

The Courier.

Asheboro, N. C., November 25, 1915.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mr. S. W. Presnell went to Richmond, Va., on business Monday.

Mr. H. C. Luther returned Friday on a visit to homefolks at Winston-Salem.

Rev. Joseph Peele, of Guilford College, preached at the Friends church today morning and night.

Messrs. W. J. Armfield and Garrett each spent Tuesday near Erect Hunt-

Little Miss Etta Reid Wood is spending Thanksgiving with her aunt, Mrs. J. R. Page, at Aberdeen.

Walter S. Davis, of New Market, township, was a business visitor here the first of the week.

Mr. C. C. Cranford returned Saturday from a business trip to Georgia.

Mr. J. P. Boroughs, of Kemps Mills, was here Sunday.

Messrs. Wayne Miller and Ollie Jewell, of Guilford College, are at home for Thanksgiving.

Mr. Z. T. Byrd is remodeling his residence in South Asheboro.

Mrs. M. H. Moffitt, of Moffitt, was in Asheboro Tuesday, the guest of relatives.

Mr. E. E. Pugh was a business visitor in High Point Monday.

Miss Cleo Reynolds, of Okcewene, spent Friday and Saturday in Asheboro, the guest of Mrs. J. C. Hannah.

Mrs. Shube W. Laughlin has returned from a visit to relatives at Thomsville.

Owing to the sickness of one of The Courier's linotype operators and the disability of the other on account of bad eyesight, this week's issue of The Courier has been unavoidably delayed.

Rev. J. E. Thompson will be in his pulpit at the M. E. church next Sunday. There will be a Thanksgiving service and a collection will be taken for the Children's Home.

Mr. Lucian I. Moore, who recently went to Greensboro from Chatham county, and Miss Johnnie White were married Sunday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents in Greensboro.

The Randleman council of the Jr. O. U. A. M., and the Daughters of Liberty presented a United States flag and a Bible to the public school at Level Cross Saturday afternoon with appropriate exercises.

The many friends of Col. McAlister will rejoice to know that he is improving slowly after a six weeks illness with pneumonia, though he is still quite sick.

Mrs. Cary Lovett, who has been the guest of Mrs. M. L. Lovett, several weeks, left Tuesday for Pittsburg, Pa., where she joins her husband, Mr. Lovett.

The Asheboro Presbyterian church is soon to be supplied by Rev. J. M. Wicker, of Sanford. The Presbyterians have issued a call to Mr. Wicker, and it is understood that he will accept.

Mrs. Elizabeth Davis and daughter, Mrs. J. B. Whitehead, Randleman R. 1, spent Tuesday with her daughter, Mrs. Will Skeen.

Messrs. M. C. Auman and Hobart Cagle, of Why Not, attended the Sunday School Convention at Salisbury the first of the week.

Mrs. N. F. Slack, who has been the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Slack, at Why Not has returned to her home at Exmore, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Hancock, of Seagrave Route 1, are the guests of relatives in High Point this week.

Mr. Junius R. Page, Jr., of Aberdeen, and Miss Nena Barbee Jones, of Germantown, Md., were married Monday. After a wedding tour to New York they will return to Aberdeen to make their home.

Ira L. Kennedy celebrated his 15th birthday at the home of his grandmother at Progress Sunday. Young Mr. Kennedy tips the scales at 183 pounds.

The surfacing of the road to the Guilford county line by way of Randleman and Level Cross has been completed. Work was begun Monday on the surfacing of two sections of the plank road by way of Brown's X Road to the Guilford county line at Aldale.

J. S. Holmes, our State Forester, will be in Asheboro Friday night and will give a lecture in the grade school auditorium, using the Government Stereopticon Views showing forestry all over the United States. There will be no admission fee and everybody is invited to attend and take advantage of this rare opportunity.

Mr. A. Macon, of Farmer, was one of 18 of a total of 47 to pass the examination of the Pharmacy Board at Raleigh Friday and Saturday. Mr. Macon has been a student at the Page school of pharmacy at Raleigh for several months. He expects to go to Paris, where he has a position, the first of the year.

Miss Nellie Spoon, of Ramseur, was a visitor in Asheboro Sunday.

Prof. C. E. Teague, of Sanford, was a visitor in Asheboro Sunday.

Mr. C. U. Hinshaw, of Vass, was in Asheboro on business Thursday.

