

The Courier.

Asheboro, N. C., November 18, 1915.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. A. C. Parsons, of Star, was a visitor here Monday.

Mr. Walter Stead spent Sunday with home folks in Greensboro.

Mrs. J. S. Ridge spent the week-end with relatives at High Point.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Brittain are in Norfolk, Va., this week.

Mr. W. H. Weinel, of Spencer, was a visitor in Asheboro Thursday.

Mr. R. L. Moffitt, of Coleridge, was in Asheboro on business Wednesday.

Mr. Roddy Swain and son, Liberty R. F. D., were on our streets last Friday.

Dr. F. A. Henly and son, Frank, of High Point, spent Sunday with home folks.

Attorneys Robert H. Dixon and Fred Paschal, of Siler City, were here on legal business Tuesday.

Miss Margaret Mungo, of High Point, is the guest of friends at Randleman.

Mr. C. C. Kime, who is confined to his home by a dislocated hip, is improving slowly.

Mr. C. E. Davis spent the week-end with his family who is at Jackson Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Moffitt visited in Winston-Salem the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Ross and Miss Esther Ross went to Greensboro Tuesday returning at night.

Mr. J. A. King, of Seagrove, killed a hawk last week that measured 26 inches from tip to tip.

Mr. Milton Hale, of Drowning Creek, was a business visitor in Asheboro Monday.

Mr. Sidney Robins has returned from Richmond, Va., where he has been for some time.

Miss Bruce Rhoads, of Harrisonburg, Va., is visiting her sister, Mrs. E. L. Moffitt, on Sunset Avenue.

Mrs. T. J. Lassiter and Miss Bilbro, of Greensboro, were visitors at Sheriff Birkhead's Saturday.

Mr. Walter Newby, of Farmer, visited his father, Mr. B. F. Newby, a few days last week.

Mr. At Saunders, one of Asheboro's best blacksmiths, has moved to Pinehurst.

Mr. Henry Luther who is connected with the Acme Hosiery Mill is visiting relatives at Winston-Salem.

Mr. Jamie Pickard, of Randleman, was a business visitor in Asheboro the latter part of last week.

Miss Maude Rush returned home Saturday from High Point where she has been the guest of her aunt.

Mr. Zell Brown and Miss Frankie Williams were visitors in Franklinville and Ramseur last Sunday.

Miss Nancy White, who has been visiting her uncle, Mr. E. J. Stead, at Ramseur, has returned to her home.

Misses Lucile Scarborough and Katherine Burns, of the State Normal College were at home Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Mary Lambe, a member of the Asheboro graded school faculty, spent the week-end at her home at Guilford College.

Mr. Walter Bunch is in Greensboro this week attending the M. P. conference, being a delegate from the M. P. church here.

Miss Mammie Elkin visited her mother at Franklinville last Saturday and Sunday. She was accompanied by Miss Lena Cole.

Miss Lula Pritchard, a teacher in the Central Falls school, was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Pritchard Sunday.

Misses Mattie Cagle and Virginia Wingham were the guests of Miss Cagle's parents, near Cedar Falls, last Saturday night and Sunday.

Mr. A. J. Craven and family, of Pleasant Garden, spent the week-end with Mrs. Craven's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Bonkemeyer, on Route 1.

The hunting season is open, but no person may hunt on the lands of another except by written permission of the owner of the land.

Prof. S. T. Lassiter, former superintendent of public instruction of Randolph county, is principal of the Uwharrie graded school in Montgomery county.

Mr. C. C. Cranford, who went to Greensboro Tuesday to undergo an operation for abscess in the ear, has returned. The operation was successful. Mr. Cranford is very much improved.

Mr. J. A. Brown and family have moved from Greensboro to Mr. Brown's farm near Ramseur. Mr. Brown moved from Ramseur to Greensboro about two years ago and had resided there up to the time of moving back to Ramseur about two weeks ago.

Mr. R. L. Morton, of Uwharrie, was in town on business yesterday.

Mr. Frank Henley, who has a position with the Hart Drug Co., High Point, was at home for Sunday.

Mrs. C. T. Luck was in Asheboro Saturday and Sunday on her way home from High Point.

On Thanksgiving refreshments will be sold for the benefit of the Children's Home, High Point, by the young ladies of the M. P. church.

Messrs. L. L. Whitaker and Carl Page went to Davidson county Saturday to spend Sunday with the former's parents.

