

HOW YOU KNOW THAT FALL IS HERE

Have you seen the golden corn shocks in their soldierly array,
Touched with frost, and browning swiftly
'Neath the sun's November ray?
Genuine trademarks of autumn
On the hillside dry and bare,
They are Indian Summer's wigmans,
And they tell us fall is here.

Reddening apples, yellow meadows
You may see on every hand,
And the foliage scarlet-painted,
And the fresh-plowed fields and land,
But beware of such false tokens—
Not until the shocks appear
Do you know the spell of autumn—
Do you know that Fall is here.

Grim, yet with an air of welcome,
Pyramids of yellow sheaves,
Eloquent of ripened harvest,
None their message e'er deceives;
Camp ground of a phantom army,
Marshaled by the waning year,
Thus the corn-shock crowned hillside
Tell us that the Fall is here.

OHIO DEYS DOUBTFUL

Analysis of the returns from the recent "wet" and "dry" election in Ohio not proving as comforting to the "dry" as they anticipated at first. The total "wet" majority this year was 55,412. In 1914 it was 84,352. This year 1,025,313 votes were cast on the state wide prohibition issue, where as in 1914 the vote polled on prohibition was 1,093,506. This was a loss of 6.2 per cent. The total vote in 1914 was 1,153,609; showing that 60,114 voters did not express themselves on the sale of liquor, although they voted on other issues. This year, the vote shows plainly that the rural prohibitionists come up to vote more largely than the city liberals. There were no real prohibition gains. What really happened was that the prohibitionists lost less than the liberals. For instance, the anti-liberal vote in 1914 was 596,177, and in 1915 was 484,936, or a prohibition loss of 19,241, which is 3.2 per cent. of the prohibition vote this year. The liberal vote shrank from 588,329 in 1914 to 540,577, showing that the liberal loss was 47,752, or 8.1 per cent. From another angle, it is also shown that the cause of prohibition is not making progress in Ohio. In 1914 the "dry" had 46 per cent. of the vote cast on prohibition, while the liberals had 54 per cent. In 1915, the prohibitionists had 47.3 per cent. of the vote and the liberals had 52.7. Fifteen counties gave "wet" majorities this year as compared with 18 in 1914.

TRINITY NEWS

Mr. John Council, of Hickory, was the guest of Miss Nell Parkin yesterday.

Mrs. Blanche Boyles Carr of Greensboro, came down Saturday to visit her mother, Mrs. O. W. Carr, on Carr Circle.

Mrs. Nannie Craven is visiting Attorney Bruce Craven and wife on Main street.

Mrs. Bruce Craven, who was quite sick Saturday, is some better and we hope will be able to be up in a few days.

Rev. and Mrs. A. S. Raper, of Concord, spent a short time in Trinity on their way home from conference in Reidsville, the guests of Mesdames Ballance and Carpenter. Their many friends were delighted to see them again.

Mrs. W. F. Ellis returned Friday evening from Salisbury where she spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Fisher.

Mr. F. H. Wood, of Marion, was the guest of his mother and Mr. W. F. Ellis at Elmwood Court during Thanksgiving holidays.

Mrs. Kate Norment with her son, William, of Jamestown high school, spent Thanksgiving in Thomasville with relatives. They returned to Trinity Sunday afternoon.

Miss Vera Green, who spent Thanksgiving day with Miss Lucy Crowder, returned to Thomasville Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Anderson and family went to Mocksville for the week-end.

Messrs. Charlie Phillips and William Norment returned to Jamestown Monday morning.

The Trinity people feel that the Bishop was good to them in as much as he gave them Rev. J. N. Crowder as pastor and Dr. Weaver as presiding elder for another year. The Randolph circuit paid everything in full and are looking forward to a good year, spiritually and financially.

Thanksgiving day passed quietly as behooves a Christian people. A number of families had relatives and friends around their board to enjoy the good things of the season, after having been to the sanctuary to return thanks to a loving Father for the many blessings of the year. We regret to say that some of our men and boys went hunting or kept their places of business open. We long to see the time when "all the people of whatever race, calling or color will on Thanksgiving, Christmas and Easter, especially, leave everything else and "go up to the house of the Lord and praise and bless His holy name, unless providentially prevented, then, and not until then, can we be considered a truly religious people. Surely no man, woman or child who does not do that is suitable to hold a place of trust in church, Sunday school or Epworth leagues. "In all thy ways acknowledge me and I will direct thy path." And surely no one can fill any position of trust acceptably unless he does direct their paths.

DIRE DISTRESS

It is Near at Hand to Hundreds of Asheboro Readers.

Don't neglect an aching back. Backache is often the kidneys' cry for help.

Neglect hurrying to the kidneys' aid means that urinary troubles may follow.

Or danger of worse kidney trouble. Here's High Point testimony.