Mr. C. D. McNeely, editor of the Waxhaw Enterprise and former local editor of The Courier, was in Asheboro the first of the week.

Miss Florence Hilliard, of Worthville, was the guest Saturday and Sunday of her brother, Mr. R. L. Hilliard.

Mr. W. L. Cox and Miss Dora Craven were married at Coleridge last Wednesday.

Rev. C. E. Stedman passed through Asheboro Tuesday en route to his home at Farmer from the M. E. Conference at Reidsville.

Mr. W. R. Julian was the guest of his family near Randleman Sunday.

Mrs. M. G. Lovett has returned to her home in West Asheboro after an extended visit to Mrs. Jake Welborn, at Archdale.

Mr. J. S. Holmes, State Forester, will lecture at Randleman Saturday night. No admission fee will be charged and the public is cordially invited.

The North Carolina Teachers' Assembly is in session at Raleigh. Several of the Asheboro graded school teachers are in attendance.

Mrs. W. K. Dickens and daughter, Miss Claudia, have returned home after spending several weeks at Candor with relatives.

Quite a number of our young people attended the play, "A Kentucky Belle," at Farmer Tuesday night.

Messrs. Kemp Alexander and C. C. Crutchfield were visitors in Greensboro Sunday.

Mrs. J. M. Prim, of Silver Hill township, Davidson county, celebrated her 84th birthday last Thursday.

Miss Beattie Laughlin left yesterday afternoon for Jackson Springs to visit her sister, Mrs. E. T. Ammons.

S. B. Marsh, agent for the Southern Express Company at Thomasville, committed suicide by drinking carbolic acid last Tuesday. His health is the only reason assigned for the act.

Mrs. Ezekiel Hill, widow of the late Ezekiel Hill, of Cedar Falls, died near Ellerbe last Friday. The remains were brought to Asheboro Saturday and taken to Giles' Chapel for burial.

The Young Ladies' Home Missionary Society of the M. P. church will serve Thanksgiving dinner from 4 to 10 p. m. today. The proceeds will go to the Orphan's Home at High Point.

Mr. M. A. Earp, who did some excellent work in building roads in Randleman township is now located at Denton and is helping in the construction of good roads in Davidson county.

Mrs. O. R. Cox returned home Tuesday from Greensboro where she had been called on account of the death of her brother, Mr. J. W. Whitely, who resided near Pleasant Garden.

Mr. Hugh Parks, of Franklinville, has purchased some fine young Black Angus cattle to stock his farm near Ramseur. Mr. Parks will be glad to have any one who desires to do so to come and look them over.

Mr. A. M. Moore is now editor of the Cape Fear News, a daily paper of Fayetteville, which was formerly The Index. Mr. Moore is a young lawyer from the Liberty section of this county and was formerly located at Durham.

Dr. A. C. Bulla, of the State Board of Health, passed through Asheboro today en route to Raleigh after a two week's visit to his parents near here. Dr. Bulla will leave soon for Northampton county to take charge of the medical examination of the school children in that county.

Hon. A. H. Eller, of Winston-Salem, formerly chairman of the Democratic State Executive Committee, will not enter the race for attorney general against Mr. Bickett as has been announced by a number of papers in the state. He has said nothing or done nothing to indicate that he will do so.

Rev. Lewis McFarland returned to High Point Saturday after conducting a very successful meeting at the Friends church. During the meeting there were 41 conversions and 26 joined the church. Rev. Mr. McFarland was called away earlier than expected on account of the illness of Mrs. McFarland.

Mr. W. L. Trogdon, of North Wilkesboro, was in Asheboro Monday. He has been visiting his mother, who is more than ninety years old, and who lives with her son, Mr. C. L. Trogdon, four miles from Cedar Falls, on the Grays Chapel road. Mr. Trogdon spent Monday night with his brother, Mr. Jack Trogdon, who lives near Seagrave.

The new M. P. church at Denton was burned Tuesday afternoon. Only the church organ and a few books and benches were saved. There had been no fire in the church since Sunday and the people of Denton are at a loss to know how the fire originated. The church, which was almost completed, at a cost of $3,000, was an elegant structure and a credit to the town.

Mr. Arthur Ross went to Carthage on business Tuesday.

Messrs. O. W. Rich and M. W. Parrish and families spent Thanksgiving at Mr. W. S. Crowson's.