Mrs. John Pritchard, Thomasville, was the guest of Mrs. Otis Rich the first of the week. While here Mrs. Pritchard will visit relatives in and around Asheboro.

Mr. J. B. Slack, of Seagrove, has sent The Courier some apple blossoms clipped from a tree on his farm. He sends also a cotton bloom from his cotton field.

Rev. Mrs. C. L. Whitaker left Monday afternoon for Greensboro where he goes to attend the annual conference of the M. P. church, which convened yesterday morning at 10 o'clock.

There will be a box party at White Hall school Friday night, the proceeds of which will be used for the benefit of the school. Everybody is cordially invited to attend and aid in the worthy cause.

A number of our young people attended "High Jinks" at the Greensboro opera house Tuesday evening. It is a very fascinating show and the persons who attended no doubt feel amply repaid for their trip up there.

The farmers of Randolph have sown a large wheat crop this year. The weather has been ideal and the farmers have taken advantage of it and have put in large crops. All available land is being prepared. Early wheat is looking fine.

The Denton Herald has this to say of Mr. P. L. Childress, formerly of this county: "Mr. P. L. Childress, of Denton, has a fine patch of corn, planted July 23. He states the frost hasn't hurt it the least bit. Who can beat that?"

Work on the Greensboro-Asheboro highway in Guilford county is being pushed rapidly to completion. The road is an important one and the authorities are anxious to see it completed before bad weather sets in.

Mr. Wm. Hooker has leased his restaurant on North Street to Mrs. Lydia Craven and has rented the Asheboro Cafe, formerly operated by J. M. Rich, and will continue the business at the same stand.

The condition of W. T. Albertson, of Trinity, who was seriously hurt last Wednesday when a team of mules ran away with him, is much improved. He has been in a serious condition for several days, but the chances seem favorable for his recovery.

Mr. G. H. Bean, who was injured in an automobile accident near Seagrove Tuesday of last week, and who has been under medical treatment at Seagrove, has recovered and has gone to Jackson Springs to take charge of his sawmill business there.

Mr. A. W. Cline, who has published the Davidsonian at Thomasville for the past year, has given up the paper to engage in insurance work. He will continue to live in Thomasville. His successor on the Davidsonian has not been announced.

The Home Building and Material Company has a few Beaver Board blackboards size 30" x 36" which they will give free while they last to the Sunday schools and night schools in this county. The number is limited and those who are interested should call early before the supply is exhausted.

On Wednesday of last week, Mr. S. E. Trogdon, a son of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Trogdon, of Greensboro, was injured by an explosion in a New York photographic studio in which he is employed. He had three ribs broken and suffered other injuries, though they are not considered serious. The explosion resulted in the death of one man and the injury of two others besides Mr. Trogdon.

A correspondent to the Wadesboro Messenger and Intelligencer has this to say about Rev. J. E. Woosley who was formerly pastor of the Methodist church at Asheboro, Randleman, and various churches along Deep River: "Rev. J. E. Woosley filled his last appointment here Sunday morning. We regret very much for Mr. Woosley to leave us, as he has been so faithful and done so much for this church and the whole circuit. The membership at this church has increased considerably and the whole membership of the church have become so much more enthusiastic during Mr. Woosley's four years with us. He has conducted prayer meetings here every Thursday night which has been a great help to the people and to the Sunday school, as he explained the Sunday school lessons at the prayer meeting services. He will be greatly missed."

Mrs. C. C. Pritchard, of Thomasville is the guest of Mrs. O. W. Rich.

Mr. Hampton Hammond, aged 22 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Hammond, died Saturday morning.

Mr. Charlie Parks, of Seagrove, and Miss Lula Horner, of Hemp, were married at Hemp one day last week.

Mrs. W. R. Julian, of Climax, is the guest of her husband, Mr. W. R. Julian, manager of the Randolph Supply Company.

Mrs. Fred Taylor, who has been the guest of her sisters, Mesdames C. L. and C. C. Cranford, has returned to her home in High Point.

The corn crop in this county is unusually good this year. The most of it has been gathered and the land sown in wheat.

Mrs. L. W. McFarland, of High Point, was the guest Sunday of her husband, Rev. L. W. McFarland, who is conducting the revival meeting at the Friends' church.