W. C. Herndon, 207 Willowbrook Ave., High Point, N. C., says: "I was bothered a great deal by my back. Often at night it ached and in the morning I could hardly get out of bed. Sharp pains darted through my kidneys. I also had bladder trouble and the kidney secretions were too frequent in passage, causing me annoyance, especially at night. I found Doan's Kidney Pills just the thing for the trouble. I got good results from the first. Doan's Kidney Pills never fail to relieve me of pain in the back and regulate the action of my kidneys. Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Herndon had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y."

SKIN, NOT HIDE

A country boy who had worked in the sun, had hands that were very much tanned and he told his sweetheart that his hide was so tanned that he was ashamed to come into her presence. She said: "Did I understand you to say hide?" And he said: "Yes, by Golly, hide." Then she said: "Never say 'hide' again. Say skin." And he said: "Well, you know I have never had the advantages that you have had but when I learn a thing I've got it! Next Sunday Jimmie came to church without having had the opportunity to practice the songs with the choir of which he was a member. Immediately upon his arrival the preacher announced: "We will now have a solo by Brother Jimmie Johnson and the solo was "Hide Me, Oh, My Saviour, Hide Me." Jimmie rose and proceeded to sing: "Skin Me, Oh, Saviour, Skin Me!"

PIKE-ALLRED

Saturday afternoon at three-thirty o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Pike, their daughter, Mary Ada, was married to J. Carl Allred by Rev. T. F. Andrews.

Preceding the bride party Mr. Jesse Pike and Miss Grace Allred entered the parlor. To the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march rendered by Miss Grace Allred, sister of the groom, the bride party entered the parlor. Miss Alpha Pike and C. W. Allred, Miss Velma Allred and Mr. Vernon Williams were followed by the bride and groom.

After the ceremony the wedding party retired to the strains of Lohengrin's march. After receiving many congratulations from the friends a sumptuous supper was served in the dining hall. The home was decorated with cut flowers and ferns. The color scheme being red and green in the dining hall and the parlor being yellow and green.

The out of town guests were Mrs. E. C. York, of Greensboro; and Miss Cora Allred, of Pleasant Garden.

The bride is an accomplished daughter of Mr. J. S. Pike near Staley, and the groom is a prosperous young farmer of Staley. Their many friends wish them much happiness.

IN FOND MEMORY OF MR. ALBERTSON

Mr. J. W. Albertson was born Jan. 29, 1865, and departed this life Nov. 18, 1915, age 52 years, 10 months and 20 days.

He was married to Josephine Burton about thirty years ago. Fourteen children blessed their union, two of whom have preceded him to the glory world. He leaves a widow, four sons, eight daughters and a host of friends to mourn his loss. Mr. Albertson lived just one week after his injury he suffered intensely but was patient and perfectly conscious that the end was near at hand. He told his family and friends that he could not live long, but he was ready to go.

Mr. Albertson is one man that the entire community will miss. The community is full of sorrow as well as the family, his being taken away so suddenly makes the cross heavier to bear.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. A. S. Raper, of Statesville, on Nov. 20, after which the remains were laid to rest in the cemetery at Pleasant Grove to await the resurrection morn.

A long concourse was present to pay the last tribute of respect. We extend our heart felt sympathy to the relatives, and especially to the sad wife and children. May they look to God, who doeth all things well.

IN MEMORY

Whereas the death angel has visited the home of our member and removed from our midst our dearly beloved brother and co-worker, J. W. Albertson, therefore, be it

Resolved, that Caraway Council No. 255 Jr. O. U. A. M. has lost one of its beloved and faithful members, be it further

Resolved, that the influence and ability which he experienced in aid of our order by services, contributions and the Council will be held in grateful remembrance that the sudden removal of such a life from among our midst leaves a vacancy and a shadow that will be deeply recognized by all the members of this order and will prove a serious loss to the community and public, and that while we bow in humble submission to Him who doeth all things well, yet we deplore the loss of our beloved brother, and will ever hold him in grateful remembrance.

Resolved, that we extend our sincere and heart felt sympathy to the bereaved family and commend them to our heavenly father for consolation; that these resolutions be published in The Asheboro Courier; that a copy be sent to the bereaved family; that they be spread upon the minute book of our order and the charter be draped in mourning for 30 days.

DEATH OF FRANKLIN ROGERS

Late in the afternoon on the 24th of October, Franklin Rogers, the 17-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Rogers, of Randleman, was struck by a moving train and fatally injured in Danville, Va. Though both legs were severed from his body and he was suffering internal injuries he did not lose consciousness until a few hours before his death. His mother, brothers and sisters were with him at the time of his death the next day. He was cheerful at times to the last and said that he was trusting in Jesus. The remains were brought to Randleman and interred in White Hall cemetery.

He joined the church when about fourteen years of age and was very punctual in his attendance of church services and Sunday school.