The annual session of the Randolph branch of the Farmers' Co-operative and Educational Union will meet in annual session in the court house at Asheboro Dec. 4, at 11 a. m.

County Superintendent Bulla left Tuesday morning for Raleigh to attend a meeting of the State Association of County Superintendents.

Misses Linnie Shamburger and Adna Lamb, of the Farmer High School faculty, are attending the State Teachers' Assembly at Raleigh.

The play at Farmer Tuesday night was well attended. The receipts, which amounted to $23, will be used for the improvement of the stage.

The Chatham Record states that Messrs. J. O. and Elwood Bryan have a pecan orchard of 1,200 trees, near Haywood, in Chatham county, and that some of their pecans are so large that thirty-six weigh a pound.

Dr. J. F. Miller, who came to Asheboro the first of the year, has decided to locate permanently in Asheboro, and he requests us to announce that the rumors to the contrary are without foundation. We are glad to note that Dr. Miller will remain with us.

According to the Chatham Record there was no rain at Pittsboro from the 22nd day of last month until the night of the 12th of this month, and that the weather in the meantime was as delightful as anybody could have desired.

Mr. Wallace Knight, who lives about five miles south of Pittsboro, was severely hurt last Wednesday while cutting down a tree. The tree had lodged in the limbs of another tree and when Mr. Knight cut it loose from the stump the tree bounded back striking him in the stomach and rendering him unconscious for several hours.

Among the Farmer young people who are at home for Thanksgiving are Misses Kathryn Dornett, from Lexington; Dorothy Hubbard, from Worthville; Alma Lassiter, from Why Not; Cammie Nance, from Denton; and Maude Lassiter, from Guilford College.

Mr. W. M. Woodell, who had lived near Jessup, about 12 years, died last Thursday afternoon, aged 75 years, after a lingering illness of several months. He was a member of the Salem M. E. Church, this county, and was a good citizen. Surviving him are the widow, five children, Messrs. J. H. and C. M. Woodell, Misses Annie and Sis Woodell, and Mrs. Z. H. Lambert.

Miss Clarice Presnell is in Salisbury this week attending the State Sunday School convention as a delegate from the M. P. Sunday School. Other delegates from Randolph attending the State convention are Messrs. L. F. Ross, of Asheboro; A. M. Floyd, of Randleman; Hugh Parks, of Franklinville, and Miss Dora Redding, of Randleman Route 3.

Little Joseph Hoover, the three-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Mayfield Hoover, who live six miles east of High Point, was burned to death Tuesday morning of last week. The child's clothes caught fire while standing before the grate and it was fearfully burned before the flames were extinguished by the mother who rushed to its assistance after hearing the child's cries.

The Old Fort Sentinel, in a recent issue, says that many sturdy young men are being drawn out of that section of the State on promise of big wages in the new town of Hopewell, Va. North Carolina has need of her able-bodied sons and their leaving is to be regretted. Many young men leave the State every year neglecting good opportunities at home for those less promising elsewhere.

Mr. Walter Cox, a son of Riley Cox, who lives near Ulah, was run over and severely injured by a hand car on the Norfolk-Southern road near Ulah Monday afternoon. Mr. Cox was riding on the car which for some cause cause jumped the track throwing him beneath the wheels. He sustained a broken rib and internal injuries and was taken to Rex hospital, Raleigh, for treatment Tuesday.

The Danbury Reporter has this to say of Rev. O. P. Routh, formerly pastor of Gray's Chapel church, this county, but now pastor of the Danbury circuit: "Rev. O. P. Routh left Tuesday for Reidsville to attend the annual session of the Western North Carolina Conference. Mr. Routh has had a good year on the Danbury circuit and much good has been accomplished by his efforts. It is likely that he will be returned to this charge."

A small child of Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Trogdon, of Central Falls, died yesterday evening and was buried at Giles Chapel Thursday afternoon.

All correspondence to The Courier must be accompanied by the name of the writer. We were compelled to leave out some items from Liberty this week because the name of the writer did not accompany the correspondence.

A. E. Davis, of Salisbury, was here Tuesday on business.

Miss Leyler Free, of Ramseur, was the guest of Miss Lillie Richardson the first of the week.