Mr. J. M. Bristow, of the Trinity section, moved his complete dairy outfit here Saturday and has opened a first class dairy on the John Pressnell farm in North Asheboro. Mr. Bristow has an excellent equipment and a number of fine cattle.

The lessons for use in the night schools are published each week in the Courier. This will enable those attending the night schools to use the Courier as a text book and it will be sent free to any student of the night school during the life of the school.

The Free sewing machine which will be awarded Tuesday, November 30th as district prizes were patented January 5th, 1910. The Free sewing machine is ball bearing in every bearing it has. It runs perfectly smooth and easy and is built so that it will never have any lost motion.

Mr. W. J. Lowe, of Kemps Mills, district manager for the St. Louis Lightning Rod Company advises the Courier that his company has inaugurated a contest by means of which it will equip ten churches with lightning rods free of charge. Information regarding the contest may be obtained from Mr. Lowe.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Arey, of Salisbury, visited in Denton Sunday. They brought with them Grandma Moss who is 88 years old, also her sister who is 75 years old. These old people are hale and hearty and can go about easily. They have raised large families but their husbands and most of their children are gone. Mr. Arey is a merchant and has built up a splendid business in his town.—Denton Herald.

JOSEPH H. PEELE COMING TO PROVIDENCE SCHOOL

Rev. J. H. Peele, of Guilford College, will give the "Courage of the Common Place" and "The Trail a Boy Travels" at Providence school house, Friday evening, November 19. The proceeds to be used for school purposes. Admission: adults 20 cents, children 10 cents. The public is cordially invited.

BOOKER WASHINGTON DEAD

Booker T. Washington, the noted negro educator and founder of Tuskegee Institute, died at his home at Tuskegee, Ala., early Sunday morning four hours after his arrival from New York. Death was due to hardening of the arteries following a nervous breakdown. He is survived by a widow and three children.

Washington was born in slavery near Hales Ford, Va., in 1857 or 1858. He worked his way through Hampton Institute at Hampton, Va., and later became an instructor in that school. In 1881 he organized Tuskegee Institute and remained principal of that school until his death. Washington has done much for his race.

HONOR ROLL NEW CENTER SCHOOL

High Honor Roll.
Seventh grade—Alfred Williamson.
Honor Roll.
First grade—Callie Albright, Conie Garner.
Second grade—Louella McNeill, Clyde McNeill.
Third grade—Frank McNeill, Robert Williamson.
Fifth grade—Viola Cox, Alma Cole, Clarice McNeill, Walter Williamson.

CONFERENCE AT REIDSVILLE.

The Western North Carolina Conference of the M. E. Church, South, convened at Reidsville yesterday. It is with one exception the largest ecclesiastical body to meet in the State. There are from 350 to 400 people in the meeting, representing the 100,000 Methodists residing in the western district.

MULES WANTED—I want to trade a good young horse for a pair of mules or will trade a Ford auto or the Harris Birkhead Perchon Colt for one or more mules.
E. G. MORRIS,
Asheboro, N. C.
The Ford Trader.

RAMSEUR NEWS LETTER

MR. CASWELL CRAVEN PASSES—POPULAR YOUNG COUPLE MARRIED—MUCH CORN RAISED.

Mr. W. H. Watkins, Jr., went to Greensboro Monday on business.

Mrs. Ellenbas, of Grand Rapids, is visiting her brother, Mr. S. Dykehouse.

Mr. Field Parks, of Greensboro, spent Sunday with parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Parks.

Mr. Thomas Vestal, of Jordan, N. C., spent Sunday night in town with friends, on his way to Archdale, where he is teaching.

Rev. T. E. White and Rev. T. J. Rogers are away this week attending their annual conferences. Mr. I. F. Craven also is attending the M. E. Conference at Reidsville.

Mr. Dewey Webster, of Elon College, has been spending several days at home.

Mrs. A. W. E. Capel, of Troy, spent the week with her sister, Mrs. W. H. Watkins.

Mr. V. C. Marley went to Greensboro Monday.

Miss Jeanette Phoenix, of Greensboro, came down Saturday to visit Mrs. D. A. Curtis. She was accompanied by her niece, little Miss Dorothy Phoenix. Miss Phoenix returned to the Normal College Monday where she is a student this session.

Mr. J. J. Phoenix, of Greensboro, came down Sunday to hunt a few days.

