A new directory of Charlotte estimates the population of the city at 50,240.

MARtha WASHINGTON
OLD-TIME HOME-MADE
Elice Sheets
Martha Washington
Candies

Factory, 505 Twelfth St. N. W.
Washington, D. C.

For Sale by
A. O. Ferree
Special Attention

Is Given to
TELEPHONE ORDERS.

Besides having a full line of heavy and fancy groceries, we have a supply of fresh fruit. Phone us your order. Don't forget to order Stone's Wrapped Cakes.

J. C. Hannah
The One Horse Grocer.

CABBAGE PLANTS FOR SALE—Early Jersey Wakefield, frost Proof, fine plants. All orders filled promptly. Postpaid anywhere, 100 16c; 1,000 $1.25.

MISS BETTYE B. SHAMBURGER,
Hills Store, N. C.