Mr. W. P. Coppedge, superintendent of schools of Richmond county, was presented to the Hall of History, at Raleigh, a large photograph of the graves of the two children of Flora McDonald, who are buried in Richmond county, near McIntyre church. Two of Flora McDonald's children died of typhus fever while she was living in the southern part of Montgomery county, and were buried a short distance across the line in what is now Richmond county. The graves are in the woods and are marked by rough stones which have recently been knocked aside by lumber wagons. Arrangements are being made by Mr. A. W. McLean and other gentlemen to cover the graves with concrete and erect a marble shaft.

Mrs. E. M. James, Krupp, Washington, is visiting relatives in Randolph county. She has three bright little daughters with her. Mrs. James is the daughter of Wiley Presnell, Seagrave Route 2. Mrs. James married a Virginian. They were married 8 years ago and moved from Virginia to Washington seven years ago. They live in the Big Bend wheat country near the Columbia River. Their wheat crop amounted to six thousand bushels of wheat this year. Mrs. James voted with her husband in the last election and voted for Woodrow Wilson for President. She takes great interest in public affairs both in her native State and the State of adoption. While in Asheboro this week Mrs. James subscribed for The Courier.

Mr. M. H. Randolph, of the Mecklenburg county club at the State University, has compiled some interesting figures regarding the production of pork in the state. The average meat consumption for a year in the United States is 155 pounds per person as compared with the annual consumption in North Carolina of 125 pounds. The production of pork in the State in the census year averaged 93 pounds per person, or 32 pounds less than the consumption. Among the counties of the State Randolph stands twenty-fifth in the production of pork with 126.8 lbs. per person, a little more than the average consumption. Onslow county ranks first with a per capita production of 287.8 pounds. Moore ranks twenty-seventh, Davidson thirty-fourth, Alamance sixty-third, Chatham fifthteenth, and Montgomery eighty-ninth.

ASHEBORO R. 2 ITEMS.

Mr. Sam Low and sister, Miss Loula, spent the week-end at Denton with their sister, Mrs. Lonie Johnson.

Mr. George Hoover and son, Joe, made a trip to High Point last week.

Mr. A. N. Bulla, of Randleman, spent Sunday at the home of his father, Mr. J. C. Bulla.

Mr. A. N. Bulla killed a hog last last week weighing 400 lbs.

Mr. Charlie Spencer made a trip to Carthage last week.

Dr. Ches. Bulla spent last week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Bulla.

Mr. Ernest Kearns and family spent Sunday at Mr. Hal Kearns.

Miss Olive Johnson expects to spend the week-end with homefolks on Trinity, Route 1.

Mr. Irvin Arnold and Miss Ola Hoover were united in marriage last Sunday, Rev. Mr. Tillman performing the ceremony. We wish them many happy years together.

CARD OF THANKS

We take this method to extend to the good people of this community our sincere thanks for their kindness and sympathy shown our beloved father, J. W. Albertson, during his sickness and death. We pray that heaven's richest blessings may rest and abide with them all.

Mrs. J. W. Albertson and family.

Seventy-one Davidson county teachers attended the county teachers' meeting at Lexington Saturday. The report on night schools showed that four schools of this kind had been organized in Davidson county.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.
The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the signature of Dr. J. C. Hatcher

Palmolive--

The next time you buy toilet articles don't fail to look over the Palmolive line. An article for every use. "Palmolive" on toilet articles stands for perfection. You deserve the best--why not get it from

The Asheboro Drug Co.

"The Staff of Life"

Bread has been called the staff of life. It is. It is the staple article of food for every home; the chief article of diet on every table. Serve your family genuine Butter-Nut bread. See if they don't say it is the finest bread they ever ate. Phone HANNAH.

Skinner's Macaroni and Spaghetti Products—Highest quality—ask Hannah. Don't forget to include a Stone's Rich Fruit Cake in your order. J. C. HANNAH, The One Horse Grocer.

ACRES 550 ACRES

I will sell as a whole, or subdivide to suit purchaser, a tract of 550 acres of land, lying on both sides of the Norfolk and Southern railroad, and both sides of the Asheboro and Pine Hurst gravel road, seven miles south of Asheboro, N. C. The land lays well with some buildings, and improved farm land, and orchard side tract on place, also good church within the boundary. Any one wishing a bargain will communicate with

Seth W. Laughlin, Asheboro, N. C.

New Series Saxon Roadster

Two Passenger, 4 cylinder Saxon Roadster Fully Equipped, $395 f. o. b. Detroit

No other car selling for $400 has the modern features of the New Series Saxon Roadster. Economy is the Saxon Watchword. The light weight of the Saxon Roadster makes it the ideal car for winter use.