Mr. H. H. Kimrey, of Greensboro, spent Sunday in town with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Orlando Kennedy are receiving the congratulations of friends upon the arrival of a 12 pound son in their home last week.

Mr. J. O. Forrester, one of Randolph county's best and most up-to-date farmers, raised 920 bushels of corn. Our best farmers are raising more every year.

A good congregation heard Rev. T. J. Rogers Sunday morning and night. His two last sermons this conference year were among the best he has preached and all have been good. The people hope he will return to Ramseur and Franklinville charge next year.

Mr. Caswell Craven, a former resident of Ramseur, and who has for the past few years lived near Buffalo Ford, this county, died Monday morning of paralysis. He leaves a number of sons and daughters and many relatives and friends to mourn their loss. He was a good man and a useful citizen. We extend our sympathy to the bereaved ones. A more complete obituary will be written later.

A beautiful marriage was solemnized at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. West last Wednesday when their charming and popular daughter, Miss Olive West, was very happily united in marriage to Mr. F. P. Thompson. The ceremony was very impressively performed by Rev. Mr. Thompson, brother of the groom, assisted by Rev. T. J. Rogers, pastor of the bride.

WORTHVILLE AND RANDLEMAN ROUTE 2 NEWS

One day last week fire was discovered in the weaving room of the Riverside Mills. The fire was put out before any damage was done.—The mills are running on full time.

Miss Lou Spivey and mother left last week for Rockingham where they will visit relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Hornady, of Burlington, were the guests of Mr. W. T. Ingle last week.

Miss Ollie Millikan, of near Millboro, was a visitor in town Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Riva Strickland returned last week from Troy where she has been visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Foust spent part of last week in Greensboro visiting relatives.

Mrs. T. W. Millikan left last Thursday for Spartanburg, S. C., where she will spend some time visiting relatives.

Quite a large crowd went to the corn shucking at Mr. W. T. Ingle's last Wednesday night.

On last Thursday Mr. Nathan Sheffield caught a carp that weighed 13 pounds.

The same day Mr. John Laughlin caught one that weighed 11 pounds.

Saturday evening the Loyal Sons and Sunbeam classes of the Union Sunday school were delightfully entertained at the home of Mr. M. J. Harrell's. The most interesting part of the occasion being a candy pulling. The evening was very much enjoyed by all present. Those from out of town were: Misses Louna Lineberry, Alise Millikan and Lucile Swain, of Randleman; and Miss Ollie Millikan, of Millboro.

Mr. Carl Lineberry, of Randleman, was a visitor in town Sunday evening.

Don't forget the box party at White Hall on next Friday night,

BOYS' CLOTHES

MOTHERS AND BOYS: It will certainly be worth your time to glance over our Boys Clothes. We've scores of beautiful patterns; every suit style right up to the minute. Our prices very moderate; they cost no more than the ordinary kind. Why not buy the best when they cost no more?

Suits $1.50 up to $7.50

WOOD CASH CLOTHING CO.

Clothiers for Men and Boys

SPECIAL VOTE COUPON.

This coupon will entitle any contestant in the Automobile Contest of THE COURIER to

200 VOTES
For

Contestant.....
District.....
ADDRESS.....

VOID AFTER NOVEMBER 30.

The sweet notes of the wedding march were skillfully rendered by Miss Pauline Smith, the happy couple took their stand in front of a bank of autumn foliage where they pledged their troth. The groom is a rising young business man of Hamlet, N. C., while his bride is one of Ramseur's most estimable and popular young ladies.

NORMAL ALUMNAE BANQUET.

At the meeting of the Teachers' Assembly in Raleigh the Normal College Alumnae will have a banquet on Friday evening, November 26th. We wish to inform those Alumnae who will attend the Assembly that the banquet ticket will be $1.00, and that each one should reserve her place at the table by sending this amount to Miss Laura H. Coit at the College at once, so that the committee at Raleigh may be informed as to the number who will be in attendance.

Rev. A. G. Dixon, pastor of the North Main street M. P. church, High Point, has closed a most successful year's work of his seven years' pastorate of the church. The church has shown a considerable gain during his pastorate.

Let Us Help You

When you are in doubt as to what to serve next meal, phone us. We have helped decide more than one appetizing meal.

Phone us your wants and let us do the rest. Just arrived line of fresh fruits, nuts and candy.

Prompt attention to all orders.

J. C. Hannah
The One Horse Grocer.