Miss Lizzie Smith has returned to her home in Ramseur after a visit to Miss Lillie Parrish on South Fayetteville street.

Mrs. Fred Taylor, of High Point, who has been the guest of her sisters, Mesdames C. L. and C. C. Cranford, returned to her home Tuesday.

Mr. C. C. Cranford went to Greensboro Tuesday to undergo an operation for abscess in the ear. He has been troubled with this for quite awhile.

The State Sunday School Convention meets in Salisbury November 22-25. A splendid program has been provided for the occasion.

Messrs. J. T. Lewallen, H. C. Richardson, W. C. Page, F. E. Byrd and Carl Richardson went to Whitney Sunday.

The public drinking fountain has been installed at the corner of Depot and Fayetteville streets in front of the Bank of Randolph.

Miss Jettie Nicholson died at her home at High Point Tuesday morning. She was a niece of Messrs. R. and Frank Cole, at Seagrove.

Mrs. W. A. Underwood went to Greensboro Monday returning in the afternoon. She accompanied Mr. Underwood who spent the week-end at home.

Miss Lillie Fentris, of Sanford, spent the week-end with Miss Lillie Parrish. Miss Fentris was a member of our graded school faculty last year.

Mr. Shuford Reynolds, who is a student at Pleasant Garden, passed through Asheboro Tuesday en route to Pleasant Garden from a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Reynolds, at Okeewee.

Mr. June Page, of Biscoe, and Miss Tommae Tomlinson, of Troy, passed through Asheboro Sunday en route to Roxboro where they will attend the marriage of Dr. Wallace Armstrong.

Mrs. Paisley Nelson who has been visiting her father, Dr. Asbury, returned to her home at Mebane Monday. She was accompanied by her sister, Miss Annie Asbury.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Coble, of Ramseur, are making preparations to make their future home in Greensboro. They will begin housekeeping on Broad Avenue, moving into their new home the latter part of the week.

Rev. J. H. Weaver, presiding elder of the Greensboro district, preached at the M. E. church Sunday evening. The quarterly conference for this charge was held Monday morning. Rev. Mr. Thompson and Mr. D. B. McCrary will attend the conference at Reidsville Wednesday.

An article in the Charlotte Observer Sunday, giving the story of the naming of the towns and cities in North Carolina among others the origin of the name Asheboro, Randleman, Ramseur and High Point. Asheboro was named for Samuel Ashe, Governor of North Carolina 1795-1798. Randleman was named for a prominent citizen. Ramseur owes its name to Gen. Stephen Ramseur.

Miss Corna Wall who has been visiting friends in town for the last two weeks left Tuesday for her home at Ellerbe.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Stout, Chalmers Stout and Mrs. Rosa Stout, of Siler City, spent Sunday at Mr. C. J. Clark's.

A highway robbery was attempted Thursday night near the city limits of Greensboro when Ernest Boyles was held up by two masked men. Nothing of value was found on the young man and he was advised to go his way and not to linger in the vicinity.

Thirteen were enrolled in the night school conducted by Mr. Bryan Parks at Cedar Falls Tuesday night. These schools are being organized in other sections of the county and the outlook is that Randolph will not be behind in the campaign to wipe out adult illiteracy in the State.

The Siler City Grit states that the survey of the road from Siler City to the Randolph county line was completed last week. The road is to be graded and graveled as soon as two other roads are completed out from Siler City. This will probably delay the work on the new road a few months.

Christi Lineberry, aged eighty years, died at the home of his brother, Capt. Lineberry, superintendent of the Soldiers' Home in Raleigh Thursday and was buried at Gray's Chapel Friday, Rev. Mr. J. B. O'Brian conducting the services. The deceased had been for many years a member of the M. E. church.

Springfield graded school, one mile south of High Point, celebrated Arbor day Friday. A beautiful tree was planted in front of the school building and dedicated by the whole school to the principal, Prof. E. E. Farlow. Prof. Farlow has four assistants this year, one of whom is Miss Mamie Ellis, of Millboro.

Dr. A. C. Bulla, of the State Board of Health, was in Asheboro Monday. Dr. Bulla is home on a vacation after having taken a special course in the treatment of the eye, ear, nose and throat in Philadelphia. He is preparing to conduct the examination of school children in those schools of the State that have made provision for this examination.

The boiler of Mr. Frank Lambert's saw mill on Black Mountain near Strieby burst Tuesday afternoon. Fortunately no one was hurt by the explosion. The force had just left the mill and Mr. Lambert was the only person in the vicinity, having left the boiler only a few minutes before the explosion.