- ### Saxon Two-Passenger Specifications:
- MOTOR—15 h. p., L-head, four cylinder cast in bloc, with crank case integral, 2 1/2" bore, 4" stroke.
  - CARBURETOR—Special Mayer, with adjustments for air and gas on the dash.
  - FUEL—Gravity feed from 6-gallon gasoline tank, located under cowl.
  - IGNITION—Atwater-Kent.
  - OILING SYSTEM—Pump-circulating splash leading to main bearings.
  - COOLING—Thermo-siphon, cellular type radiator, fan.
  - VALVES—Nickel steel head with carbon steel stem. 1 3/16" diameter, 3/4" lift.
  - CAM SHAFT—Drop-forged special steel, diameter 1", cams integral, driven by helical gears, two bearings.
  - CRANK SHAFT—Special drop forged steel, two bearings; front 1 1/2" diameter x 2"; rear, 1 1/2" diameter x 3". Crank bearings, 1 1/2" diameter x 1 1/2".
  - CONNECTING RODS—Drop-forged steel, I-beam section, 8" centers.
  - CRANK SHAFT BEARINGS—Bronze babbitt-lined.
  - BODY—Streamline, two-passenger. Seat 16" deep, 40" wide, 30" from heel board to dash. 18" door.
  - COLOR—Body, Richelieu blue; running gear and bonnet, black.
  - CONTROL—Left-hand steer. Center control. Throttle control by foot accelerator and hand control on dash.
  - TRANSMISSION—3 Speed selective type, one reverse. Transmission mounted on rear axle. Hyatt roller bearings on main drive shaft of transmission.
  - DRIVE—Shaft drive, one universal joint, concentric torque tube.
  - CLUTCH—Dry plate, five plate, steel on rabostos.
  - STEERING GEAR—Bevel gear type, sector and pinion, 1 1/4" diameter steel tube post, 16" wheel. Drop-forged steering connections.
  - BRAKES—Two sets brakes on rear wheels. Service brake 8" diameter, lined with thermoid heat-proof material. Emergency brake, steel on steel, 7 1/16" diameter. Both brakes 1 1/2" face.
  - FRONT AXLE—Single-piece drop-forging, I-beam section, heat-treated. Ball bearings in hub.
  - REAR AXLE—Semi-floating. Pressed steel housing. Outer end of drive shaft carried on Hyatt roller bearing. Differential, Hyatt roller bearings.
  - SPRINGS—Cantilever type, front 22" long, 1 1/2" wide; rear 23" long, 1 1/2" wide; main leaf vanadium steel.
  - FRAXLE—Channel section pressed steel, 3" x 1 1/4" x 3/8".
  - TREAD—Standard or 60" optional.
  - WHEEL BASE—96".
  - TIRES—28" x 3" clincher.
  - WHEELS—28", wood, best grade hickory.
  - EQUIPMENT—Top, windshield, two gas head lights, oil tail light and two dash side lamps, gas generator and bulb horn. Electric strating and lighting system, with Exide battery furnished on new cars for $50 extra.
- See this car before you buy. Demonstration any time.
- THE HOME BUILDING & MATERIAL CO., Asheboro, N. C.

NECESSITIES FOR YOUR WINTER COMFORT.

COAT SUITS

Cut prices on our new stylish coat suits. Prices range from $4.50 to $12.50.

Come look over our line of new fall and winter goods, woolen serges, poplins and broadcloth. Ladies' and children's sweaters.

Just received a full line of ladies' and children's underwear.

See our winter stock of shoes. We can fit you. Nowhere can you find an assortment of better made shoes.

Come and Look Them Over.

R. C. JOHNSON

W. J. Miller Building Asheboro, N. C.

HONOR ROLL FOR FIRST MONTH OF PROVIDENCE SCHOOL

New York, N. Y.—For years Joseph Truds and his wife, Marie, wanted a baby. Finally, discouraged, Joseph deserted his wife. She adopted a child from an asylum and wrote Joseph that God had blessed her. He returned, and shortly afterward the child began to change color. A physician was called. The child was a negro.

Second Grade: Beulah Hicks.
Third Grade: Edward Cox, Ruth Hicks.
Fourth Grade: Albert Cox, Tom Pugh.
Sixth Grade: Ethel Cox, Louisa Cox.