According to figures compiled by special agent J. S. Ridge for Randolph county there were ginned in this county from the crop of 1915 prior to Nov. 1, 1915, one hundred and seventy one bales of cotton including round and half bales. For the year 1914 prior to Nov. 1, 1914, there were ginned 200 bales. The figures for this year show a decrease of 29 bales for the year.

A recent health bulletin has this to say of Dr. A. C. Bulla of this county: "On November 29, the medical inspection of schools starts in Northampton county. Dr. A. C. Bulla, of Asheboro, will be the physician in charge. Dr. Bulla has recently returned from Philadelphia where he took special training in the Philadelphia schools under Dr. Chas. S. Cornell. Probably medical school inspection has reached its highest efficiency thus far in this country in the Philadelphia schools."

Arbor day was fittingly celebrated at the Asheboro graded school Friday afternoon by appropriate exercises in the chapel. Explanation of Arbor day was given by Prof. Wharton and the Governor's proclamation was read by the president of the senior class, June Frazier. Miss Florence York of the 9th grade gave a recitation and Miss Lottie Newby of the 8th grade read an appropriate selection. It was planned to have the 7th, 8th and 9th grades each to plant a tree, but the trees did not arrive in time to be planted Friday and committees from each of the grades were appointed to plant the trees on Monday.

As a result of a drunken brawl at the negro church Sunday Ernest and Gurney Smitherman and John Siler are in jail and Dave Smitherman is out under bond to appear at the December term of court. When the officers attempted to arrest Ernest Smitherman for drunkenness at the negro church Sunday he resisted arrest and was joined in this by Dave and Gurney Smitherman and John Siler. As a result of this interference the officers arrested not only Ernest Smitherman but all those who attempted to delay his arrest. Gurney was tried Sunday afternoon, bound over to court and in default of bond was placed in jail. John Siler, Ernest and Dave Smitherman were tried Monday and bound over to court. Dave Smitherman gave bond.

Capt. H. H. Kennedy and a party of Asheboro and Trinity fox hunters gathered at the foot of Back Creek Mountain early Saturday morning to chase some foxes which had been set free in that section of the woods last July. Those who met with Capt. Kennedy for the race were: Messrs. J. C. Davis, Will Albertson, Chas. Kennedy, Thomas Farlow, Joe White, B. T. Hunt, Dr. J. D. Bulls, W. F. Redding, W. A. Coffin, L. C. Phillips, Sam Phillips, Walter Davis, Dr. Crutchfield, and Prof. C. R. Wharton. There were thirty dogs in the pack for the chase. At 5:45 in the morning the dogs struck the trail and after a run of a little over an hour the fox was caught near the Indian Mineral Springs.

AUMAN-HOLEBROOKS

Mr. A. C. Auman and Miss Sallie Holebrooks were married Nov. 6th at the home of the Rev. L. A. Pellers, of the First Reformed church, High Point, it being a surprise, only a few friends were present. ### THE SLOW CHILD

Every school has its slow child. Some teachers simply look upon such a pupil as one of earth's unfortunates, while some few go so far as to call the pupil a dunce and lay the blame on Providence.

Such children are unfortunate—to have untrained and unsympathetic teachers. They are likewise unfortunate in another sense, but not as the ignorant teacher thinks. Recent studies of backward children demonstrate the fact that such unfortunates have some physical defect as their misfortune.

The Causes

Bad eyesight, adenoids, diseased tonsils, bad teeth, enlarged glands, anaemia, malnutrition, one or more, may be the cause of the dullness.

Fortunately all such defects can be eliminated, if properly treated. Providence is not responsible—parents and teachers are.

BOOST YOUR OWN TOWN.

While others cannot talk enough about old Baltimore; Some sing the praise of Portland, Me., and some of Portland, Ore., You can spot the gay New Yorker and the breezy man from "Chi"

And we've met with those who told us: "See Los Angeles, then die." But do you sing the glories of your own home town at all? Remember you can talk about it, even if it's small.

We hear a lot of 'Frisco's charms from people of the West; We've been assured that of all cities Denver was the best; We knew a man who talked about Seattle by the hour,

And one who talked of naught but Minneapolis—and flour; Do we ever hear you boasting, though, about your port of call? Remember you can talk about it, even if it's small.

About Dixie's lovely cities we have heard ad nauseam: There are those who even Baraboo with no faint praise would damn; We'll remember all our lives a man who from St. Louis hailed,

And another who to talk of Philadelphia never failed; We hear a lot of Buffalo, of Pittsburgh, or St. Paul,

So why not try to boost your town, no matter if it's small?
